

DOUGLAS COUNTY

E. P. WRIGHT, Auditor

Alexandria . . . Minnesota

September 28th, 1906.

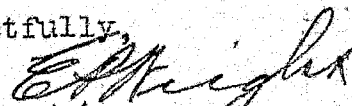

To Peter E. Hanson, Sect'y of State,
St. Paul, Minn.,

Dear Sir:-

Please take notice, that on the 24th day of September, 1906, by unanimous vote, the Village of Kensington, in Douglas County, became a separate election district, having separated from the township of Solem for all purposes.

Also, please take notice that the County of Douglas now has thirty-one (31) election precincts, and when supplies are sent for the general election, such number shall be taken into consideration.

Respectfully,

County Auditor.
