We, John F. D. Meighen, Temporary Chairman and P. A. Burke, Temporary Secretary and A. C. Knudson, permanent ~~Secretary~~ ^{Chairman} and P. A. Burke, permanent Secretary, all duly elected at the Minnesota Democratic State Convention, held on the twenty first day of April, 1936 in the Auditorium in the city of St. Paul and State of Minnesota, do hereby join in withdrawing from your files and cancelling that certain certificate of nomination dated April 21st, 1936 and filed in your Department April 22, 1936, executed by us and having reference to Democratic presidential electors.

The reasons for this withdrawal are various. One is to avoid the expenses and trouble of litigation. Another is to avoid the confusion and practical difficulties of having two separate lists of electors both for Roosevelt and Garner.

Dated September 23rd, 1936.
