

Proclamation

- WHEREAS: Carol Olson's dedication and love for children is the inspiration for her active and varied volunteer career; and
- WHEREAS: Carole's volunteer experience includes work for the United Way, the YWCA of St. Paul, the Voluntary Action Center, the Junior League of St. Paul, the Governor's Office of Volunteer Services, and more, but her primary focus for the past eight years has been her work for the Children's Home Society of Minnesota; and
- WHEREAS: Carole has been a Board member for the Children's Home Society since 1981, has given much time to serving on the Social Services Committee, and has shown her dedication and leadership as a fundraiser; and
- WHEREAS: While Carole has successfully chaired many events for the Children's Home Society, none can rival the success of the recent Barry Manilow Concert to Benefit Children at the Ordway Theatre; and
- WHEREAS: Through Carole's enthusiasm, perseverance and hard work as Chairwoman, this concert became the largest single fundraising event in the Children's Home Society's 100-year history; it raised more than $100,000 for two key programs at Children's Home Society — the Crisis Nurseries and Teen Pregnancy Prevention; and
- WHEREAS: Carole Olson deserves to be commended for her outstanding role in improving the lives of children in the State of Minnesota;
- NOW, THEREFORE, I, Rudy Perpich, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim Tuesday, October 17, 1989 to be
