General Statement of the Board's Activities Pursuant to Section (a):

Purpose

One of the basic functions of state government is to regulate the practices of various professions. Underlying this responsibility is the belief that regulation improves the level of service to communities and protects the health and welfare of citizens.

Created by legislation in 1977, the Minnesota Board of Peace Officer Standards and Training (POST) began licensing peace officers in 1978 and was the first state in the nation to do so.

Some may argue the creation of POST in Minnesota was part of a natural evolution of policing from a technically oriented, skills-based occupation of law enforcement to a more education-based profession of public service. Others may argue that POST was the result of public pressure in response to a number of controversial police actions on the national scene in the early 1970s; actions that questioned law enforcement's ability to perform effectively and its accountability in contemporary society. Regardless of the rationale, POST was created to enhance the law enforcement profession in Minnesota and to protect the citizens through the policies and practices of state-regulated law enforcement.

POST Board and staff members recognize they serve two distinct roles, those of regulator and resource. It is POST's intention to have the roles serve in concert rather than conflict. While the regulatory component is a straightforward responsibility based on statute and rule, the resource role requires more creative thinking as POST strives to partner with law enforcement agencies for mutual benefit. The agency's unofficial motto, "POST is your friend" rings true for a once skeptical law enforcement community.

POST is not a stagnant organization, but rather an evolving entity intent on continuously searching for new and innovative methods to improve law enforcement in Minnesota. Through legislation, administrative rule, policy, education and training, the POST Board strives to assist Minnesota's law enforcement community to "serve and protect" people who live in, work in, or merely visit our great state.

POST Board Mission

- The mission of the POST Board is to enhance the profession of law enforcement through the selection, education and licensing of peace officers and part-time peace officers.

Like other state regulatory agencies, the POST Board implements policies and procedures enacted by the legislature. The Board and committee meetings are often focused on finding ways to make those mandates meaningful and palatable to the agencies, officers, schools, and students impacted by the laws.

POST will continue to emphasize its role as a resource to its stakeholders while simultaneously fulfilling its responsibility as a regulator. The philosophy of the Board is to partner with stakeholders to ensure all agencies and all officers are in compliance with state policy and training mandates.

To implement POST's vision and mission, the Board and its staff perform the following:

Key Service Components

- Administer a professional licensing program that includes examination development and administration, licensure and re-licensure
- Develop the professional peace officer education learning objectives for colleges and universities
- Develop, coordinate and approve continuing education programs for peace officers and part-time peace officers
- Help local governments defray the training costs for their officers through the training reimbursement program
- Establish and enforce minimum standards of conduct for the practice of law enforcement
- Provide technical assistance to colleges, universities, law enforcement agencies and other groups concerned with the practice of law enforcement and law enforcement education
- Conduct research and applied studies on projects that relate to peace officer education and contemporary police practices and methodologies
- Implement professional policy standards for law enforcement agencies and officers
- Participate in meetings, conferences, task forces, legislative hearings, etc. representing POST's interest in law enforcement and public safety issues
- Respond to requests for information and interviews by television, radio, and print media, as well as web-site inquiries.

POST Board Constituents

Perhaps more aptly called “stakeholders,” the POST Board’s constituents include:

- The Governor’s Office
- The Legislature
- 483 state, county and local law enforcement agencies
- 9,406 active peace officers
- 1,304 inactive peace officers
- 350 active part-time officers
- 138 inactive part-time officers
- Law enforcement professional organizations, including the MN Chiefs’ Association, MN Sheriffs’ Association, the MN Police and Peace Officers Association, and other agency-specific federations and associations
- Other state agencies
- Special interest and community groups
- Higher education, specifically the twenty colleges and universities that offer the Professional Peace Officer Education Programs (both MnSCU and private institutions)
- Individual citizens
- The media

POST Board Membership

Per Minnesota Statute 626.841, the POST Board consists of fifteen members appointed by the Governor:

- two members from among county sheriffs in Minnesota;
- four members from among peace officers in Minnesota municipalities, at least two of whom shall be chiefs of police;
- two members from among peace officers, at least one of whom shall be a member of the Minnesota state patrol association;
- the superintendent of the Minnesota Bureau of Criminal Apprehension or a designee;
- two members from among peace officers, or former peace officers, who are currently employed on a full-time basis in a professional peace officer education program;
- one member from among administrators of Minnesota colleges or universities that offer professional peace officer education;
- one member from among the elected city officials in statutory or home rule charter cities of under 5,000 population outside the metropolitan area; and

The Governor appoints the members to four-year terms and also names the chairperson.

POST Board Examinations Pursuant to Sections (i), (j) and (k):

The POST Board administers the following three examinations:

1) Peace Officer Licensing Examination:

This exam is for candidates who have earned a minimum of a two-year college degree and have completed a Professional Peace Officer Education course. Candidates who have completed this education and who pass the Peace Officer Licensing Examination are eligible to be licensed for a period of three years. Individuals who become eligible to be licensed as Minnesota peace officers do not receive their license until they have been hired by a law enforcement agency.

Individuals whose eligibility for licensure has expired are required to pass the current peace officer licensing examination to reinstate their eligibility. If successful they are eligible to be licensed for an additional three-year period.

The Peace Officer Licensing Examination is given a minimum of six times per year.

2) Reciprocity Examination:

This exam is for individuals who are certified peace officers in another state or a federal jurisdiction, or who have served in the military as military police officers for a period of five or more years of active duty and have received an honorable discharge. Eligibility to take this exam is based on a combination of basic training and experience. Upon passing this exam, an individual becomes eligible to be licensed in Minnesota for a period of three years. Eligibility can be re-established after three years by passing the reciprocity exam again.

3) Part-time Peace Officer Examination:

This exam is for individuals who have completed selection and training standards for part-time peace officers. These individuals must be under the sponsorship of a law enforcement agency that intends to hire the candidate when he or she has passed the part-time licensing exam. This exam is increasingly being administered to individuals who are eligible to take the Peace Officer Licensing Examination, but must wait for the next available exam date. These individuals can then be hired as a part-time peace officer by the sponsoring agency.

The Reciprocity and Part-time Peace Officer Examinations are scheduled by appointment and administered in the POST Board office.

Other POST Board Information Pursuant to Section (p):

Unlike other licensing boards, the POST Board does not issue licenses immediately to individuals who pass the Board's examinations. They are considered eligible to be licensed at that point. The license certificate is issued when a law enforcement agency notifies the Board that it has hired an individual who is eligible and that the individual has met all of the selection standards prescribed in POST Board's rules.

The following table illustrates the number of individuals licensed by gender and age as distinguished in the testing application data.

		FY 2003	FY 2004	TOTAL
Gender	Licenses issued to males	374	395	769
	Licenses issued to females	73	65	138
Age	Licensees aged under 18 years	0	0	0
	Licensees aged 18 to 25 years	223	233	456
	Licensees aged 26 to 34	200	203	403
	Licensees aged 35 to 59	23	23	46
	Licensees aged 60 years or older	1	1	2
Total Licenses issued		447	460	907

Fiscal Year 2003/2004 Performance Summary

- Awarded 907 new peace officer licenses
- Administered 1,525 peace officer license examinations
- Administered 162 reciprocity license examinations
- Administered 78 part-time peace officer examinations
- Renewed more than 7,116 peace officer and part-time peace officer licenses

- Participated in numerous committees and task forces on law enforcement issues

Miscellaneous Issues

Continuing Education and Reimbursement

Every peace officer and part-time peace officer must complete a minimum of forty-eight (48) hours of continuing education within the three-year licensing period. The courses must be approved either by the POST Board's staff or by accredited sponsors that have been authorized by POST to approve their own offerings.

The POST Board helps subsidize continuing education by providing reimbursement to defray part of the costs of law enforcement agencies that provide training for their officers. Funds are provided from a surcharge on criminal and traffic violations. The per officer share varies from year to year depending on the number of officer positions submitted by agencies for reimbursement. This amount was $ 423.94 per officer in fiscal year 2003 and $ 358.11 per officer in fiscal year 2004.

Renewal of Licenses

Approximately one third of all active and inactive licenses are due for renewal on July 1 of each year.

Licensees not currently employed in law enforcement may remain on an "inactive" status providing renewal requirements are met.

There is a restoration process for those who fail to renew the license by the deadline or whose license has expired and later decide to return to law enforcement.

License Sanctions

The board has licensing jurisdiction when infractions lead to a criminal conviction, or when the chief law enforcement officer fails to implement a board mandated policy or follow a directive of the board.

Based on legislation passed in 1995, the license of a peace officer is automatically revoked if the peace officer is convicted of a felony. Convictions include a finding of guilt, whether or not the adjudication of guilt is stayed or executed, an admission of guilt, or a no contest plea. The board's complaint procedure provides due process for licensees.

Testing

Licensing exams are administered a minimum of six times annually. The exam is always offered in the metropolitan area and elsewhere when a second site is justified by the demand.

Candidates may take a licensing exam more than once, but a remedial study program is required after a third failed attempt.

Unauthorized Practice of Law Enforcement

The board may take action against an unlicensed individual when that individual practices law enforcement. This provision will be prosecuted by the attorney general.

Publications

The board issues publications that are related to its mission. The Learning Objectives for Professional Peace Officer Education was revised in 1998 and is available on disk or as a paper document.

The Board revised the Administrators Manual - a Guide to Law Enforcement Licensing and Hiring in March of 1998. The manual was mailed to all law enforcement agencies.

Keeping POSTed, the POST Board's website newsletter, is published on-line to provide the law enforcement community with information on issues relating to peace officer licensing, education, research, reimbursements, disciplinary actions, staffing changes and other topics. The newsletter appears on POST's website at www.post.state.mn.us and is updated as needed.

The board also partners with the Office of Revisor & Statutes to prepare annual updates to the Criminal Code and Selected Statutes for Peace Officers.

Legislative Mandates

All chief law enforcement officers must report to the board a summary regarding investigation and disposition of cases involving alleged misconduct. The data must include:

- the total number of investigations,
- the total number by each subject matter,
- the number dismissed as unfounded, and
- the number dismissed on grounds the allegation was unsubstantiated.

Law enforcement agencies are mandated to report to the board any allegations of fifth degree assault, domestic abuse and related violations. Every year the board mails forms to the agencies requesting this information. These forms are reviewed and tabulated by staff and a summary report is submitted to the Legislature.

Law Enforcement Employment Opportunities

Individuals seeking employment in law enforcement may call the Peace Officer Opportunity Line (POOL) at 651-643-3075 or visit our website at www.post.state.mn.us. The recorded telephone message and website information are maintained by staff and updated weekly.

Budget Reduction

In 2003, the POST Board's budget was reduced by fifteen percent. The reduction resulted in a decreased per-officer share reimbursement to local governments for law enforcement training; the elimination of the Educational Opportunities Program, a grant program for law enforcement students; and the ability to purchase the second installment of POST's database system.

In 2004, the budget was not reduced further despite the state's deficit.

Review of Minimum Standards of Conduct

Minnesota Statutes 626.843 requires the board to adopt rules regarding "minimum standards of conduct which would affect the individual's performance of duties as a peace officer." The statute also directs the board to review the minimum standards of conduct described for possible modification in 1998 and every three years thereafter.

On July 6, 2004, the Standards committee reviewed standards of conduct for licensed peace officers and recommended that no changes were necessary.

On July 22, 2004, the Board approved the Standards committee's recommendation of no revisions to Chapter 6700.1600, Violations of Standards of Conduct.

* Part-time Peace Officers became eligible for the reimbursement fund in the year 2000

** The 2004 decrease in officers is due to a reduction in the number of officers claimed by Hennepin County Sheriff's Office. The county claimed 78 fewer officers because they moved their department's in-service training from spring to fall and fewer officers received training.

This does not include expenses that were paid for by peace officers, membership dues for training associations, training officer or support staff salaries, or any training expenditures made by the Minnesota State Patrol, the Bureau of Criminal Apprehension, the Department of Natural Resources, the Department of Corrections or the Office of Alcohol and Gambling Enforcement.
