

Proclamation

WHEREAS: Share Our Strength (SOS) is a national non-profit organization working through member restaurants to alleviate hunger in America and around the world; and

WHEREAS: Minnesota has taken a leadership role in the success of this effort, nationally ranking number one in last year's event for funds produced and for attendance; and

WHEREAS: The restaurant industry in Minnesota recognizes the plight and critical need of those not fortunate enough to have food on the table and a home for shelter; and

WHEREAS: "A Taste of the Nation" has established and continues an annual tradition to lead the effort to raise funds to assist in the improvement of the condition of the hungry and the homeless; and

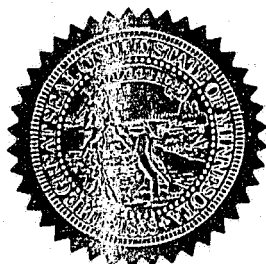

WHEREAS: The Minnesota Committee of "A Taste of the Nation" succeeds in bringing the leaders of the culinary community in the Twin Cities together to volunteer their time and donate their food specialties for the benefit event; and

WHEREAS: The Minnesota "A Taste of the Nation" benefit on Thursday, March 29, 1990 at International Market Square, rallies the general citizenry to provide funds directly to the Minnesota Food Bank Network and SOS, through their donation and attendance;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Rudy Perpich, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim Thursday, March 29, 1990 to be in Minnesota.

"TASTE OF THE NATION DAY"
