

Proclamation

WHEREAS: Don Glover has coached high school boys cross country teams in White Bear Lake since 1972; and

WHEREAS: Over the years, Don has successfully taken the White Bear Cross Country runners from Conference Championships through Regional Championships, and onto the State Cross Country meets held in St. Paul; and

WHEREAS: Don has created many good memories for his runners, such as the Marshfield and Princeton Invitationals, climbing Chimney Rock in White Water State Park, and dining at the Dover in his home town of St. Charles, Minnesota; and

WHEREAS: Don will continue to share his enthusiasm, energy, and talent with present and future cross country runners as he carries on in his reign as Head Coach of the White Bear Lake Boys Cross Country team; and

WHEREAS: Don has taught young runners the importance of performing as a team, how to share in winning, how to gracefully handle defeat, and most of all, how to be individuals; and

WHEREAS: Coach Glover will be remembered by his athletes not only for his lessons in sports, but also for his valuable lessons in life;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Rudy Perpich, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim Wednesday, November 15, 1989 to be in Minnesota.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this thirteenth day of November in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and eighty-nine, and of the State the one hundred thirty-first.
