

Proclamation

- WHEREAS: Senator Robert (Bob) Schmitz has served the State of Minnesota for 16 years as a distinguished and respected Minnesota State Senator for Senate District 36; and
- WHEREAS: Senator Schmitz, of Jordan, Minnesota, is a lifelong farmer and a former farm implement dealer; and
- WHEREAS: He is currently Chairman of the Senate Local and Urban Government Committee, and previously served as Chair of the Senate Veterans Affairs Committee; and
- WHEREAS: Senator Schmitz is known by his colleagues to be hard-working, competent and devoted, and will be sorely missed in the Minnesota State Senate; and
- WHEREAS: Senator Schmitz has represented the people of District 36 honestly, effectively and with much concern for their well-being for the past 16 years; and
- WHEREAS: Senator Schmitz and his wife Grace have one son and four daughters; and
- WHEREAS: It is fitting to set aside a day for this man who has made so many important contributions to the State of Minnesota as a farmer, a businessman, and a Minnesota State Senator; and
- WHEREAS: On April 23, 1990 Senator Schmitz celebrates his 69th birthday;
- NOW, THEREFORE, I, Rudy Perpich, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim Monday, April 23, 1990 to be in Minnesota, and wish him a happy and fulfilling retirement.

SENATOR ROBERT J. SCHMITZ DAY
