

STATE OF MINNESOTA

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT

A Proclamation of Brotherhood

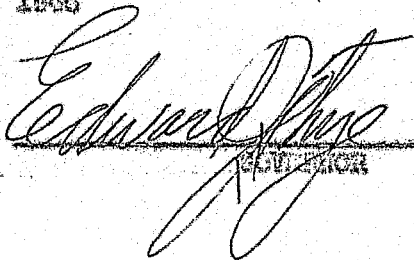

Belief in the dignity and mutual obligations of men is a fundamental basis of our democracy. We have confirmed that belief in united effort and great sacrifices which have brought victory against forces seeking to exploit racial and religious prejudice and thus destroy the essential freedoms of mankind.

Today, as we stand on the threshold of a new world of peace, we are determined that the teamwork which the dangers of war necessitated shall become the motivating force of our common effort to build strong our nation and to seek for all our people equality of opportunity, protection of civil rights, and respect for the individual without distinctions of race, creed, national origin, or economic status.

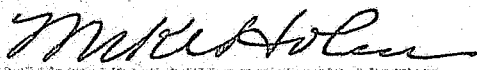

And we are resolved to join with men of goodwill everywhere in recognition of our reciprocal duties and responsibilities in the family of nations.

Therefore, in proclaiming the week of February 17 to 24, 1946, as Brotherhood Week in Minnesota, I urge all the people of the state to join with the National Conference of Christians and Jews in observance of this week, and to dedicate themselves earnestly and sincerely to the task of implementing the ideals of tolerance and understanding among all the people.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol in St. Paul this 28th day of January, 1946
