

Proclamation

- WHEREAS: Olaf Kjome was awarded the Dairy Shrine Club's 41st "Guest of Honor Award", during ceremonies held in conjunction with the World Dairy Expo, October 4-8, in Madison, Wisconsin; and
- WHEREAS: This award, the Dairy Shrine Club's top honor, was awarded to Olaf Kjome for his outstanding career as a dairy judge and breeder, during which he consistently displayed integrity, fairness and honesty; and
- WHEREAS: Olaf Kjome, who is 86, judged more than 200 county and district dairy shows in the Midwest, and dozens of state and regional shows across the country, until his retirement from judging 10 years ago; and
- WHEREAS: Olaf's devotion and love of the dairy industry doesn't lessen his dedication to young people, and extends to helping young dairy exhibitors learn to groom and care for cows; and
- WHEREAS: Olaf and his wife Marie live in Spring Grove, Minnesota, and have five children, 11 grandchildren, and 18 great-grand children; and
- WHEREAS: It is fitting to set aside a day to honor this man who has contributed so much to the dairy industry in the State of Minnesota, and across the country;
- NOW, THEREFORE, I, Rudy Perpich, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim Friday, October 27, 1989 to be in Minnesota.

O L A F K J O M E D A Y

Jean Anderson Howe
SECRETARY OF STATE

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this seventeenth day of October in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and eighty-nine, and of the State the one hundred thirty-first.
