

STATE OF MINNESOTA
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT
ST. PAUL

PROCLAMATION.

Another year has passed with its seed time and its harvest. We have arrived again at the season of checking and balancing. In all walks of life we are taking stock of our circumstances for the purpose of improving our condition wherever possible, and of giving thanks for the many blessings which have been bestowed upon us.

As we review the events of the year now drawing to a close, we are reminded of a multitude of blessings. Our state has been visited with a plentiful harvest, which we have been permitted to gather. We have been free from pestilence, and no great catastrophe has overtaken us. Our nation is at peace with the world. Every month of the present year has witnessed some successful negotiation looking toward peace in some part of the world; in as much as we are now neighbors to the most remote country on the globe, all such negotiations materially affect us. It is significant that Thanksgiving Day comes during the same month as Armistice Day, which commemorates the cessation of hostilities in the late war.

Trusting that the people of Minnesota will approach the season of Thanksgiving with a sense of humility, and with thankfulness to Almighty God for the many blessings which we are permitted to enjoy, I, Theodore Christianson, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby designate

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 27, 1930

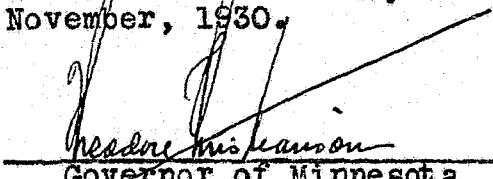

as

THANKSGIVING DAY.

I respectfully request that services appropriate to the occasion be conducted in houses of worship and in other places where people congregate on that day.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed this 15th day of November, 1930.

(GREAT SEAL)
