

Proclamation

WHEREAS: Water Quality Awareness Week is being sponsored by the Central States Water Pollution Control Association, an organization comprised of 1,278 members involved in the proper treatment and disposal of municipal and industrial wastewaters in Minnesota, Wisconsin, and Illinois; and

WHEREAS: Water Quality Awareness Week will focus attention on the role local wastewater treatment plants play in protecting our water resources; and

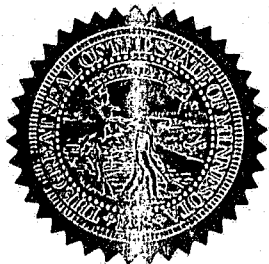

WHEREAS: Water Quality Awareness Week provides a time for the citizens of our state to learn more about Wastewater treatment plant and what staff at these facilities do to protect the valuable water resources of the state;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Rudy Perpich, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim October 22 through October 28, 1989 to be in Minnesota, and urge all citizens to gain a better understanding of the state's water pollution control facilities and how they operate and to recognize the efforts of the Central States Water Pollution Control Association.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this third day of October in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and eighty-nine, and of the State the one hundred thirty-first.
