

British Consulate,
Room W.1662,
First National Bank Building,
St. Paul, Minn.
May 4th. 1943

Dear Mr. Holm,

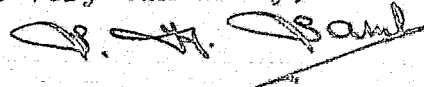

In my letter of March 27th. I mentioned that the offices of the British Consulate at St. Paul-Minneapolis were to be situated in Room W. 1662, First National Bank Building, St Paul. I would now confirm for your information, that the offices have moved to these new premises, the telephone number is Cedar 2551.

I might also mention, in case this information may be required some time or other, that my residential address is 1630, W. 26th Street, Minneapolis, telephone number Kenwood 2882.

I would avail myself of this opportunity to thank you for so kindly forwarding on to me the numerous notices of Probate Hearings where some British interest has been concerned.

With best regards,

Yours very sincerely,

L. H. Lamb

British Consul.

The Honorable Mike Holm,
Secretary of State,

British Consulate,
St. Paul and Minneapolis,
March 27th. 1943.

Dear Mr. Holm,

During my visit to you at the State Capitol the other day I mentioned that I was proposing to establish the offices of my Consulate in St. Paul. I have now chosen a site for these offices in Room W.1662 of the First National Bank Building at St. Paul. The premises are not, however, ready for immediate occupation, but I will in the interval be conducting public business, assisted by Mr. H. T. Griffith, in Room W.1766 of the same building, the telephone number being Garfield 5544, Extension 392.

Very sincerely yours,

(L. H. Lamb)

British Consul.

Honorable Mike Holm,
Secretary of State,
State of Minnesota,
St. Paul.
