

Memorandum

State Court Administration
135 Minnesota Judicial Center
St. Paul, Minnesota 55155

08 - 0071

TO: Patrick Flahaven, Secretary of the Senate
Albin Mathiowetz, Chief Clerk, House of Representatives
Legislative Reference Library

FROM: Sue K. Dosal, State Court Administrator

RE: Minnesota Statutes 626A.17, subd. 3:
Report to Legislature by State Court Administrator

DATE: January 5, 2007

Minnesota Statute. §626A.17 subd. 3 requires the state court administrator to provide to the legislature a report concerning (a) all warrants and orders authorizing the interception of communications and the use of a Pen Register, Trap and Trace device, mobile tracking device, or other electronic or mechanical device during the two previous calendar years, and (b) all applications that were denied during the two previous calendar years. This memorandum provides a tabulation and summary of the notices forwarded to this office during the years 2004 and 2005. This office received no information regarding applications that were denied during these two calendar years.

PLEASE NOTE: This report only reflects information received by the State Court Administrator's Office concerning orders issued in 2004 and 2005.

Devices Authorized	2004	2005
Pen Register	37	87
Trap and Trace	24	77
Wiretap	2	0
Mobile Tracking	11	9
Search Warrant	20	0
Other	1	4
TOTAL¹	95	177

Violations Involved	2004	2005
Controlled Substance	29	31
Burglary	7	10
Harassing Phone Calls	0	0
Gambling	1	0
Theft	3	10
Homicide	7	22
Criminal Sexual Conduct	1	11

¹Totals exceed number of orders because some orders authorized multiple devices.

Other	19	29
TOTAL²	33	113

2004

1. The Rochester Police Department applied to the Third Judicial District for a Search Warrant to conduct a search and seize of a person and a private property for narcotic related crimes. The application was granted on January 1, 2004 for a search and seize to take place between the hours of 7 a.m. and 8 p.m. The search took place at a private residence on January 2, 2004 between the hours designated.
2. The Olmsted County Sheriff's Office applied to the Third Judicial District for a Search Warrant to conduct a search and seize of a vehicle and premises for the investigation of narcotics related crimes. The application was granted on January 13, 2004 for a search and seize to take place between the hours of 7 a.m. and 8:00 p.m. The search took place on January 13, 2004.
3. The Hennepin County Sheriff's Office applied to the Fourth Judicial District for a Pen Register and Trap and Trace Device to investigate controlled substance violations. The application was granted on January 28, 2004 by Judge Robert Blaeser for a period of 60 days. The interception took place on a private cellular phone.
4. The Rochester Police Department applied to the Third Judicial District for a Search Warrant to conduct a search and seize of a premises for the investigation of fraudulent transactions related to a crime. The application was granted on January 29, 2004. The search took place the same day between the hours of 7:00 a.m. and 8:00 p.m.
5. The Rochester Police Department applied to the Third Judicial District for a Search Warrant to conduct a search and seize of a premises for the investigation of narcotics related crimes. The application was granted on February 12, 2004 for a search and seize to take place between the hours of 7 a.m. and 8:00 p.m. The search took place on February 12, 2004 between the hours designated.
6. The Minnesota Bureau of Criminal Apprehension applied to the Fifth Judicial District for a Pen Register to investigate violations of federal and state laws. The application was approved on February 13, 2004 for a period of 30 days. The interception took place through a communications company.
7. The St. Paul Police Department applied to the Second Judicial District for a Pen Register and Wiretap to investigate violations of arson. The application was granted on February 17, 2004 for a period of 60 days. The interception took place on a private cellular phone.
8. The Hennepin County Sheriff's Office applied to the Fourth Judicial District for a Pen Register and Trap and Trace Device to investigate controlled substance violations. The application was granted on February 26, 2004 by Judge Steven Pihlaja for a period of 60 days. The interception took place on a private cellular phone.
9. The St. Paul Police Department applied to the Second Judicial District for a Mobile Tracking Device to investigate theft and forgery violations. The application was granted on March 3, 2004 for a period of 60 days. The interception took place on a licensed vehicle.
10. The Minnesota Bureau of Criminal Apprehension applied to the Fifth Judicial District for an order to investigate violations of Federal and State laws. The application was granted on March 9, 2004. The interception took place through a communications company.
11. The Rochester Police Department applied to the Third Judicial District for a Search Warrant to conduct a search and seize of a premises for the investigation of narcotics related crimes. The application was granted on March 31, 2004 for a search and seize to take place between the hours of 7 a.m. and 8:00 p.m. The search took place on March 31, 2004 between the hours designated.

²Totals exceed number of orders because some orders were issued to investigate multiple violations.

12. The Minneapolis Police Department applied to the Fourth Judicial District for the installation and use of a mobile tracking device on a vehicle to investigate controlled substance and weapons violations. The application was granted on April 12, 2004 by Judge Daniel H. Mabley for a period of 30 days. The interception took place on a private vehicle.
13. The Rochester Police Department applied to the Third Judicial District for a Search Warrant to conduct a search and seize of a premises, a vehicle and a person, for the investigation of narcotics related crimes. The application was granted on April 22, 2004 for a search and seize to take place between the hours of 7 a.m. and 8:00 p.m. The search took place on April 22, 2004 between the hours designated.
14. The Minneapolis Police Department applied to the Fourth Judicial District for an extension on a previous order (signed April 12, 2004/see line # 4) for the installation and use of a mobile tracking device on a vehicle to investigate controlled substance and weapons violations. The extension was granted on May 11, 2004 by Judge H. Peter Albrecht. The interception took place on a private vehicle.
15. The Rochester Police Department applied to the Third Judicial District for a Search Warrant to conduct a search and seize of a premises and motor vehicles for the investigation of narcotics related crimes. The application was granted on May 13, 2004 for a search and seize to take place between the hours of 7 a.m. and 8:00 p.m. The search took place on May 13, 2004 between the hours designated.
16. The Rochester Police Department applied to the Third Judicial District for a Search Warrant to conduct a search and seize of a premises and person for the investigation of narcotics related crimes. The application was granted on June 16, 2004 for a search and seize to take place between the hours of 7 a.m. and 8:00 p.m. The search took place on June 16, 2004 between the hours designated.
17. The Minneapolis Police Department applied to the Fourth Judicial District for a Pen Register and Trap and Trace Device to investigate prostitution and assault related charges. The application was granted on June 17, 2004 by Judge Stephen Aldrich for a period of 60 days. The interception took place on a private cellular phone.
18. The Rochester Police Department applied to the Third Judicial District for a Search Warrant to conduct a search and seize of a premises for the investigation of narcotics related crimes. The application was granted on June 18, 2004 for a search and seize to take place between the hours of 7 a.m. and 8:00 p.m. The search took place on June 18, 2004 between the hours designated.
19. The Rochester Police Department applied to the Third Judicial District for a Search Warrant to conduct a search and seize of a premises for the investigation of narcotics related crimes. The application was granted on June 19, 2004 for a search and seize to take place between the hours of 7 a.m. and 8:00 p.m. The search took place on June 19, 2004 between the hours designated.
20. The Rochester Police Department applied to the Third Judicial District for a Search Warrant to conduct a search and seize of a premises for the investigation of narcotics related crimes. The application was granted on June 19, 2004 for a search and seize to take place between the hours of 7 a.m. and 8:00 p.m. The search took place on June 19, 2004 between the hours designated.
21. The Minneapolis Police Department applied to the Fourth Judicial District for a Pen Register to investigate juvenile prostitution related violations. The application was granted on June 21, 2004 by Judge Steven Pihlaja for a period of 60 days. The interception took place on a private cellular phone.
22. The Minneapolis Police Department applied to the Fourth Judicial District for a Pen Register to investigate juvenile prostitution related violations. The application was granted on June 21,

- 2004 by Judge Steven Pihlaja for a period of 60 days. The interception took place on a private cellular phone.
23. The Minneapolis Police Department applied to the Fourth Judicial District for a Pen Register to investigate juvenile prostitution related violations. The application was granted on June 22, 2004 by Judge Steven Pihlaja for a period of 60 days. The interception took place on a private cellular phone.
 24. The Burnsville Police Department applied to the First Judicial District for a Mobile Tracking Device to investigate a felony of aggravated robbery. The application was granted on June 24, 2004 for a period of 60 days. The interception took place on a licensed vehicle.
 25. The Minneapolis Police Department applied to the Fourth Judicial District for a Pen Register to investigate prostitution related violations. The application was granted on June 29, 2004 by Judge Patricia Karasov for a period of 60 days. The interception took place on a private cellular phone.
 26. The Minneapolis Police Department applied to the Fourth Judicial District for a Pen Register to investigate controlled substance violations. The application was approved on June 29, 2004 by Judge Patricia Karasov for a period of 60 days. The interception took place on a private cellular phone.
 27. The Minneapolis Police Department applied to the Fourth Judicial District for a Pen Register to investigate controlled substance violations. The application was granted on July 8, 2004 by Judge Diana Eagan for a period of 60 days. The interception took place on a private cellular phone.
 28. The Hennepin County Sheriff's Office applied to the Fourth Judicial District for a Pen Register and Trap and Trace Device to investigate controlled substance violations. The application was granted on August 18, 2004 for a period of 60 days. The interception took place on a private cellular phone.
 29. The Minneapolis Police Department applied to the Fourth Judicial District for a Pen Register and Trap and Trace Device to investigate controlled substance violations. The application was granted on August 23, 2004 by Judge Catherine Anderson for a period of 60 days. The interception took place on a private cellular phone.
 30. The Crow Wing County Sheriff's Department applied to the Ninth Judicial District for a Mobile Tracking Device for the investigation of a narcotic related crime. The application was granted on August 26, 2004 for a period of 60 days. The interception took place on a licensed vehicle.
 31. The Rochester Police Department applied to the Third Judicial District for a Search Warrant to conduct a search and seize of a premises for the investigation of narcotics related crimes. The application was granted on September 9, 2004 for a search and seize to take place between the hours of 7 a.m. and 8:00 p.m. The search took place on September 9, 2004 between the hours designated.
 32. The Minneapolis Police Department applied to the Fourth Judicial District for a Pen Register and Trap and Trace Device to investigate controlled substance violations. The application was granted on September 17, 2004 by Judge Patricia Karasov for a period of 60 days. The interception took place on a private cellular phone.
 33. The Minneapolis Police Department applied to the Fourth Judicial District for a Pen Register and Trap and Trace Device to investigate controlled substance violations. The application was granted on September 21, 2004 by Judge Patricia Belois for a period of 60 days. The interception took place on a private cellular phone.
 34. The Rochester Police Department applied to the Third Judicial District for a Search Warrant to conduct a search and seize of a premises for the investigation of narcotics related crimes. The application was granted on September 22, 2004 for a search and seize to take place between the hours of 7 a.m. and 8:00 p.m. The search took place on September 22, 2004 between the hours designated.

35. The Moorhead Police Department applied to the Seventh Judicial District for a Wiretap to investigate violations of Racketeering and various controlled substance crimes. The application was approved on September 24, 2004 for a period of 13 days. The interception took place at a facility.
36. The Minnesota Bureau of Criminal Apprehension applied to the Fifth Judicial District for a Pen Register to investigate violations of federal and state Homicide laws. The application was approved on September 27, 2004 for a period of 60 days. The interception took place on a private cellular phone.
37. The Minnesota Bureau of Criminal Apprehension applied to the Fifth Judicial District for a Pen Register to investigate violations of federal and state Homicide laws. The application was approved on September 27, 2004 for a period of 60 days. The interception took place on a private cellular phone.
38. The Minneapolis Police Department applied to the Fourth Judicial District for a Pen Register and Trap and Trace Device to investigate controlled substance violations. The application was granted on October 5, 2004 by Judge Patricia Belois for a period of 60 days. The interception took place on a private cellular phone.
39. The Minneapolis Police Department applied to the Fourth Judicial District for a Trap and Trace Device to investigate controlled substance violations. The application was granted on October 7, 2004 by Judge Mary Steenson Dufresne for a period of 60 days. The interception took place on a private cellular phone.
40. The Eagan Police Department applied to the First Judicial District for a Mobile Tracking Device to investigate a felony burglary. The application was granted on October 13, 2004 for a period of 60 days. The interception took place on a licensed vehicle.
41. The East Metro Fugitive Task Force applied to the Second Judicial District for a Pen Register to investigate violations of a Fugitive from Justice on charges of Criminal Sexual Conduct 1st Degree, and 2 counts of Criminal Sexual Conduct 3rd Degree. The application was approved on October 17, 2004 for a period of 60 days. The interception took place on a private cellular phone.
42. The Eagan Police Department applied to the First Judicial District for a Mobile Tracking Device to investigate a burglary. The application was granted on October 19, 2004 for a period of 60 days. The interception took place on a licensed vehicle.
43. The Minneapolis Police Department applied to the Fourth Judicial District for a mobile tracking device to investigate controlled substance and weapons violations. The application was granted on October 22, 2004 by Judge Jack Nordby for a period of 30 days. The interception took place on a private vehicle.
44. The Eagan Police Department applied to the First Judicial District for a Mobile Tracking Device to investigate a burglary. The application was granted on October 29, 2004 for a period of 60 days. The interception took place on a licensed vehicle.
45. The Minnesota Bureau of Criminal Apprehension applied to the Fourth Judicial District for a Pen Register and Trap and Trace Device to investigate depriving custodial or parental rights violations. The application was granted on November 6, 2004 by Judge David M. Duffy for a period of 60 days. The interception took place on a private cellular phone.
46. The Minnesota Bureau of Criminal Apprehension applied to the Fourth Judicial District for a Pen Register and Trap and Trace Device to investigate depriving custodial or parental rights violations. The application was granted on November 9, 2004 by Judge David

47. The Eagan Police Department applied to the First Judicial District for a Mobile Tracking Device to investigate a third degree burglary. The application was granted on November 10, 2004 for a period of 60 days. The interception took place on a licensed vehicle.
48. The Minneapolis Police Department applied to the Fourth Judicial District for a Pen Register and Trap and Trace Device to investigate kidnapping violations. The application was granted on November 29, 2004 for a period of 5 days. The interception took place on a private cellular phone.
49. The Minneapolis Police Department applied to the Fourth Judicial District for a Pen Register and Trap and Trace Device to investigate assault (on a police officer) violations. The application was granted on December 2, 2004 by Judge Roland Faricy for a period of 20 days. The interception took place on a private cellular phone.
50. The Minneapolis Police Department applied to the Fourth Judicial District for a Pen Register and Trap and Trace Device to investigate controlled substance violations. The application was granted on December 6, 2004 by Judge Heidi Schellhas for a period of 60 days. The interception took place on a private cellular phone.
51. The Minneapolis Police Department applied to the Fourth Judicial District for a Pen Register and Trap and Trace Device to investigate a homicide. The application was granted on December 7, 2004 by Judge Diana Eagon for a period of 20 days. The interception took place on a private cellular phone.
52. The Ramsey County Sheriff's Office applied to the Second Judicial District for a Pen Register to aide in an ongoing criminal investigation. The application was approved on December 9, 2004 for a period of 60 days. The interception took place on a private cellular phone.
53. The Eagan Police Department applied to the First Judicial District for a Mobile Tracking Device to investigate a felony burglary. The application was granted on December 14, 2004 for a period of 60 days. The interception took place on a licensed vehicle.
54. The Minneapolis Police Department applied to the Fourth Judicial District for a Pen Register and Trap and Trace Device to investigate a homicide. The application was granted on December 21, 2004 by Judge Patricia Belois for a period of 60 days. The interception took place on a private cellular phone.
55. The Minneapolis Police Department applied to the Fourth Judicial District for a Pen Register and Trap and Trace Device to investigate a kidnapping violation. The application was granted on December 21, 2004 by Judge Patricia Belois for a period of 60 days. The interception took place on a private cellular phone.
56. The Ramsey County Sheriff's Office applied to the Second Judicial District for a Pen Register to aide in an ongoing criminal investigation for robbery. The application was approved on December 27, 2004 for a period of 60 days. The interception took place on a private cellular phone.
57. The Minneapolis Police Department applied to the Fourth Judicial District for a Pen Register and Trap and Trace Device to investigate a kidnapping violation. The application was granted on December 28, 2004 by Judge Patricia Belois for a period of 60 days. The interception took place on a private cellular phone.
58. The Minneapolis Police Department applied to the Fourth Judicial District for a Pen Register and Trap and Trace Device to investigate a kidnapping violation. The application was granted on December 28, 2004 by Judge Patricia Belois for a period of 60 days. The interception took place on a private cellular phone.
59. The Ramsey County Sheriff's Office applied to the Second Judicial District for a Pen Register to aide in an ongoing criminal investigation for 1st Degree Murder. The application was approved on December 29, 2004 for a period of 60 days. The interception took place on a private cellular phone.

2005

1. The Ramsey County Sheriff's Office applied to the Second Judicial District for a Pen Register, Track and Trace and Tracking Device to investigate a Murder in the 1st Degree. The application was granted on January 3, 2005 for a period of 60 days. The interception took place on a private cellular phone.
2. The Hennepin County Sheriff's Office applied to the Second Judicial District for a Pen Register to conduct a criminal investigation of purchases of stolen property. The application was granted on January 3, 2005 for a period of 30 days. The interception took place on a private telephone.
3. The Minneapolis Police Department applied to the Fourth Judicial District for a Pen Register and Trap and Trace to investigate a homicide. The application was granted on January 3, 2005 by Judge Patricia Belois for a period of 60 days. The interception took place on a private cellular phone.
4. The Eagan Police Department applied to the First Judicial District for a pen Register trap and trace Device to investigate witness tampering and failure to appear. The application was granted on January 12, 2005 for a period of 60 days. The interception took place on a cellular phone.
5. The Ramsey County Sheriff's Office applied to the Second Judicial District for a Pen Register to investigate the violation of Predatory Sex Offender Registration and Absconding from Probation. The application was granted on January 14, 2006 for a period of 60 days. The interception took place on a private cellular phone.
6. The Minneapolis Police Department applied to the Fourth Judicial District for a Pen Register and Trap and Trace to investigate a homicide. The application was granted on January 17, 2005 by Judge Janet Poston for a period of 60 days. The interception took place on a private cellular phone.
7. The United State's Marshals Service and Minnesota Department of Corrections applied to the Second Judicial District for a Pen Register to investigate a crime of Criminal Sexual Conduct in the 1st Degree. The application was granted on January 17, 2003 for a period of 60 days. The interception took place on a private cellular phone.
8. The Ramsey County Sheriff's Office applied to the Second Judicial District for a Pen Register to investigate the violation of Predatory Sex Offender Registration and Absconding from Probation. The application was granted on January 18, 2006 for a period of 60 days. The interception took place on a private cellular phone.
9. The Ramsey County Sheriff's Office applied to the Second Judicial District for a Pen Register to investigate a crime of Murder in the 1st Degree. The application was granted on January 24, 2005 for a period of 60 days. The interception took place on a private cellular phone. The amended order was granted on January 25, 2005.
10. The Minneapolis Police Department applied to the Fourth Judicial District for a Pen Register and Trap and Trace to investigate a homicide. The application was granted on January 25, 2005 by Judge Patricia Belois for a period of 2 days. The interception took place on a private cellular phone.
11. The Minneapolis Police Department applied to the Fourth Judicial District for a Pen Register and Trap and Trace to investigate a homicide. The application was granted on February 1, 2005 by Judge Patricia Belois for a period of 90 days. The interception took place on a private cellular phone.
12. The Minneapolis Police Department applied to the Fourth Judicial District for an extension on a Pen Register and Trap and Trace to investigate a controlled substance violation. The original application was granted on December 6, 2004 and the extension was granted February 2, 2005 by Judge Patricia Belois for a period of 60 days. The interception took place on a private cellular phone.

13. The Minneapolis Police Department applied to the Fourth Judicial District for a Pen Register and Trap and Trace to investigate a homicide. The application was granted on February 2, 2005 by Judge Patricia Belois for a period of 90 days. The interception took place on a private cellular phone.
14. The Dakota County Drug Task Force applied to the First Judicial District for a Mobile Tracking Device to investigate controlled substance violations. The application was granted on February 9, 2005 for a period of 60 days. The interception took place on a private licensed motor vehicle.
15. The Minneapolis Police Department applied to the Fourth Judicial District for a Pen Register and Trap and Trace to investigate a homicide. The application was granted on February 10, 2005 by Judge Patricia Belois for a period of 90 days. The interception took place on a private cellular phone.
16. The Minneapolis Police Department applied to the Fourth Judicial District for a Pen Register and Trap and Trace to investigate a robbery/homicide. The application was granted on February 10, 2005 by Judge Patricia Belois for a period of 90 days. The interception took place on a private cellular phone.
17. The Hennepin County Sheriff's Office applied to the Fourth Judicial District for a Pen Register and Trap and Trace to investigate controlled substance violations. The application was granted on February 23, 2005 by Judge Patricia Belois for a period of 60 days. The interception took place on a private cellular phone.
18. The St. Paul Police Department applied to the Second Judicial District for a Pen Register and Trap and Trace Device to assist in locating an escaped fugitive and to investigate a multiple homicide. The application was granted on February 25, 2006 for a period of 60 days. The interception took place on a private cellular phone.
19. The Ramsey County Sheriff's Department applied to the Second Judicial District for a Pen Register to assist in locating a fugitive regarding possession of a firearm by an ineligible person. The application was granted on March 2, 2005 for a period of 60 days. The interception took place on a private cellular phone.
20. The Roseville Police Department applied to the Second Judicial District for a Mobile Tracking Device to investigate a burglary. The application was granted on March 8, 2005 for a period of 60 days. The interception took place on a licensed vehicle.
21. The Roseville Police Department applied to the Second Judicial District for a Mobile Tracking Device to investigate a burglary in the 2nd degree. The application was granted on March 8, 2005 for a period of 60 days. The interception took place on a licensed vehicle.
22. The Minneapolis Police Department applied to the Fourth Judicial District for a Pen Register and Trap and Trace to investigate a homicide. The application was granted on March 11, 2005 by Judge Patricia Belois for a period of 90 days. The interception took place on a private cellular phone.
23. The Wright County Drug Task Force applied to the Tenth Judicial District for a Mobile Tracking Device to investigate a possession of a controlled substance/specifically cocaine. The application was granted on March 17, 2005 and the extension of the order was granted on March 17, 2005 for a period of 60 days. The place of the interception was unknown.
24. The Ramsey County Sheriff's Department applied to the Second Judicial District for a Pen Register, Trap and Trace and Electronic Tracking Device to investigate an obstructing investigation. The application was granted on March 17, 2005 for a period of 60 days. The interception took place on a cellular phone.

25. The Fugitive Apprehension Unit of the Dept. of Corrections and U.S. Deputy Marshal applied to the Second Judicial District for a Pen Register, Trap and Trace and Device to investigate a crime of MN State Criminal Code 609.334 (3rd Degree CSC). The application was granted on March 21, 2005 for a period of 60 days. The interception took place on a cellular phone.
26. The Minneapolis Police Department applied to the Fourth Judicial District for a Pen Register and Trap and Trace to investigate a homicide. The application was granted on March 23, 2005 by Judge Patricia Belois for a period of 60 days. The interception took place on a private cellular phone.
27. The Minneapolis Police Department applied to the Fourth Judicial District for a Pen Register and Trap and Trace to investigate a homicide. The application was granted on April 4, 2005 by Judge Patricia Belois for a period of 90 days. The interception took place on a private cellular phone.
28. The East Metro Fugitive Task Force applied to the Second Judicial District for a Pen Register Trap and Trace Device to aide in a fugitive apprehension. The application was granted on April 11, 2005 for a period of 60 days. The interception took place on a cellular phone.
29. The Ramsey County Sheriff's Department applied to the Second Judicial District for a Pen Register/ Trap and Trace Device/ Mobile Tracking Device to investigate a violation of a controlled substance (sale and possession). The application was granted on April 13, 2005 for a period of 90 days. The interception took place on a cellular phone.
30. The Minneapolis Police Department applied to the Second Judicial District for a Pen Register/ Trap and Trace Device to investigate a violation of a narcotics/controlled substance. The application was granted on April 21, 2005 for a period of 60 days. The interception took place on a cellular phone.
31. The Deputy U.S. Marshall applied to the Second Judicial District for a Pen Register/ Trap and Trace Device to investigate a violation of VOCSL 5th Degree Possession of Marijuana, Distribution of Marijuana and Criminal Possession of Firearms. The application was granted on April 22, 2005 for a period of 60 days. The interception took place on a cellular phone.
32. The Ramsey County Sheriff's Department applied to the Second Judicial District for a Pen Register/ Trap and Trace Device to investigate a VOCSL 5th Degree & Possession / Use of Firearms in Possession/Sale of Drugs. The application was granted on May 12, 2005 for a period of 60 days. The interception took place on a cellular phone
33. The Ramsey County Sheriff's Department applied to the Second Judicial District for two orders for a Pen Register/ Trap and Trace Device/ to investigate a violation of a felony for controlled substance and weapons. The application was granted on May 13, 2005 for a period of 120 days. The interception took place on an Internet service account.
34. The Minneapolis Police Department applied to the Fourth Judicial District for a Pen Register and Trap and Trace to investigate a controlled substance violation. The application was granted on May 16, 2005 by Judge Patricia Belois for a period of 90 days. The interception took place on a private cellular phone.
35. The Deputy U.S. Marshal applied to the Second Judicial District for a Pen Register/ Trap and Trace Device to investigate a parole violation by Level III Sex Offender. The application was granted on May 18, 2005 for a period of 60 days. The interception took place on a cellular phone
36. The Deputy U.S. Marshal applied to the Second Judicial District for a Pen Register/ Trap and Trace Device to investigate a parole violation by Level III Sex Offender. The application was granted on May 18, 2005 for a period of 60 days. The interception took place on two cellular phones.
37. The Deputy U.S. Marshal and the Ramsey County Sheriff's Department applied to the Second Judicial District for a Pen Register/ Trap and Trace Device to investigate a parole violation. The application was granted on May 19, 2005 for a period of 60 days. The interception took place on a cellular phone

38. The Ramsey County Sheriff's Department applied to the Second Judicial District for a Pen Register/ Trap and Trace Device/ Mobile Tracking Device to investigate an attempted murder/ car jacking. The application was granted on May 19, 2005 for a period of 00 days. The interception took place on a private cellular/mobile phone
39. The St. Paul Police Department applied to the Second Judicial District for a Mobile Tracking Device to investigate a burglary in the second degree. The application was granted on May 26, 2005 for a period of 60 days. The interception took place on a licensed vehicle.
40. The Ramsey County Sheriff's Department applied to the Second Judicial District for a Pen Register/ Trap and Trace Device to investigate a conspiracy to sell cocaine. The application was granted on May 27, 2005 for a period of 60 days. The interception took place on a private cellular/mobile phone.
41. The Minneapolis Police Department applied to the Fourth Judicial District for a Pen Register and Trap and Trace to investigate a criminal sexual assault and aggravated assault violation. The application was granted on June 6, 2005 by Judge Patricia Belois for a period of 90 days. The interception took place on a private cellular phone.
42. The Hennepin County Sheriff's Office applied to the Fourth Judicial District for a Pen Register and Trap and Trace Device to investigate terroristic threats and witness tampering. The application was granted on June 7, 2005 for a period of 60 days. The interception took place on a private cellular phone.
43. The Hennepin County Sheriff's Office applied to the Fourth Judicial District for a Pen Register and Trap and Trace Device to investigate terroristic threats and witness tampering. The application was granted on June 8, 2005 for a period of 60 days. The interception took place on a private cellular phone.
44. The Minneapolis Police Department applied to the Fourth Judicial District for a Pen Register and Trap and Trace to investigate a controlled substance violation. The application was granted on June 21, 2005 by Judge Patricia Belois for a period of 60 days. The interception took place on a private cellular phone.
45. The Minneapolis Police Department applied to the Fourth Judicial District for a Pen Register and Trap and Trace to investigate an assault and homicide. The application was granted on June 21, 2005 by Judge Patricia Belois for a period of 90 days. The interception took place on a private cellular phone.
46. The Minneapolis Police Department applied to the Fourth Judicial District for a Pen Register and Trap and Trace to investigate a controlled substance violation. The application was granted on June 22, 2005 by Judge Patricia Belois for a period of 60 days. The interception took place on a private cellular phone.
47. The OCU/Violent Offender Task Force applied to the Fourth Judicial District for a Pen Register and Trap and Trace to investigate a controlled substance violation. The application was granted on July 5, 2005 by Judge Thomas Wexler for a period of 60 days. The interception took place on a private cellular phone.
48. The Roseville Police Department applied to the Second Judicial District for a Mobile Tracking Device to investigate a theft. The application was granted on July 6, 2005 for a period of 60 days. The interception took place on a licensed vehicle.
49. The U.S. Marshal applied to the Second Judicial District for a Pen Register to investigate a 1st Degree Burglary, 2nd Degree Aggravated Robbery and unlawful flights. The application was granted on July 7, 2005 for a period of 60 days. The interception took place on a private cellular phone.
50. The U.S. Marshal applied to the Second Judicial District for a Pen Register to investigate a 1st Degree Burglary, 2nd Degree Aggravated Robbery and unlawful flights. The application was - granted on July 7, 2005 for a period of 60 days. The interception took place on a private cellular phone.

51. The U.S. Marshal applied to the Second Judicial District for a Pen Register to investigate a 1st Degree Burglary, 2nd Degree Aggravated Robbery and unlawful flights. The application was granted on July 7, 2005 for a period of 60 days. The interception took place on a private cellular phone.
 52. The U.S. Marshal applied to the Second Judicial District for a Pen Register to investigate a 1st Degree Burglary, 2nd Degree Aggravated Robbery and unlawful flights. The application was granted on July 7, 2005 for a period of 60 days. The interception took place on a private cellular phone.
 53. The Minneapolis Police Department applied to the Fourth Judicial District for a Pen Register and Trap and Trace to investigate a homicide. The application was granted on July 13, 2005 by Judge Janet Poston for a period of 90 days. The interception took place on a private cellular phone.
 54. The Minneapolis Police Department applied to the Fourth Judicial District for a Pen Register and Trap and Trace to investigate an assault and homicide. The application was granted on July 22, 2005 by Judge Patricia Belois for a period of 90 days. The interception took place on a private cellular phone.
 55. The Dakota County Drug Task Force applied to the First Judicial District for a Mobile Tracking Device to investigate a conspiracy to distribute meth. The application was granted on August 5, 2005 for a period of 60 days. The interception took place on a licensed vehicle.
 56. The U.S. Marshal applied to the Second Judicial District for a Pen Register to investigate a fugitive warrant for federal probation violation. The application was granted on August 9, 2005 for a period of 60 days. The interception took place on a private cellular phone.
 57. The Deputy U.S. Marshal applied to the Second Judicial District for a Pen Register/ Trap and Trace Device/ electronic tracking for investigation of active DOC warrant. The application was granted on August 10, 2005 for a period of 60 days. The interception took place on a cellular phone.
 58. The Minneapolis Police Department applied to the Fourth Judicial District for a Pen Register and Trap and Trace to investigate a controlled substance violation. The application was granted on August 11, 2005 by Judge Patricia Belois for a period of 60 days. The interception took place on a private cellular phone.
 59. The Minneapolis Police Department applied to the Fourth Judicial District for a Pen Register and Trap and Trace to investigate a controlled substance violation. The application was granted on August 18, 2005 by Judge Patricia Belois for a period of 60 days. The interception took place on a private cellular phone.
 60. The Deputy U.S. Marshal applied to the Second Judicial District for a Pen Register/ Trap and Trace Device to investigate a crime of possession with intent to distribute methamphetamine. The application was granted on September 7, 2005 for a period of 60 days. The interception took place on a cellular phone.
 61. The Ramsey County Sheriff's Department applied to the Second Judicial District for a Pen Register/ Trap and Trace Device for fugitive apprehension – parole violation for murder in the 2nd degree. The application was granted on September 9, 2005 for a period of 60 days. The interception took place on a private cellular/mobile phone.
 62. The Ramsey County Sheriff's Department applied to the Second Judicial District for a Pen Register/ Trap and Trace Device to investigate aiding a felony fugitive. The application was granted on September 15, 2005 for a period of 60 days. The interception took place on a private cellular phone.
 63. The Ramsey County Sheriff's Department applied to the Second Judicial District for a Pen Register/ Trap and Trace Device to investigate aiding a fugitive, failure to appear on felony charge. The application was granted on September 22, 2005 for a period of 60 days. The interception took place on a private cellular phone.

64. The Minneapolis Police Department applied to the Fourth Judicial District for a Pen Register and Trap and Trace to investigate a controlled substance violation. The application was granted on September 22, 2005 by Judge Patricia Belois for a period of 60 days. The interception took place on a private cellular phone.
65. The Minneapolis Police Department applied to the Fourth Judicial District for a Pen Register and Trap and Trace to investigate a homicide. The application was granted on October 3, 2005 by Judge Thor Anderson for a period of 90 days. The interception took place on a private cellular phone.
66. The Minneapolis Police Department applied to the Fourth Judicial District for a Pen Register and Trap and Trace to investigate a homicide. The application was granted on October 12, 2005 by Judge Patricia Belois for a period of 90 days. The interception took place on a private cellular phone.
67. The Minneapolis Police Department applied to the Fourth Judicial District for a Pen Register and Trap and Trace to investigate predatory offender registration and solicitation. The application was granted on October 12, 2005 by Judge Patricia Belois for a period of 90 days. The interception took place on a private cellular phone.
68. The Minneapolis Police Department applied to the Fourth Judicial District for a Pen Register and Trap and Trace to investigate predatory offender registration and solicitation. The application was granted on October 12, 2005 by Judge Patricia Belois for a period of 90 days. The interception took place on a private cellular phone.
69. The Minneapolis Police Department applied to the Fourth Judicial District for a Pen Register and Trap and Trace to investigate assault, robbery, kidnapping, criminal sexual conduct, and burglary. The application was granted on October 12, 2005 by Judge Patricia Belois for a period of 90 days. The interception took place on a private cellular phone.
70. The Minneapolis Police Department applied to the Fourth Judicial District for a Pen Register and Trap and Trace to investigate assault, robbery, kidnapping, criminal sexual conduct, and burglary. The application was granted on October 12, 2005 by Judge Patricia Belois for a period of 90 days. The interception took place on a private cellular phone.
71. The Minneapolis Police Department applied to the Fourth Judicial District for a Pen Register and Trap and Trace to investigate a controlled substance violation. The application was granted on October 17, 2005 by Judge Patricia Belois for a period of 60 days. The interception took place on a private cellular phone.
72. The Deputy U.S. Marshal and the Ramsey County Sheriff's Office applied to the Second Judicial District for a Pen Register/ Trap and Trace Device to investigate a felony fugitive and VOCSL 5th degree. The application was granted on October 19, 2005 for a period of 60 days. The interception took place on a cellular phone
73. The St. Paul Police Department applied to the Second Judicial District for a Pen Register/ Trap and Trace Device for an investigation of arson. The application was granted on October 20, 2005 for a period of 60 days. The interception took place on a cellular phone
74. The Deputy U.S. Marshal applied to the Second Judicial District for a Pen Register/ Trap and Trace Device to investigate a conspiracy to distribute methamphetamine. The application was granted on October 25, 2005 for a period of 60 days. The interception took place on a cellular phone.
75. The Deputy U.S. Marshal applied to the Second Judicial District for a Pen Register/ Trap and Trace Device to investigate a conspiracy to distribute methamphetamine. The application was granted on October 25, 2005 for a period of 60 days. The interception took place on a cellular phone.

76. The Ramsey County Sheriff's Office applied to the Second Judicial District for a Pen Register/ Trap and Trace Device to investigate a VOCSL 5th Degree. The application was granted on October 26, 2005 for a period of 60 days. The interception took place on a cellular phone.
77. The Ramsey County Sheriff's Office applied to the Second Judicial District for a Pen Register/ Trap and Trace Device to investigate a crime of aiding a fugitive. The application was granted on November 15, 2005 for a period of 60 days. The interception took place on a cellular phone.
78. The Minneapolis Police Department applied to the Fourth Judicial District for a Pen Register and Trap and Trace to investigate a controlled substance violation. The application was granted on November 17, 2005 by Judge Patricia Belois for a period of 60 days. The interception took place on a private cellular phone.
79. The Minneapolis Police Department applied to the Fourth Judicial District for a Pen Register and Trap and Trace to investigate a controlled substance violation. The application was granted on November 17, 2005 by Judge Patricia Belois for a period of 60 days. The interception took place on a private cellular phone.
80. The Minneapolis Police Department applied to the Fourth Judicial District for a Pen Register and Trap and Trace to investigate a controlled substance violation. The application was granted on November 28, 2005 by Judge Francis Connolly for a period of 60 days. The interception took place on a private cellular phone.
81. The Minneapolis Police Department applied to the Fourth Judicial District for a Pen Register and Trap and Trace to investigate an aggravated assault. The application was granted on December 5, 2005 by Judge Patricia Belois for a period of 60 days. The interception took place on a private cellular phone.
82. The Deputy U.S. Marshal applied to the Second Judicial District for a Pen Register/ Trap and Trace Device to investigate a 2nd degree criminal sexual conduct. The application was granted on December 6, 2005 for a period of 60 days. The interception took place on a cellular phone.
83. The Ramsey County Sheriff's Office applied to the Second Judicial District for a Pen Register/ Trap and Trace Device to investigate a crime of aiding a fugitive. The application was granted on December 6, 2005 for a period of 60 days. The interception took place on a cellular phone.
84. The Minneapolis Police Department applied to the Fourth Judicial District for a Pen Register and Trap and Trace to investigate a controlled substance violation. The application was granted on December 12, 2005 by Judge Steven Z. Lange for a period of 60 days. The interception took place on a private cellular phone.
85. The Deputy U.S. Marshal applied to the Second Judicial District for a Pen Register/ Trap and Trace Device to investigate a homicide. The application was granted on December 14, 2005 for a period of 60 days. The interception took place on a cellular phone.
86. The Minneapolis Police Department applied to the Fourth Judicial District for a Pen Register and Trap and Trace to investigate a controlled substance violation. The application was granted on December 15, 2005 by Judge Daniel Mabley for a period of 60 days. The interception took place on a private cellular phone.
87. The Deputy U.S. Marshal applied to the Second Judicial District for a Pen Register/ Trap and Trace Device to investigate a crime of carrying a concealed weapon and parole violation for robbery. The application was granted on December 21, 2005 for a period of 60 days. The interception took place on a cellular phone.
88. The Minnesota Bureau of Criminal Apprehension applied to the Fourth Judicial District for a Pen Register and Trap and Trace to investigate a homicide. The application was granted on December 21, 2005 by Judge Patricia Belois for a period of 60 days. The interception took place on a private cellular phone.
89. The Minneapolis Police Department applied to the Fourth Judicial District for a Pen Register and Trap and Trace to investigate a criminal vehicular homicide.. The application was granted on December 27, 2005 by Judge Lori Gildea for a period of 90 days. The interception took place on a private cellular phone.

90. The Deputy U.S. Marshal applied to the Second Judicial District for a Pen Register/ Trap and Trace Device to investigate an armed robbery. The application was granted on December 27, 2005 for a period of 60 days. The interception took place on two cellular phones.
91. The Deputy U.S. Marshal applied to the Second Judicial District for a Pen Register/ Trap and Trace Device to investigate violations of conditional release. The application was granted on December 28, 2005 for a period of 60 days. The interception took place on a cellular phone.
92. The United States Marshals and East Metro Fugitive Task Force applied to the Fourth Judicial District for a Pen Register and Trap and Trace to investigate controlled substance violations. The application was granted on December 29, 2005 by Judge Lori Gildea for a period of 60 days. The interception took place on a private cellular phone.
93. The United States Marshals and East Metro Fugitive Task Force applied to the Fourth Judicial District for a Pen Register and Trap and Trace to investigate controlled substance violations. The application was granted on December 30, 2005 by Judge Lori Gildea for a period of 60 days. The interception took place on a private cellular phone.