

Proclamation

WHEREAS: Part of Minnesota's greatness lies in our commitment to caring for our fellow citizens in need; and

WHEREAS: The Minnesota Social Service Association, celebrating its 96th Annual Conference this year, has worked throughout its history to ensure that Minnesota is second to none in the quality of human services available in our State; and

WHEREAS: The Minnesota Social Service Association and its members serve with distinction the needs of families and children, of the disabled, of the elderly and infirm, of those in need of financial support and assistance in finding employment, and of those afflicted by mental illness, chemical dependency, or developmental disabilities; and

WHEREAS: Minnesota is rightfully proud of its innovative social service programs, in the PATHS employment and training program, in its national leadership in programs for developmentally disabled citizens, in health care, in chemical dependency treatment and other programs for families and children;

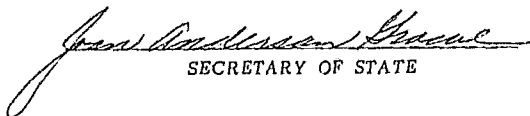

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Rudy Perpich, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim the second week of March to be in Minnesota.

MINNESOTA SOCIAL SERVICES WEEK

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this third day of March in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and eighty-nine and of the State the one hundred thirtieth.
