EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT

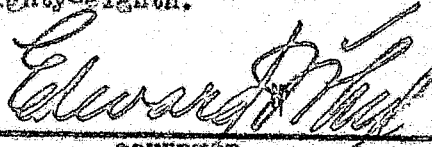

A Proclamation of Family Week

The end of World War II has brought into sharp focus many new and serious problems facing the nation, among them the obligations of the family and the home in building stronger our national life for the challenging years of peace. Certain trends, such as increases in divorces and in juvenile delinquency, have been noted as a threat to the stability of our country and the welfare of its future citizens.

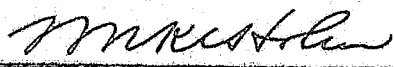

The family is recognized as the key to training of youth, to development of character, and to the building of a wholesome society. Our country has grown great because of the parts that the home, the church, the school and the community have contributed and there must be harmony and unity among them in the strengthening of family life.

As Governor, I call upon the citizens of Minnesota to observe the week of May 5 to May 12, which has been designated National Family Week, as a time for a proper evaluation of family life as the true foundation of the state.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol in St. Paul this 2nd day of May in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred forty-six and of the State the eighty-eighth.
