Proclamation

- WHEREAS: Children's Home Society of Minnesota was formed in 1889 as part of a nationwide movement to get orphaned children out of institutions and into loving families; and
- WHEREAS: Children's Home Society has built the largest, most comprehensive adoption program in the country, finding homes for children from Minnesota, the U.S., Korea, Hong Kong, India, Greece and Latin America; and
- WHEREAS: Children's Home Society instituted the first professional post-legal adoption department in the U.S., counseling adoptive parents, adopted persons, and birth parents; and
- WHEREAS: Children's Home Society operates the largest network of nonprofit child care centers in Minnesota, meeting the needs of diverse communities; and
- WHEREAS: Children's Home Society has a long history of advocacy for the needs and rights of children and has been a major contributor to many of the laws passed in Minnesota on behalf of children; and
- WHEREAS: Children's Home Society provides a continuum of care so that children can be served at different stages in their lives by programs that fit their needs; and
- WHEREAS: These services address the plight of those at risk — abused and neglected children, teen parents, children in foster care, adolescents in crisis, dysfunctional and disadvantaged families; and
- WHEREAS: In 100 years Children's Home Society of Minnesota has grown to become the largest child-focused agency in the state, with 13 programs serving nearly 30,000 people annually;
- NOW, THEREFORE, I, Rudy Perpich, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim Tuesday, January 31, 1989 to be in Minnesota.

CHILDREN'S HOME SOCIETY OF MINNESOTA DAY

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this thirteenth day of January in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and eighty-nine, and of the State the one hundred and thirtieth.
