

Proclamation

WHEREAS: In the course of human existence coalescence of individuals formed communities for mutual protection and assistance; and

WHEREAS: From such communities, inevitably there arose a selected few who contributed unselfishly of their labors to improve and better the community in which they lived; and

WHEREAS: The services were performed voluntarily without the expectation of reward, unaccompanied by beat of the drum or blare of the trumpet; and

WHEREAS: It is fitting to recognize such a person for his persistent contribution and dedication to Hopkins which shall never be equaled;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Rudy Perpich, Governor of the State of Minnesota, knowing well the fabric of our state is strongly woven by the fruits of volunteer services, do hereby proclaim to be a chief weaver of the cloth that has formed the city of Hopkins into such a unique community.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this seventh day of July in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and eighty-nine, and of the State the one hundred thirty-first.
