

Proclamation

- WHEREAS: Public employees make Minnesota the proud and shining Star of the North through their steadfast rendering of service in the counties, cities, towns, villages, and on the farms of this state; and
WHEREAS: Public employees conscientiously serve the people of Minnesota in a manner that maintains the state's widely known reputation for a high quality of life; and
WHEREAS: Public employees generously contribute willing hands, minds, skills, and talents to loyal public service, from the classroom teachers, who uphold Minnesota's educational standards, to the workers who serve unseen and unlauded; and
WHEREAS: Public employees diligently strive to improve service to the tax-paying public, and unselfishly give of their creativity and foresight to keep Minnesota's health care, recreation, government and economic structure progressively in step with the everyday needs of its citizens - on behalf of an appreciative citizenry;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Rudy Perpich, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim the week of October 9, 1989 to be in Minnesota.

PUBLIC EMPLOYEE RECOGNITION WEEK

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this twenty-eighth day of September in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and eighty-nine, and of the State the one hundred thirty-first.
