6. UPDATES, IMPLEMENTATION.

- 6.1 Periodic Software Updates. Periodic software updates to the Licensed Work (which shall mean any additions or modifications made by Codman to the Licensed Work at any time after delivery and installation that improve the efficiency or effectiveness of the basic program function(s) described in Attachment E), shall be furnished to Licensee at no additional charge during the Term of this Agreement.
- 6.2 Implementation by Licensee. Codman will provide to Licensee all periodic software updates made to the Licensed Work in a timely manner. Similarly, Licensee must implement any such updates promptly. Licensee recognizes that its failure to so implement such updates may render the Licensed Work unusable or nonconforming to the documentation delivered by Codman to Licensee, and Licensee agrees to assume all risks arising therefrom.

7. LICENSE FEES, CHARGES, TAXES AND REPORTING REQUIREMENTS.

- 7.1 Fees in Attachment C. The license fees for the License granted hereunder are set out in Attachment C to this Agreement. Annual base license fee and fees per member as set out in Attachment C are based on the minimum covered lives as stated on Attachment C. Additional members in excess of this minimum, regardless of the length of time health insurance benefits were provided by Licensee, and regardless of the date of addition during the year, will be charged at the additional fee per member as set forth in Attachment C.
- 7.2 Right to Audit. Codman shall be entitled, not more than once per year during the Term of this Agreement, upon reasonable notice and during regular business hours, to audit Licensee's enrollment records for the purpose of substantiating the accuracy of license fee calculations.
- 7.3 Schedule for Payments; Late Fees; Collection Costs. The license fees, taxes, and other applicable charges (such as charges for installation, training, support, data analysis and special projects) shall be due upon receipt of invoice and payable pursuant to the schedule set out in Attachment C. Licensee shall pay a late payment charge of 1 1/2% per month, or the maximum rate permitted by applicable law, whichever is less, on any overdue unpaid amount for each calendar month or fraction thereof that any payment to Codman is in arrears. Licensee agrees to pay reasonable costs, including reasonable attorney's fees, incurred by Codman in collecting any unpaid license fees or other fees owed by Licensee to Codman.
- 7.4 Payment of Taxes; Certificate. The fees quoted herein are exclusive of any taxes. Licensee shall pay all taxes based on or in any way measured by this Agreement, the Licensed Work or any portion thereof, or any services related thereto, excluding taxes based on Codman's net income, but including Licensee's personal property taxes. If Licensee challenges the applicability of any such tax. Licensee may withhold payment of that tax until a final disposition of such challenge, provided that Licensee shall indemnify and hold Codman harmless with respect to such challenged taxes and any penalties or interest based thereon. Licensee shall provide to Codman its tax identification number or a copy of its exemption certificate, which must be attached to the signature page of this Agreement.

7.5 Periodic Computation of Licensee's Membership and Reporting Requirements.

Within ten (10) working days of each annual anniversary of the Term of this agreement, Licensee shall, using a documented methodology acceptable to Codman, report to Codman on a form substantially similar to Attachment G both the unique Member count contained in the Pandora MCIS enrollment file(s); and the unique Member count run through the ACG software of the Licensed Work for all lines of business of the Licensee as well as its affiliates, if any. The same methodology used in the first annual anniversary computation of unique Member counts will also be used for all subsequent annual anniversary unique member measurements.

It is understood and agreed to by both BCBSM and Codman that the ACG Member count may exceed the Pandora MCIS Member count because of a lag between calculating an ACG score and actually processing a member through the Pandora MCIS application. Lags between ACG calculation and Pandora MCIS processing may be the result of business need and/or temporary lack of adequate storage space for additional Pandora MCIS data bases. In all instances where the ACG unique member count exceeds the unique member count run through the Pandora MCIS application, all reasonable efforts will be made by BCBSM to equalize the ACG and the Pandora MCIS unique member count before the next measurement period as required by the Payment Schedule in Attachment C.

At each December measurement point during the Term of this agreement, BCBSMN will be provided the option of raising the maximum covered lives allowance as specified in Attachment C, in increments of 100,000 unique members at a flat rate specified in Attachment C that establishes a new total unique member threshold that accommodates both the ACG and Pandora MCIS unique Member Counts.

Licensor hereby grants Licensee, unless terminated as provided in this Agreement, a renewable non-exclusive non-transferable license to use one (1) copy of the "Adjusted Clinical Grouping" Programs ("The Programs") subject to the following terms, conditions, and restrictions. Licensee hereby agrees that it is contracting for a license whose term is coextensive with term of the PANDORA® MCIS[™] License of which it is a part. Licensee's use of the Programs shall be used only for purposes of serving Licensee's internal business needs, which internal business needs may not include (a) use or access by entities other than Licensee, or (b) the provision of service bureau or facility management services. Licensee may relocate the Programs, at no additional cost, from one MCIS[™] UNIX Processing Server to another, upon advance written notice to Licensor. Licensee may make copies of the Programs solely for non-productive backup purposes. Licensee may not assign its rights in the Programs hereunder without the prior written consent of Owner, to be requested by Licensor upon written request by Licensee.

2. TITLE TO AND OWNERSHIP OF PROGRAMS, MODIFICATIONS

Licensee acknowledges that certain Programs licensed hereunder are the commercially valuable, proprietary products and property of The Johns Hopkins University or CSC Healthcare Systems (hereafter "Owner" or "Owners"). Licensee further acknowledges that the Owners have invested substantial time and economic resources in the design and development of the Programs, which required the efforts of skilled development experts, and that the Owners treat the Programs as confidential and that the Programs constitute trade secrets of the Owners, regardless of whether the Programs are or may be copyrighted or patented. Title, full ownership and all proprietary rights to its Programs shall remain with each Owner. Licensee shall neither receive nor retain any interest in the Programs (other than the right to use the Programs in accordance with the provision of this Agreement) nor will any right be vested in Licensee to transfer use of the Programs to any other entity. Licensee agrees that modifications, customizations and enhancements

Any such modification, customizations, and enhancements made by CSC Healthcare Systems or The Johns Hopkins University at the request of and paid for by Licensee shall be licensed to Licensee by CSC Healthcare Systems under the same terms and conditions of this Agreement as are applicable to the Programs.

3. LICENSEE'S RESPONSIBILITIES

Licensee acknowledges and agrees that Licensor's role under this Agreement is solely that of a supplier and that it is solely the Licensee's responsibility to determine its own data processing requirements and to satisfy itself that the Programs meet such requirement. The Licensee further acknowledges and agrees that it is responsible for the selection and use of the Programs to achieve Licensee's intended results. Licensee hereby absolutely and unconditionally agrees to indemnify and defend Licensor, CSC Healthcare Systems and The Johns Hopkins University and to hold Licensor, CSC Healthcare Systems and The Johns Hopkins University harmless from and against any and all claims, liabilities, costs, expenses, losses, suites, damages or causes of action (including reasonable attorney fees) arising, made, incurred, or suffered, directly or indirectly, by any person from or in connection with Licensee's use of any of the Programs.

Licensee shall not permit access to or use of the Programs by third parties, including, but not limited to, consultants, without the prior written consent of an authorized officer of the Owners.

Licensee further agrees that, except for ordinary and necessary backup purposes, it will not use, or have made, any copies of the programs or part thereof. The provision of this section shall apply to any material or information related to the Programs provided to Licensee prior to, and during, the term of this Agreement and shall survive the termination of this Agreement.

Unauthorized use, disclosure or transfer of copies of the Programs, or information contained therein, will diminish substantially the value of the Programs to the Owners. This agreement is made and entered into as of January 1, 1999, by and between the Codman Group, Inc. (CG), a Delaware corporation with offices in Andover, Massachusetts, BCBSM, Inc., dba Blue Cross and Blue Shield of Minnesota with offices in St. Paul, Minnesota, and Brooks McNally Whittington Platto & Vitt, a Vermont general partnership with offices in Norwich, Vermont ("Escrow Agent").

LEBANON, NH H.T. 6 6/16/99 TS MY 6/28/99

A. STATEMENT OF FACTS

- CG is distributing computer programs ("Software") to BCBSM pursuant to certain Software License Agreements between CG and BCBSM, to which this Software Source Code Escrow Agreement constitutes Schedule H, and therein agrees to provide ongoing maintenance for such Software to BCBSM.
- BCBSM seeks assurances that the Software will be maintained for as long as it is in use by BCBSM and/or customers of BCBSM, regardless of CG's ability to perform such maintenance.
- The source code form of the Software (the "Code") and all related technical documentation are necessary to enable the party in possession thereof to provide any required maintenance for the Software.
- 4. The Code contains confidential information of CG and, therefore, CG does not typically provide the Code to any of its customers, including BCBSM, as part of the Software packaged and distributed in the normal course of business by CG.
- 5. The Software Source Code Escrow Agreement is intended by CG to constitute a mechanism by which the Code may be escrowed with the Escrow Agent, so that BCBSM may have access to the Code to maintain the Software for itself and/or its customers in the event CG proves unable to perform such maintenance for BCBSM.
- The Escrow Agent is able and willing to enter into this Software Source Code Escrow Agreement upon the terms and conditions set forth hereinbelow.

B. STATEMENT OF AGREEMENT

11D tweet wantpert AD-6999correct

- CG shall place the Code in escrow with the Escrow Agent and agrees promptly to provide to the Escrow Agent any and all modifications and updates to the Code pertaining to the Software that CG has distributed to BCBSM which is presently in use by BCBSM and /or customers of BCBSM.
- The Escrow Agent agrees to hold the Code in escrow and to deliver it to BCBSM or CG, as the case may be, only upon the conditions set forth in paragraph 3 and paragraph 4, respectively, of this Software Source Code Escrow Agreement.

- 3. The Escrow Agent agrees to deliver the Code to CG if and when:
  - a. CG notifies the Escrow Agent in writing that the Software License Agreement between BCBSM and CG has terminated for cause or expired of its own terms.
  - b. CG notifies the Escrow Agent in writing that CG's own archival backups of its computer systems have been destroyed and temporary access to the Code is needed to recreate such systems.
- 4. The Escrow Agent agrees to deliver the Code to BCBSM if and when:
  - a. CG at any time authorizes such delivery in writing.
  - b. BCBSM notifies the Escrow Agent in writing that CG is unable to provide maintenance for the Software at the agreed upon fee and certifies that BCBSM has paid all invoiced bills to CG and is not otherwise in default under the Software License Agreement between BCBSM and CG. BCBSM must simultaneously provide a copy of such notice to CG by registered or certified mail addressed to CG, 138 River Road, Andover, Massachusetts 01810.
  - c. CG or its successor fails to dismiss a case filed against it under the United States Bankruptcy Code, 11 U.S.C. Section 101 et seq., within ninety (90) days of the date of filing; or
  - d. BCBSM receives written notification that CRG has made an assignment for the benefit of its creditors in order to avoid the filing by a creditor of an action that would materially affect the stability of CG; or
  - e. CG is voluntarily or involuntarily dissolved; or
  - f. Receivership proceedings are instituted by or against CG pursuant to which a receiver is appointed by a court of competent jurisdiction and no stay of such receivership proceedings has been obtained by CG within 30 days after such appointment; or
  - g. CG or its successors has ceased ongoing business operations or the licensing, maintenance and support of the Software for a period of at least ninety (90) consecutive days.
- 5. The Escrow Agent may, but shall not be obligated to, investigate the facts and circumstances of any matter alleged by either party under this Software Source Code Escrow Agreement, and shall have a reasonable time to do so before being required to deliver the Code hereunder. In no event shall the Escrow Agent deliver the Code to BCBSM sooner than thirty (30) days from the date of receipt of any notice or certification hereunder, except by the written direction of CG. In the event of an unresolved dispute under this Software Source Code Escrow Agreement (e.g., if CG contests the notice and/or certification described in paragraph 4b. above), the Escrow Agent may deliver the Code to the registry of a court of competent jurisdiction for judicial resolution of the dispute and be relieved of all further obligations under this Software Source Code Escrow Agreement.
- 6. The Escrow Agent shall not be liable to either party hereunder for its actions as escrow agent except for gross negligence, and shall be entitled to charge reasonable fees for its services, and be reimbursed for all out-of-pocket expenses, which fees and expenses shall be borne equally by CG and BCBSM.

- In the event the Escrow Agent delivers the Code to BCBSM under the terms of this Software Source Code Escrow Agreement, BCBSM expressly represents, warrants, and agrees as follows:
  - BCBSM will use the Code solely for the maintenance of the Software sold to it by CG.
  - b. BCBSM will not disclose, sell or transmit the Code to any third party, and will not permit its employees or agents to do so, without the express written consent of CG.
  - c. BCBSM will not assume or claim any proprietary rights in or to the Code or any products which it might derive from the Code.
  - d. BCBSM will be liable to CG for reasonable damages, but excluding special, indirect, incidental or consequently damages, arising out of the unauthorized use or exploitation of the Cod in the event BCBSM has acted with negligence or the equivalent level of disregard for the rights of CG in the Code.
- 8. This agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties with respect to the Code and there are no terms other than those contained herein. No variation hereof shall be deemed valid unless in writing and signed by the parties hereto.
- This agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Massachusetts.
- All notices hereunder shall be deemed given when delivered or sent by certified mail, return receipt requested, to the last known address of the other party.
- The waiver by either party of a breach of any provision of this Software Source Code Escrow Agreement shall not operate or be construed as a waiver of any subsequent breach.
- This Software Source Code Escrow Agreement shall be binding upon, and shall inure to the benefit of, the parties hereto and their respective heirs, executors, legal representatives, and successors.

In witness whereof, the parties hereto have executed this Software Source Code Escrow Agreement as of the dates indicated.

PREFERRED ESCROW AGREEMENT

Account Number 0315418-00001-0203008

This Agreement is effective January 1, 1999 among DSI Technology Escrow Services, Inc. ("DSI"), The Codman Group, Inc ("Depositor") and BCBSM, Inc., dba Blue Cross and Blue Shield of Minnesota ("Preferred Beneficiary"), who collectively may be referred to in this Agreement as "the parties."

A. Depositor and Preferred Beneficiary have entered or will enter into a license agreement, development agreement, and/or other agreement regarding certain proprietary technology of Depositor (referred to in this Agreement as "the License Agreement").

 B. Depositor desires to avoid disclosure of its proprietary technology except under certain limited circumstances.

C. The availability of the proprietary technology of Depositor is critical to Preferred Beneficiary in the conduct of its business and, therefore, Preferred Beneficiary needs access to the proprietary technology under certain limited circumstances.

D. Depositor and Preferred Beneficiary desire to establish an escrow with DSI to provide for the retention, administration and controlled access of the proprietary technology materials of Depositor.

E. The parties desire this Agreement to be supplementary to the License Agreement pursuant to 11 United States [Bankruptcy] Code, Section 365(n).

ARTICLE 1 -- DEPOSITS

1.1 Obligation to Make Deposit. Upon the signing of this Agreement by the parties, Depositor shall deliver to DSI the proprietary technology and other materials ("Deposit Materials") required to be deposited by the License Agreement or, if the License Agreement does not identify the materials to be deposited with DSI, then such materials will be identified on an Exhibit A. If Exhibit A is applicable, it is to be prepared and signed by Depositor and Preferred Beneficiary. DSI shall have no obligation with respect to the preparation, signing or delivery of Exhibit A.

1.2 Identification of Tangible Media. Prior to the delivery of the Deposit Materials to DSI, Depositor shall conspicuously label for identification each document, magnetic tape, disk, or other tangible media upon which the Deposit Materials are written or stored. Additionally, Depositor shall complete Exhibit B to this Agreement by listing each such tangible media by the item label description, the type of media and the quantity. The Exhibit B must be signed by Depositor and delivered to DSI with the Deposit Materials. Unless and until Depositor makes the initial deposit with DSI, DSI shall have no obligation with respect to this Agreement, except the obligation to notify the parties regarding the status of the deposit account as required in Section 2.2 below. 1.3 Deposit Inspection. When DSI receives the Deposit Materials and the Exhibit B, DSI will conduct a deposit inspection by visually matching the labeling of the tangible media containing the Deposit Materials to the item descriptions and quantity listed on the Exhibit B. In addition to the deposit inspection, Preferred Beneficiary may elect to cause a verification of the Deposit Materials in accordance with Section 1.6 below.

1.4 Acceptance of Deposit. At completion of the deposit inspection, if DSI determines that the labeling of the tangible media matches the item descriptions and quantity on Exhibit B, DSI will date and sign the Exhibit B and mail a copy thereof to Depositor and Preferred Beneficiary. If DSI determines that the labeling does not match the item descriptions or quantity on the Exhibit B, DSI will (a) note the discrepancies in writing on the Exhibit B; (b) date and sign the Exhibit B with the exceptions noted; and (c) mail a copy of the Exhibit B to Depositor and Preferred Beneficiary. DSI's acceptance of the deposit occurs upon the signing of the Exhibit B by DSI. Delivery of the signed Exhibit B to Preferred Beneficiary is Preferred Beneficiary's notice that the Deposit Materials have been received and accepted by DSI.

- 1.5 Depositor's Representations. Depositor represents as follows:
  - a. Depositor lawfully possesses all of the Deposit Materials deposited with DSI;
  - b. With respect to all of the Deposit Materials, Depositor has the right and authority to grant to DSI and Preferred Beneficiary the rights as provided in this Agreement;
  - c. The Deposit Materials are not subject to any lien or other encumbrance;
  - d. The Deposit Materials consist of the proprietary technology and other materials identified either in the License Agreement or Exhibit A, as the case may be; and
  - e. The Deposit Materials are readable and useable in their current form or, if the Deposit Materials are encrypted, the decryption tools and decryption keys have also been deposited.

1.6 Verification. Preferred Beneficiary shall have the right, at Preferred Beneficiary's expense, to cause a verification of any Deposit Materials. A verification determines, in different levels of detail, the accuracy, completeness, sufficiency and quality of the Deposit Materials. If a verification is elected after the Deposit Materials have been delivered to DSI, then only DSI, or at DSI's election an independent person or company selected and supervised by DSI, may perform the verification.

1.7 Deposit Updates. Unless otherwise provided by the License Agreement, Depositor shall update the Deposit Materials within 60 days of each release of a new version of the product which is subject to the License Agreement. Such updates will be added to the existing deposit. All deposit updates shall be listed on a new Exhibit B and the new Exhibit B shall be signed by Depositor. Each Exhibit B will be held and maintained separately within the escrow account. An independent record will be created which will document the activity for each Exhibit B. The processing of all deposit updates shall be in accordance with Sections 1.2 through 1.6 above. All references in this Agreement to the Deposit Materials shall include the initial Deposit Materials and any updates.

1.8 Removal of Deposit Materials. The Deposit Materials may be removed and/or exchanged only on written instructions signed by Depositor and Preferred Beneficiary, or as otherwise provided in this Agreement.

ARTICLE 2 -- CONFIDENTIALITY AND RECORD KEEPING

2.1 Confidentiality. DSI shall maintain the Deposit Materials in a secure, environmentally safe, locked facility which is accessible only to authorized representatives of DSI. DSI shall have the obligation to reasonably protect the confidentiality of the Deposit Materials. Except as provided in this Agreement, DSI shall not disclose, transfer, make available, or use the Deposit Materials. DSI shall not disclose the content of this Agreement to any third party. If DSI receives a subpoena or other order of a court or other judicial tribunal pertaining to the disclosure or release of the Deposit Materials, DSI will immediately notify the parties to this Agreement. It shall be the responsibility of Depositor and/or Preferred Beneficiary to challenge any such order; provided, however, that DSI does not waive its rights to present its position with respect to any such order. DSI will not be required to disobey any court or other judicial tribunal order. (See Section 7.5 below for notices of requested orders.)

2.2 Status Reports. DSI will issue to Depositor and Preferred Beneficiary a report profiling the account history at least semi-annually. DSI may provide copies of the account history pertaining to this Agreement upon the request of any party to this Agreement.

2.3 Audit Rights. During the term of this Agreement, Depositor and Preferred Beneficiary shall each have the right to inspect the written records of DSI pertaining to this Agreement. Any inspection shall be held during normal business hours and following reasonable prior notice.

ARTICLE 3 -- GRANT OF RIGHTS TO DSI

3.1 Title to Media. Depositor hereby transfers to DSI the title to the media upon which the proprietary technology and materials are written or stored. However, this transfer does not include the ownership of the proprietary technology and materials contained on the media such as any copyright, trade secret, patent or other intellectual property rights.

3.2 Right to Make Copies. DSI shall have the right to make copies of the Deposit Materials as reasonably necessary to perform this Agreement. DSI shall copy all copyright, nondisclosure, and other proprietary notices and titles contained on the Deposit Materials onto any copies made by DSI. With all Deposit Materials submitted to DSI, Depositor shall provide any and all instructions as may be necessary to duplicate the Deposit Materials including but not limited to the hardware and/or software needed.

3.3 Right to Transfer Upon Release. Depositor hereby grants to DSI the right to transfer the Deposit Materials to Preferred Beneficiary upon any release of the Deposit Materials for use by Preferred Beneficiary in accordance with Section 4.5. Except upon such a release or as otherwise provided in this Agreement, DSI shall not transfer the Deposit Materials.

ARTICLE 4 -- RELEASE OF DEPOSIT

4.1 Release Conditions. As used in this Agreement, "Release Condition" shall mean the following:

 Depositor's failure to carry out obligations imposed on it pursuant to the license agreement; or Depositor's failure to continue to do business in the ordinary course.

4.2 Filing For Release. If Preferred Beneficiary believes in good faith that a Release Condition has occurred, Preferred Beneficiary may provide to DSI written notice of the occurrence of the Release Condition and a request for the release of the Deposit Materials. Upon receipt of such notice, DSI shall provide a copy of the notice to Depositor by commercial express mail.

4.3 Contrary Instructions. From the date DSI mails the notice requesting release of the Deposit Materials, Depositor shall have ten business days to deliver to DSI Contrary Instructions. "Contrary Instructions" shall mean the written representation by Depositor that a Release Condition has not occurred or has been cured. Upon receipt of Contrary Instructions, DSI shall send a copy to Preferred Beneficiary by commercial express mail. Additionally, DSI shall notify both Depositor and Preferred Beneficiary that there is a dispute to be resolved pursuant to the Dispute Resolution section (Section 7.3) of this Agreement. Subject to Section 5.2, DSI will continue to store the Deposit Materials without release pending (a) joint instructions from Depositor and Preferred Beneficiary; (b) resolution pursuant to the Dispute Resolution provisions; or (c) order of a court.

4.4 Release of Deposit. If DSI does not receive Contrary Instructions from the Depositor, DSI is authorized to release the Deposit Materials to the Preferred Beneficiary or, if more than one beneficiary is registered to the deposit, to release a copy of the Deposit Materials to the Preferred Beneficiary. However, DSI is entitled to receive any fees due DSI before making the release. Any copying expense in excess of $300 will be chargeable to Preferred Beneficiary. This Agreement will terminate upon the release of the Deposit Materials held by DSI.

4.5 Right to Use Following Release. Unless otherwise provided in the License Agreement, upon release of the Deposit Materials in accordance with this Article 4, Preferred Beneficiary shall have the right to use the Deposit Materials for the sole purpose of continuing the benefits afforded to Preferred Beneficiary by the License Agreement. Preferred Beneficiary shall be obligated to maintain the confidentiality of the released Deposit Materials.

ARTICLE 5 - TERM AND TERMINATION

5.1 Term of Agreement. The initial term of this Agreement is for a period of one year. Thereafter, this Agreement shall automatically renew from year-to-year unless (a) Depositor and Preferred Beneficiary jointly instruct DSI in writing that the Agreement is terminated; or (b) the Agreement is terminated by DSI for nonpayment in accordance with Section 5.2. If the Deposit Materials are subject to another escrow agreement with DSI, DSI reserves the right, after the initial one year term, to adjust the anniversary date of this Agreement to match the then prevailing anniversary date of such other escrow agreements.

5.2 Termination for Nonpayment. In the event of the nonpayment of fees owed to DSI, DSI shall provide written notice of delinquency to all parties to this Agreement. Any party to this Page 4 P99v1 Agreement shall have the right to make the payment to DSI to cure the default. If the past due payment is not received in full by DSI within one month of the date of such notice, then DSI shall have the right to terminate this Agreement at any time thereafter by sending written notice of termination to all parties. DSI shall have no obligation to take any action under this Agreement so long as any payment due to DSI remains unpaid.

5.3 Disposition of Deposit Materials Upon Termination. Upon termination of this Agreement, DSI shall destroy, return, or otherwise deliver the Deposit Materials in accordance with Depositor's instructions. If there are no instructions, DSI may, at its sole discretion, destroy the Deposit Materials or return them to Depositor. DSI shall have no obligation to return or destroy the Deposit Materials if the Deposit Materials are subject to another escrow agreement with DSI.

5.4 Survival of Terms Following Termination. Upon termination of this Agreement, the following provisions of this Agreement shall survive:

- Depositor's Representations (Section 1.5);
- b. The obligations of confidentiality with respect to the Deposit Materials;
- c. The rights granted in the sections entitled Right to Transfer Upon Release (Section 3.3) and Right to Use Following Release (Section 4.5), if a release of the Deposit Materials has occurred prior to termination;
- d. The obligation to pay DSI any fees and expenses due;
- e. The provisions of Article 7; and
- f. Any provisions in this Agreement which specifically state they survive the termination or expiration of this Agreement.

ARTICLE 6 - DSI'S FEES

6.1 Fee Schedule. DSI is entitled to be paid its standard fees and expenses applicable to the services provided. DSI shall notify the party responsible for payment of DSI's fees at least 90 days prior to any increase in fees. For any service not listed on DSI's standard fee schedule, DSI will provide a quote prior to rendering the service, if requested.

6.2 Payment Terms. DSI shall not be required to perform any service unless the payment for such service and any outstanding balances owed to DSI are paid in full. Fees are due upon receipt of a signed contract or receipt of the Deposit Materials whichever is earliest. If invoiced fees are not paid, DSI may terminate this Agreement in accordance with Section 5.2. Late fees on past due amounts shall accrue interest at the rate of one and one-half percent per month (18% per annum) from the date of the invoice.

ARTICLE 7 - LIABILITY AND DISPUTES

7.1 Right to Rely on Instructions. DSI may act in reliance upon any instruction, instrument, or signature reasonably believed by DSI to be genuine. DSI may assume that any employee of a Page 5 P99v1 party to this Agreement who gives any written notice, request, or instruction has the authority to do so. DSI shall not be responsible for failure to act as a result of causes beyond the reasonable control of DSI.

7.2 Indemnification. DSI shall be responsible to perform its obligations under this Agreement and to act in a reasonable and prudent manner with regard to this escrow arrangement. Provided DSI has acted in the manner stated in the preceding sentence, (a) Depositor agrees to indemnify, defend and hold harmless DSI from any and all claims, actions, damages, arbitration fees and expenses, costs, attorney's fees and other liabilities incurred by DSI relating in any way to Depositor's obligations under this Escrow Agreement, and (b) Preferred Beneficiary agrees to indemnify, defend and hold harmless DSI from any and all claims, actions, damages, arbitration fees and expenses, costs, attorney's fees and other harmless DSI from any and all claims, actions, damages, arbitration fees and expenses, costs, attorney's fees and other harmless DSI from any and all claims, actions, damages, arbitration fees and expenses, costs, attorney's fees and other harmless DSI from any and all claims, actions, damages, arbitration fees and expenses, costs, attorney's fees and other harmless incurred by DSI relating in any way to Preferred Beneficiary's fees and other harmless incurred by DSI relating in any way to Preferred Beneficiary's obligations under this Escrow Agreement.

7.3 Dispute Resolution. Any dispute relating to or arising from this Agreement shall be resolved by arbitration under the Commercial Rules of the American Arbitration Association. Unless otherwise agreed by Depositor and Preferred Beneficiary, arbitration will take place in San Diego, California, U.S.A. Any court having jurisdiction over the matter may enter judgment on the award of the arbitrator(s). Service of a petition to confirm the arbitration award may be made by First Class mail or by commercial express mail, to the attorney for the party or, if unrepresented, to the party at the last known business address. Depositor or Preferred Beneficiary may invoke arbitration by serving written notice on the other party and DSI. The notice will include a list of arbitrator candidates. If Depositor and Preferred Beneficiary agree on one of the arbitrator candidates in the notice, then the arbitrator will serve as the sole arbitrator of the dispute. If the Depositor and Preferred Beneficiary do not agree on an arbitrator within fifteen (15) calendar days after the receipt of the notice, the recipient of the notice will select one arbitrator and the party providing notice will select one arbitrator within ten (10) calendar days thereafter and the two arbitrators so selected will select a third arbitrator within ten (10) calendar days thereafter. The third arbitrator so selected will be the sole arbitrator and will conduct the arbitration. Depositor and Preferred Beneficiary will each be responsible for payment of its own attorneys or other advisors and for its appointed arbitrator. The expenses and fees of the sole arbitrator and of the arbitration proceeding will be shared equally by Depositor and Preferred Beneficiary.

7.4 Controlling Law. This Agreement is to be governed and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of California, without regard to its conflict of law provisions.

7.5 Notice of Requested Order. If any party intends to obtain an order from the arbitrator or any court of competent jurisdiction which may direct DSI to take, or refrain from taking any action, that party shall:

- a. Give DSI at least two business days' prior notice of the hearing;
- b. Include in any such order that, as a precondition to DSI's obligation, DSI be paid in full for any past due fees and be paid for the reasonable value of the services to be rendered pursuant to such order; and
- c. Ensure that DSI not be required to deliver the original (as opposed to a copy) of the Deposit Materials if DSI may need to retain the original in its possession to fulfill any of its other duties.

ARTICLE 8 -- GENERAL PROVISIONS

8.1 Entire Agreement. This Agreement, which includes the Exhibits described herein, embodies the entire understanding among the parties with respect to its subject matter and supersedes all previous communications, representations or understandings, either oral or written. DSI is not a party to the License Agreement between Depositor and Preferred Beneficiary and has no knowledge of any of the terms or provisions of any such License Agreement. DSI's only obligations to Depositor or Preferred Beneficiary are as set forth in this Agreement. No amendment or modification of this Agreement shall be valid or binding unless signed by all the parties hereto, except that Exhibit A need not be signed by DSI, Exhibit B need not be signed by Preferred Beneficiary and Exhibit C need not be signed.

8.2 Notices. All notices, invoices, payments, deposits and other documents and communications shall be given to the parties at the addresses specified in the attached Exhibit C. It shall be the responsibility of the parties to notify each other as provided in this Section in the event of a change of address. The parties shall have the right to rely on the last known address of the other parties. Unless otherwise provided in this Agreement, all documents and communications may be delivered by First Class mail.

8.3 Severability. In the event any provision of this Agreement is found to be invalid, voidable or unenforceable, the parties agree that unless it materially affects the entire intent and purpose of this Agreement, such invalidity, voidability or unenforceability shall affect neither the validity of this Agreement nor the remaining provisions herein, and the provision in question shall be deemed to be replaced with a valid and enforceable provision most closely reflecting the intent and purpose of the original provision.

8.4 Successors. This Agreement shall be binding upon and shall inure to the benefit of the successors and assigns of the parties. However, DSI shall have no obligation in performing this Agreement to recognize any successor or assign of Depositor or Preferred Beneficiary unless DSI receives clear, authoritative and conclusive written evidence of the change of parties.

8.5 Regulations. Depositor and Preferred Beneficiary are responsible for and warrant their respective compliance with all applicable laws, rules and regulations, including but not limited to customs laws, import, export, and re-export laws and government regulations of any country from or to which the Deposit Materials may be delivered in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement.

- 4.4.2. Tax Liability; Post-Closing Tax Return Filings. In addition to and without limiting those representations and warranties set forth in Section 2.15 of this Agreement, the Sellers will pay all Taxes attributable to the Sellers arising from or relating to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, including without limitation Tax on any income or gains arising from the sale of the Assets.
- 4.4.3. Cooperation and Records Retention. The Sellers and the Purchaser will each provide the other with such assistance as may reasonably be requested by any of them in connection with the preparation of any Tax Return, audit or other examination by any taxing Authority or judicial or administrative proceedings relating to liability for Taxes.

SURVIVAL AND INDEMNIFICATION.

5.1. Survival.

The representations, warranties and covenants of each of the parties hereto shall survive the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby for a period of five (5) years from the date hereof except: (i) the representations and warranties of the Sellers and Shareholder contained in Section 2.13 with respect to tax matters shall survive until the expiration of all applicable statutory limitation periods (including extensions thereof); and (ii) the representations and warranties of the Sellers and the Shareholder with respect to the Sellers' power and authority to transfer the Assets and the Sellers' title to the Assets shall survive forever. The right to indemnification or any other remedy based on representations, warranties, covenants and obligations in this Agreement will not be affected by any investigation conducted with respect to, or any knowledge acquired (or capable of being required) anytime, whether before or after the execution and delivery of this Agreement, with respect to the accuracy or inaccuracy of or compliance with, any such representation, warranty, covenant or obligation.

5.2. Indemnification by the Purchaser.

The Purchaser agrees to indemnify the Sellers and the Shareholder from and against any and all loss, liability or damage suffered or incurred by it by reason of (i) any untrue representation of, or breach of warranty by the Purchaser in any part of this Agreement; (ii) any nonfulfillment of any covenant, agreement or undertaking of the Purchaser in any part of this Agreement which by its terms is to remain in effect after the date hereof and has not been specifically waived in writing by the party or parties hereof entitled to the benefits thereof; and (iii) any and all actions, suits, proceedings, claims, demands, assessments, judgments, costs and expenses, including, without limitation, legal fees and expenses, incident to any of the foregoing or incurred in investigating or attempting to avoid the same or to oppose the imposition thereof, or in enforcing the indemnification rights of the Sellers pursuant to this Section 5.2.

5.3. Indemnification by Sellers.

The Sellers and the Shareholder, jointly and severally, agree to indemnify the Purchaser and each of its shareholders, officers, directors, employees and subsidiaries from and against:

- 5.3.1. any and all loss, liability or damage suffered or incurred by the Purchaser by reason of any untrue representation of, or breach of warranty by the Sellers or the Shareholder in this Agreement;
- 5.3.2. any and all loss, liability or damage suffered or incurred by it by reason of any nonfulfillment of any covenant, agreement or undertaking of the Sellers or the Shareholder in this Agreement which by its terms is to remain in effect after the date hereof and has not been specifically waived in writing by the party or parties hereto entitled to the benefits thereof;

- 5.3.3. any Liability of the Sellers that the Purchaser in good faith determines it must pay after the date hereof in order to maintain or preserve the Business, customers, prospects or goodwill relating to or with respect to the Assets;
- 5.3.4. any Liability relating to or arising out of the litigation disclosed in Section 2.12 of the Disclosure Schedule; and
- 5.3.5. any and all actions, suits, proceedings, claims, demands, assessments, judgments, costs and expenses, including, without limitation, legal fees and expenses, incident to any of the foregoing or incurred in investigating or attempting to avoid the same or to oppose the imposition thereof, or in enforcing the indemnification rights of the Purchaser pursuant to this Section 5.3.
- 5.4. Claims for Indemnification.
  - 5.4.1. General. The parties intend that all indemnification claims be made as promptly as practicable by the party seeking indemnification (the "Indemnified Party"). Whenever any claim shall rise for indemnification hereunder the Indemnified Party shall promptly notify the party from whom indemnification is sought (the "Indemnifying Party") of the claim and, when known, the facts constituting the basis for such claim. The failure so to notify the Indemnifying Party shall not relieve the Indemnifying Party of any liability that it may have to the Indemnified Party except to the extent the Indemnifying Party demonstrates that the defense of such action is prejudiced thereby.
  - 5.4.2. Claims by Third Parties. With respect to claims made by third parties, if the Indemnifying Party admits to the Indemnified Party and agrees in writing that it will be liable for the full amount of the claim, the Indemnifying Party shall be entitled to assume control of the defense of such action or claim, at is sole expense, with counsel reasonably satisfactory to the Indemnified Party; provided, however, that:
    - 5.4.2.1. the Indemnified Party shall be entitled to participate in the defense of such claim and to employ counsel at its own expense to assist in the handling of such claim;
    - 5.4.2.2. no Indemnifying Party shall consent to (a) the entry of any judgment or enter into any settlement that does not include as an unconditional term thereof the giving by each claimant or plaintiff to each Indemnified Party of a release from all liability in respect of such claim or (b) if, pursuant to or as a result of such consent or settlement, injunctive or other equitable relief would be imposed against the Indemnified Party or such judgment or settlement could materially interfere with the business, operations or assets of the Indemnified Party; and

- 5.4.2.3. if the Indemnifying Party does not assume control of the defense of such claim in accordance with the foregoing provisions within three days (3) after receipt of notice of the claim, the Indemnified Party shall have the right to defend such claim in such manner as it may deem appropriate at the cost and expense of the Indemnifying Party, and the Indemnifying Party will promptly reimburse the Indemnified Party therefore in accordance with this Article 5, provided that the Indemnified Party shall not be entitled to consent to the entry of any judgment or enter into any settlement of such claim that does not include as an unconditional term thereof the giving by each claimant or plaintiff to each Indemnifying Party of a release from all liability in respect of such claim without the prior written consent of the Indemnifying Party if, pursuant to or as a result of such consent or settlement, injunctive or other equitable relief would be imposed against the Indemnifying Party or such judgment or settlement could materially interfere with the business, operations or assets of the Indemnifying Party.
- 5.4.3. Remedies Cumulative. The remedies provided herein shall be cumulative and shall not preclude assertion by any party of any rights or the seeking of any other remedies against any other party.

5.5. Right of Set-Off.

Upon notice to the Sellers or the Shareholder, as the case may be, specifying in reasonable detail the basis therefor, the Purchaser may set off any amount to which it may be entitled under this Section 5 against amounts otherwise payable to the Sellers or the Shareholder under this Agreement or otherwise. Neither the exercise of, nor the failure to exercise, such right of set-off will constitute an election of remedies nor limit Purchaser in any manner in the enforcement of any other remedies that may be available to it.

6. MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS.

6.1. Binding Arbitration.

All disputes, controversies and claims arising out of or in connection with, or relating to this Agreement or any breach or alleged breach hereof shall, on the request of any party involved, be submitted to and settled by arbitration in the City of Minneapolis, State of Minnesota, pursuant to the commercial arbitration rules then in effect of the American Arbitration Association (or any other time or any other place or any other form of arbitration mutually acceptable to the parties so involved). Any award rendered shall be final and conclusive upon the parties and a judgment thereon may be entered in the highest court of the forum, state or federal, having jurisdiction.

6.2. Expenses.

Except as otherwise provided herein, the Purchaser and the Sellers will each bear their own costs and expenses relating to the transactions contemplated hereby, including without limitation, fees and expenses of legal counsel, accountants, investment bankers, brokers or finders, printers, copiers, consultants or other representatives for the services used, hired or connected with the transactions contemplated hereby. To the extent that such expenses are incurred by the Sellers and are reasonable, the Purchaser agrees to assume all or a part of such expenses as an Assumed Liability. The Purchaser and the Sellers will each pay any commission or finder's fee or similar amount incurred by them by agreement or otherwise for retaining or consulting any broker, finder or investment banker in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

6.3. Amendment and Modification.

Subject to applicable Law, this Agreement may be amended or modified by the parties hereto with respect to any of the terms contained herein; provided, however, that all such amendments and modifications must be in writing duly executed by all of the parties hereto.

6.4. Waiver of Compliance; Consents.

Any failure of a party to comply with any obligation, covenant, agreement or condition herein may be expressly waived in writing by the party entitled hereby to such compliance, but such waiver or failure to insist upon strict compliance with such obligation, covenant, agreement or condition will not operate as a waiver of, or estoppel with respect to, any subsequent or other failure. No single or partial exercise of a right or remedy will preclude any other or further exercise thereof or of any other right or remedy hereunder. Whenever this Agreement requires or permits the consent by or on behalf of a party, such consent will be given in writing in the same manner as for waivers of compliance.

6.5. No Third Party Beneficiaries.

Nothing in this Agreement will entitle any person or entity (other than a party hereto and his, her or its respective successors and assigns permitted hereby) to any claim, cause of action, remedy or right of any kind.

6.6. Notices.

All notices, requests, demands and other communications required or permitted hereunder will be made in writing and will be deemed to have been duly given and effective: (i) on the date of delivery, if delivered personally; (ii) on the earlier of the fourth (4th) day after mailing or the date of the return receipt acknowledgment, if mailed, postage prepaid, by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested; or (iii) on the date of transmission, if sent by facsimile, telecopy, telegraph, telex or other similar telegraphic communications equipment and such transmission is confirmed:

6.7. Assignment.

6.8. Governing Law.

This Agreement and the legal relations among the parties hereto will be governed by and construed in accordance with the internal substantive laws of the State of Minnesota (without regard to the laws of conflict that might otherwise apply) as to all matters, including without limitation matters of validity, construction, effect, performance and remedies, except to the extent that the provisions of the Minnesota Corporation Code may apply to the internal affairs of Sellers.

6.12. Certain Definitions.

CONSULTING AGREEMENT

This Agreement (the "Agreement"), effective as of July 1, 1998, is between BCBSM, Inc., d/b/a Blue Cross and Blue Shield of Minnesota, a Minnesota nonprofit health service corporation (the "Company"), with an address at 3535 Blue Cross Road, Eagan, MN 55122 and Creative Benefit Consultants, Inc. a Minnesota corporation ("CBC"), with an address at 4429 Wilderness Run Ct., Eagan, MN 55213-1835 and Virgil Hammerstad, an individual residing in Wisconsin, with an address at 333 Galahad Rd. N., Hudson, WI 54016-1021 (CBC and Virgil Hammerstad are collectively referred to as the "Consultant"). Company, CBC and Consultant are sometimes referred to herein, individually as a "Party" and collectively as the "Parties."

WHEREAS, The Parties wish to provide for the engagement of the Consultant by the Company.

WHEREAS, The Consultant wishes to receive compensation from the Company for the Consultant's services, and the Company desires reasonable protection of its confidential business and technical information that has been acquired and is being developed by the Company at substantial expense.

WHEREAS, The Company wishes to obtain reasonable protection against unfair competition from the Consultant following termination of engagement and to further protect against unfair use of its confidential business and technical information and the Consultant is willing to grant the Company the benefits of a covenant-not-to-compete for these purposes.

NOW, THEREFORE, The Parties, each intending to be legally bound, agree as follows:

1. Engagement. Subject to all of the terms and conditions of this Agreement, the Company agrees to engage the Consultant for the term of this Agreement, and the Consultant accepts such engagement.

2. Independent Contractor Status. It is expressly understood and agreed that the Consultant is and shall be an independent contractor and not an employee of the Company with respect to the services contemplated by this Agreement. As an independent contractor, the Consultant shall not be entitled to any pension, profit sharing, health or similar or other benefits, if any, that are or may be available to employees of the Company. Further, the Consultant shall pay any and all payroll or income taxes of any nature whatsoever, including, without limitation, FICA taxes and federal, state, provisional and local taxes, imposed upon the fees paid to the Consultant under this Agreement. Consultant shall have no authority to bind the Company to any contract, agreement or arrangement.

3. Duries. For the term specified in this Agreement, the Consultant will provide consulting, general advisory and other services to or on behalf of the Company as may be relevant to providing health benefits coverage administrative services to Minnesota Services Cooperatives, ("MSCs") as established by Minnesota Statutes section 123.582, subd. 1. Such services to MSCs are hereinafter referred to as "the Business." The general nature of such services is more specifically set forth in Exhibit A attached hereto and incorporated into this Agreement. The Consultant shall provide the services by telephone, in writing and in person as the Company reasonably requests. The Consultant will employ his best efforts and endeavor in good faith to render the services which are the subject of this Agreement, and will perform such other reasonable duties and services as may be consistent with the responsibilities of the position, provided such services shall not be less than 267 hours per year.

4. Term. Subject to earlier termination in accordance with Section 5 below, this Agreement shall become effective on the date set forth above and will have a term of sixty (60) months.

5. Termination. Subject to the respective continuing obligations of the Company and the Consultant under Sections 7, 8, 9 and 10 below:

(a) Either Party may terminate this Agreement immediately on written notice to the other Party for cause, including (without limitation) fraud, misrepresentation, theft, embezzlement of assets of the Company;

(b) Either Party may terminate this Agreement upon thirty (30) days written notice to the other Party of a material breach of any provision of this Agreement, which remains uncured after such thirty (30) days; and

(c) This Agreement will terminate upon the Consultant's death or upon written notice from the Company in the event of the Consultant's disability that prevents the Consultant from performing his duties under this Agreement (as described in Section 3 above). In the event of Consultant's death during the term of this Agreement, in recognition of the continued benefit of services provided before his death, Consultant's estate, or other beneficiary as directed by Consultant, shall be paid an amount equal to $150,000 less amounts received in previous years under this Agreement.

6. Compensation.

(a) Cash Compensation. During the term of this Agreement, the Company shall pay the Consultant a fee One Hundred Fifty Thousand ($150,000) during the 60 month period of this Agreement. Payment shall be made as follows:

(i) Sixty Thousand Dollars ($60,000) due and payable, together with accrued interest from July 1, 1998 to the date of payment, calculated at the same rate as the 90-day Treasury Bill rate, as of the date of payment.

(ii) Thirty Thousand Dollars ($30,000) due and payable on January 1, 2001.

(iii) Thirty Thousand Dollars ($30,000) due and payable on January 1, 2002.

(iv) Thirty Thousand Dollars ($30,000) due and payable on January 1, 2003.

7. Inventions.

"Inventions," as used in this Section 7, means any inventions, discoveries, (a) improvements and ideas (whether or not they are in writing or reduced to practice) or works of authorship (whether or not they can be patented or copyrighted) that the Consultant makes, authors, or conceives (either alone or with others) and that both: (a) result from any work the Consultant performs for the Company; and (b) relate in any way to the Company's business, products or services, past, present, anticipated or under development. The Consultant agrees that all Inventions made by the Consultant during or within six months after the termination of this Agreement will be the Company's sole and exclusive property. The Consultant will assign (and the Consultant hereby assigns) to the Company all of the Consultant's rights to the Invention, any applications the Consultant makes for patents or copyrights in any country, and any patents or copyrights granted to the Consultant in any country. The Consultant represents that, except as previously disclosed to the Company in writing, as of the date of this Agreement, the Consultant does not have any rights under, and will not make any claim against the Company with respect to any inventions, discoveries, improvements, ideas or works of authorship which would be Inventions if made, conceived, authored or acquired by the Consultant during the term of this Agreement.

(b) To the extent that any Invention qualifies as "work made for hire" as defined in 17 U.S.C. § 101 (1976), as amended, such Invention shall constitute "work made for hire" and, as such, shall be the exclusive property of the Company.

8. Confidential Information.

(a) "Confidential Information" means information or data of the Company concerning its business, customers, products, proposed products, plans, inventions, processes and techniques which is obtained by another designated person or entity, whether received during the term of this Agreement or previously during the term of the Distribution Agreement, but does not include information that: (a) is already lawfully in the possession of the obtaining person through independent means at the time of disclosure thereof; (b) is or later becomes part of the public domain through no fault of obtaining person; (c) is lawfully received by the obtaining person from a third party having no obligations of confidentiality to another person or entity which treats such information to be proprietary to it; (d) is required to be disclosed by order of a governmental agency or by a court of competent jurisdiction; or (e) is independently developed by the obtaining persons by agents or employees having no access to the information otherwise constituting Confidential Information.

(b) Except as expressly authorized in writing by this Agreement or otherwise, and, during the term of this Agreement and thereafter, (a) Consultant will not use for his own benefit or the benefit of any third party any Confidential Information of the Company or any Affiliate; and (b) Consultant will use all reasonable care, but in no event less care than he takes to protect his own Confidential Information of similar importance, to protect the Confidential Information of the Company or its Affiliates from unauthorized use, disclosure and publication. The Consultant further agrees that he (a) shall use the Confidential Information only for, and in the course of providing services for the Company pursuant to the terms of this Agreement, and (b) shall, immediately upon the earlier of the termination of this Agreement or the request of the Company, deliver to the Company any and all originals and all copies of the Confidential Information.

9. Competitive Activities. The Consultant agrees that, during the term of engagement with the Company, the Consultant will not alone, or in any capacity with another firm,

(a) directly or indirectly render services to any person, firm or corporation in connection with the development, marketing, sale or promotion of any products or services that are competitive with any products or services of the Company (whether commercially available or under development) on which the Consultant worked or with respect to which the Consultant received confidential or proprietary information during the Consultant's engagement with the Company; or

(b) in any way interfere or attempt to interfere with the Company's relationships with any of its current or potential customers or suppliers; or

(c) employ or attempt to employ (by soliciting or assisting anyone else in the solicitation of) any of the Company's then employees on behalf of any other entity competing with the Company.

This Section 9 shall cease to be applicable to any activity of the Consultant from and after such time as the Company (i) shall have ceased all business activities for a period of six (6) months or (ii) shall have made a decision through its Board of Directors not to continue, or shall have ceased for a period of six (6) months, the business activities with which such activity of the Consultant would be competitive.

Furthermore, if one of the MSCs decides, independently, to use another third party administrator for services similar to those services previously provided by the Company, Consultant will be free to pursue an opportunity to place the groups in the MSC with the Company directly or through another pooling arrangement, with the approval of the Company.

The provisions of this Section 9 shall survive the termination of this Agreement in the event the Agreement is terminated by BCBSM under Section 5 (i) for cause, including (without limitation) fraud, misrepresentation, theft, embezzlement of assets of the Company by Consultant; (ii) for a material breach by Consultant of any provision of this Agreement, which remains uncured after such thirty (30) days; or (iii) in the event of the Consultant's disability that prevents the Consultant from performing duties under this Agreement.

10. No Adequate Remedy. The Consultant understands that if the Consultant fails to fulfill the Consultant's obligations under Sections 7, 8 or 9 of this Agreement, the damages to the Company would be very difficult to determine. Therefore, in addition to any other rights or remedies available to the Company at law, in equity, or by statute, the Consultant hereby consents to the specific enforcement of Sections 7, 8 and 9 of this Agreement by the Company through an injunction or restraining order issued by an appropriate court.

11. Consent to Use of Name. The Consultant consents to the use of the Consultant's name, without prior written approval, in appropriate Company materials.

12. Miscellaneous.

(a) No Conflicts. The Consultant represents and warrants to the Company that neither the entering into of this Agreement nor the performance of any of the Consultant's obligations hereunder will conflict with or constitute a breach under any obligation of the Consultant under any agreement or contract to which the Consultant is a party or any other obligation by which the Consultant is bound. Without limiting the foregoing, the Consultant agrees that at no time will the Consultant utilize any trade secrets or other intellectual property of any third party while performing services hereunder.

(b) Modification. This Agreement may be modified or amended only by a writing signed by both the Company and the Consultant.

(c) Governing Law. The laws of Minnesota will govern the validity, construction, and performance of this Agreement.

(d) Construction. Wherever possible, each provision of this Agreement will be interpreted so that it is valid under the applicable law. If any provision of this Agreement is to any extent invalid under the applicable law, that provision will still be effective to the extent it remains valid. The remainder of this Agreement also will continue to be valid, and the entire Agreement will continue to be valid in other jurisdictions.

(e) Waivers. No failure or delay by either the Company or the Consultant in exercising any right or remedy under this Agreement will waive any provision of the Agreement.

(f) Entire Agreement. This Agreement supersedes all previous and contemporaneous oral negotiations, commitments, writings and understandings between the Parties concerning the matters in this Agreement, including without limitation any policy or personnel manuals of the Company.

(g) Notices. All notices and other communications required or permitted under this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be hand-delivered or sent by registered or certified first-class mail, postage prepaid, or commercial overnight delivery service and shall be effective upon delivery if hand-delivered, three (3) days after mailing if mailed or one (1) day after delivery to a commercial overnight delivery service, in each case to the addresses stated at the beginning of this Agreement. These addresses may be changed at any time by like notice.

(h) Assignments. Except for permitted assignment as provided above, or otherwise expressly permitted hereunder, neither this Agreement nor any right or obligation arising hereunder may be assigned by any Party hereto, in whole or in part, without the prior written consent of each other Party hereto, which may be withheld in the absolute discretion of such other Party, and any attempted assignment in violation of the terms hereof will be null and void and of no force or effect. The Parties agree that either Party may assign its rights and delegate its duties hereunder to any entity which it controls, is controlled by or with which it is under common control. Subject to the foregoing sentence, this Agreement will be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the Parties and their respective successors and assigns.

(i) Disputes. All disputes, controversies and claims arising out of or in connection with, or relating to this Agreement or any breach or alleged breach hereof shall, on the request of any party involved, be submitted to and settled by arbitration in the City of Minneapolis, State of Minnesota, pursuant to the commercial arbitration rules then in effect of the American Arbitration Association (or any other time or any other place or any other form of arbitration mutually acceptable to the parties so involved). Any award rendered shall be final and conclusive upon the parties and a judgment thereon may be entered in the highest court of the forum, state or federal, having jurisdiction.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Company and the Consultant have executed this Agreement as of the date first above written.

Company, CBC and Consultant are sometimes referred to herein, individually as a "Party" and collectively as the "Parties."

WHEREAS, The Parties wish to provide for the engagement of the Consultant by the Company.

WHEREAS, Consultant wishes to receive compensation from the Company for the Consultant's services, and the Company desires reasonable protection of its confidential business and technical information that has been acquired and is being developed by the Company at substantial expense.

WHEREAS, The Company wishes to obtain reasonable protection against unfair competition from the Consultant following termination of engagement and to further protect against unfair use of its confidential business and technical information and the Consultant is willing to grant the Company the benefits of a covenant-not-to-compete for these purposes.

NOW, THEREFORE, The Parties, each intending to be legally bound, agree as follows:

- 1. Engagement. Subject to all of the terms and conditions of this Agreement, the Company agrees to engage Consultant for the term of this Agreement, and Consultant accepts such engagement.
- 2. Independent Consultant Status. Consultant is an independent consultant, and is not an employee, servant, agent, partner, or joint venturer of Blue Cross. Blue Cross shall identify and request the Services to be performed, but Consultant shall determine the legal means by which all Services are to be accomplished. Blue Cross is not responsible for withholding, and shall not withhold, FICA or any other employment-related taxes of any kind from any payments made to Consultant. Neither Consultant nor its employees nor any subcontracted personnel shall be entitled to receive any benefits which employees of Blue Cross are entitled to receive, nor shall Consultant, its employees or subcontracted personnel be entitled to receive from or through Blue Cross, workers' compensation, unemployment compensation, medical insurance, paid

Consultant shall provide written statements to the Company every quarter itemizing the time and work he has performed in connection with this Agreement. Failure to comply with the required hours of Service or to submit itemized statements of time will constitute a material breach.

(a) All intellectual property and other work product created by Consultant or any person working for or under Consultant in connection with Services provided Blue Cross under this Agreement and Schedule(s) including, without limitation, all methods, processes, business adaptations, reports, products, notes, drafts, programs, software, memos, manuals, deliverables and other materials, whether in paper, electronic or other form and whether completed or in process (collectively "Work Product"), and all trademark and patent rights, copyrights, trade secrets and other propertybased or ownership-based rights and interests therein or stemming therefrom, are hereby irrevocably and unconditionally assigned and transferred to, and shall immediately upon the creation of or the coming into existence thereof become, the exclusive property of Blue Cross and shall be deemed to constitute trade secrets and Confidential Information of Blue Cross and subject to the restrictions of Confidential Information contained in this Agreement. Consultant retains no rights or interest in connection with such assignment and transfer, and Consultant acknowledges that Consultant will not have the right to publish or use any such Work Product (in any form or state of revision or in any derivation whatsoever) without Blue Cross's prior written consent, even in the event it is deemed not to constitute Confidential Information. All such Work Product shall be left with Blue Cross upon completion of the Services to use or employ in any manner Blue Cross deems appropriate in its sole discretion. All Work Product which results from or relates to such Services shall be deemed to be "works made for hire" within the meaning of then current U.S. copyright law to the extent not expressly proscribed by federal law. If any Work Product does not qualify as "works made for hire" within the meaning of then current U.S. copyright law, then Consultant hereby irrevocably transfers, assigns and conveys the entire right, title and interest in the Work Product to Blue Cross. Consultant agrees that it will have and maintain written agreements between Consultant and any of Consultant's principals, employees and subConsultants, if any, who provide Services and/or Work Product hereunder which establish and assign to Blue Cross all such rights and interests in such Work Product and that copies of such agreements will be made available to Blue Cross upon request. Consultant agrees to execute and deliver to Blue Cross all documents reasonably requested by Blue Cross in connection with such assignment of rights, and upon request, Consultant will cooperate with Blue Cross to perfect, assert or defend Blue Cross's rights and interests in such Work Product. Consultant warrants that no other party shall have any rights whatsoever therein.

(b) It is understood that Consultant shall be free to use its general knowledge, skills and experience and any ideas, concepts, know-how, and techniques related to the Services provided by Consultant. Consultant shall retain all ownership rights in any preexisting proprietary tools, products and methodologies of Consultant which Consultant can adequately document as having been previously developed by Consultant and that Consultant may use in performing the Services; provided, however, that Consultant hereby grants to Blue Cross a non-exclusive, perpetual, royalty free license to use such preexisting proprietary tools, products and methodologies of Consultant to the extent the same are incorporated in or necessary to the use of the Services and/or Work Product provided to Blue Cross by Consultant.

(c) Consultant may retain, subject to the terms of Sections 5 and 6, copies of its work papers relating to Services provided pursuant to this Agreement solely for internal use by Consultant in connection with compliance with its quality assurance requirements.

(d) The parties acknowledge and agree that monetary damages will not fully compensate the other party in the event of a breach of the terms and conditions of this Section 7 and that upon any such violation, the nonbreaching party shall be entitled as a matter of right to injunctive relief in addition to all other remedies at law.

8. Confidential Information.

(a) Consultant acknowledges and agrees that in the course of performance of Consultant's obligations under this Agreement, Consultant might be given or obtain access to Confidential Information of Blue Cross and/or any Affiliate (defined below). Consultant shall not disclose, nor shall Consultant permit it's employees and subConsultants to disclose, to any employee or subConsultant of Consultant who is not specifically assigned to perform Services in connection with this Agreement or to any other person, entity or organization not a party to this Agreement, any such Confidential Information of Blue Cross and/or any Affiliate. Consultants obligations set forth in this Section 8 shall survive expiration or earlier termination of this Agreement and completion of the Services in connection herewith. The term "Affiliate" for purposes of this Agreement shall mean (i) any entity that, directly or indirectly, through one or more intermediaries, controls or is controlled by or is under common control with Blue Cross, and/or (ii) any entity in which an entity described in "(i)" above holds not less than 30% of the membership interest or issued and outstanding voting securities thereof.

"Confidential Information" shall for purposes of this Agreement include, (b) without limitation, all information in any form which relates to the business and operations of Blue Cross and/or any Affiliate, including, without limitation, information related to corporate strategic goals, plans, strategies, products and services, commercial and financial information, system functionality charts and descriptions, program code logic, trade secret information, information about employees and customers, and any notes, analyses, cost data, compilations, studies, interpretations, or documents which contain or are based upon any Confidential Information, regardless of whether any such materials or information are specifically labeled as "confidential", and any other information in any form generally understood to be proprietary, trade secret or confidential, or which under the all the circumstances ought reasonably to be treated as proprietary, trade secret or confidential. Consultant shall not use such Confidential Information except in furtherance of the purposes of this Agreement: Consultant shall have no rights of ownership or otherwise in any Confidential Information of Blue Cross or an Affiliate hereunder and all such rights are expressly reserved.

(c) Confidential Information shall not include any information which (i) is, as of the time of its disclosure, or thereafter becomes, part of the public domain through a source other than Consultant, its employees or subConsultants; (ii) was known to Consultant as of the time of its disclosure by Blue Cross to Consultant and not subject to any confidentiality obligation; (iii) is independently developed by Consultant without reference to the Confidential Information; or (iv) is learned or acquired from a third party not subject to an obligation of confidentiality with respect to the information disclosed.

(d) Consultant shall not remove from the premises of Blue Cross any such Confidential Information of Blue Cross or any Affiliate without first having obtained the prior written consent of Blue Cross or such Affiliate. Blue Cross shall present its "Confidential Information Policy", substantially in the form of Exhibit "B" attached hereto and incorporated herein by this reference (and as such Confidential Information Policy may be revised by Blue Cross from time to time) to all of Consultant's employees and subConsultants who are assigned to perform Services hereunder and Blue Cross may require their individual signature thereon as a condition to Consultant's performance of Services.

- (e) In the event Consultant receives a subpoena or other validly issued administrative or judicial process demanding Confidential Information of Blue Cross or of an Affiliate, Consultant shall promptly notify Blue Cross and/or the Affiliate and tender to it the defense of such demand. Unless the demand shall have been timely limited, quashed or extended, Consultant shall thereafter be entitled to comply with such demand to the extent required by law.
- (f) Upon expiration or termination of this Agreement, Consultant shall return to Blue Cross all Confidential Information of Blue Cross or its Affiliates, within ten (10) days of written demand. The terms and provisions of this Section 5 shall survive termination of this Agreement.
- (g) Consultant acknowledges and agrees that monetary damages will not fully compensate Blue Cross or an Affiliate in the event of a breach of the terms and conditions of this Section 5 and that upon any such violation, Blue Cross and/or the Affiliate shall be entitled as a matter of right to injunctive relief in addition to all other remedies at law.
- Competitive Activities. Consultant agrees that, during the term of engagement with the Company, Consultant will not alone, or in any capacity with another firm,
  - (a) directly or indirectly render services to any person, firm or corporation in connection with the development, marketing, sale or promotion of any products or services that are competitive with any products or services of the Company (whether commercially available or under development) on which Consultant worked or with respect to which Consultant received confidential or proprietary information during Consultant's engagement with the Company; or
  - (b) in any way interfere or attempt to interfere with the Company's relationships with any of its current or potential customers or suppliers: or
  - (c) employ or attempt to employ (by soliciting or assisting anyone else in the solicitation of) any of the Company's then employees on behalf of any other entity competing with the Company.

This Section 9 shall cease to be applicable to any activity of Consultant from and after such time as the Company (i) shall have ceased all business activities for a period of six (6) months or (ii) shall have made a decision through its Board of Trustees not to continue, or shall have ceased for a period of six (6) months, the business activities with which such activity of Consultant would be competitive.

Furthermore, if one of the MSCs decides, independently, to use another third party administrator for services similar to those services previously provided by the Company, Consultant will be free to pursue an opportunity to place the groups in the MSC with the Company directly or through another pooling arrangement, with the approval of the Company.

The provisions of this Section 9 shall survive the termination of this Agreement in the event the Agreement is terminated by the Company under Section 5 (i) for cause, including (without limitation) fraud, misrepresentation, theft, embezzlement of assets of the Company by Consultant; (ii) for a material breach by Consultant of any provision of this Agreement, which remains uncured after such thirty (30) days; (iii) in the event of Consultant's disability that prevents Consultant from performing duties under this Agreement; or (iv) upon mutual agreement of the parties.

- 10. No Adequate Remedy. Consultant understands that if Consultant fails to fulfill Consultant's obligations under Sections 7,8, or 9 of this Agreement, the damages to the Company would be very difficult to determine. Therefore, in addition to any other rights or remedies available to the Company at law, in equity, or by statute, Consultant hereby consents to the specific enforcement of Sections 7, 8 and 9 of this Agreement by the Company through an injunction or restraining order issued by an appropriate court.
- 11. Consent to Use of Name. Consultant consents to the use of Consultant's name, without prior written approval, in appropriate Company materials.
- 12. Warranties.
  - (a) Consultant warrants that (i) Consultant, its employees and subConsultants, if any, shall have the requisite skills, abilities, licenses and qualifications to provide the Services, (ii) Consultant shall comply with all applicable local, state and federal ordinances, laws and regulations in providing the Services, (iii) all Services to be performed hereunder will be performed in a good, professional, workmanlike and competent manner, in conformity with all applicable standards and the requirements of this Agreement, and (iv) Consultant's performance of Services does not and will not violate the terms and conditions of any other contract or obligation of Consultant.
  - (b) Consultant warrants that all Work Product will function and perform in accordance with any specifications as outlined in the applicable Schedules. If any Work Product does not conform to the foregoing warranty, Blue Cross shall notify Consultant in writing of such nonconformance and Consultant shall as soon as reasonably practicable re-perform Services to modify such Work Product to make it conform to such warranty.
  - (c) Consultant warrants that no Work Product will infringe upon or violate any rights of a third party or parties, including, without limitation, any patent, copyright, trade secret or other intellectual property right.

(d) Except for the express warranties provided in this Agreement or as may be provided in a respective Schedule, Consultant does not make any express or implied warranties, including, without limitation, the implied warranties of merchantability and fitness for a particular purpose.

13. Miscellaneous.

- (a) No Conflicts. Consultant represents and warrants to the Company that neither the entering into of this Agreement nor the performance of any of Consultant's obligations hereunder will conflict with or constitute a breach under any obligation of Consultant under any agreement or contract to which Consultant is a party or any other obligation by which Consultant is bound. the addresses stated at the beginning of this Agreement. These addresses may be changed at any time by like notice.

- (h) Assignments. Except for permitted assignment as provided above, or otherwise expressly permitted hereunder, neither this Agreement nor any right or obligation arising hereunder may be assigned by any Party hereto, in whole or in part, without the prior written consent of each other Party hereto, which may be withheld in the absolute discretion of such other Party, and any attempted assignment in violation of the terms hereof will be null and void and of no force or effect. The Parties agree that either Party may assign its rights and delegate its duties hereunder to any entity which it controls, is controlled by or with which it is under common control. Subject to the foregoing sentence, this Agreement will be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the Parties and their respective successors and assigns.

N., Hudson, WI 54016-1021 (CBC and Virgil Hammerstad are collectively referred to as the "Consultant"). Company, CBC and Consultant are sometimes referred to herein, individually as a "Party" and collectively as the "Parties."

WHEREAS, The Parties wish to provide for the engagement of the Consultant by the Company.

WHEREAS, Consultant wishes to receive compensation from the Company for the Consultant's services, and the Company desires reasonable protection of its confidential business and technical information that has been acquired and is being developed by the Company at substantial expense.

WHEREAS, The Company wishes to obtain reasonable protection against unfair competition from the Consultant following termination of engagement and to further protect against unfair use of its confidential business and technical information and the Consultant is willing to grant the Company the benefits of a covenant-not-to-compete for these purposes.

NOW, THEREFORE, The Parties, each intending to be legally bound, agree as follows:

- Engagement. Subject to all of the terms and conditions of this Agreement, the Company agrees to engage Consultant for the term of this Agreement, and Consultant accepts such engagement.
- 2. Independent Consultant Status. Consultant is an independent consultant, and is not an employee, servant, agent, partner, or joint venturer of Blue Cross. Neither party to this Agreement will have any authority to bind or represent the other party. Blue Cross shall identify and request the Services to be performed, but Consultant shall determine the legal means by which all Services are to be accomplished. Blue Cross is not responsible for withholding, and shall not withhold, FICA or any other employment-related taxes of any kind from any payments made to Consultant. Neither Consultant nor its employees nor any subcontracted personnel shall be entitled to receive any benefits which employees of Blue Cross are entitled to receive, nor shall Consultant, its employees or subcontracted personnel be entitled to receive from or through Blue Cross, workers' compensation, unemployment compensation, medical insurance, paid

For the term specified in this Agreement, Consultant will provide Duties. consulting, general advisory and other services to or on behalf of the Company as may be relevant to providing health benefits coverage administrative services to Minnesota Services Cooperatives, ("MSCs") as established by Minnesota Statutes section 123A.21. Such services to MSCs are hereinafter referred to as "the Business." The general nature of such services is more specifically set forth in Exhibit A attached hereto and incorporated into this Agreement. Consultant shall provide the services by telephone, in writing and in person as the Company reasonably requests. Consultant will employ best efforts and endeavor in good faith to render the services which are the subject of this Agreement, and will perform such other reasonable duties and services as may be consistent with the responsibilities of the position, provided such services shall not be less than 800 hours for every 12-month period starting with the effective date of this. Agreement. Consultant shall provide written statements to the Company in a form satisfactory to Company every quarter itemizing the time and work he has performed in connection with this Agreement. Failure to comply with the required hours of Service or to submit itemized statements of time will constitute a material breach.

In event that BCBSM, or a Service Cooperative, advises Consultant that the services rendered or to be rendered by Consultant may conflict with the duties and responsibilities owed to BCBSM or a Service Cooperative, such matter shall become subject to the dispute resolution process set forth in this paragraph. In event of such dispute, the parties, along with the Service Cooperative if the Service Cooperative so agrees, shall meet in person and attempt to resolve such issues informally. If resolution does not take place, the parties, along with the Service Cooperative if Service Cooperative is a neutral mediator selected by the parties. If such resolution still does not take place, the parties, along with the Service Cooperative if the Service Cooperative so agrees, shall be submitted to arbitration as set forth in Paragraph 13(i) of this Agreement.

Term. Subject to earlier termination in accordance with Section 5 below, this Agreement shall become effective on the date set forth above and will have a term of sixty (60) months, provided that, this Agreement will become null and void if the attached Acknowledgement and Consent Form is not executed on or before March 1, 2004 by each such MSC doing business with Company.

Termination. Subject to the respective continuing obligations of the Company and Consultant under Sections 7, 8, 9 and 10 below:

- (g) Consultant acknowledges and agrees that monetary damages will not fully compensate Blue Cross or an Affiliate in the event of a breach of the terms and conditions of this Section 9 and that upon any such violation, Blue Cross and/or the Affiliate shall be entitled as a matter of right to injunctive relief in addition to all other remedies at law.

(a) By Each Party. (b) By CHI. CHI makes the following representations and warranties for the benefit of Customer: (i) to the best of CHI's knowledge, Customer's use, reproduction and dissemination of the CHI Content in the Customer CD Site only in the form provided by CHI and as contemplated under this Agreement will not materially infringe any Intellectual Property Right of any third party; (ii) the CHI Content as provided by CHI on the Customer CD Site will not contain any material or information that is obscene, defamatory, libelous or slanderous; (iii) all Deliverables shall be prepared with professional diligence and skill; (iv) CHI will perform all work called for by this Agreement in material compliance with applicable U.S. laws; and (v) all Deliverables will materially conform to the specifications and functions set forth in this Agreement and shall be free from significant programming errors (any programming error which causes any Deliverable to become inoperable or otherwise causes a significant interruption in Users' access to or use of the Customer CD Site). CHI will use commercially reasonable efforts to repair any Deliverable that does not meet this warranty, and if the defect renders the Customer CD Site inaccessible or unusable, CHI will immediately address the problem as soon as it receives notice thereof, and use reasonable commercial efforts to repair the defect within 8 hours or less thereafter. This warranty shall extend for the life of this Agreement.

6. Limitation of Liability; Disclaimer.

Limitation of Liability. EXCEPT AS EXPRESSLY PROVIDED IN (a) SECTION 6(b) BELOW, IN NO EVENT SHALL EITHER PARTY HAVE ANY LIABILITY TO THE OTHER PARTY OR ANY OTHER PERSON OR ENTITY FOR ANY LOST OPPORTUNITY OR PROFITS, COSTS OF PROCUREMENT OF SUBSTITUTE TECHNOLOGY, GOODS OR SERVICES, OR FOR ANY INDIRECT, INCIDENTAL, CONSEQUENTIAL OR SPECIAL DAMAGES ARISING OUT OF THIS AGREEMENT. UNDER ANY CAUSE OF ACTION OR LEGAL OR EQUITABLE THEORY OF LIABILITY (INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, NEGLIGENCE, CONTRACT AND STRICT LIABILITY), EVEN IF EITHER PARTY HAS BEEN ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY OR PROBABILITY OF SUCH DAMAGES AND EVEN IF THE REMEDIES PROVIDED FOR IN THIS AGREEMENT FAIL OF THEIR ESSENTIAL PURPOSE. IN ANY EVENT, NEITHER PARTY SHALL BE LIABLE TO THE OTHER PARTY UNDER THIS AGREEMENT. INCLUDING THE INDEMNIFICATION PROVISIONS AND THE REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES, FOR AMOUNTS IN EXCESS OF THOSE PAYABLE UNDER THIS AGREEMENT.

(b) EXCLUSIONS. THE FOREGOING LIMITATIONS OF LIABILITY DO NOT APPLY TO ANY BREACH OF SECTIONS 9 OR 10 OF THIS AGREEMENT.

(c) NO ADDITIONAL WARRANTIES. EXCEPT AS SET FORTH IN SECTION 5 OF THIS AGREEMENT, ALL TECHNOLOGY, GOODS, SERVICES, DELIVERABLES AND OTHER MATERIALS PROVIDED UNDER THIS AGREEMENT ARE PROVIDED "AS IS" WITHOUT ANY REPRESENTATIONS OR WARRANTIES, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, OF ANY KIND, INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, ANY IMPLIED WARRANTY OF MERCHANTABILITY OR FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE AND IMPLIED WARRANTIES ARISING FROM COURSE OF DEALING OR COURSE OF PERFORMANCE.

7. Indemnification.

(a) By CHI. CHI will indemnify, defend and hold harmless Customer, its affiliates and subsidiaries, and its and their respective directors, officers, employees and agents (collectively, "Customer Persons") from any and all costs, expenses (including reasonable attorney's fees), losses, damages or liabilities incurred insofar as such costs, expenses, losses, damages or liabilities are based on a claim that the CHI Content, Additional Content, CHI Technology or Additional Technology infringe any Intellectual Property Rights of a third party. Customer shall promptly notify CHI in writing of any claim for which it seeks indemnification, provided the failure or delay in doing so shall not relieve CHI from any obligation to indemnify any Customer Person except to the extent such delay or failure materially prejudices the defense of any such claim. CHI will have control of the defense of any action and all negotiations for settlement and compromise, but shall not make any settlement binding on any Customer Person without Customer's consent except if such settlement provides a complete and absolute release of such person. Customer shall provide CHI with reasonable assistance and information necessary to perform the above, with CHI to be responsible for any out-of-pocket expenses of any Customer Person in providing such assistance. If any Customer Person desires to have separate legal representation in any such action, such Customer Person shall be responsible for the costs and fees of its separate counsel.

In the event any Deliverable becomes the subject of an infringement claim, CHI shall at its sole expense either (i) procure for Customer the right to continue to use the Deliverable as contemplated hereunder; (ii) modify the Deliverable to eliminate any infringement claim which might result from its use hereunder, provided that the Deliverable's performance must remain the same as provided herein, or (iii) replace the Deliverable with an equally suitable, compatible, and functionally equivalent noninfringing Deliverable at no additional charge to Customer. If none of these options is reasonably available to CHI after exercising its reasonable best efforts to implement one of the options set forth above, then upon Customer's request CHI shall refund to Customer a pro-rated amount of the portion of the licensee fees paid by Customer equal to the value to the Deliverable.

By Customer. Customer will indemnify, defend and hold harmless CHI, (b) BabyCenter, eToys Inc., their respective affiliates and subsidiaries, and CHI's, BabyCenter's, eToys, Inc.'s and their respective affiliates and subsidiaries' respective directors, officers, employees and agents (collectively, "CHI Persons") from any and all costs, expenses (including reasonable attorney's fees), losses, damages or liabilities incurred insofar as such costs, expenses, losses, damages or liabilities are based on a claim that the Customer Content or the Customer Brand Features infringe any Intellectual Property Rights of a third party. CHI or BabyCenter shall promptly notify Customer in writing of any claim for which it seeks indemnification, provided the failure or delay in doing so shall not relieve Customer from any obligation to indemnify any CHI Person except to the extent such delay or failure materially prejudices the defense of any such claim. Customer will have control of the defense of any action and all negotiations for settlement and compromise, but shall not make any settlement binding on any CHI Person without CHI's consent except if such settlement provides a complete and absolute release of such person. CHI and BabyCenter shall provide Customer with reasonable assistance and information necessary to perform the above, with Customer to be responsible for any out-ofpocket expenses of any CHI Person in providing such assistance. If any CHI Person desires to have separate legal representation in any such action, such CHI Person shall be responsible for the costs and fees of its separate counsel.

(c) Mutual. Each party further agrees to indemnify each other and hold the other harmless from loss, damage, or costs including reasonable attorney's fees, arising from the actual or alleged wrongful acts or omissions of the other. The party requesting indemnification (the "Indemnified Party") shall promptly notify the other (the "Indemnifying Party") in writing of any claim for which it seeks indemnification, provided the failure or delay in doing so shall not relieve the Indemnifying Party from any obligation to indemnify the Indemnified Party except to the extent such delay or failure materially prejudices the defense of any such claim. The Indemnifying Party will have control of the defense of any action and all negotiations for settlement and compromise, but shall not make any settlement binding on any the Indemnified

Party without the Indemnified Party's consent except if such settlement provides a complete and absolute release of such person. The Indemnified Party shall provide the Indemnifying Party with reasonable assistance and information necessary to perform the above, with the Indemnifying Party to be responsible for any out-of-pocket expenses of the Indemnified Party in providing such assistance. If the Indemnified Party desires to have separate legal representation in any such action, the Indemnified Party shall be responsible for the costs and fees of its separate counsel.

8. Term and Termination.

(a) Term. This Agreement shall be effective as of the Effective Date and shall remain in effect for a period of twenty six (26) months (from November 1, 1999 through December 31, 2001) ("Initial Term"), unless terminated earlier pursuant to this Section 8. At the end of the Initial Term, this Agreement shall automatically renew for successive one (1) year terms without notice, unless prior to the renewal date for any such term the Agreement is terminated by at least one hundred twenty (120) days advance written notice of either party.

(b) Termination for Convenience or Upon Change of Control. This Agreement may be canceled by either party for any reason or no reason, whether or not extended beyond the Initial Term, by giving the other party written notice one hundred twenty (120) days in advance. In addition, Customer shall have the right to terminate this Agreement upon a Change of Control of CHI. In the event this Agreement is terminated upon a Change of Control of CHI, CHI will provide, and cause its successor (if any) to provide, Customer with commercially reasonable transition services (including, if necessary, hosting, technical and editorial support, continuation of third party licenses, etc.) for up to one hundred twenty (120) days after the date of termination at CHI's (or, if applicable, its successor's) standard commercial rates. In the event (x) of a Change of Control of CHI principally with a Direct Competitor of Customer during the first fourteen (14) months of the Initial Term and (y) Customer terminates this Agreement pursuant to the second sentence of this Section 8(b), CHI shall provide Customer with a limited, non-exclusive, non-transferable license (without the right to sublicense), until the end of such fourteen (14) month period, to the CHI Technology necessary to maintain Customer CD Site, including HTML source code, all resource files (images, files, common gateway interfaces, other scripts, etc.) and all database information relating to the Customer CD Site. Such license shall not include any tools, code or other materials that CHI has licensed or is licensing from a third party, including, without limitation, Dynamo. "Direct Competitor" shall mean Aetna/US Healthcare, United Healthcare, or Cigna.

(c) Termination for Cause. Except as set forth in the last sentence of this Section 8(c), if either party materially defaults in the performance of any provision of this Agreement, and such default is not cured within thirty (30) days after the other party gives notice of such default, then such other party shall be entitled to terminate this Agreement immediately upon giving written notice of termination to the defaulting party. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if either party breaches any provision of Sections 9 or 10 hereof, then the non-breaching party shall be entitled to terminate this Agreement effective immediately upon delivery of written notice to the breaching party.

(d) Effect of Termination. Any termination pursuant to this Section 8 shall be without any liability or obligation of the terminating party, other than as described in this Section 8 and with respect to any breach of this Agreement prior to termination. The provisions of Sections 6, 8(e), 9, 10, 12 and 13, and this Section 8(d) shall survive any termination or expiration of this Agreement. Upon termination, Customer agrees to cease making the CHI Content, the Additional Content or the Third Party Content available in the Customer CD Site or otherwise, and upon request of CHI, to promptly destroy or return to CHI all copies (electronic or written) of the CHI Content, Additional Content and Third Party Content and any other confidential or proprietary information of CHI in Customer's possession or control. Upon termination, CHI shall likewise promptly destroy or return to Customer all copies (electronic or written) of the Customer Content and any other confidential or proprietary information of Customer in CHI's possession or control.

(e) Limitation of Liability. In the event of termination by either party in accordance with any of the provisions of this Agreement, neither party shall be liable to the other, because of such termination, for compensation, reimbursement or damages on account of the loss of prospective profits or anticipated sales or on account of expenditures, inventory, investments, leases or commitments in connection with the business or goodwill of Customer or CHI.
