WHEREAS, the Board of Managers of the Minnesota Congress of Parents and Teachers have voted the month of October as membership and enrollment month for the State of Minnesota and,

WHEREAS, the education and training of our children forms a most important part of our national life and,

WHEREAS, in these trying times the parents of this country should intensify their interest in the educational opportunities offered their children with particular emphasis on citizenship training and,

WHEREAS, the maintenance of our American institutions depends in a large measure upon the education of our future citizens and,

WHEREAS, the Parent-Teachers Organizations of this nation provide an instrument through which the support of the people may be focused upon the educational program,

Now, THEREFORE, I, Harold G. Stinson, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim the month of the month in which special attention shall be given to mobilizing all
