

Proclamation

WHEREAS: The 1990 IBM/Minnesota Twins Student Pennant Race Program will honor 1000 seventh grade students selected by their teachers for their achievements in important areas at school, such as attendance, conduct and community service; and

WHEREAS: These students will be notified of their selection for the program through a letter from Minnesota Twins player Al Newman, and will also receive a photograph of their name in lights on the Hubert H. Humphrey Metrodome scoreboard; and

WHEREAS: On the evening of May 9, the students and an adult guest of their choice will be treated to a pregame cookout at Augsburg College, followed by a Minnesota Twins baseball game against the Cleveland Indians, including baseball souvenirs; and

WHEREAS: These students have proven themselves to be hardworking and responsible young people, and through the Minnesota Twins' and IBM's interest in the educational well-being of our communities and of our children, they are able to enjoy an evening of baseball and fun in recognition of their accomplishments;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Rudy Perpich, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim May 9, 1990 to be

IBM / MINNESOTA TWINS
