

Proclamation

WHEREAS: Dunwoody Institute is celebrating its 75th anniversary this year; and

WHEREAS: Dunwoody Institute is a private, non-profit, endowed, two-year, post-secondary technical institute, open to all without regard to race, color, sex, age, or religious preference; and

WHEREAS: Major Industries form a strong partnership with Dunwoody, providing financial support, sharing their top executives as members of the Board of Trustees, and utilizing the school for specialized technical training and re-training for their employees; and

WHEREAS: Dunwoody's outstanding reputation is a direct result of its competitive, demanding and results-oriented curricula; and

WHEREAS: Dunwoody's mission focuses directly on providing skilled technicians for Minnesota industries; and

WHEREAS: Dunwoody graduates are in demand; they advance to positions of leadership and many become self-employed entrepreneurs; and

WHEREAS: Dunwoody Institute will be celebrating its 75th anniversary the week of July 17 with a number of events, culminating in an all-school alumni get-together at the Met Center on July 22;

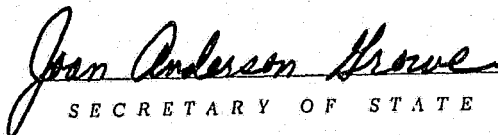

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Rudy Perpich, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim the week of July 17, 1989 to be in Minnesota.

DUNWOODY INSTITUTE WEEK

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this twenty-ninth day of June in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and eighty-nine, and of the State the one hundred thirty-first.
