Honorable Mike Holm,
Secretary of State,
St. Paul, Minnesota

Dear Sir:

I have the honor to inform you that I have been appointed by the Irish Free State Government as its Consul at Chicago with Consular functions in the Middle Western States, and exequatur has been duly issued to me from the United States State Department.

I would appreciate it if at your early convenience you would be good enough to convey this information to the various Probate Judges, County Judges and Public Administrators in your State, in order that I may be advised by them as occasion arises of any estates in which any of our nationals may have a beneficial interest.

Respectfully yours,

David M. O'Grath

Consul of the Irish Free State
