

Proclamation

- WHEREAS: The Cities of Mankato and North Mankato are widely known for being progressive, and having a sphere of influence that extends far beyond the boundaries of Southern Minnesota; and
- WHEREAS: The Cities of Mankato and North Mankato are recognized as, and will continue to develop as a hub of commerce, education, religion, health care, government, recreation, and culture; and
- WHEREAS: The driving force behind the advantages and attractions listed above is the willingness of the people of the community to do whatever is possible to make their area the best place in which to live, work, and play; and
- WHEREAS: The ACT 2000 Strategic Planning Process, citizen involvement in making "Capital for a Day" a success, and the daily work of volunteer and service organizations too numerous to name, typifies the generous spirit of the Mankato/North Mankato community; and
- WHEREAS: The quality of volunteer efforts in Greater Mankato deserves praise as an example for all Minnesotans;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Rudy Perpich, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim

THE CITIES OF

to be "Capital for a Day" on December 13, 1989.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this fifth day of December in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and eighty-nine, and of the State the one hundred thirty-first.
