

Proclamation

WHEREAS: The American Society for Industrial Security has designated the month of September 1989 to honor security professionals throughout the world and in our state of Minnesota; and

WHEREAS: Security practitioners are dedicated to protecting the assets, people, property and information of private industry, government and public institutions; and

WHEREAS: The efforts of these professionals have significantly reduced the losses caused by a wide range of crimes committed against banks, schools, hotels, hospitals, museums, retail outlets and countless other organizations that employ their services; and

WHEREAS: These same security professionals have demonstrated outstanding service in preventing or minimizing losses to the community from such natural or man-made disasters as fires, riots, strikes and other civil disorders;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Rudy Perpich, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim the month of September, 1989 to be in Minnesota, and call to the attention of all citizens the achievements and contributions of more than 25,000 security professionals who comprise the membership of the American society for industrial security so we may honor them.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this fourteenth day of August in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and eighty-nine, and of the State the one hundred thirty-first.
