

Proclamation

WHEREAS: The City of New Ulm is a progressive community with the potential to become a stronger industrial center in southern Minnesota; and

WHEREAS: New Ulm Industries, Inc., a volunteer economic development corporation, has played a vital role in attracting industries such as Kraft, Inc. to New Ulm; and

WHEREAS: New Ulm is the home of Associated Milk Producers, Inc., the largest butter making facility in the world; and

WHEREAS: National businesses including Borden, Inc., 3M, August Schell Brewing Company, Pantasote and many trucking firms have significant operations in New Ulm; and

WHEREAS: The New Ulm area takes pride in the public and private resources that serve the educational needs of our community; and

WHEREAS: The community has over 1,000 volunteers representing a host of organizations that assist the elderly, the underprivileged, the ailing, the handicapped and others in need; and

WHEREAS: New Ulm's volunteer spirit is marked not only by an unselfish giving of personal time, but also by monetary contributions towards such projects as the Family Recreation Center, the Glockenspiel, the Flandrau State Park Pool, the Lind House and the Wanda Gage home;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Rudy Perpich, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim

THE CITY OF NEW ULM

to be "Capital for a Day" on December 15, 1988.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this ninth day of December in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and eighty-eight and of the State the one hundred thirtieth.
