

Proclamation

- WHEREAS: The insurance industry in Minnesota is a significant employer of Minnesota residents, a taxpayer providing the state funds, and an exporter of insurance services to other parts of the country and the world; and
- WHEREAS: The insurance industry in Minnesota is a powerful and dynamic force affecting the economy of Minnesota and the nation; and
- WHEREAS: The insurance industry in Minnesota has provided a high degree of professionalism among its agents and insurance company personnel, through education and professional organizations, one of which is the Minnesota Chapter of Chartered Property and Casualty Underwriters; and
- WHEREAS: The insurance industry in Minnesota is a major factor in financing of residential properties and in fostering the growth of the free enterprise system; and
- WHEREAS: This is the 35th All Industry Day luncheon and conferment in the Minnesota Chapter of the Society of Chartered Property and Casualty Underwriters;
- NOW, THEREFORE, I, Rudy Perpich, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim November 2, 1989 to be in Minnesota. Further, I urge all citizens to recognize and understand the broad services provided by the insurance industry to our state.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this tenth day of October in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and eighty-nine, and of the State the one hundred thirty-first.
