

Proclamation

WHEREAS: Dr. Kenneth Jennings has given 37 years of his life in service on the faculty of St. Olaf College; and

WHEREAS: Dr. Jennings has served as Music Director of the St. Olaf Choir for the past 22 years, setting the highest standards of artistry in choral singing; and

WHEREAS: Dr. Jennings and the St. Olaf Choir have served as goodwill ambassadors for the State of Minnesota with concert tours throughout North America, Europe and the Far East; and brought great honor to the citizens of Minnesota by being chosen to represent the United States as one of only five choirs from around the world invited to perform at the Seoul Olympic Arts Festival in Korea; and

WHEREAS: Dr. Jennings is recognized for his commitments and dedication as teacher and musician to the highest ideals of Christian liberal arts education;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Rudy Perpich, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim Saturday, February 17, 1990 to be in Minnesota.
