

Proclamation

WHEREAS: Quality improvement is the most important economic strategy available to any enterprise; and

WHEREAS: Minnesota's workforce has always positioned our state for economic gain; and

WHEREAS: The quality of Minnesota's workforce, products, and services will determine the long-term world competitiveness of our state; and

WHEREAS: The goal of the Minnesota Council for Quality is to help make the phrase "Produced in Minnesota" come to mean "Quality Second to None";

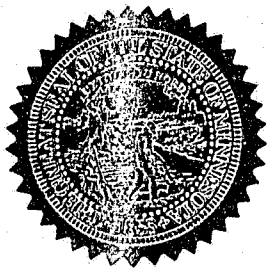

WHEREAS: The Minnesota Council for Quality has planned two major award programs for individuals and organizations which occur from October, 1989 through October, 1990; and

WHEREAS: These innovative awards programs have received national recognition for their credibility and meaningfulness;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Rudy Perpich, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim October, 1989 through October, 1990 to be in Minnesota, and urge all of our citizens, all of our businesses and other organizations to participate fully in these awards programs and other efforts to help the phrase "Produced in Minnesota" come to mean "Quality Second to None!"

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have herewith set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this thirtieth day of October in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and eighty-nine, and of the State the one hundred thirty-first.
