RE: Tribal Identification Cards

LEGISLATIVE REFERENCE LIBRARY
STATE OFFICE BUILDING
ST. PAUL, MN 55155

The Minnesota Legislature enacted legislation (Ch. 394) in 2002 to allow certain tribal identification cards (tribal IDs) to be used for the purpose of proving residence for election day voter registration purposes. The effective date of the law is August 1, 2002. A copy of the law is attached. The law has two important elements:

- 1) In order to be accepted for election day registration, the tribal ID must contain the name, street address, signature, and picture of the registrant.
- 2) The county auditor of each county having Indian reservation territory shall maintain a record of the number of election day registrations accepted under this format.

Only tribal band members that reside on an Indian reservation may use the qualified tribal ID for proof of residency. Tribal members not residing on the reservation may not use the ID for voter registration. Of the 11 Minnesota Indian tribes recognized by the Bureau of Indian Affairs, seven Indian tribes have IDs that comply with all four ID requirements. The table below lists which tribal ID cards may be accepted in each county.

Please bring this information to the attention of election judges during training and include a reminder in the polling place materials you distribute.

IV. County Comments

In an effort to provide your committee with more insight as to why some Counties with Tribal Territory reported zero for election day registrants, as well as additional insight into the low numbers that were reported by some counties since August 1, 2002, we have provided you with general comments from the Counties affected. This information is listed in section 5 of this report. The overriding comments were: Tribal Members used Minnesota Driver's License or had another voter vouch for them; the communities are so small that there aren't any new registrants; or the reservation property within their community is not residential.

COMPILATION OF TRACKING RESULTS

General Feedback Comments from Counties that forwarded Additional Insight

*We did not receive additional general comments from Roseau, Marshall, Pennington, Red Lake, Mahnomen, Hubbard, Aiken, St. Louis Carleton Counties

County	Tribal Reservation(s)	Election Day Registrants Utilizing Tribal IDs Since 8.1.02	General Comments Provided by Each County
Beltrami	Red Lake Reservation Leech Lake Reservation	17	3 ~ Little Rock Precinct, Red Lake Reservation; 3 ~ Redby, 4 ~ Ponemah, Red Lake Reservation; 7 ~ Ten Lake, Leech Reservation. On the Red Lake reservation, vouchers are the most common means of providing proof of election day registrants. I even went back and pulled cards to see if the judges just forgot to note it on the record sheet we had provided them. Also as I had noted before, most of the Red Lake Tribal members have not applied for or received their new tribal ID that meets the state standard. I was informed of this from the tribal secretary's office who would handle issuing the new ID's. Approximately ¼ of Ten Lake townships is Leech Lake Reservation, it has the largest Leech Lake member population. Eventhough Leech Lake Reservation is in other surrounding townships, the majority of the members live closer to the Cass Lake area and particularly in Ten Lake where there is tribal housing. Our other precincts within the Leech Lake Reservation were also provided this information and had none register using the tribal ID. It would have primarily affected Ten Lake. Becky Murphy

Cass	Leech Lake Reservation	11	4 - Cass Lake City; 5 - Township of Shingobee 1 - City of Walker 1 - Township of Turtle Lake Shari Fargen
ClearWater	Red Lake Band of Chippewa White Earth Reservation	NONE	That portion of Red Lake Reservation in Clearwater County is an unorganized territory where very few people live. Total registered voters in the Clearwater County portion of the Red Lake Reservation are 6, and there is perhaps no one else to register. The White Earth Reservation within Clearwater County is contained within two precincts. Many of these reservations residences have a long and faithful history of voting. I would suggest that there are very few of these residents who have not already registered. When new registrations were made, it may be that it was as easy to present their Minnesota Drivers License as Identification. Daniel Stenseng, County Auditor
Crow Wing	Mille Lacs Band of Ojibwe	NONE	Crow Wing only has one parcel of land that is tribal land. It is not a residential area, it is a ceremonial site used exclusively for powwows. Debby Erickson, Deputy Auditor
Goodhue	Prairie Island	NONE	Due to few registrations and driver's license being used instead. We did inform the two jurisdictions involved very early of the change allowing the Tribal ID, and included it in our judges training. Brad Johnson
Itasca	Leech Lake Reservation *Bois Forte Reservation	Unknown	They did not track Tribal ID's Elaine Locken; *Bois Forte Reservation only owns trust land in Itasca, no tribal citizens currently live there.

Koochiching	Red Lake Band of Chippewa Bois Forte Reservation	NONE	Very few voters in our county. Bob Peterson, County Auditor
Lake of the Woods	Red Lake Band of Chippewa	NONE	No residents of the Tribe are on this portion of the reservation. Darren Olson
Mille Lacs	Mille Lacs Band of Ojibwe	34	30 - Kathio Township 2 - Isle City 1 - South Harbor Township 1 - Onamia City Note: The above applicants of South Harbor and Onamia City reside in the disputed Mill Lacs Reservation boundaries. Mille Lacs County does not recognize these areas as part of the current Mille Lacs Reservation. Laurie Tinklenberg, Election Administration
Pine	Mille Lacs Band of Chippewa Indians Mille Lacs Band of Ojibwe Indians	NONE	Clerks are stating that typically these folks either have their MN Drivers Licenses or have had voters vouch for them. Deputy Auditor-Treasurer, Laurie Anderson
Polk	Red Lake Band of Chippewa Indians	NONE	Very little of the land is actual reservation property, and the portion of the reservation that is in Polk County the Tribes do not reside on. Deputy Auditor-Treasurer, Laurie Anderson

I think an interesting note is that the Red Lake reservation has a new ID that meets the state standard, but most members have not obtained the new ID. I think this is a very helpful new procedure especially since the Red Lake reservation is still in the process of addressing the reservation.
