WHEREAS, the welfare and happiness of all the people of the State of Minnesota are dependent upon the opportunity which the employable head of each family has to obtain gainful employment, it is imperative that all of us cooperate with the industrial, commercial, labor, civic, fraternal, and church groups, and the American Legion in a unified effort to find or create work opportunities for capable men and women, and

WHEREAS, there are forty are finding it increasingly difficult to obtain steady employment and this group includes heads of families, property owners, World War veterans, and large numbers of loyal citizens who have contributed greatly to the development of this State, and

WHEREAS, by virtue of their experience they have much to offer employers in competence and judgment, and

WHEREAS, it is my desire to aid in alleviating this deplorable condition, let all of us bring the unemployment problem more forcibly to the attention of all employers.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Harold E. Stassen, Governor of the State of Minnesota, in pursuance of this effort do hereby proclaim the week of
