November 11, 1933 marks the fifteenth anniversary of the cessation of hostilities of the World War. This day, known as Armistice Day, has been designated a holiday in Minnesota, and this year, as previously, it will be observed as a great festival of peace.

Armistice Day is the first of our holidays marking historic events which is international in its aspect. Its observance should tend to bring about a movement for the promotion of international peace and disarmament. In many States the week preceding Armistice Day has been designated as Disarmament Week, and I urge the people of Minnesota to give special thought to this movement at this time.

In order that we may have a proper observance of this day, I, Floyd B. Olson, Governor of Minnesota, do hereby designate

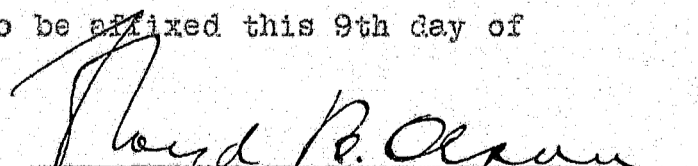

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 11, 1933

ARMISTICE DAY.

I urge that this day be observed throughout the State by appropriate exercises in commemoration of those who rendered service in the late war. Let public business be suspended, and private activities cease so far as practicable. Let the flag be displayed, and let a two minute period of silence be declared everywhere at the eleventh hour on the eleventh day of the eleventh month of the fifteenth year since the war ended, in memory of those who made the supreme sacrifice.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed this 9th day of November, 1933.
