

STATE OF MINNESOTA
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT
SAINT PAUL

P R O C L A M A T I O N

WHEREAS, Minnesota is an outstanding state in the production of dairy products; and

WHEREAS, milk is nature's most perfect food for building and sustaining health and vitality;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Elmer A. Benson, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim the week of

NOVEMBER 14th to 20th, 1937

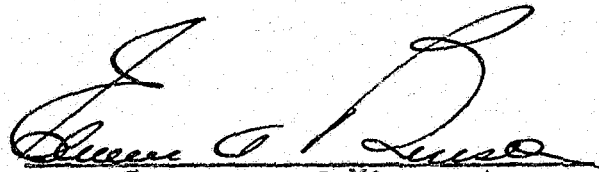

as

NATIONAL MILK WEEK

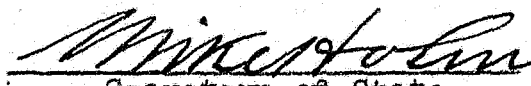

and call upon the people of Minnesota to recognize the importance of milk in the diet of growing children, as well as adults, in order to maintain vigor, health, and happiness in our Minnesota homes.

I urge and request that--through the cooperation of parents, teachers, and those interested in child welfare-- all children, and especially the under-privileged children, be given generously of milk during the observance of this week.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State to be affixed, at St. Paul, this 25th day of October, 1937.

Governor of Minnesota
