

STATE OF MINNESOTA
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT
ST. PAUL

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, The United States of America is in the gravest economic crisis in its history, and

WHEREAS, The social and economic order which has prevailed in the past is unable to cope with the emergency, and

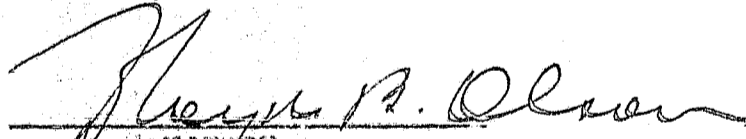

WHEREAS, Franklin D. Roosevelt, the President of the United States is desirous of and is seeking to bring about a new order consistent with the fundamental of our Constitution, and

WHEREAS, the Constitution of the United States and our form of government is subject to such interpretation and change as will create a new order, giving to each citizen a measure of economic security, and

WHEREAS, In the creation of that new order it is necessary for all citizens to act in unison, and to support the President of the United States in his endeavors,

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Floyd E. Olson, Governor of Minnesota do hereby earnestly request and urge every citizen of this state and of the United States to join with the President of the United States in his endeavor to bring about a new order, governmentally, socially, and economically, which will make for greater social and economic security for all the people of this country, and which will better enable them to attain that happiness recognized as their unalienable right in the Declaration of Independence.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State to be affixed this 3th day of March, 1933.
