

STATE OF MINNESOTA
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT
ST. PAUL

A PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, by the enactment of Chapter 430, Laws 1929, the Legislature proposed an amendment to section 2 of Article 6 of the Constitution of the State for the approval or rejection of the electors of the State at the recent election held on the fourth day of November, 1930, for the declared purpose of providing two additional associate justices of the Supreme Court to replace the present Court Commissioners, the substance of which enactment is as follows:

Amend Section 2, Article 6 of the Constitution to read as follows:

"The supreme court shall consist of one chief justice and six associate justices. It shall have original jurisdiction in such remedial cases as may be prescribed by law, and appellate jurisdiction in all cases, both in law and equity, but there shall be no trial by jury in said court. It shall hold one or more terms in each year, as the legislature may direct, at the seat of government, and the legislature may provide, by a two-thirds vote, that one term in each year shall be held in each or any judicial district. It shall be the duty of such court to appoint a reporter of its decisions. There shall be chosen, by the qualified electors of the state, one clerk of the supreme court, who shall hold his office for the term of four years, and until his successor is duly elected and qualified; and the judges of the supreme court, or a majority of them, shall have the power to fill any vacancy in the office of clerk of the supreme court until an election can be regularly had."

AND WHEREAS it appears from the official canvass of the votes cast at the said election held on November 4, 1930, for and against the aforesaid proposed amendment,

made in conformity with the law that the majority of all electors voting at such election voted for its adoption:

NOW THEREFORE, I, Theodore Christianson, Governor of the State of Minnesota, by virtue of the authority vested in me and in compliance with law, do hereby publish and proclaim that the proposed amendment to section 2 of article 6, of the Constitution of the State of Minnesota,
has been ratified and adopted as prescribed by the constitution and laws of the State.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State to be affixed
this twentieth day of November, A.D. 1930.

Governor of Minnesota.
