

Proclamation

WHEREAS: Frank and Pat Hillmeyer were married on October 10, 1964; and

WHEREAS: During the years that followed they lovingly and successfully raised two sons, Patrick and Timothy; and

WHEREAS: Since their marriage, Frank has learned to live with Patsy's propensity for Politics, Parks and Properties, and has resigned himself to accept her habits of losing her keys, burning the roast and freely volunteering him for church, and family activities; and

WHEREAS: Since their marriage, Patsy has learned that Frank likes his steak "well done", what it's like to live in a house that is always being remodeled, and to accept the idea that the renters always get shoveled out first; and

WHEREAS: They have always given freely of their time and support to their families, friends, their church, and their community; and

WHEREAS: Together Frank and Patsy have spent twenty-five years learning to live with each other, laugh with each other, worship together and work side-by-side;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Rudy Perpich, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim Saturday, October 10, 1989 to be in Minnesota.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this sixth day of October in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and eighty-nine, and of the State the one hundred thirty-first.
