SWEENEY CONTRACT
Fire and Marine Policy

The Secretary of State,
Building.

I regret that I have not been able to give earlier attention to your letter of the fifteenth instant in reference to the subject covered above. I have been in court almost constantly for the past week.

I have a communication from St. Paul Fire and Marine Insurance Company under date of January 15, acknowledging receipt of our letter of January 8, reciting in a general way the terms of the contract with Sweeney Detective Bureau, including an assignment pro tanto of their policy A947403, June 16, 1931, insuring against loss of property while in its possession or under its protection for the purpose of transportation and delivery. I quote from the letter received:

"We acknowledge receipt of your letter but by acknowledgment we do not alter in any way the terms of our insurance contract with the Sweeney Detective Bureau, Inc. beyond consenting to the State suing us direct strictly under the terms of the insurance contract as against the State suing Sweeney and Sweeney suing us.

"We call your attention to the fact that the terms of our policy do not include the safe conduct of the messenger, but does cover against the loss of moneys and other cash items in his possession."
