

P R O C L A M A T I O N

FOR HUNDREDS OF YEARS, since before the first Thanksgiving of the Pilgrims at Plymouth in 1621 our homes and lands have been most bountifully blessed, and though

NOW Thanksgiving time finds us scourged by man's war, yet we are sustained and soothed by an unfaltering faith and trust in God,

NOW THEREFORE, I, EDWARD J. THYE, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim

Thursday, November 25, 1943,

THANKSGIVING DAY

in Minnesota that we may join again in religious service and prayers of thanksgiving, with our loved ones wherever they may be, for the strength and resolution of purpose and all other things He has endowed us with that we may preserve our heritage and maintain the dignity of man in the Glory of God.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol in St. Paul, this 22nd day of November, 1943.
