P R O C L A M A T I O N

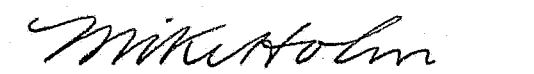

WHEREAS, it has been brought to my attention that plans have been initiated to set aside April 30, 1933, as a day when American citizens shall express their good will and respect to and for Franklin Delano Roosevelt,

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Floyd B. Olson, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim April 30, 1933, PRESIDENT'S DAY. Let us all in church, in schools, in homes and factory, in cities and on the farm, pause to pay homage to our President and pray that he may be blessed with continued good health and with an ever increasing zeal to improve the lot of the distressed.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF I have hereunto put my hand and caused the great seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the Capitol, in the City of St. Paul, this twentieth day of April, in the year of our Lord, One Thousand Nine Hundred Thirty-three.

Governor

ATTEST:

Secretary of State.
