My dear Mr. Hallenborg:

I have your letter of August 4 conveying to me the information that your government has honored you by transferring you to some European post to continue your foreign service, and that you expect to leave Minneapolis some time about the end of the present month.

In answering your letter I am torn between two conflicting emotions; on the one hand I feel that your going is a real loss to me because of the close personal friendship which has existed between us for several years. On the other hand, I assume that your appointment is in the nature of a promotion and therefore I rejoice with you in the fact that you have received this merited honor.

I trust that you will be happy in your new position, and I hope that I may have the pleasure of seeing you again while you are still here.

Sincerely yours,

SECRETARY OF STATE
