NOW, THEREFORE, I, HAROLD E. STASSEN, GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF MINNESOTA, under and by virtue of the authority vested in me by the aforesaid Selective Training and Service Act of 1940, as amended, and the regulations promulgated thereunder by the President, do hereby call upon all local Selective Service boards and agents thereof, all officers and agents of the State of Minnesota and its political subdivisions, together with all other persons who have volunteered to act as registrars on April 27, 1942, to effectively and thoroughly do and perform all acts and services necessary to accomplish effective and complete registration on the aforesaid date. I do further call upon all local Selective Service boards and the agents thereof, together with such officers and agents of the State of Minnesota and its political subdivisions and voluntary registrars and assistants, if they can possibly do so, to effectively do and perform all acts and services necessary to accomplish effective registration on April 25 and 26, 1942, likewise, for those registrants who desire to register on these days, in addition to the official registration day of April 27, 1942, as proclaimed by the President of the United States.

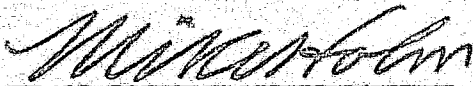

I do further ask that the flag be displayed on registration day on all public buildings and all private buildings and homes and that all public and private business institutions of the state give employees who are required to register, as well as those who are assisting in performing duties of registrars and related duties, the necessary time from their several tasks to fulfill the important obligations of registration incumbent upon them under the Selective Training and Service Act of 1940, as amended, the proclamation of the President of the United States and their duty as citizens of and residents of the United States of America.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol in St. Paul, Minnesota, this 20 day of April, A. D. 1942.

Governor
