

Proclamation

- WHEREAS: One of the most dramatic changes occurring in our state is the aging of our population; and
- WHEREAS: These increasing numbers of older Minnesotans bring enormous opportunities and challenges for all components of our society — families, businesses, government and volunteer groups; and
- WHEREAS: Every segment of our society will be influenced by the needs, resources, and expertise of our older citizens; and
- WHEREAS: The role that older Minnesotans play in the preservation and transmission of differing cultures is vital; and
- WHEREAS: Older Minnesotans play a pivotal role in formal and informal education, sharing years of accumulated experience and wisdom which will impact on our state's future...providing a vision for a new decade;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Rudy Perpich, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim the month of May, 1990 to be in Minnesota, and call upon all Minnesotans to recognize the importance of strengthening bonds between all ages to create a bright vision for the future.

OLDER AMERICANS MONTH
