

Proclamation

- WHEREAS: The State of North Dakota and the State of South Dakota are celebrating the landmark year of their respective centennial celebrations; and
- WHEREAS: The residents of North Dakota, South Dakota and Minnesota share a common history of settling the plain states in North America; providing strong family values of hard work and dedication to their community; and
- WHEREAS: The settlers of our three states worked to create a tapestry of agricultural growth that continues today to provide the world with food commodities; and
- WHEREAS: These three states share common educational goals for future generations, as well as shared environmental concerns for their citizens; and
- WHEREAS: The Governors of North Dakota, South Dakota and Minnesota join together today to celebrate the history and traditions our three states have shared, and extend to all visitors to Minnesota's State Capitol today, greetings and friendship;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Rudy Perpich, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim December 9, 1989 to be in Minnesota, in recognition of the centennial year of both states.

NORTH DAKOTA - SOUTH DAKOTA DAY

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this ninth day of December in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and eighty-nine, and of the State the one hundred thirty-first.

Rudy Perpich
GOVERNOR

Jean Anderson Browne
SECRETARY OF STATE

STATE OF MINNESOTA
DEPARTMENT OF STATE
FILED

FEB. 13 1990

Jean Anderson Browne
Secretary of State