

Proclamation

WHEREAS: America's medical research enterprise has been and continues to be a world leader in promoting health and preventing disease and disability; and

WHEREAS: Medical research continuously contributes to the discovery of new knowledge that will lead to the improved health and well-being of Americans and of all humankind; and

WHEREAS: Medical research has fostered a productive and ongoing positive public and private sector partnership among government, academia, industry, and voluntary organizations in pursuit of research excellence and discovery; and

WHEREAS: Medical research has significantly contributed to bringing America's death rate to an all-time low and its life expectancy rates to all-time highs; and

WHEREAS: The many voluntary health agencies comprising the National Health Council have joined together nationally to raise awareness of the importance of medical research, and that much of the promising research takes place right here in the great State of Minnesota;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Rudy Perpich, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim May 11, 1989 to be in Minnesota.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this twenty-fifth day of April in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and eighty-nine, and of the State the one hundred thirtieth.
