

Proclamation

WHEREAS: Natalie Gallagher, Associate Professor and Assistant Dean for Student Academic Affairs, and Director of the Honors Program in the College of Home Economics at the University of Minnesota, is retiring after a long and distinguished service; and

WHEREAS: Natalie Gallagher has been named as one of the recipients of the John Tate Award for Undergraduate Academic Advising, initiated to call attention to the contributions advisors make in helping students formulate and achieve intellectual, career, and personal goals; and

WHEREAS: Natalie Gallagher has led the academic advising system in the College of Home Economics for over twenty years, and has proven her dedication, compassion, and concern for undergraduate students; and

WHEREAS: Natalie is known in the College of Home Economics for her knowledge of her field, her ability to be realistic yet encouraging with students, and her willingness to handle even the most difficult situation; and

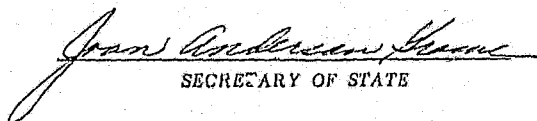

WHEREAS: It is fitting to set aside a day to honor this outstanding educator and citizen of our state;

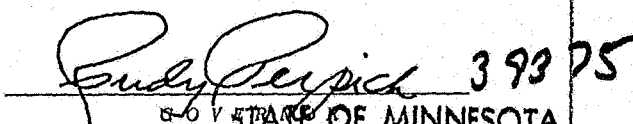

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Rudy Perpich, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim June 7, 1989 to be in Minnesota, and wish her a happy and fulfilling retirement.

NATALIE GALLAGHER DAY

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this twenty-fourth day of May in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and eighty-nine, and of the State the one hundred thirty-first.
