PROCLAMATION

In a world prostrate with grief and strife, we, the people of Minnesota, come to Almighty God humbly to offer solemn and public thanksgiving for his bountiful blessings of food, raiment, shelter and countless things granted us for a full life in a peaceful, rich, and fertile land, and

No less do we pray for strength to help the many who are distressed by want and privation that we may share His favor with all men and bring hope and cheer to the disconsolate, and

With hearts filled with compassion for those stricken and in want, and with thanksgiving for that which we have, it is fitting a day be set aside when no business shall be transacted in any department of this State, a day when our homes shall be enriched by gatherings of loved ones,

NOW, THEREFORE, I, HAROLD E. STASSEN, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 20TH, 1941

AS

THANKSGIVING DAY

and I do most earnestly call upon the people of Minnesota on that day to meet at their usual places of worship and there tender thanks for the many blessings we
