The Year in Review

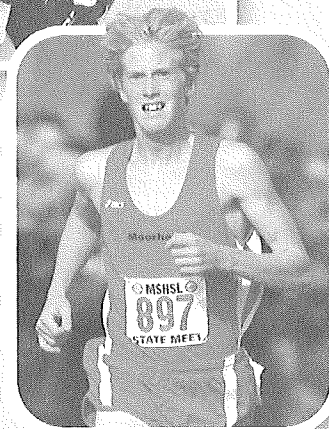

MINNESOTA STATE HIGH SCHOOL LEAGUE

The League sponsors one of the most comprehensive programs of interscholastic high school activities in the United States — activities that involved 525 member schools and about 94,000 students during the 2008-2009 school year. It is a voluntary, nonprofit, self-supporting organization made up of Minnesota senior high schools. It is administered by a small staff and a board of directors of 20 persons. The League plays a key role in nearly every non-academic interschool contest or activity in the state. Its scope includes all boys' and girls' athletics, plus debate, music, one act play, speech, and visual arts. It covers not just the activities themselves, but instructional clinics and other related programs dealing with non-academic interscholastic activities.

The purpose of the League is to provide, at a statewide level, programs of varied, healthful, character-building activities within a framework of regulations and supervision that fosters good sportsmanship and fair play for every participant, regardless of the size of the school or the student's race, color, or creed. To achieve this aim, the schools democratically elect representatives who legislate standards and regulations for eligibility, participation, and supervision. Through such regulations, it encourages scholarship and leadership, safeguards the physical health and safety of participants, keeps achievement awards on a sensible basis and seeks to prevent exploitation of students by special interest groups. In short, its whole purpose and work are for the betterment and protection of youth.

The school patrons in the state of Minnesota can take justifiable pride in the League. While all of the states and many Canadian provinces have similar organizations, the Minnesota organization is generally recognized as one of the best and has actually served as a model and is often called upon to help other states with their programs.

In summary, the Minnesota State High School League represents excellence in purpose and performance.

Dakota United avenges 2008 championship loss, wins second CI title; Robbinsdale/Hopkins/Mound-Westonka captures PI title with perfect record

By Amy Doherty & Ellen Giloy-Rajkowski

The Hawks of Dakota United improved on last year's runner-up showing and won their second title in the CI Division. This was also the second consecutive year that Dakota United met Maple Grove in the title game. This year, however, the Hawks emerged with a 5-1 victory, after falling 4-1 in 2008. In the PI Division, the Robins of Robbinsdale/Hopkins/Mound-Westonka also improved on last year's runner-up finish. They won their sixth PI championship after defeating Dakota United 8-2.

Adapted floor hockey is in its 16th year of League sponsorship. The CI Division is for athletes with cognitive disorders, and the PI Division is for athletes with physical or other health impairments.

CI Division

Dakota United turned the tables this year and avenged its 2008 championship loss to the Maple Grove Crimson. The Hawks, who lost 4-1 last year, defeated the Crimson 5-1 to capture their second title. They won their one previous championship in 2006. The Hawks were seeded second in the south bracket this year, and the Crimson were seeded second in the north bracket. Both teams overthrew the respective No. 1 seeds in their semifinal games to earn their positions in the championship game.

In the title game, senior John Conway put the Hawks on the scoreboard with 5:08 remaining in the first period and they never looked back. With 35 seconds remaining in the same period, junior Steven Kubinski made it 2-0 in favor of the Hawks.

John Conway found the back of the net again in the second period, scoring the period's only goal. Maple Grove responded early in the third period with an unassisted goal from senior Kamla Ramidahl, but Dakota United bounced back when John Conway and Kubinski each scored again for the final margin.

Senior Joe Conway added four assists for Dakota United and senior Andrew Kinsella made 23 saves for the Hawks. Sophomore Joe Phelps made 32 saves for Maple Grove, with 24 coming in the third period.

Dakota United's first step toward the title game was a 10-2 quarterfinal victory over Mounds View/Irondale/Roseville. Senior Dan Kappelhoff scored four goals for the Hawks, and John Conway added a hat-trick and two assists. Kinsella was once again the winning goal-tender.

In the semifinals, Dakota United upset No. 1-seeded Anoka-Hennepin in convincing fashion, winning 12-4. Steven Kubinski provided four goals and an assist, and Joe and John Conway each pitched in a hat-trick. John Conway also led the Hawks with four assists.

Maple Grove defeated Burnsville/Farmington/Lakeville 5-1 in the quarterfinals.

Senior Danny Boesen tallied a hat-trick in the victory while junior Billy Williams and senior Antoine Driver added one goal apiece. Sophomore Joel Phelps recorded the win as goalie, making 22 saves.

The Crimson advanced and upset the No. 1 seed from South Suburban 3-2 in the semifinals. Williams scored the first and third goals for the Crimson and Driver scored the second.

The third-place game pitted two No. 1 seeds against one another, with South Suburban defeating Anoka-Hennepin 4-2. The two teams also met in 2008's third-place game; the score was the same, but the outcome was reversed. The Jets faced a 2-0 deficit this year before scoring four unanswered goals for the win. Sophomore Mark Shull scored the Jets' first two goals and junior Alec Erickson scored the third to put the Jets on top. Junior Darius Sirek scored an insurance goal to seal the win.

The finale in the consolation bracket saw Burnsville/Farmington/Lakeville face off against Mounds View/Irondale/Roseville. The Blazing Cats won the battle 9-3 with seven goals from senior Isaac Urias and two from junior Tim Juul. Junior goalie Nick Luebke posted the win with 18 saves.

Park Center Pirates earn first CI championship; Robbinsdale/Hopkins/Mound-Westonka claims third PI crown

By Jen Foley

The Pirates of Park Center, who placed third in 2007, claimed their first CI title at the 2008 State Adapted Soccer Tournament. They defeated the defending champions from Dakota United 4-3 in the title game.

In the PI Division, the Robins of Robbinsdale/Hopkins/Mound-Westonka won their third championship after beating the defending champions from Anoka-Hennepin 4-3. The win was an improvement for the Robins, who placed third in 2007.

The tournament is divided into two divisions. The CI Division is for athletes with cognitive impairments, and the PI Division is for athletes with physical or other health impairments.

CI Division

Ninth-grader Jack Dougba scored three goals in the first eight minutes of the championship game as the Park Center Pirates (14-0) captured their first state title with a 4-3 win over the defending champion Dakota United Hawks (12-2). Park Center entered the tournament as the No. 1 seed in the North Division, and Dakota United was the top seed in the South Division.

Senior Danny Bosen scored the other Pirates' goal in the first half as Park Center led 4-1 at the intermission. The Pirates' defense held the Hawks to just four shots in the first half and nine in the game. Dakota United got on the board with a goal by senior John Conway in the first half. Senior Joe Conway earned the assist on the goal and he would score both goals for the Hawks in the second half.

Park Center was limited to just two shots in the second half and eight in the game. Senior Trevor Mussel stopped three shots for the Hawks, while sophomore Joel Phelps earned three saves for the Pirates in the win.

Park Center started its title run with a 10-1 quarterfinal win over Chaska/Prior Lake/Shakopee. Senior George Watkins scored the first two goals of the game and Danny Bosen added two goals in the first half as the Pirates jumped out to a 6-1 halftime lead. Senior Ryan Cornwell also added two goals in the win. Junior Blake Liverence scored the Southern Stars' lone goal just before halftime.

Senior Antoine Driver scored three goals as the Pirates notched a 9-2 semifinal win over the Mounds View/Irondale/Roseville Rams. Jack Dougba added two goals, with George Watkins contributing a goal and two assists in the win.

In the lower bracket, Dakota United breezed past South Washington County 13-1 in the quarterfinals. The Hawks, who scored 10 goals in the second half, outshot the Thunderbolts 26-1 in the game. But the one shot by South Washington County was a goal by ninth-grader Nathaniel Dunkley. John Conway led the Hawks with five goals and an assist, while Joe Conway added three goals and two assists.

Dakota United faced a tougher opponent in Anoka-Hennepin in the semifinals. The Hawks got six goals from Joe Conway in the second half as they overcame a 3-2 halftime deficit and went on to win 8-6. The Hawks outshot the Mustangs 39-24 in the contest with Anoka-Hennepin goalie sophomore Matt Perschbacher making 26 saves. Senior Andrew Kinsella and sophomore Visual Meng scored the other goals for Dakota United.

The Anoka-Hennepin Mustangs held off a late rally by the Mounds View/Irondale/Roseville Rams to earn third-place honors with a 4-3 victory. Two minutes into the second frame, sophomore Jessica Niemi notched her second goal for the Mustangs, giving them a 4-2 lead. They held that margin until Rams senior Matt McDermott slipped a goal past keeper Matt Perschbacher with one minute to go.

Senior Dustin Pederson led the Jets of South Suburban to the consolation title with a 7-2 victory over the Blazing Cats of Burnsville/Farmington/Lakeville. He had four goals and an assist in the win. Sophomore Mark Shull added two goals, while junior Millie Cell contributed a goal and an assist. Junior CJ Duffy stopped 22 shots for the Jets.

PI Division

The Robins of Robbinsdale/Hopkins/Mound-Westonka (13-0) capped a perfect season with a 4-3 win over the defending champion Anoka-Hennepin Mustangs (10-3). It was the third CI championship for the Robins; they won as Robbinsdale in 1995 and under their current name in 2005. The title game came down to the two top seeds in the North Division. The Robins were No. 1 and the Mustangs were No. 2.

In the championship game, junior Steven Halsey and sophomore Raymond Kennedy alternated in scoring for Robbinsdale/Hopkins/Mound-Westonka. Halsey netted the first goals of each half and Kennedy followed nearly six minutes later in each half. Anoka-Hennepin junior Stephen Gourley kept the Mustangs in

Osseo claims third consecutive CI title, eighth overall; Robbinsdale/Hopkins/Mound-Westonka wins fifth PI crown

By Amy Doherty &
Ellen Giloy-Rajkowski

Osseo claimed top honors in the CI Division for a third consecutive year at the 2009 State Adapted Softball Tournament. The Orioles defeated Dakota United 12-1 in five innings in the championship game.

In the PI Division, Robbinsdale/Hopkins/Mound-Westonka claimed its third title of the year. In addition to adapted softball, the Robins also claimed top honors in adapted soccer and adapted floor hockey. This year, they defeated Dakota United 17-3 in five innings to claim the championship. The victory also marked the fifth adapted softball title overall for the Robins.

CI Division

Osseo (16-2) added to its dynasty status in the CI Division by winning its third consecutive and eighth overall title. The Orioles convincingly overthrew the undefeated Dakota United squad 12-1 in five innings in the championship match. Prior to the current three-year winning streak, Osseo also won consecutive titles from 2000-2005, and has now won half of the titles in the 16 years of the tournament. Dakota United, which was the top seed in the South Division, finished with a season record of 17-1. The runner-up showing was also an improvement for the Hawks, who placed fourth in 2008.

The Orioles, who were the No. 1 seed in the North Division, posted two runs in the first inning. Senior Roman Hunter hit a home run in the second inning and senior Antoine Driver, junior Billy Williams, sophomore Zach Stanhope, and senior Alicia Taylor all scored runs while going up 7-0. The second inning also saw sophomore Stephen Kubinski score the only run for Dakota United.

In the third inning, the Hawks sharpened their defense, and the Orioles could only get one runner home. In their fourth and final time up to bat, four more Oriole players added to the score: ninth-grader Sam Veoprath, senior Danny Boesen, Driver and Hunter. For both Driver and Hunter, their runs marked three runs in three at-bats.

The Orioles faced Chaska/Prior Lake/Shakopee in the quarterfinal game, winning 15-2 in five innings. Antoine Driver, Roman Hunter, Billy Williams, and sophomore Joel Phelps each had three runs in their three hits for the Orioles. Southern Stars senior Hausi Mendoza got the team on the scoreboard with a run in the fourth inning.

The semifinal game brought the greatest challenge for the Orioles, as they needed a full game to defeat the South Suburban Jets 13-9. The Orioles were up 5-3 at the end of the first inning and they never looked back. Nine different Osseo players scored runs in the victory with Roman Hunter, Sam Veoprath, senior George Watkins, and senior Kamla Ramidihal all scoring two apiece.

En route to their showing in the championship, Dakota United defeated North Suburban 13-2 in five innings in the quarterfinals. Sophomore Visal Meng got the squad going with a three-run home run in the first inning, and senior John Conway hit a three-run shot in the fourth.

The Hawks scored five runs in both the first and fourth innings and went on to defeat Mounds View/Irondale/Roseville 13-2 in five innings in the semifinals. Senior Shane O'Hara came up big for Dakota United with three hits, and John Conway, Visal Meng, senior Andrew Kinsella, and senior David Hase, all added two hits apiece.

The third-place game paired Mounds View/Irondale/Roseville and South Suburban. The Rams scored five runs in the first inning and went on to defeat the Jets 14-3 in five innings. Senior Josh Congdon and Matt McDermott each scored three runs for Mounds View/Irondale/Roseville.

Anoka-Hennepin defeated New Prague/Montgomery-Lonsdale 10-2 for consolation honors. Ninth-grader Zach Theroux had two hits, two runs, and three RBI for the Mustangs, and sophomore Mike VonMende added three hits, two runs, and one RBI.

PI Division

In a rematch of the 2008 championship game, Robbinsdale/Hopkins/Mound-Westonka (13-0) convincingly turned the tables on Dakota United (9-2), winning 17-3 in five innings. Both teams were top seeds, with the Robins coming out of the North Division and Dakota United emerging from the South Division. The win completed the Robins' flawless season and gave them their fifth title in the PI division. They won previously in 1995, 2002, 2003, and 2007.

The Robins got four runs in the first inning of the championship game. In the second inning, junior Ethan Brenna led off with a double and he scored when senior Clarence Walton hit a home

MACCRAY, La Crescent win first titles; St. Michael-Albertville takes top honors in Class AAA

By Ellen Giloy-Rajkowski,
Howard W. Voigt, Tom Nelson
& Dave Wright

Two teams won their first titles at the 2009 State Baseball Tournament: MACCRAY of Clara City and La Crescent. The MACCRAY Wolverines, who were also making their debut appearance, defeated Wabasha-Kellogg 3-1 for Class A honors. In Class AA, La Crescent beat Fergus Falls 5-3.

St. Michael-Albertville claimed its second crown with a 7-4 victory over Stillwater Area. The Knights, who competed in Class AAA this year, won their one previous title in 2000.

Class A

MACCRAY (24-3) won its first title after defeating Wabasha-Kellogg 3-1. It was the first tournament appearance for the MACCRAY, which located in Clara City. The Falcons of Wabasha-Kellogg (22-6) were making their third appearance.

The Wolverines got on the board in the bottom of the first inning when senior Tyler Dammann hit a shot that bounced off the left-field wall, scoring junior Brandon Madsen. MACCRAY held that slim margin until the top of the third when Wabasha-Kellogg junior Holden Hartert hit a two-out single up in the middle and sophomore Eric Sandstrom scored an unearned run.

The game-winner for MACCRAY came in the fifth inning. Junior Jordan Ruter, who led the Wolverines in being hit by a pitch, took one for the team with two outs and the bases loaded. He turned his shoulder, stuck out his elbow, and let senior pitcher Matt Sandstrom's pitch hit him. The Cougars then added an insurance run when junior Shaun Condon reached on a short-stop error and scored Tyler Dammann.

Senior pitcher Jordan Smith went all seven innings for MACCRAY, allowing six hits and tossing two strikeouts. Junior Holden Hartert pitched the first 4.1 innings for Wabasha-Kellogg before being relieved by senior Matt Sandstrom. Hartert allowed four hits and threw one strikeout with two walks. Sandstrom had two strikeouts, two walks, and no hits.

MACCRAY started the tournament with a 10-2 victory over Browerville/Eagle Valley in the quarterfinals. Class AA

In the Class AA tournament, La Crescent (24-8) claimed its first championship. The Lancers, who were making their fifth appearance, defeated Fergus Falls 5-3 in the title game. The Otters of Fergus Falls (16-12) were making their fourth tournament appearance.

La Crescent scored two runs in the first inning, one run in the second, and two in the third to clinch the victory. Fergus Falls earned a 1-0 lead in the top of the first, and then charged back in the top of the fifth inning with two more runs to make it 5-3.

Senior Travis Grant was the pitcher of record for La Crescent. In the third inning, with his team up 3-1, he pitched himself out of bases-loaded, no-out jam with a pop up and two strikeouts. Over six innings of work, he racked up four strikeouts and two walks while allowing 11 hits. Senior Brandon Verthein finished the game with three strikeouts in the top of the seventh and was credited with the save.

Junior Josh Sandven charted two RBI, one run, and one hit for La Crescent, while senior Andrew Helland added two RBIs and one hit.

Fergus Falls was led at the plate by senior Jake Heck. He had three hits and senior Matt Mithaugen and junior Alex Hensch each added two hits apiece for the Otters.

La Crescent defeated St. Cloud Cathedral 2-1 in the quarterfinals. The contest was a solid pitchers' duel through six innings as La Crescent won the game with two runs in the top of the seventh. Ninth-grader Troy Traxler and Josh Sandven scored the winning runs for La Crescent and Brandon Verthein pitched the complete game. Verthein allowed five hits while tossing six strikeouts.

In the semifinals, the Lancers outlasted DeLaSalle of Minneapolis 4-2 over 12 innings. The Islanders opened the game with one run in the first inning and La Crescent tied the score in the top of the fifth. The Lancers gained a 2-1 advantage in the top of 11th inning, but DeLaSalle managed to tie the game with a run in the bottom of the same inning.

La Crescent iced the contest in the 12th inning when senior Colin Dingfelder scored on a wild pitch and junior Gabe McDowell hit a sacrifice fly to score Andrew Helland. Junior Austin Walleser pitched the first 10 innings for the Lancers, accumulating 11 strikeouts and four walks while allowing six hits. Brandon Verthein finished the game for La Crescent. He had three strikeouts and one walk in two innings of relief work.

Class AAA

The St. Michael-Albertville Knights (26-6), who were making their second consecutive and fourth overall appearance, claimed their second title at this year's tournament. They won previously in 2000. This year, the Knights defeated Stillwater Area 7-4. The championship finish was also an improvement on last year's fourth-place showing.

Stillwater Area (21-8) was making its second consecutive appearance and its fifth overall. The Ponies fell in the consolation semifinals of the 2008 tournament.

St. Michael-Albertville's pitcher, senior David Borchardt, worked his way out of several jams to win his second game in two days. The senior went five innings, giving up three runs on nine hits. Junior Jared Dehmer worked the final two innings to seal the deal.

The Knights went to work early on Stillwater Area's senior pitcher Matt Garvalia. With two out in the first inning, junior Bryton Carlson singled, stole second and scored on Borchardt's single to right. St. Michael-Albertville added a pair of runs in the second inning, a solo run in the third, two runs in the fourth and one more in the fifth.

Meanwhile, Borchardt weaved his way in and out of trouble, leaving nine Ponies stranded on base in the first five innings. The fifth inning was typical of Stillwater's night. Senior Ryan O'Connell led off with a double and moved to third on senior Matt Lindquist's single. But Borchardt retired the next three batters to end the threat.

Stillwater Area finally broke through in the sixth inning. With runners on first and second and nobody out, senior Austin Guertin doubled in a run to make it 7-1. Senior Luke Dewall greeted Dehmer rudely, driving his first pitch past the scoreboard in left for a three-run home run.

In addition to his three hits, St. Michael-Albertville's Bryton Carlson also scored two runs, had two stolen bases and drove in a run. Senior Jason Dehmer was 2-for-4 with an RBI, and junior Blake Schirmers was 1-for-3 with two RBI and a pair of stolen bases.

In the quarterfinals, St. Michael-Albertville edged Eden Prairie 2-1. The Knights scored the winning run in the fourth inning when sophomore Brian LaVallee notched an unearned run on a throwing error. The Eagles had scoring chances, but they left the bases loaded in the sixth inning and stranded runners on first and third in the seventh.

Bryton Carlson of St. Michael-Albertville sprints for home. The Knights of St. Michael-Albertville defeated Stillwater Area 7-4 in the Class AAA championship game. It was the second title for the Knights, who won previously in 2000.

St. Michael-Albertville had an easier game in the semifinals, defeating Forest Lake 5-0. The Knights grabbed an early lead in the first inning when Jason Dehmer singled and rode home on Bryton Carlson's double. The score stayed 1-0 until the fifth inning when the Knights combined two hits, three walks, two stolen bases, and an error for four runs off the Rangers' losing pitcher, senior Trevor Welk.

Stillwater Area defeated Hopkins 4-2 in its quarterfinal game. The Ponies broke the game open in the third inning when senior Nate Hewes hit a two-run double. They added to their lead in the fourth when Austin Guertin delivered an RBI double down the left field line. It was the first of two doubles on the day for Guertin, who finished 3-for-3 with one run and one RBI.

In the semifinals, Stillwater Area escaped with a 5-4 victory over the first-time qualifiers from Centennial of Circle Pines. The Ponies held a slim 2-0 margin until the top of the fifth inning when the Cougars countered with four runs. In the bottom of the seventh, with the score tied 4-4, senior Matt Lindquist stepped up to the plate and drove a single to right field that scored Luke Dewall.

The Centennial Cougars walked away with third-place honors after defeating Forest Lake 2-1 in eight innings. Forest Lake's Kyle Jensen, a senior righthander, lost his bid for a no-hitter when junior Ryan Reese led off the eighth inning with a single to left center. Senior T.J. Klein forced Reese out at second but made up for it by stealing the base.

Jensen then caused himself trouble when he dropped senior Anthony Kriegler's foul pop for an error. Kriegler made the most of a second chance with a run-scoring single for the game's first run. Later, junior Eric Kallevig's RBI single made it 2-0.

The Rangers loaded the bases against senior pitcher Matt Lutz in the bottom of the eighth and cut the lead to 2-1 when junior Zach Riedeman walked to force in a run. Senior relief pitcher Ryan Anderson then retired senior Neal Dunkel on a pop fly to third base to end the game.

Sophomore Brian Athey had three hits and two RBI and senior Timmy Miller went 2-for-3 with two runs scored to lead Eden Prairie to a 10-4 victory over Owatonna in the consolation bracket. The Eagles jumped to a 5-1 lead after three innings and they pounded out 11 hits off four pitchers. In addition to Miller and Athey's heroics, senior Sam Gotham had two hits and junior Matt Halloran knocked in a pair of runs.

The Class A tournament was played at both the Chaska Athletic Field and the Mini Met in Jordan. The Class AA tournament was played at both Dick Putz Field and the adjacent Joe Faber Field in St. Cloud. The Class AAA tournament was played at both Midway Stadium in St. Paul and at the University of Minnesota's Dick Siebert Field in Minneapolis.

Paid Class A attendance was 3,181; paid Class AA attendance was 3,767; paid Class AAA attendance was 6,049; for a tournament total of 12,997.

Granada-Huntley-East Chain, Pelican Rapids, Hopkins win titles with unblemished records; Minneapolis Washburn fourth champion

By Ellen Giloy-Rajkowski

Three teams won titles with perfect records at the 2009 State Boys' Basketball Tournament: Granada-Huntley-East Chain (29-0) won its first title in Class A; Pelican Rapids (33-0) claimed its second title in Class AA; and Hopkins (31-0) won its sixth crown in Class AAAA.

The Minneapolis Washburn Millers won top honors in Class AAA; it was their third title.

Class A

The Granada-Huntley-East Chain Mustangs completed a perfect season (29-0) and claimed the school's first championship trophy in any activity after defeating the two-time defending champions from Ellsworth 62-54 in overtime. This was the second consecutive and overall tournament appearance for Granada-Huntley-East Chain; the Mustangs fell in the quarterfinals of the 2008 tournament. Ellsworth (29-4) was making its fourth consecutive appearance and its fifth overall.

Granada-Huntley-East Chain, which trailed 28-18 at halftime, started trapping early in the second half and scored 15 points off 11 Ellsworth turnovers. The Mustangs took their first lead with 6:18 remaining in the game when senior Tim Garry drained a three-pointer. The lead veered back and forth over the next six minutes with Ellsworth junior Trevor Gruis pulling the Panthers even at 51-51 with 1:26 left to force overtime.

The extra stanza, however, belonged to the Mustangs. They reeled off seven unanswered points over the first three minutes and senior Marcus Teachout iced the win with two free throws and a lay-up in the final 46 seconds.

Granada-Huntley-East Chain's Tim Garry scored 20 of his game-high 25 points in the second half and he also grabbed six rebounds. Senior Taylor Nawrocki added 18 points for the Mustangs and had a team-high seven rebounds. Senior Tom Nolte and Trevor Gruis both had double-doubles for Ellsworth. Nolte scored 16 points and corralled 10 rebounds, while Gruis added 10 points and 14 rebounds.

The Mustangs started their title run with a 64-61 victory over Minnesota Transitions Charter School of Minneapolis. After a furious second half, the Mustangs went ahead for good when sophomore Tanner Nawrocki hit from behind the arc with 31 seconds remaining in regulation. Senior Marcus Teachout accounted for the final margin when he hit two free throws with 13 seconds left in the game. Tim Garry led Granada-Huntley-East Chain with 20 points and Teachout and senior Tyler Hardy added 12 points apiece.

In the semifinals, Granada-Huntley-East Chain cruised past Chisholm 60-46. The Mustangs hit 17-of-23 field goal attempts in the second half and they shot 54 percent from the field overall. Tim Garry and Taylor Nawrocki both had double-doubles for the Mustangs. Nawrocki had 21 points and a game-high 14 rebounds, and Garry added 21 points and 11 rebounds.

Ellsworth defeated the first-time qualifiers from Sebeka 59-46 in the quarterfinals. Ninth-grader Casey Schilling hit two free throws to put the Panthers up 49-42 with 2:08 left in regulation and he and his teammates combined for 10 more free throws over the final two minutes. Tom Nolte led Ellsworth with 17 points and three steals and Trevor Gruis had a game-high 12 rebounds.

The Panthers advanced and notched a 62-53 semifinal victory over Ada-Borup. Ellsworth scored 18 points from behind the arc and also made 16-of-23 free throw attempts. Senior Adam Van Der Stoep shot 5-of-9 from three-point range and led the Panthers with 22 points. Trevor Gruis added a double-double for Ellsworth with 19 points and 15 rebounds.

In a very close third-place game, Ada-Borup defeated Chisholm 60-58. The score was tied seven times, including 58-58 with 51 seconds left in regulation. With six seconds remaining, Ada-Borup junior Yuri Johnson was fouled by junior Erik Paine. Johnson, who was the high scorer for the Cougars with 18 points, calmly stepped to the free throw line and sunk both shots giving the Cougars the victory.

Seniors Tyler Narum and Mark Mitteness added 11 and 10 points, respectively, for Ada-Borup, and senior Blake Bueng grabbed eight rebounds. Senior Taylor Skoglund had a double-double for Chisholm with 21 points and 10 rebounds. Sophomore Adam Vake also had 10 rebounds for the Bluestreaks.

St. Paul 80-68. This was the second title for the Vikings, who won their first in 1984. The St. Bernard's Bulldogs were making their third consecutive and overall appearance. This year's finish was an improvement on last year's fourth-place showing.

Pelican Rapids never trailed in the championship game. The Vikings, who held St. Bernard's senior Jordair Jett scoreless in the first half, led 30-23 at the break. A mix of inside and outside shots kept the Bulldogs off-balance throughout the game, as did 4-of-9 three-point shooting from senior Jan-Erik Lindberg.

Pelican Rapids senior Tydan Storrusten finished with a game-high 34 points and Lindberg added 18. Senior Eric Shulstad added 10 points for the Vikings and also had a team-high 12 rebounds. Jordair Jett exploded for 20 points in the second half, while seniors Averey Duncan and Mike Weah added 14 and 10 points, respectively, for St. Bernard's. Duncan also led the Bulldogs with 12 rebounds.

Pelican Rapids defeated the defending champions from New London-Spicer 71-56 in the quarterfinals. Jan-Erik Lindberg hit five three-pointers in the first half after Storrusten was sidelined with three early fouls, but the Wildcats weren't about to give up. They rallied to take a 50-49 lead midway through the second half, before Pelican Rapids closed the game on a 22-6 run. Lindberg finished the game with 20 points and Eric Shulstad had a double-double with 16 points and 12 rebounds.

The Vikings made short work of the Howard Lake-Waverly-Winsted Lakers in the semifinals, winning 78-50. Tydan Storrusten scored 21 points, including the first nine Vikings' points in the second half, before sitting with four fouls. Pelican Rapids' defense also pestered the Lakers into 19 turnovers. Storrusten finished the game with 26 points, and Eric Shulstad and Jan-Erik Lindberg added 16 and 12 points, respectively.

On the other side of the bracket, St. Bernard's scored a 67-48 quarterfinal victory over Triton of Dodge Center. Michael Weah scored 13 of his 16 points in the first half, including nine from downtown, as Jordair Jett dazzled with his crisp passes and leaping ability. Jett finished the game with 16 points, 10 rebounds, six assists, and three blocked shots.

In a battle of the Bulldogs, St. Bernard's defeated Plainview-Elgin-Millville 68-61 in the semifinals. St. Bernard's Jordair Jett scored 11 points in the opening minutes of the second half and tied the score 41-41 with 11:03 left on the clock. Sophomore Cole Olstad put P-E-M back up 43-41 at 10:42, but a 9-0 run over the next three minutes clinched the victory for St. Bernard's. Jett scored 26 points for St. Bernard's and also dished off eight assists with one block and one steal.

The Bulldogs of Plainview-Elgin-Millville led from the opening minutes and cruised to a 70-52 victory over the Lakers of Howard Lake-Waverly-Winsted in the third-place game. P-E-M went 22-of-30 at the free throw line and also shot 51.2 percent (22-of-43) from the field.

Plainview-Elgin-Millville junior Clay Olstad had 17 points, Cole Olstad had 16 points and a team-high eight rebounds, and senior Andrew Larson had 13 points. Senior Nash Faulk was the only Laker player to finish in double-digits; he scored a game-high 25 points.

Class AAA

Minneapolis Washburn (26-5) defeated Mankato West (29-2) 58-45 for its third state title in the team's history. It was the seventh tournament appearance for the Millers, but their first since 1994. They won their two previous titles in 1955 and 1994. The Scarlets of Mankato West returned to the tournament after a four-year absence to make their fifth appearance.

Minneapolis Washburn posted two 7-0 runs in the first half and led 25-14 at the break. The Scarlets came out on fire in the opening minutes of the second half, outscoring the Millers 15-6 and pulling within 31-29 after a three-pointer from junior Preston Brunz. Washburn countered with inside shots from seniors RaShede Hageman and Cedric Martin and the Millers went on to victory.

Martin and Hageman both had double-doubles for the Millers: Martin had 23 points and 10 rebounds, and Hageman had 18 points and a game-high 11 rebounds. Senior Aaron Richter led Mankato West in both points (16) and rebounds (8).

Minneapolis Washburn opened tournament play with a 72-60 victory over Grand Rapids. The Millers used a 17-5 run in the opening minutes of the second half to go ahead after trailing 37-36 at the break. RaShede Hageman also played a key role, pulling down eight rebounds and scoring 14 of his 18 points in the second half. Cedric Martin also added 18 points for the Millers.

In the semifinals, Minneapolis Washburn rolled over St. Paul Johnson 91-66. The game was close through the first half, with the Millers leading 40-37 at halftime. Things changed, however, when Washburn switched to a zone defense and went on a 17-5 run to start the second half. The Governors committed 22 fouls in the second half and the Millers capitalized with 23 points made off free throws. Senior Dylan Hale led Minneapolis Washburn with 25 points and Cedric Martin added a double-double with 13 points and 12 rebounds.

Mankato West defeated New Prague 49-37

in the quarterfinals. The Scarlets, who trailed 23-20 at the break, opened a 40-30 lead late in the second half and then made 11-of-12 free throws in the final two minutes to hold off the Trojans. Seniors Derrick Cattrysse and Ray Teachout scored 15 and 14 points, respectively, in the victory, while Aaron Richter added 11 rebounds.

The Scarlets advanced and squeaked past Spring Lake Park 72-70 in the semifinals. Mankato West built a 10-point second-half lead with physical play from senior twins Aaron and Mike Richter and the Scarlets escaped with the victory. The Richters made 13-of-15 field-goal attempts and combined for 30 points. Ray Teachout added another 13 points for Mankato West and also had a team-high seven rebounds.

The St. Paul Johnson Governors defeated the Spring Lake Park Panthers 86-77 in the third-place game. Seniors Mike Talley and Dion Suggs Young led St. Paul Johnson with 17 and 15 points, respectively. Senior Shaun Jensen of Spring Lake Park tied a state tournament record for most free throws made in a single game with 19. He was 19-of-20 at the line and had a game-high 34 points for the Panthers.

Class AAAA

In the final championship game of the day, Hopkins (31-0) became the first Class AAAA school to win a title with a perfect record. The Royals, who were making their 16th appearance, defeated Osseo 69-59. In addition to this year, Hopkins also won titles in 1952, 1953, 2002, 2005, and 2006. The Osseo Orioles (29-3) were making their fifth tournament appearance this year.

Osseo gave Hopkins a competitive game, but the 19 points that the Royals scored off of 21

Osseo turnovers may have been a deciding factor. Hopkins turned the ball over nine times and Osseo was only able to convert those opportunities into nine points.

The Orioles matched the Royals point-for-point for the majority of the first half, although Hopkins led 33-29 at the break. Hopkins, however, opened the second half with a seven-point spurt and never looked back.

Senior forward Royce White scored a game-high 20 points for the Royals. Mike Broghammer, another senior, finished the game with a double-double for Hopkins; he scored 11 points and grabbed 13 rebounds. Junior John Rowland led Osseo with 17 points and senior Sam Dower had a double-double with 15 points and 16 rebounds.

In the quarterfinals, Hopkins defeated Blaine 68-26. The clock went to running time midway through the second half and eleven different players scored for Hopkins. Mike Broghammer scored 12 points for the Royals, while Royce White and senior Raymond Cowels added 11 points apiece.

The St. Cloud Tech Tigers gave Hopkins pause – literally – in the semifinals. The Tigers slowed the pace and only trailed the Royals by one point at halftime. A breakaway dunk by senior Nate Wolters brought the Tigers within 20-19 at 16:23 of the second half, but Hopkins then outscored Tech 15-1 in a run that featured pressure defense and stellar blocks. Mike Broghammer and Royce White each scored 14 points and cornered six rebounds in the victory.

Osseo opened the tournament with a 54-46 victory over Apple Valley. The Orioles built a 22-7 lead in the first half, but the Eagles battled back within 45-42 with 3:41 left in regulation. Osseo countered with back-to-back field goals from seniors Jayvin Reynolds and Nick Djerf to put the game out of reach. Sam Dower had a double-double for Osseo with 13 points and 10 rebounds and Djerf added another 13 points.

In the semifinals, the Orioles defeated Bloomington Jefferson 59-51. The lead changed six times over the course of the game, and the Jaguars were within three points (52-49) with 1:54 left in the game. From there, Osseo hit five throws to ice the victory. Sam Dower again led the Orioles with 20 points and 10 rebounds.

In a game that featured 11 lead changes and six ties, the Tigers of St. Cloud Tech prevailed over the Jaguars of Bloomington Jefferson 59-55 in the third-place game. The Tigers took the lead for good when senior Nate Wolters scored with 2:13 left in regulation. With 39 seconds remaining, Wolters hit two free throws putting the Tigers up 56-52 and making it a two-possession game. And, with eight seconds left, Wolters put the exclamation point on the victory by completing a dunk.

Wolters had a double-double for St. Cloud Tech with 27 points and 10 rebounds. He also had a game-high four steals for the Tigers. Senior Moses Alipate led Bloomington Jefferson with 13 points and senior Ellis Libby had seven rebounds.

The 2009 State Boys' Basketball Tournament quarterfinals were played March 25 and 26 at Williams Arena on the University of Minnesota campus in Minneapolis and the Target Center in Minneapolis. All semifinal and championship games were played at the Target Center on March 26-28. The third-place games were played at Gangelhoff Center on the Concordia University campus in St. Paul on March 28. Total paid attendance was 65,017.

Ada-Borup, St. Michael-Albertville win second titles; Caledonia, Minneapolis South claim first crowns; Minneapolis South's Hill sets six tournament records

By Ellen Giloy-Rajkowski

Ada-Borup (Class A) was the only school to successfully defend its title at the 2009 State Girls' Basketball Tournament. The Cougars defeated Cedar Mountain/Comfrey to claim their second consecutive and overall title.

Caledonia (Class AA) and Minneapolis South (Class AAAA) won their first championships. The victory was especially sweet for the Tigers of Minneapolis South, who had been the runners-up for the past two years.

St. Michael-Albertville (Class AAA) was the final winner. The Knights defeated Minneapolis North to capture their second crown.

Senior Tayler Hill of Minneapolis South also made the 2009 tournament one to remember as she set or tied six tournament records over the course of the four-day event.

Class A

The Cougars of Ada-Borup (31-1) claimed their second consecutive Class A title with a 61-31 victory over the co-op of Cedar Mountain/Comfrey (29-3). This was the fourth consecutive and overall appearance for Ada-Borup, and the second consecutive and overall appearance for Cedar Mountain/Comfrey.

Ada-Borup led 27-12 at the half after shooting 48 percent from the field. Senior Nicole Smart had 12 points at the break and went on to finish with a game-high 27. Smart also combined with the other three seniors on the team – Katy Ness, Vicki Ellefson, and Laura Kolness – for 54 points on 21-of-38 shooting (55.3 percent).

Kolness and Ness finished the game with 13 and 10 points, respectively, and Ness also had a team-high nine rebounds. Sophomore Nicole Kerkhoff paced Cedar Mountain/Comfrey with seven points and five rebounds.

Ada-Borup opened its title trek with a 66-27 victory over the first-time qualifiers from Red Lake County Central of Oklee in the quarterfinals. The Cougars had 13 steals in the first half and their pressure defense led to 14 points on transition layups over one five-minute stretch. Nicole Smart finished the game with 24 points and Katy Ness and Laura Kolness each had 10.

In the semifinals, the Cougars defeated Barnum 57-36. That game was a rematch of the 2008 title game that Ada-Borup won 51-40. This year, the Cougars hit 12 of their first 17 field-goal attempts and cruised to the easy victory. Nicole Smart hit 5-of-10 three-point attempts and finished with a team-high 22 points.

Cedar Mountain/Comfrey never trailed in its opening game and went on to defeat New Life Academy of Woodbury 49-40. Seniors Amanda Seifert and Alyssa Rose scored 12 and 10 points, respectively, for the Cougars, and junior Kayla Mathiowetz had a team-high nine rebounds.

Bigfork took Cedar Mountain/Comfrey to overtime in the semifinals, but the Cougars escaped with a 65-60 victory. The Huskies led 55-53 with 23 seconds left in regulation, but Nicole Kerkhoff sent the game into overtime when she hit a jumper with two seconds left on the clock. The Cougars led all the way in the extra period and they hit five free throws in the final 31 seconds to ice the victory.

Barnum came back and breezed by Bigfork 66-39 for third place. Bigfork rallied within 23-16 after junior Adrianna Ivanovic drained a three-pointer at 7:09 of the first half, but Bomber junior Sarah Myhre grabbed a steal three minutes later and dished it off to ninth-grader Katie Myhre. Katie then hit a three-pointer and Barnum went up 28-18.

Junior Katrina Newman led Barnum with 23 points and four steals. Sarah Myhre added 13 points for the Bombers and also posted a team-high eight rebounds. Adrianna Ivanovic and junior Megan Powell each scored 10 points for Bigfork.

Class AA

In Class AA, the Caledonia Warriors (31-0) completed their perfect season and captured their first championship with a 54-50 victory over the Howard Lake-Waverly-Winsted Lakers (29-4). This was the third consecutive appearance for the Warriors, who fell in the quarterfinals last year, and their fifth overall. The Lakers were making their second consecutive and overall appearance.

Caledonia led by 13 points at half-time, but the Lakers' persistence paid off when junior Ellie Wessling hit a jumper with 54 seconds left to cut the score to 52-50. The Warriors turned the ball over on their next possession, but Wessling missed her jumpshot attempt and Caledonia senior Laquita Becker grabbed the rebound. With 16 seconds left in the game, Caledonia senior Megan King was fouled by Howard Lake-Waverly-Winsted ninth-grader Heather Lehner. King stepped calmly to the line and drained two free throws for the final margin.

Senior Libby Augedahl led Caledonia with 16 points, 10 rebounds, and five steals. Three other players also scored in double digits for the Warriors; junior Aly Meyer had 14 points, while Megan King and senior Cassie Gran added 10 points apiece. Ellie Wessling finished with 19 points for Howard Lake-Waverly-Winsted and senior Christina Gruenhagen had 13 rebounds.

Caledonia defeated Braham 75-54 in the quarterfinals. The Warriors, who played aggressive defense, scored 33 points off 29 turnovers and steadily built their lead throughout the game. Aly Meyer had a double-double with 20 points and 10 rebounds and Megan King and Cassie Gran added 14 and 11 points, respectively.

The Warriors avenged their 2008 quarterfinal loss to Jordan in the semifinals. After falling to the Jaguars 74-61 last year, Caledonia won this year's match-up 71-59. The Warriors went on a 10-0 run over an almost four-minute period in the second half, and they made 15 consecutive free throws down the stretch to put the game out of reach. Libby Augedahl had a team-high 21 points and 11 rebounds for Caledonia.

On the other side of the bracket, Howard Lake-Waverly-Winsted handed Pipestone Area a 42-37 quarterfinal loss. Laker senior Katie Pettit scored 10 of her 20 points during an 18-6 run that ended the first half and gave Howard Lake-Waverly-Winsted the lead for good. Ellie Wessling added 11 points in the victory and Christina Gruenhagen had eight rebounds.

The Lakers held a slim 27-20 halftime lead over New London-Spicer in the semifinals, but the Wildcats tied the score at 29-29 with 11:53 left in the game. Ellie Wessling countered with a free throw at 11:13 and Heather Lehner followed with a three-pointer at 9:33 to give Howard Lake-Waverly-Winsted a 33-29 advantage. The Lakers went on to win 46-31 behind 10 points from Christina Gruenhagen. Wessling and Lehner also scored seven points apiece for Howard Lake-Waverly-Winsted.

In the third-place game, New London-Spicer junior Justine Dammernann scored 21 points and made 12-of-14 free throw attempts as the Wildcats defeated Jordan 67-53. Junior Cassie Zierner and senior Michele Hanson added 11 and 10 points, respectively for New London-Spicer, and Hanson also nabbed a team-high eight rebounds.

Jordan senior Leah Dietel led all scorers with 23 points, and Dietel and junior Emily Clark each had eight rebounds for the Jaguars.

Class AAA

The unseeded Knights of St. Michael-Albertville (25-7) came back from an early 12-0 deficit and went on to defeat the No. 4-seeded Lady Polars of Minneapolis North (20-8) 63-50. This was the third appearance for the Knights, but their first since 2006. They also won one previous championship in 2001. The Lady Polars, who were making their 12th appearance, last competed in the tournament in 2005.

It took the Knights nearly five full minutes before they scored their first bucket, and they trailed 18-4 with 10 and a half minutes left in the first half. They weren't ready to give up, however, and a 13-0 run at the end of the first half pulled them within 28-24 at the break.

St. Michael-Albertville took its first lead at 16:17 in the second half when senior Courtney Barthel hit a jumper. Barthel then gave the Knights the lead for good when she struck from behind the arc with 13 minutes left to play. Minneapolis North junior Dericka Griffis brought the Lady Polars within 41-38 with 9:41 left in the game, but the Knights responded with two free throws from Barthel and another from senior Brittani Wiese.

Wiese paced St. Michael-Albertville with 19 points and five steals. Barthel and junior Carly Rothstein added 12 points apiece for the Knights, and Rothstein and senior Anna Valerius each had eight rebounds. Senior Briana Edwards tallied a double-double for Minneapolis North with her 23 points and 14 rebounds.

St. Michael-Albertville upset No. 3-seeded Minnehaha Academy of Minneapolis 42-29 in the quarterfinals. The Knights held the Redhawks to two baskets in the second half and a 19.1 shooting percentage overall. Carly Rothstein led St. Michael-Albertville with 11 points and senior Maria Berning pulled down 12 rebounds.

In the semifinals, St. Michael-Albertville ousted the defending champions from Totino-Grace of Fridley 63-60. Although the Knights led the second-seeded Eagles for most of the game, they needed a three-pointer from Carly Rothstein to tie the score at 57-57 with 1:51 left in the game. Totino-Grace senior Jackie Meyer drained a three-pointer to pull her squad with 61-60 with 14 seconds left in regulation, but Maria Berning accounted for the final margin with two clutch free throws.

Four players finished in double figures for St. Michael-Albertville: Courtney Barthel with 16 points, Brittani Wiese with 15 points, Anna Valerius with 12 points, and Carly Rothstein with 10 points. Maria Berning led the Knights in rebounds with nine.

Minneapolis North started its tournament run with a 61-33 victory over Grand Rapids. The Lady Polars used a 19-3 run that spanned halftime to pull away from the Thunderhawks.

Briana Edwards led Minneapolis North with 20 points and three steals, and eighth-grader Tyseanna Johnson corralled a team-high 11 rebounds.

The Lady Polars moved on and defeated top-seeded New Prague 44-43 in the semifinals. Eighth-grader Chelsey McGee gave the Polars valuable breathing room after she completed a three-point play with 2:04 left in the game and put her team up 42-39. With one second left in regulation, Tyseanna Johnson fouled Trojan junior Hannah Strop and put her on the line with a chance to take the lead. After a North timeout, Strop missed the front end of a one-and-one and Johnson grabbed the rebound as time expired.

Briana Edwards again led the Lady Polars with 10 points while Tyseanna Johnson had a game-high 15 rebounds to go with her eight points.

Free throw shooting proved key as the New Prague Trojans defeated the Totino-Grace Eagles 53-48 in the third-place match-up. Totino-Grace pulled within 48-46 after senior Lizzi Nauman converted on two free throw attempts with 50 seconds left in the game, but the Eagles wouldn't get any closer. The Trojans then hit five free throws in the final 39 seconds to ice the victory.

Overall, New Prague shot 66.7 percent (22-33) from the charity stripe, with senior Britt Rynda hitting 7-of-9 of her attempts. Maggie Weiers had a double-double for the Trojans with 15 points and 11 rebounds, and Lizzi Nauman led Totino-Grace with 14 points and seven rebounds.

Class AAAA

After finishing as the runners-up to St. Paul Central for the past two years, the top-seeded Tigers of Minneapolis South (31-2) finally claimed their first title after defeating Centennial of Circle Pines 68-61. Both teams were making their fourth appearances at the tournament. The Centennial Cougars (29-3) made their last appearance in 2006.

Centennial stayed close to Minneapolis South through most of the game, pulling within 48-47 after senior Bridget Schuneman hit a free throw with 7:39 on the clock. From there, however, Minneapolis South senior Tayler Hill took over. Hill, who had scored 18 points in the first half, hit a jumpshot at 6:50 and, from there, scored 17 of the Tigers' last 20 points.

When the dust settled at the end of the game, Hill found herself in the tournament record book in six different categories. She tied the record for most points in a single game (47), and also set the new standard in both free throws attempted (23) and free throws made (20) in a single game. She also set three three-game records: most free throws attempted (48), most free throws made (38), and perhaps most impressively, most points (106). Kelly Skalicky of Albany had held the previous record for most points in three games (102) since 1981.

Hill finished the title game with 47 points on 11-of-29 shooting. She also went 5-of-13 behind the arc, 20-of-23 at the free throw line, and grabbed a team-high 12 rebounds. Junior Ameshia Kearney was the second-leading scorer for the Tigers; she finished with eight points, four rebounds, two blocks, and one steal.

Senior Megan Nipe paced Centennial with 21 points and eight rebounds. Three other Cougar players also scored in double figures: Bridget Schuneman and junior Megan Waytashek scored 12 points apiece and sophomore Kahla Becken added another 10. Schuneman also had eight rebounds for Centennial.

Minneapolis South dismantled Blaine 73-34 in the quarterfinals. The Tigers opened the game with 17-3 run and also forced the Bengals into 20 first-half turnovers. Hill finished the game with 27 points, eight rebounds, and eight steals. Ameshia Kearney added 16 points and senior Gabrielle Roberts grabbed nine rebounds.

The Tigers had a harder time with Eastview of Apple Valley in the semifinals. The Lightning played a stellar first half and led 34-20 at the break, but they couldn't hold back the Tigers in the second half. South took the lead for good with 6:14 to play. Tayler Hill again led Minneapolis South with a game-high 32 points and nine rebounds. Junior Tyisha Smith added seven points for the Tigers and Ameshia Kearney had seven rebounds.

In the lower bracket, Centennial started the tournament with a 62-58 victory over the first-time qualifiers from Buffalo. Megan Nipe converted a jumpshot attempt with 2:13 remaining in regulation to put Centennial up 55-53, and the Cougars hit seven free throws down the stretch to secure the victory. Nipe and senior Hannah Steele both had 17 points in the victory.

Centennial beat Eden Prairie, which was also making its first tournament appearance, 65-56 in the semifinals. Megan Nipe, who finished the game with 10 points, hit two big free throws with 1:03 to play and put the Cougars up 60-55. Bridget Schuneman had a double-double for the Cougars with 22 points and 14 rebounds.

In the third-place match-up, Eastview defeated Eden Prairie 50-47. The Eagles, who trailed most of the second half, brought the score within 47-45 when sophomore Morgan Van-Riper Rose went 1-of-2 at the free throw line with 18 seconds left in the game. Two seconds later, however, Eden Prairie senior Carly Rothfusz fouled Eastview junior Haley Thomforde. Thomforde sunk both of her free throws, making it a two-possession game for Eden Prairie.

Darcey Rice was the high scorer for Eastview; she finished the game with 16 points. Senior Emily Kaus tallied a double-double for the Lightning with 13 points and 12 rebounds. Morgan Van-Riper Rose had a game-high 17 points for Eden Prairie, and senior Michelle Tobin added 11 points and 10 rebounds.

The 2009 State Girls' Basketball Tournament quarterfinals were played March 18 and 19 at Williams Arena on the University of Minnesota campus in Minneapolis and the Target Center in Minneapolis. All semifinal and championship games were played at the Target Center on March 19-21. The third-place games were played at Gangelhoff Center on the Concordia University campus in St. Paul on March 21. Total paid attendance was 37,808.

+ In 1987 Scott Morken of Winona was the first finisher with a time of 15:58.1. However, Morken had not qualified as an individual (he did not finish in the top five in the Section 1AA Meet), but rather as a member of a team. According to League rules at that time he was ineligible to win an individual title or medal.

State Record for 5,000 Meters & Class AA Course Record

In the individual portion of the race, senior Moses Heppner of Warroad extended his lead throughout the race to cross the finish line with a 6-second lead over his nearest competitor. Heppner led at the 1600-mile mark, the 2400-mark, the 4200-mark, and completed the course in 16:08.2. This was Heppner's first title. He placed 27th in 2007.

The challenge for runner-up status was tighter, with Pequot Lakes senior Clayton Foster claiming second in 16:14.5 and The Blake School junior Paul Koullick running in third in 16:15.5. In 2007, Foster was fifth and Koullick was 49th. Junior Connor Gjevve of Annandale and senior Ben Jones of The Blake School placed fourth and fifth, respectively.

Class AA

In Class AA, Wayzata won its second consecutive team championship and its fifth overall. The Trojans claimed the title with 55 points, which bettered last year's score of 62 points. In addition to the past two years, the Trojans also won championships in 1992, 1993, and 2000.

All five scoring runners placed in the top 15 in team scoring. Leading the way was senior Jeremy Drenckhahn, who placed fifth in team scoring and 10th overall. Senior Andrew Wasz was 10th in team scoring and 26th overall, and junior Oliver Haugland was 11th in team scoring and 28th overall. Rounding out the scoring places for the Trojans were senior Danny Ducharme and ninth-grader Josh Thorson, who were 14th and 15th in team scoring, respectively. Ducharme and Thorson finished 31st and 32nd overall. Junior Landon Lozano and senior Jon Hackbart also raced for the Trojans.

The Eden Prairie Eagles improved six places on their 2007 showing to earn second-place honors. The Eagles, who finished with 106 points, were led by sophomore Aaron Bartnik. He placed 12th in team scoring and 29th overall. Senior Abdi Abtidon and junior Ayub Aden followed with 19th- and 21st-place finishes in team scoring. That placed them 38th and 44th overall. Junior Christopher Mueller and senior Bobby Davis earned the remaining points for Eden Prairie.

The Moorhead Spuds, who placed seventh last year, moved up to finish third with 146 points. Sophomore Lukas Gemar led the Spuds by winning the entire race in a time of 15:32.1. Gemar pushed into a bold lead after the 1600-meter mark while the early leaders were fading. His strategy paid off; he continued to pull away from the other contenders and won his first title. In 2007, Gemar placed 57th overall.

Minneapolis Southwest senior Robel Kebede and Willmar senior Mahad Hassan battled for the second-place position for the last mile of the race. Kebede won that battle by less than a second to claim the runner-up status. Kebede, who was fifth in 2007, finished in 15:40.9, and Hassan, who was fourth in 2007, completed the course in 15:41.5. Minneapolis Edison junior Gemechu Bekelcho finished fourth and Alexandria junior Drew Paradis was fifth.

The 2008 State Cross Country Meet was held at St. Olaf College in Northfield on November 1.

Holy Family Catholic of Victoria finished third with 125 points. Senior Lauren Rice paced the Fire, who earned runner-up honors in 2007. She was third in team scoring and fourth overall.

Linda Keller, a Paynesville Area senior, took the lead within the first 400 meters, and did not surrender it, despite some shuffling for position in the places behind her. Keller's win was her second consecutive title, and she completed the course in 14:38.2. An eighth-grader from Chatfield, Kayla Woltz, came in second, improving on her 59th-place showing in 2007. Woltz also claimed an early place in the lead pack, and was among the leaders throughout the race; she finished in 14:42.8.

Junior Maddie McClellan from Perham and senior Lauren Rice from Holy Family Catholic of Victoria both moved up one position from their 2007 finishes, placing third and fourth this year, respectively. McClellan and Rice had a down-to-the-wire battle at the finish line, with McClellan claiming third-place by one-tenth of a second. Emily Bakken, a seventh-grader from Pelican Rapids, came in fifth.

Class AA

Eden Prairie, which finished second in 2007, improved one place to earn top honors with 48 points. It was the second team title for the Eagles; they won their first in 1980.

Senior Cassy Opitz led the way with her championship finish. She was not among the early leaders at the 1600-meter mark, but pulled into the lead pack by the 2400-meter mark in the race. She had a commanding lead at the finish line and won with a time 14:24.5. The win was an improvement on her 2007 runner-up showing.

Sophomores Laura Lawton and Alexandra Rudin placed fourth and sixth in team scoring, respectively, for Eden Prairie, and sophomore Megan Platner was seventh. Overall, Lawton was sixth, Rudin was 10th, and Platner was 12th. Ninth-grader Hanna Hoch rounded out the Eagles' scoring positions by placing 30th in team scoring and 56th overall. Ninth-grader Dana Jeter and sophomore Alexandra Birkle also raced for Eden Prairie.

Lakeville North improved three places to earn runner-up honors with 111 points, and their top three finishers placed 13th, 14th, and 15th in team scoring. Seniors Michelle Volz and Solange Miller placed 27th and 29th overall, respectively, and they were followed by eighth-grader Taylor Perkins, who finished 31st overall. Sophomore Sammy Broughton and ninth-grader Emma Johnson earned the remainder of the Panthers' points.

Woodbury was third with 137 points. The Royals were led by sophomore Lauren Domski, who placed ninth in team scoring and was 19th overall.

In the individual race, Winona junior Claire Guidinger placed second to Eden Prairie's Cassy Opitz. Guidinger, who placed 52nd in 2007, completed the course in 14:35.8. Third-place was claimed by Jamie Piepenburg, an Alexandria ninth-grader. Her time was 14:38.7. Fourth and fifth place went to sophomore Caitlin Hewes of Stillwater Area and senior Katie Moraczewski of White Bear Lake Area.

Defending champion Laura Hughes of Mankato West placed 30th this year. Hughes, a junior, ran the course in 15:08.0.

The 2008 State Cross Country Meet was held November 1 at St. Olaf College in Northfield.

Cassy Opitz of Eden Prairie crosses the finish line in the Class AA race. Opitz, who took top individual honors with a time of 14:24.5, also helped her team win its second title with 48 points.

GIRLS' COMPETITIVE DANCE TEAM

St. Cloud Cathedral only team to defend High Kick title; Marshall School earns third consecutive crown in Jazz; Benilde-St. Margaret's repeats in Jazz

Three teams were successful in defending their 2008 titles at the 2009 State Dance Team Tournament. The Crusaderettes of St. Cloud Cathedral won their second consecutive championship in High Kick, while Marshall School of Duluth and Benilde-St. Margaret's of St. Louis Park both repeated in the Jazz Division. It was the third consecutive crown for the Divas of Marshall School and the second for the Knightettes of Benilde-St. Margaret's.

With costumes glittering and each step in sync, teams from 51 schools took to the floor at the 2009 tournament. Twelve teams competed in each of the two dance disciplines and in each of the three classes at the tournament.

High Kick Division

St. Cloud Cathedral was the only 2008 champion to successfully defend its title in the High Kick Division. The Crusaderettes won their third Class AA championship. Their first came in 2005.

Faribault finished second, moving up one position from the team's 2008 finish. Totino-Grace of Fridley was third, followed by Benilde-St. Margaret's in fourth. Academy of Holy Angels of Richfield placed fifth, and Spring Lake Park was sixth.

Defending champion Yellow Medicine East of Granite Falls yielded to Cannon Falls in the Class A competition. The Cannon Falls Bomber Dance Team earned its fourth state title overall. In addition to this year, they also won in 2005, 2006, and 2007.

Aitkin earned the Class A runner-up trophy while the Silhouettes of Yellow Medicine East settled for third. Lac qui Parle Valley of Madison finished fourth, followed by Lake City in fifth, and Gibbon-Fairfax-Winthrop was sixth.

Eastview of Apple Valley won its fourth Class AAA championship in six years. Faribault, now in Class AA, won in 2005 and Burnsville won in 2008. Otherwise it has been the Lightning Dance Team of Eastview every year since 2004.

Maple Grove finished second in Class AAA and Eden Prairie was third. Defending champion Burnsville fell to fourth, Brainerd was fifth, and Chaska was sixth.

finished third. Yellow Medicine East placed fourth, Frazee was fifth, and Zumbrota-Mazeppa finished sixth.

Benilde-St. Margaret's won its second consecutive and fourth overall championship in Class AA. The Knightettes' previous titles came in a tie with Waconia in 1999 and solely in 2004.

Totino-Grace placed second for the third consecutive year, and Spring Lake Park finished third for the second straight year. St. Cloud Cathedral was fourth, Sartell-St. Stephen finished fifth, and Academy of Holy Angels finished sixth.

Wayzata won its third title in four years in Class AAA. It was the fourth overall championship for the Trojet Dance Team. The team's first title came in 1993, the first year that Jazz competition was added to the tournament.

Defending champion Maple Grove had to settle for second. Eastview took third place, Eden Prairie finished fourth, Mounds View was fifth, and Blaine was sixth.

Although the 2009 tournament was the 13th under Minnesota State High School League sponsorship, it was actually the 35th state competition for dance teams. The previous events were conducted by the Minnesota Association of Dancelines, later renamed the Minnesota Association of Dance Teams. The League's Representative Assembly voted to add girls' dance team as a sponsored activity on March 20, 1996. Although considered an athletic activity, girls' dance team does not meet the federally regulated Title IX guidelines to be considered a sport.

The 2009 State Girls' Dance Team Tournament was conducted February 13-14 at the Target Center in Minneapolis. Paid attendance was 16,481.

History of the State Girls' Dance Team Competition

In the mid-1970's, interested dance team advisors in the Minneapolis/St. Paul metro area met to organize the first State Danceline Competition which was held at Anoka High School. In the early years of the danceline competition, the winner of the state tournament was in charge of and hosted the next year's event. This concept created an incredible amount of work and an awesome responsibility for both the school and the dance team. Advisors served as judges, but there were no regulations to guide the number and type of competitions. During the late 1970's dance teams began to hire judges for the State tournament, but there was no formal training for judges other than their experience as former danceline members. In 1980, the state tournament was moved to St. Olaf College, and the state champion from the prior year was still responsible for the organization and administration of the tournament.

On August 23, 1980, a group of eleven advisors from throughout the state met at Minnetonka High School to discuss dance team issues and to find better ways to organize regular season and the state tournament competition. This meeting led to the formation of the Minnesota Association of Dancelines (MAD), the name chosen for the organization. A nine-member Board of Directors was elected, and the group began planning "State '81". During the initial year of competition there were 55 schools.

A second Board of Directors was elected at a general membership meeting in October of 1981, and they accepted the responsibility for "State'82". The MAD members worked together to develop the Constitution, and in 1982 the Board of Directors filed the necessary papers for incorporation.

The first Judges' and Coaches' Clinic was held in the fall of 1983, and the State tournament was moved to St. Cloud State University. In 1984, the State tournament moved to the Minneapolis Auditorium and functioned comfortably there until the move to the St. Paul Civic Center in 1989. In 1995, the University of Minnesota became the state tournament site. This change coincided with a change in the name of the coaches organization, the Minnesota Association of Dance Teams (MADT).

In the fall and winter of 1995, member schools of the Minnesota State High School League began a discussion with MADT and, on March 20, 1996, the League's Representative Assembly voted to include girls dance team as a League-sponsored athletic activity.

The 2009 tournament at the Xcel Energy Center, marked the 35th year of dance team competition, but the 13th one under the auspices of the League.

Ciborowski, Bernick of Henry Sibley win Policy title; Keohane of Apple Valley claims Lincoln-Douglas title

Increasing alternative energy incentives and submitting to the jurisdiction of an international court in regard to crimes against humanity were the topics argued at the 2009 State Debate Tournament — the 108th edition and the longest-running event of the Minnesota State High School League.

Michelle Keohane of Apple Valley defeated David McNeil of Edina 5-2 to win the Lincoln-Douglas competition. Keohane's argument against submitting to an international court in regard to prosecuting crimes against humanity followed nine rounds of debate conducted over two days.

The results of eight rounds of debate proved that Robert Ciborowski and Daniel Bernick of Henry Sibley of Mendota Heights were the very best policy debaters. Ciborowski and Bernick drew the affirmative argument, arguing for increased alternative energy incentives, and won the debate by a 5-0 margin over Laura Johnson and Steven Quam of St. Paul Central.

Keohane, Ciborowski, and Bernick emerged as champions after two days of debate that began with 64 competitors from 24 teams. The qualifiers were the first-through sixth-place finishers in Lincoln-Douglas debate and the first-through fifth-place finishers in Policy debate from four section tournaments.

The policy debate portion of the tournament has been conducted since 1902 and the Lincoln-Douglas portion of the tournament, which was an invitational event from 1986 through 1989, was added to the state tournament in 1990. This year's tournament was held at the University of Minnesota.

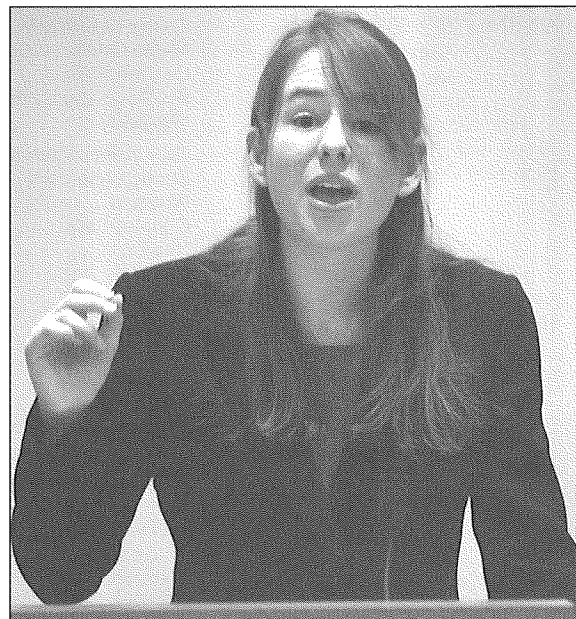

Lincoln-Douglas Debate

This year's Lincoln-Douglas debate topic was "Resolved: The United States ought to submit to the jurisdiction of an international court designed to prosecute crimes against humanity." Considered a debate of values rather than policies, this competition is patterned after the Lincoln and Douglas debate nearly a century and a half ago and pits individuals against each other.

Apple Valley's Michelle Keohane drew the negative argument in the title round and defeated Edina's David McNeil 5-2. Keohane advanced to the championship after defeating Francesca Parente of Wayzata 2-1 in the quarterfinals. In the semifinals, she defeated teammate Chris Theis 3-2.

McNeil defeated Kathryn Haglin of Forest Lake 3-0 in the quarterfinals, and Erik Legried of The Blake School of Minneapolis 5-0 in the semifinals.

Twenty-four students from 16 schools qualified for the 2009 tournament. Seven schools qualified two individuals apiece: Apple Valley, Eastview of Apple Valley, Eagan, St. Thomas Academy of Mendota Heights, The Blake School, Coon Rapids, and St. Louis Park. Overall, seven of the 24 debaters also competed in the 2008 tournament.

Policy Debate

This year's policy debate issue was "Resolved: The United States federal government should substantially increase alternative energy incentives in the United States." Teams of two compete against each other.

Robert Ciborowski and Daniel Bernick of Henry Sibley of Mendota Heights, who lost in the quarterfinals of the 2008 tournament, argued in favor of increasing incentives and won the debate by a 5-0 margin. They defeated Laura Johnson and Steven Quam of St. Paul Central for the title.

This year, Ciborowski and Bernick defeated David Kang and Tom Madsen of The Blake School of Minneapolis 3-0 in the quarterfinals. They went on to defeat Jillian Jordan and Tamar Kaplan of St. Paul Highland Park 4-1 in the semifinals.

Johnson and Quam started the tournament with a 3-0 quarterfinal victory over Brett Eutell and Kelly Sharron of Eden Prairie. In the semifinals, they defeated Noah Rosenthal and Krishnan Ramanujan of Wayzata 3-0.

Twenty teams of two from 12 schools competed in the 2009 tournament, and Mankato West, Eagan, Henry Sibley, St. Paul Central, Minneapolis South, The Blake School, Wayzata, and Eden Prairie each qualified two teams apiece. Thirteen of this year's competitors also competed in the 2008 tournament.

Spotlight on the Arts Award of Excellence

The Spotlight on the Arts Award of Excellence — sponsored by premier corporate sponsor Wells Fargo in cooperation with the Minnesota State High School League — was also presented to all of the semifinalist policy debate teams and to all of the semifinalist Lincoln-Douglas debaters.

The Spotlight on the Arts campaign was designed to increase awareness and visibility of the League's fine arts disciplines. The award is also presented to the finest participants in the one act festival, music contests, visual arts festivals, and speech competitions.

More than 1,300 students participate in debate throughout Minnesota. The first debate tournament was held in May 1902 in Minneapolis.

Four Class A schools earn "starred" ratings; Three Class AA productions named "starred performances"

2009 REVIEW

Two separate panels of judges who watched 16 different performances over two days collectively rated seven of them as "starred performances." Three Class AA plays received the honor on the first day of the festival, and four Class A plays were honored similarly on the second day.

The Minnesota State High School League State One Act Play Festival does not involve direct competition. Judges rate the plays according to specific criteria, including pace, blocking, costuming, and projection of the play's meaning. Each production is limited to 10 minutes of stage preparation and 35 minutes of actual performance.

The judges consult after each production and then openly critique each in front of the cast, crew, and audience. "Starred performance" ratings are determined by private balloting of the judges.

One school from each of eight sections in each class gets to perform at the state level. Two hundred and ninety-three teams participated in One Act Play this season — 206 in Class A and 87 in Class AA.

Class A

The top eight Class A productions from across the state took the stage throughout the first day of the festival. The four schools whose performances were cited for "starred performances" were (in order of performance): Milaca for The Ice Fishing Play, Morris Area for Lysistrata Interruptae, Park Rapids Area for Said and Meant — Short Plays About Language and Misunderstandings, and Belle Plaine for Orphan Trains. The other participating Class A schools were Pipestone Area, Roseau, St. Charles, and Cook County of Grand Marais.

Milaca's "starred performance" of The Ice Fishing Play by Kevin Kling was directed by Audrey French. This was the school's fifth appearance and fourth "starred performance" rating. The school earned its other top ratings in 1985, 1991, and 1993. Cast members were Austin Bauer, Carl Cronin, Tyler Haugen, Deanna Christianson, Elle Golden, Bronte Dohm, Caitlin Drayna, Dustin Beehler, David Farmer, and Spencer Slade. Support personnel included Amber Dorr, Reice Golden, and Jonah Ellison.

David Johnson directed Morris Area's "starred performance" of Lysistrata Interruptae. The play was written by the cast, Athena Kildegaard and David Johnson. This was the school's 12th festival appearance and its sixth "starred performance" rating. The school earned previous top ratings in 1963, 1978, 1999, 2000, and 2004. Cast members were Anika Kildegaard, Thomas Roberts, Otto Kildegaard, Olivia Pilarski, Ashley Karst, Johanna Luetmer, Jen Buchanan, Tabitha Klages, Laura Lou Delehanty, Krista Matthews-Saugstad, Kelsey Mitteness, Bess Boever, Alex McIntosh, Timm Uhlmann, Thomas McPhee, and Katie Monroe. Support personnel were Fiona O'Halloran-Johnson and Zach Stahmann.

Park Rapids Area earned its previous top ratings in 1972, 1975, 1976, 1978, 1979, 1982, 1991, 1993, 1994, and 2000. The play was written by Randy Wyatt and directed by Juliann Kjenaas. Glencoe-Silver Lake wins third consecutive title and fifth overall; Houston, Kerkhoven-Murdock-Sunburg claim first titles

By Brad Ruiter, Howard W. Voigt, and Ellen Giloy-Rajkowski

The Panthers of Glencoe-Silver Lake were one of two teams to successfully defend their 2007 titles at Prep Bowl XXVII. They defeated DeLaSalle of Minneapolis for a second consecutive year in the Class AAA championship game, while Caledonia beat Luverne for a second consecutive year in the Class AA championship tilt.

Two teams became first-time champions this year: Houston claimed its first 9-Man crown after defeating Clinton-Graceville-Beardsley and Kerkhoven-Murdock-Sunburg defeated Royalton to win the Class A title.

The Mankato West Scarlets and Wayzata Trojans claimed the Class AAAA and Class AAAAA titles, respectively. Mankato West beat Northfield and Wayzata defeated Blaine.

Several individual records were also set or tied this year. Junior Joel Bauman of Kerkhoven-Murdock-Sunburg set a new record with 44 rush attempts and senior Paul Berndt of Mankato West tied the record for most rushing touchdowns at four. Senior Michael Weick of Clinton-Graceville-Beardsley also tied the record for most unassisted tackles at 18.

In team records, Kerkhoven-Murdock-Sunburg set the new standard for best pass completion percentage when they went 6-for-6 for 133 yards. Mankato West and Wayzata also tied the record for longest drive for distance. The Scarlets went 99 yards in eight plays and the Trojans covered 99 yards in 13 plays.

Class 9-Man

Prep Bowl XXVII kicked off with the Class 9-Man championship game between Houston and Clinton-Graceville-Beardsley. When it was all said and done, the Houston Hurricanes had earned their first title and capped their perfect season (14-0) with a 22-16 victory over the Wolverines (13-1).

The first half saw Houston taking most of the play into Clinton-Graceville-Beardsley territory. The Hurricanes marched downfield on three separate occasions, two of which ended with the Wolverines making goal line stands on fourth-and-goal from inside the one-yard line.

Houston jumped on the board with a well-designed 24-yard screen pass from senior quarterback Andy Sires to senior Trent Kerrigan. The play, on a third-and-16, capped a seven-play, 66-yard drive. The Hurricane defense made the touchdown stand for a 7-0 halftime lead.

The Hurricanes added to their lead by taking their opening drive of the second half 59 yards on nine plays for a touchdown. Senior Kevin Lindh capped the drive with a four-yard run to extend the Hurricane lead to 14-0. Clinton-Graceville-Beardsley got on the board with its next drive, as junior quarterback Zach McNally connected with junior Nate Vogt on a 34-yard touchdown pass. McNally ran in the two-point conversion to cut the Houston lead to 14-8.

The Wolverine defense tightened again, giving their offense the ball back in good field position. The result was a seven-play, 49-yard touchdown drive capped on an 18-yard scoring run by junior Isaiah Athey. McNally rolled out and ran in another two-point conversion to give C-G-B a 16-14 lead.

Andy Sires gave Houston the lead for good when he ran the ball in from the one-yard line with 2:25 left in regulation. Kevin Lindh led Houston on the ground with 91 yards on 18 carries, and Sires completed 6-of-9 passing attempts for 121 yards.

Junior running back Levi Nelson led Clinton-Graceville-Beardsley with 63 yards rushing on 16 carries, and Zach McNally added another 109 yards with his passing game.

Houston started its title run with a 14-6 quarterfinal victory over Verndale. Kevin Lindh paced the Hurricanes with 153 yards on 32 carries and he also added a kick-off return for another 25 yards. Andy Sires tallied 34 yards on four completed passes and senior Zach Stackhouse had a team-high 11 tackles for Houston.

In the semifinals, the Hurricanes cruised past Ada-Borup 56-14. Houston scored fast and often with six touchdowns in the first half and led 42-8 at the break. 2008 REVIEW (Continued from page 144)

Central had won a state record 76 consecutive games.

Class A

Junior Joel Bauman gained 289 yards on a Prep Bowl record 44 carries to lead Kerkhoven-Murdock-Sunburg to a 33-22 win over Royalton (12-2) in the Class A Championship game. The Fighting Saints (12-2) captured the school's first state football title, avenging a loss earlier in the season to Royalton. Both K-M-S and Royalton are members of the Prairie South Conference.

Royalton opened the scoring on a 12-yard touchdown pass from senior quarterback Shawn Lanners to sophomore Zach Lanners. The score came after a 12-play, 73-yard drive. Kerkhoven-Murdock-Sunburg responded with two long touchdown drives to take a 14-6 lead. Bauman scampered in from nine yards out before senior Mitch Haugen barreled in from three yards to conclude a 14-play, 72-yard drive. The Royals evened the score on a 43-yard touchdown strike from Shawn Lanners to Zack Lanners. Shawn Lanners' two-point conversion made the half-time score 14-14.

The Fighting Saints took control of the game with two third-quarter touchdown drives. Senior Aaron Zimmer hauled in a 39-yard pass from senior quarterback Kevin Steinhaus to cap a seven-play, 70-yard drive. Joel Bauman then dashed 67 yards on the Fighting Saints' subsequent drive for a touchdown to extend the K-M-S lead to 27-14. Steinhaus was perfect in the air on the day for the Fighting Saints, connecting on 6-of-6 passes for 133 yards and two touchdowns.

For the Royals, Zack Lanners gained 95 yards on 10 rushes. Shawn Lanners was 7-of-12 through the air for 118 yards and one touchdown.

In the quarterfinals, Kerkhoven-Murdock-Sunburg defeated the first-time qualifiers from Fosston 47-14. Joel Bauman had three touchdowns in the victory.

The Fighting Saints ran right over the Tigers of Springfield in a decisive 41-7 semifinal victory. Senior Mitch Hagen led the way with 121 yards on 18 carries, and teammate Joel Bauman was close behind with 119 yards on 25 rushing attempts. Bauman also scored two touchdowns. Quarterback Kevin Steinhaus threw only seven passes, completing three, but two went for touchdowns of 49 and 34 yards, respectively, to senior Taylor Freetly. Springfield had four turnovers, including one interception that Hagen returned 67 yards for the final Fighting Saints touchdown.

Goodhue, which claimed the Class A crown in 2007, failed to qualify for this year's tournament.

Class AA

In a rematch of the 2007 title game, the Warriors of Caledonia (13-1) once again topped the Cardinals of Luverne (12-2). After winning 14-7 in 2007, the Warriors extended their winning margin to 47-7 this year. This was the second consecutive title for Caledonia, and its third overall. In addition to last year, the Warriors also won a title in 1976.

Caledonia jumped out to a quick 17-0 lead by scoring on three of its first four possessions. Senior quarterback Casey Bauer scored on a run from 32 yards out before throwing a touchdown pass to senior Andy Bauer. Senior Ryan

Goetzinger booted a 20-yard field goal to make the margin 17-0.

Luverne responded with a big play, a 77-yard scoring pass from junior quarterback Ryan Hoff to senior Zack Clark. Caledonia tacked on 10 points in their next two drives to make the halftime margin 27-7. Junior Isaac Fruechte hauled in a 29-yard touchdown pass from Casey Bauer to extend the Warrior lead to 34-7 at the end of the third quarter.

Bauer finished by connecting on 9-of-16 pass attempts for 181 yards and three touchdowns. Andy Bauer hauled in three passes for a total of 80 yards and a pair of touchdowns, while senior Alex Schleich rushed 26 times for 90 yards and one touchdown. The Warrior defense held the Cardinals to 58 yards rushing for the game.

For Luverne, senior Phillip Paquette rushed 14 times for 55 yards. Caledonia held Luverne to five yards total offense in the third quarter, and 37 yards total in the second half.

Caledonia's performance in the state tournament started with a 21-0 quarterfinal victory over Norwood-Young America. The Warriors broke the game open with 14 points in the third quarter, and senior Alex Schleich ran 22 times for 133 yards and two touchdowns.

In the semifinals, Caledonia rolled over Moose Lake/Willow River 44-13. Cousins Andy and Casey Bauer led the Warriors' offense. Casey threw for 107 yards and was 9-for-16 with three touchdowns, while Andy threw for one touchdown and caught six passes, three for touchdowns, from his cousin. Alex Schleich led the Warriors on the ground, gaining 175 yards on 34 carries plus a touchdown. The lopsided score forced the Moose Lake/Willow River to go to a passing attack, but Caledonia's defense capitalized with an interception return for a touchdown by Isaac Fruechte.

Class AAA

The Class AAA championship was also a rematch of the 2007 game, with Glencoe-Silver Lake (13-1) defeating DeLaSalle of Minneapolis (13-1) for a second consecutive year. Last year, the Panthers won 56-20, and this year they won 42-21. It was the third consecutive title for Glencoe-Silver Lake under this name and its fifth overall. In addition to the past three years, the Panthers also won championships in 2000 and 2003. Silver Lake won two additional titles in 1983 and 1987.

Glencoe-Silver Lake jumped out of the gate quickly, scoring the game's first two touchdowns. Senior Mitchell Nowak plunged in from four yards out before sophomore quarterback Kyler Anderson ran 37 yards for a touchdown to give the Panthers a 14-0 lead.

DeLaSalle scored three of the remaining four touchdowns in the first half to even the score at 21-21. Junior Evan Williams rushed for two of the Islanders' three first-half touchdowns, scoring on runs of one and 52 yards, respectively. Williams rushed 13 times for 116 yards in the first half alone.

The Panthers dominated play in the second half, with the key play a third-and-six conversion that turned into a 30-yard touchdown run for senior Tyler Lang. Two more second-half running touchdowns, one by Anderson and the last by Lang, would provide the final margin of victory.

Anderson led the Panther ground attack with 135 yards on 13 carries. Junior Aaron Lueders also topped the century mark with 103 yards on 13 carries.

For the Islanders, Williams finished with 151 yards on 20 carries, while senior Michael Van Leer passed for 69 yards and ran for another 16.

Glencoe-Silver Lake was in control all the way to its title-winning finish. The Panthers defeated LeSueur-Henderson 42-6 in the quarterfinals, with Aaron Lueders scoring three of the Panthers' touchdowns.

In the semifinal contest, Glencoe-Silver Lake defeated the first-time qualifiers from Holy Family Catholic of Victoria 34-0. The Panthers, who deployed a suffocating defense that restricted the Fire to just 92 total yards, also employed a balanced ground game. Aaron Lueders rushed 19 times for 97 yards and one touchdown, Kyler Anderson rushed 17 times for 57 yards, and Mitchell Nowak rushed 10 times for 63 yards and two touchdowns. Anderson also threw eight passes, completing four for 102 yards and two touchdowns.

Class AAAA

Senior Paul Berndt tied a Prep Bowl record with four rushing touchdowns to lead Mankato West (13-1) to a 33-14 win over Northfield (10-4) in the Class AAAA championship game. It was the third title overall for the Scarlets. They won previously in 1999 and 2002.

Mankato West accounted for all the scoring in the first half. Berndt closed an eight-play, 67-yard drive with a one-yard touchdown run to put the Scarlets on top 7-0. Senior quarterback Ray Teachout connected with senior Mike Richter on a 45-yard touchdown early in the second quarter to extend the Mankato West lead to 13-0.

The key play of the first half was a Mankato West defensive stand after a 15-play, 72-yard Raider drive. The fourth-and-goal rush from inside the one-yard line was stopped, resulting in Northfield turning over the ball on downs. The Scarlets then drove the ball 99 yards, and Berndt added his second touchdown of the half to extend Mankato West's halftime lead to 20-0.

Berndt added his third score on a six-yard run to open the third quarter, and senior Christian Shepley of Northfield scored a pair of touchdowns early in the fourth quarter. Berndt's fourth touchdown, a two-yard plunge, capped the scoring for the Scarlets.

Mankato West's Teachout completed 14-of-17 pass attempts for 250 yards, and Berndt finished the game with 83 yards on 23 rush attempts. Mike Richter also pulled in 112 receiving yards for the Scarlets.

Junior Sam Maus threw for 96 yards and one touchdown on six completed passes for Northfield. Senior Cody Schmidt led the ground game for the Raiders; he tallied 81 yards on 15 rushes.

Mankato West started its championship run with a 28-7 quarterfinal victory over St. Thomas Academy of Mendota Heights. Ray Teachout threw two touchdown passes 16 seconds apart in the opening minutes of the third quarter, and he finished the game with 330 yards on 19-of-32 passing.

The Scarlets advanced and defeated St. Michael-Albertville 38-14 in the semifinals. Mankato West trailed 7-3 at the end of the half, and the Scarlets' Paul Berndt, with his 112 yards rushing, accounted for a majority of the team's 161 halftime yardage. After the intermission, Mankato West completely dominated, outscoring the Knights 35-7. Senior Aaron Richter scored four times; three times on passes from Ray Teachout, and the fourth on a 5-yard run.

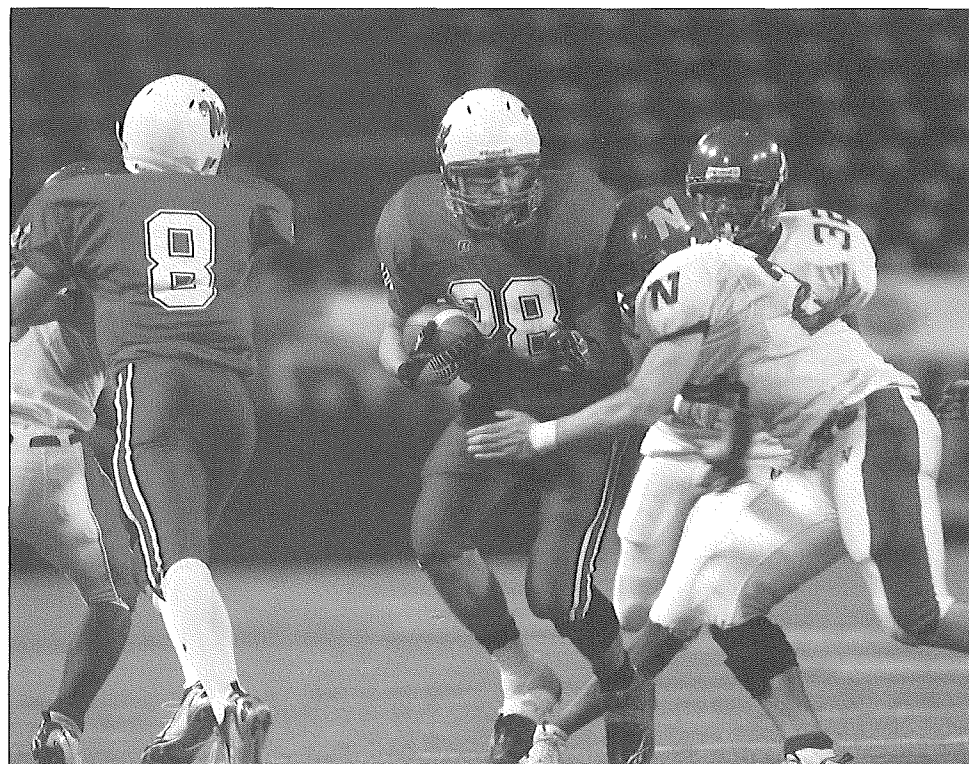

The two-time defending champions from Totino-Grace of Fridley did not qualify for the 2008 tournament.

Class AAAAA

Senior quarterback John Ries threw for 205 yards and two touchdowns to lead the Wayzata Trojans to a 27-7 win over the Blaine Bengals (11-2) in the Class AAAAA title game. The win capped an unbeaten 13-0 season for Wayzata, as the Trojans claimed their second championship. They won their one previous title in 2005.

Wayzata opened the scoring on the game's first possession. The Trojans marched 73 yards in nine plays, capped by senior quarterback John Ries' 18-yard touchdown pass to senior Fritz Rock. Blaine responded with a 14-play, 69-yard drive completed on a three-yard touchdown plunge by senior quarterback James Peterson. He converted a big fourth down-and-12 play late in the drive with a 27-yard completion to senior Nick Rusin.

Both quarterbacks enjoyed solid first half numbers. Ries was 7-for-11 for 104 yards and two touchdowns, while Peterson was 10-for-15 for 92 yards.

Wayzata converted a huge fourth-and-10 pass play in the third quarter which resulted in a touchdown. Ries threw a lateral to Rock, who turned and tossed a 14-yard touchdown pass to senior Matt Tarpley. A key interception early in the fourth quarter for the Trojans helped put the game on ice. Junior Jack Egan picked off an errant Peterson pass and returned it deep into Bengal territory. Two plays later, junior Chris Kroeten ran in from three yards out and extended the Wayzata lead to 27-7.

Senior Garrett Engelhardt led the Trojans' ground attack with 59 yards on 10 carries, and Ries finished the game with 205 yards on 15 completed passes.

Peterson led Blaine with 47 yards rushing on 20 carries, and he was 16-for-27 for 166 yards through the air. Senior Deven King added 34 rushing yards for the Bengals and junior Mike Thai had 84 yards on five receptions.

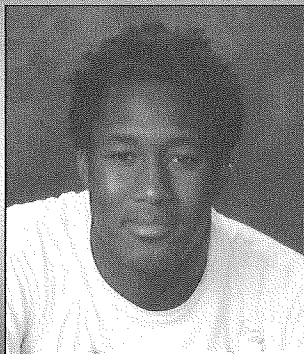

Wayzata defeated St. Cloud Tech 38-0 in the quarterfinals. The Trojans scored on their first play from scrimmage when John Ries hit senior Cecil doe with a 60-yard pass. Wayzata also got an 80-yard touchdown run from Garrett Engelhardt and a 21-yard run from Chris Kroeten.

In the semifinals, Wayzata defeated Rosemount 34-10. Kroeten rushed for 118 yards on 15 carries for two touchdowns, and Engelhardt contributed another 67 yards on 18 carries for two touchdowns. Rosemount couldn't match the offensive output of the Trojans who amassed 345 yards, most of it on the ground. The Irish were held to a field goal in the first half and they finished the game with only 163 yards.

Eden Prairie, which won back-to-back Class AAAAA titles in 2006 and 2007, lost to Blaine 28-24 in the state tournament quarterfinals.

The six games of Prep Bowl XXVII were played at the Metrodome in Minneapolis on November 28 and 29, and drew a total attendance of 32,094. Total tournament attendance was 100,010.

Orono defends Class AA title; Four individuals win first titles

By Ellen Giloy-Rajkowski

Rushford-Peterson was the only school to win its first title this year. The Trojans, who were also making their debut tournament appearance, claimed the Class A crown. In Class AA, the Orono Spartans took home their second consecutive and overall title. They shared top honors with Detroit Lakes in 2008.

The Class AAA title went to the Wayzata Trojans. It was their third team championship overall, but their first since 1998.

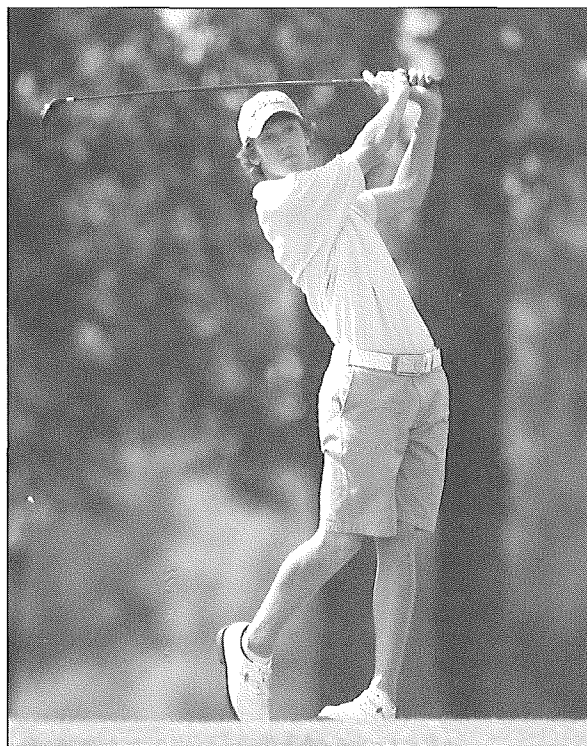

Four individual players also claimed their first titles. Sophomore Dillon Schultz of Springfield/Comfrey won in Class A, and senior Mark Giorgi of Red Wing won in Class AA. There was a tie in Class AAA with senior Joe Petrulo of Eastview of Apple Valley and senior Paul Moberg of Forest Lake sharing top honors.

Class A

In their first appearance at the tournament, the boys of Rushford-Peterson took home top honors with 655 strokes. Junior Kasey Olloff was the top finisher for the Trojans. He shot a 75 on the first day and followed it with a 79 on the second. His final score of 154 was good enough for a three-way tie for fourth place overall.

Senior Matt Agrimson and junior Justin Simon were the next finishers for Rushford-Peterson; they tied for 26th place with 167 strokes apiece. Senior Todd Vesterse rounded out the scoring positions for the Trojans. He tied for 31st place with 168 strokes. Seniors Brady Boyum and Zach Miner also competed for Rushford-Peterson.

Dillon Schultz of Springfield/Comfrey tees off during the Class A tournament. Schultz claimed top individual honors with 144 strokes and also helped his team to a third-place showing.

The Trojans led Hawley by nine strokes at the end of the first day and they went on to defeat the Nuggets by five strokes. Sophomore Brett Severson, who tied for 18th place, was the highest finisher for Hawley. The co-op of Springfield/Comfrey was third at 665.

Last year's champions from Meadow Creek Christian of Andover did not qualify for the 2009 tournament.

In the individual competition, senior Conner Christoff of Providence Academy of Plymouth looked poised to win after 18 holes. He shot a 70 on the first day and led Springfield/Comfrey sophomore Dillon Schultz by four strokes. Schultz, however, was not to be discounted and on the second day he shot consecutive nine-hole scores of 1-under-par 35. When the dust settled, Schultz had won by seven strokes over both Christoff and senior Will Lage of Mounds Park Academy of St. Paul.

Senior Grant Wayland of Bethlehem Academy of Faribault, who took top honors in 2008, placed a distant 20th with 163 strokes.

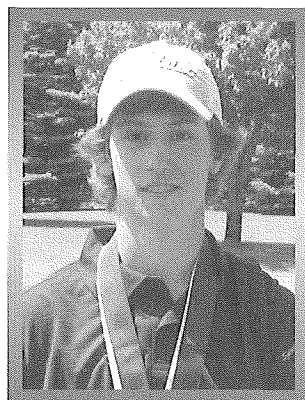

Class AA

After sharing championship honors with Detroit Lakes in 2008, the Orono Spartans won the 2009 title outright with 607 strokes. It was the second consecutive and overall title for the Spartans.

Orono shot a 308 on the first day to lead Hermantown by four strokes. Both teams bettered their scores on the second day, but the Spartans were able to pull away after shooting a 299 to Hermantown's 306.

Four of Orono's competitors placed in the Top 20: sophomore Patrick Johnston earned runner-up honors with a score of 146; sophomore Miles Knutsen tied for 12th place with a score of 154; and sophomore Brian Urness and junior Zac Roach tied for 19th place with a score of 155. Sophomore Dakota Clark and senior Chris Hanson rounded out the Orono squad.

The Hawks of Hermantown finished with 618 strokes overall. Alex Kolquist, a senior, led the Hawks with 149 strokes and a tie for fourth place. The perennial qualifiers from Rochester Lourdes earned third-place honors with 631 strokes. Sophomore Alex Kapraun was the highest finisher for the Eagles; he tied for 12th place with 154 strokes.

Detroit Lakes, which shared the title with Orono last year, failed to qualify for the 2009 tournament.

Red Wing senior Mark Giorgi, who shared a first-day lead of 71 with International Falls sophomore Glenn Walls, had to fight through a tough second day to win individual honors. He got off to good start, making a tap-in birdie on the par-5 first hole, but then bogeyed the next three holes. He rebounded, however, and hit birdies on three of the four remaining par-5s. He finished with a 1-over-par 145 total, which was one stroke better than Patrick Johnston of Orono.

Senior Nathan Hoefflin of St. Cloud Cathedral finished in third place with a final score of 148. Walls slipped with an 81 on the second day and he tied for seventh place.

Class AAA

In the Class AAA individual competition, seniors Joe Petrulo of Eastview of Apple Valley and Paul Moberg of Forest Lake, tied for top honors with 148 strokes apiece. Petrulo, who led the field with a 1-under-par 71 on the first day, struggled with five bogeys on the second. He sank a putt on No. 18 to clinch the tie with Moberg, who finished one group ahead of him.

Moberg shot a 5-over-par 77 on the first day, before countering with a 71 on the second. He made a birdie on the 18th hole to clinch his share of the title.

Senior Blake Vettel of Wayzata and junior Ty Liljander of Cambridge-Isanti tied for third-place honors. Vettel trailed Liljander by six strokes after 18 holes, but he also shot a 71 on the final day to even the score.

The Wayzata Trojans overcame a first-day two-stroke deficit to claim their third team title with 606 strokes. In addition to this year, they also won in 1994 and 1998.

Blake Vettel, who placed second overall, was the top finisher for the Trojans. Junior Kyle Beversdorf, senior Andy Stahlman, and seventh-grader Jack Holmgren rounded out the scoring positions for Wayzata. Beversdorf tied for fifth place with 150 strokes, Stahlman tied for 11th place with 153 strokes, and Holmgren tied for 32nd placed with 157 strokes. Senior Matt Thompson and sophomore Tyler Lowenstein also competed for the Trojans.

Forest Lake, led by Paul Moberg and his co-championship showing, earned runner-up honors with 611 strokes. Eden Prairie placed third with 617 strokes. The Eagles, who led the field with a 305 on the first day, slid with a 312 on the second. Senior Mike Forman paced Eden Prairie with 151 strokes and an eighth-place tie.

The defending champions from Park of Cottage Grove did not qualify for this year's tournament.

The Class AAA tournament was held June 2-3 at Bunker Hills Golf Course in Coon Rapids. The Class A tournament was conducted June 3-4 at Pebble Creek in Becker, and the Class AA tournament was held June 3-4 at Ridges at Sand Creek in Jordan.

Minnewaska Area wins record fourth consecutive team title; Mounds Park Academy defends Class A championship

By Ellen Giloy-Rajkowski

Minnewaska Area of Glenwood proved its dominance once again by becoming the first team to win four consecutive team championships. The Lakers won in Class A in 2006 and 2007 and in Class AA in 2008 and this year. They also made history after having sisters win back-to-back individual titles. Junior Sarah Roering won last year and senior Emily won this year. Their teammate, junior Allie Ostrander, also earned runner-up honors for a second consecutive year.

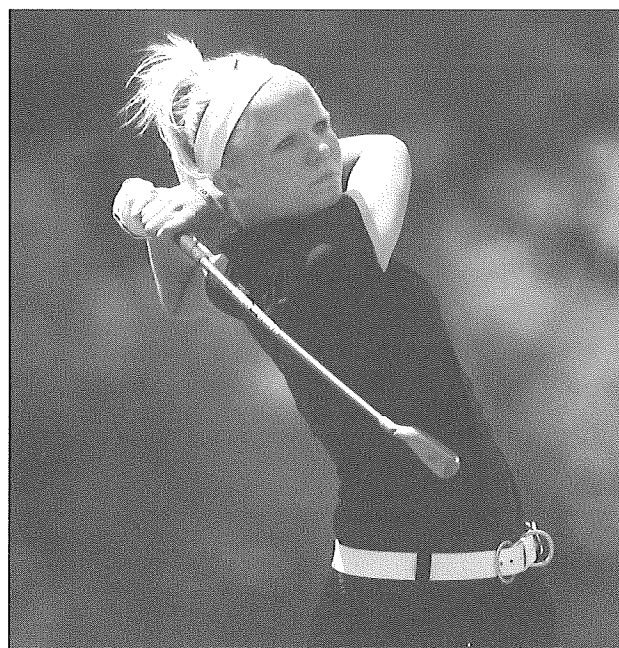

Mounds Park Academy repeated as team champion in Class A. It was the second consecutive title for the Panthers, who defeated the runners-up from Mahanomen by 78 strokes. Lakeville North was the final team champion; the Panthers claimed their first title in Class AAA with a one-stroke victory over Woodbury.

In addition to Sarah Roering, two other competitors also won their first individual titles this year: Colombian exchange student, senior Anna Maria Tarazona of Madelia, earned top honors in Class A, and junior Betsy Kelly of Forest Lake won in Class AAA.

Senior Natalie Lansing, who won individual honors last year, was the top finisher for Mounds Park Academy. She placed third this year with 165 strokes. The rest of the Panthers' scorers all finished in the Top 20: senior Lauren Hood tied for sixth place with 174 strokes; senior Megan Kloeber placed eighth with 175 strokes; and senior Kathryn Andersen tied for 20th with 188 strokes. Sophomores Maggie Harper and Steph Anenson also competed for Mounds Park Academy.

Mahanomen placed a distant second with a final score of 778 and Lanesboro was third at 799. Junior Stephanie Trnka was the top finisher for Mahanomen, tying for 14th place. Trnka also hit a hole in one on the par-3 eighth hole during the final round. Ninth-grader Kiah Halvorson led Lanesboro, tying for 28th place.

In the individual competition, senior Anna Maria Tarazona of Madelia took top honors with a score of 154. Tarazona, an exchange student from Columbia, led the field with a 5-over-par 77 on both days. Senior Sarah Utz of Providence

2009 State Girls' Golf Tournament

Academy of Plymouth earned runner-up honors with 157 strokes, and Natalie Lansing of Mounds Park Academy was third.

Class AA

The Lakers of Minnewaska Area of Glenwood rewrote the record book at this year's tournament by becoming the only school to win four consecutive titles. After shooting a 304 on the first day, they led by 41 strokes. On the second day, they shot 306 to finish at 610. That was 67 strokes better than the runners-up from Red Wing. In 2008, the Lakers beat the Wingers by 54 strokes.

Senior Emily Roering won individual honors with 146 strokes and four other Laker competitors also placed in the Top 17. Junior Allie Ostrander placed second with 148 strokes and Emily Roering's young sister, junior Sarah, finished fourth with 151 strokes. Sarah won individual honors in 2008.

Ninth-grader Brianna Janu and sophomore Sam Falk both finished with 169 strokes and tied for 17th. Alex Guggisberg, an eighth-grader, rounded out the Minnewaska Area squad.

Sophomore Danielle Brooks led the Red Wing squad; she tied for eighth place with 164 strokes. The Crookston Pirates settled for third-place honors. They shot 719 overall and were paced by junior Rachel Wold, who shot 173 and tied for 23rd.

Emily Roering was one shot off the individual lead coming into the final round. She put up a second consecutive back-nine score of 2-under-par 34 and bypassed senior Cydney Hasselberg of Staples-Motley for top honors.

It was the second consecutive runner-up showing for Allie Ostrander of Minnewaska Area, but her 148 was 12 shots better than her 2008 total of 160. Hasselberg placed third with 150 strokes overall.

Class AAA

At the Class AAA tournament, the Lakeville North Panthers improved on last year's fifth-place showing and claimed their first championship. They finished with 692 strokes, which was one better than the defending champions from Woodbury. The Panthers shot a 352 to the Royals' 353 on the first day and that lead held as both teams shot a 340 on the second.

Senior Laura Petterson was the top finisher for Lakeville North; she placed 13th with 165 strokes. Junior Keandra Brion and senior Nikki Slepicka followed in the next scoring positions. Brion tied for 14th place and Slepicka tied for 21st. Senior Jessica Brion was the final point-scorer for the Panthers. She tied for 56th place with 188 strokes. Senior Lauren Saby and junior Quinn Koznick also competed for Lakeville North.

The Woodbury Royals earned runner-up honors with 693 strokes and Edina followed with 696 strokes. Junior Chelsea Larson, who tied for 14th place, was the top competitor of Woodbury. Edina junior Aubrie Nelson led the Edina squad with a fifth-place showing.

Betsy Kelly, a junior from Forest Lake, overcame a first-day two-shot deficit to win her first individual crown. After consecutive pars on the front nine, Kelly finished with four bogeys, three birdies, and two pars on the back.

Junior Steffi Neisen of New Prague placed second with 155 shots. Burnsville senior Gretchen Huhnerkoch, who led after the first day, and Eastview of Apple Valley ninth-grader Sara Detlefsen tied for third-place honors.

The Class AAA tournament was held June 2-3 at Bunker Hills Golf Course in Coon Rapids. The Class A tournament was conducted June 3-4 at Pebble Creek in Becker, and the Class AA tournament was held June 3-4 at Ridges at Sand Creek in Jordan.

GIRLS' GYMNASTICS

Perham and Roseville Area repeat as team champions; Rogers' Hoover earns first Class A all-around title; Roseville Area's Gleason wins second Class AA all-around crown

By Amy Doherty & Ellen Giloy

Perham won its sixth consecutive Class A title at the 2009 state meet with 149.250 points. The Yellowjackets swept all four events and defeated the runners-up from Mound-Westonka by almost four points.

In the Class A all-around competition, sophomore Sabrina Hoover of Rogers claimed her first crown without winning a single event. Her final score was 38.075.

The Class AA team title went to Roseville Area for a fourth consecutive year. The Raiders won every event and relegated the Tigers of St. Cloud Tech to runner-up status for a fourth consecutive year. Roseville Area finished with 150.30 points and St. Cloud Tech had 149.175.

Senior Anna Gleason of Roseville Area completed her stellar career by winning her second consecutive all-around title with a score of 38.875. She also won her third consecutive title on the bars, her second on the beam, and her first on the floor.

No new team or individual records were set at the 2009 state meet.

Class A

The Perham Yellowjackets scored the highest team total on each of the four events en route to their sixth consecutive Class A championship. Their winning score of 149.250 exceeded the rest of the field by nearly four points, and bettered their 2008 total of 148.75.

Perham's winning scores were 37.725 on the floor exercise, 37.400 on the balance beam, 36.375 on the uneven bars, and 37.750 on the vault.

Sophomore Kelsi Vomacka led Perham with her 9.70 on floor exercise, 9.625 on balance beam, and 9.575 on vault. Sophomore Carly Peterson also scored a 9.575 on vault, and junior Jenna Schmitz led the Yellowjackets on the uneven bars with a score of 9.675.

Mound-Westonka improved upon its 2008 fifth-place showing and moved into second place with a score of 145.300. The Becker Bulldogs earned third-place honors for a third consecutive year. Their total was 144.575.

In the individual competition, sophomore Sabrina Hoover of Rogers won her first all-around title while fending off tight competition. Her final score was 38.075, a slim 0.025 better than runner-up Kelsi Vomacka. Hoover did not win any individual events, but posted consistently in all four.

It was the third consecutive runner-up finish for Perham's Vomacka, who won the balance beam for a second consecutive year with a score of 9.625. Third-place honors went to senior Rachel Behmer from Breck/West Lutheran with an all-around score of 37.70.

In addition to Hoover and Vomacka, the other individual champions were: junior Jenna Woelfel of Annandale on the vault with a score of 9.675; Jenna Schmitz of Perham on the bars with a score of 9.725; and senior Carmen Lundell of Breck/West Lutheran on the floor exercise with a score of 9.575.

Class AA

BOYS' HOCKEY

Breck School Mustangs earn third Class A title; Eden Prairie Eagles win Class AA honors

By Ellen Giloy-Rajkowski & Jil Fiemeyer

On the 65th anniversary of the State Boys' Hockey Tournament, Breck School of Golden Valley and Eden Prairie skated away with the respective titles.

Breck School, which was making its sixth appearance at the tournament, claimed its third Class A title in 10 years after defeating Warroad 7-3. In Class AA, Eden Prairie claimed its first championship in five appearances after beating Moorhead 3-0.

Class A

Breck School of Golden Valley (27-3-1), which was the No. 4 seed in the tournament, clinched its third title after defeating Warroad 7-3. The Mustangs, who were making their sixth tournament appearance, won previous titles in 2000 and 2004. These two teams also met in the 2000 championship game with Breck School winning 3-2.

Warroad was the No. 3 seed this year and was making its 20th appearance at the tournament. The Warriors finished their season with a record of 28-3.

The impression in the first period was that the game was going to be a close one. Warroad rallied from an early 2-0 deficit with goals coming from seniors Michael Pieper and Chris Sylvester a mere 14 seconds apart, but the momentum shifted after that. Breck scored two goals in the second period and ninth-grader Wesley Iverson gave the Mustangs a 5-2 advantage when he scored at 13:01 of the third. The Warriors finally scored again at 14:48 of the third period, but two empty-net goals by the Mustangs put the game out of reach.

Senior Joe Rehkamp and junior goalie John Russell were the key players for Breck School. Rehkamp provided the offense with one goal and three assists, while Russell anchored the defense with his 33-save performance. Senior Dane Shaugabay paced Warroad with one goal and one assist.

Breck School started its tournament march with a 3-0 victory over Rochester Lourdes. Rehkamp opened the scoring 21 seconds into the second period and junior Mike Morin added a goal at 6:10. Morin also scored an empty-netter at 16:08 of the third period. Rochester Lourdes, which includes students from Stewartville and Chatfield, had five power plays in the game, but couldn't convert on any of them.

In the semifinals, Breck School upset top-seeded Little Falls 6-1. Junior Chase Nystedt put the Mustangs on the board in the first period and junior Tyson Fulton scored on a power play in the second to put Breck up 2-0. The Mustangs scored three consecutive goals in the third period, including a second from Nystedt, before senior Wesley Waytashek score the Flyers' lone goal. John Russell had 24 saves in the victory and Joe Rehkamp added one goal and two assists for Breck School.

On the other side of the bracket, Warroad started the tournament with a 7-1 victory over Hutchinson. The Warriors scored two goals nine seconds apart in the second period to take a commanding 4-1 lead. Junior Brock Nelson started the scoring in the first period with a short-handed goal and later capped a hat trick with a power play goal.

The Warriors moved on and defeated St. Cloud Cathedral 5-3 in the semifinals. Crusader junior Alex Koopmeiners tied the score at 3-3 at 8:33 in the third period, but Warroad junior Brett Hebel responded at 9:07 with the game-winner. Dane Shaugabay added an empty-net goal for the Warriors at 16:28 for the final margin.

Third-place medals were awarded to the Little Falls Flyers, who defeated St. Cloud Cathedral 4-3. The Crusaders jumped to a commanding 3-0 lead after junior Jordan Palusky scored three consecutive goals in the first period. The Flyers responded with four unanswered goals in the final two periods of the game with the game-winner coming off the stick of senior Ben Hanowski with only 22 seconds left in regulation. Hanowski finished the game with three goals and an assist.

Rochester Lourdes won the consolation trophy with a 3-1 victory over Hutchinson. The Eagles turned a clear 42-to-12 advantage in shots into three goals and the win. Seniors Taylor Funk, Cole Peterson, and Nick Wylum each had had a goal for the Eagles. Junior goalie Zak Swenson kept Hutchinson in the game with 39 saves.

Ben Hanowski of Little Falls was the top point-scorer in the tournament for a second consecutive year. He had seven goals and two assists. Joe Rehkamp of Breck School completed the tournament with eight points on three goals and five assists. Breck goalie John Russell finished the tournament with 77 saves, giving him a 95.06 save percentage.

Class AA

The Eden Prairie Eagles (28-3), who were seeded No. 2 this year, shut out the unseeded Moorhead Spuds 3-0 to claim their first

State Boys' Hockey Tournament History

Sixty-fifth state tournament played in 2009

Although the first state hockey tournament was not conducted until 1945, high school hockey was played in approximately 25 schools in the 1930s. Most of the schools were in the northern part of the state and in the Twin Cities area. Inter-school games were very limited in number, and coaching was done in most schools by male faculty members who had hockey experience or by individuals in the community who had a special interest and training in the sport.

The state hockey tournament was conceived by the late Gene Aldrich, St. Paul athletic director who thought it was time for an event of its kind because St. Paul was drawing many fans for its games. With the enthusiastic approval of the Minnesota State High School League Board of Directors and backing for expenses from the late Elmer Englebert, Aldrich went ahead with planning the details for the first tournament. The event produced sufficient revenue to pay expenses and leave a modest balance.

In 1945 the Minnesota State High School League, in cooperation with interested citizens in St. Paul, offered the schools an opportunity to participate in the first State High School Hockey Tournament. It marked the very first state-sponsored high school hockey tournament in the United States. There were 26 high schools registered for the sport at the time and Eveleth's Golden Bears went home with the first of its five state championships. The first field — including Thief River Falls, White Bear Lake, St. Cloud, Staples, Rochester, St. Paul Washington, and Granite Falls — played before a total of 8,434 spectators.

The first-round games during the initial tournament produced many lopsided scores, but the championship affair between Eveleth and Thief River Falls (Eveleth won 4-3) was a fine exhibition of skills and abilities which today are expected of Minnesota high school hockey players. The first tournament proved the merits of this activity for high school competition, and the next year the Minnesota State High School League took full control of the tournament series and assumed complete responsibility for its finances.

By 1947, attendance had more than doubled. It reached the 30,000 plateau in 1956, topped 40,000 in 1961, and leveled off at the three-day auditorium capacity of 46,000 its last three years in the St. Paul Auditorium. For 23 years the tournament was conducted in the Auditorium before leaving in 1969 for the more spacious Met Center in Bloomington. At the bigger Met Center, attendance nearly doubled.

In 1976 the Minnesota State High School Hockey Tournament returned to the city where it had been groomed 31 years earlier. The tournament site became the St. Paul Civic Center Arena, a sports venue with a 15,706 seating capacity for hockey and which was adjacent to the Auditorium where the tournament was nursed through its infancy. The event returned to St. Paul as the biggest high school hockey tournament in the nation. In 1985 an all-time attendance mark of 103,096 was established at the St. Paul Civic Center Arena.

From this meager beginning, high school hockey has grown in programs throughout the state by leaps and bounds. There were 146 high school teams which participated during 1993-94. The rapid development of indoor facilities, improved coaching in schools, and development of youth programs have all been contributing factors.

In 1992 the first two-tier Minnesota State High School Tournament was conducted. Following the recommendations of the state's high school hockey coaches association, the Minnesota State High School League Board of Directors established a two-year experiment of conducting the hockey tournament in two tiers.

Instead of dividing the participating schools based on enrollment, as is the case with all other activities, the coaches suggested the division be based on performance and ability. Thus, following the regular season, coaches in each section ranked all the teams based on their season performance. The top-eight teams were placed in Tier I to play off to send a representative to the state tournament. The remaining teams then played off to determine the Tier II representative to the tournament.

The expansion of the tournament required an additional day of playing time, so the Tier II teams played their quarterfinal games at the St. Paul Civic Center on Wednesday. The Tier I teams played their quarterfinals on Thursday. On Friday and Saturday, the Tier II tournament concluded its schedule at Target Center in Minneapolis. It was the first time hockey had been played at the arena which is home to the NBA's Minnesota Timberwolves. The Tier I tournament was concluded at the Civic Center.

In 1994, the tournament was reformatted once again. The League's Board of Directors chose to classify participating schools by enrollment, as it is for every other activity, instead of by performance. The change was reviewed and extended after a two-year experiment. More than 23,000 fans paid to watch the Class A schools, while nearly 83,000 fans paid to watch the Class AA schools.

In 1999 and 2000 the championship round games for both classes were played at Target Center.

In 2001 the tournament returned to St. Paul and the new Xcel Energy Center, which is the home of the Minnesota Wild NHL hockey team. The new arena has a seating capacity of 18,539. In 2008, a new attendance record was set when 129,643 fans attended the four-day tournament.

championship trophy. The Eagles were making their fifth tournament appearance and the Spuds (17-10-3) were making their 11th. The runner-up finish was also the seventh for Moorhead, which is a new state record.

Moorhead got on the board first, but the goal from junior Tyler Larson was disallowed after a ruling from the video booth that a Spud player interfered with Eden Prairie's sophomore goalie Andrew Ford. A few minutes later, junior Mitch Rogge scored for Eden Prairie and senior Nick Leddy made it 2-0 when he scored at 14:26 of the first period. The final goal came from sophomore Dan Molenaar midway through the third period.

Leddy finished the game with two points, adding an assist on Rogge's goal. Ford also played a stellar game for the Eagles, turning away 16 shots in the third period and 28 overall.

Eden Prairie defeated the defending champions from Hill-Murray of Maplewood 3-2 in overtime in the quarterfinals. The Eagles jumped to a 2-0 lead in the first period, only to watch it evaporate over the next two. Three minutes into the extra session, Nick Leddy fired a shot from the point that was eventually corralled by junior Mike Erickson. Erickson then slipped the puck into the net and the Eagles started to celebrate — only to find out the goal was under review. Seven minutes later, the call was made in Eden Prairie's favor and the Eagles advanced to face Blaine.

The Eagles found themselves down 2-0 to the Bengals at the end of the first period, but sophomore Kyle Rau tied the score at 2-2 at 6:29 of the third. Seven minutes later, Rau scored the game-winner with an assist from senior Taylor Wolfe, and Nick Leddy added an empty-net goal with 37.6 seconds left in the game. The final score was 4-2 in favor of Eden Prairie.

Moorhead started its tournament trek with one of the biggest upsets in recent tournament memory. The Spuds opened a 3-1 lead when seniors Trent Johnson and Alex Altenbernd scored in the span of 51 seconds in the second period and Moorhead went on to defeat top-seeded Edina 5-2. Johnson and Tyler Larson each scored two goals for the Spuds, and Johnson also added an assist.

In the semifinals, Moorhead defeated Cretin-Derham Hall of St. Paul 2-1. Sophomore Bob Kinne pulled the Raiders into a 1-1 tie with his goal at 13:35 in the second period, but less than two minutes later sophomore Jordan Doschadis scored the game-winner for the Spuds. He caught the puck in the slot, faked the shot, and then stick-handled past senior goalie Ben Walsh.

Eden Prairie's Kyle Rau tries to power the puck past Moorhead goalie Logan Marks (35) and defenseman Ian Cochran (3). Moorhead forward Braden Rahman (10) also skates back to help. Eden Prairie defeated Moorhead 3-0 to capture Class AA honors.

In their fourth consecutive appearance, the Blaine Bengals earned the third-place trophy after defeating Cretin-Derham Hall 3-1. Bob Kinne netted the only goal for the Raiders, which was followed by three unanswered goals from Blaine. Sophomore Nick Bjugstad, senior Clayton Wagamon, and sophomore Jonny Brodzinski all scored within two minutes and 20 seconds of each other.

In a replay of the 2008 championship game, Edina and Hill-Murray faced off in the consolation championship. After falling to the Pioneers 3-0 last year, Edina won this contest 5-2. Edina senior Marshall Everson led the Hornets with four goals. His senior linemates, Connor Gaarder and Anders Lee, added four points apiece. Both teams went 1-for-5 on the power play, and the Hornets outshot the Pioneers 26-16.

Edina's Anders Lee led the Class AA competitors in points. He finished the tournament with one goal and eight assists. Nick Leddy of Eden Prairie and Jordan Doschadis of Moorhead each tallied five points for their respective teams.

Herb Brooks Award

For the sixth consecutive year, the Herb Brooks Award was given to the most qualified hockey player in each class of the state tournament who strongly represents the values, characteristics, and traits that defined Herb Brooks. This year's Class A recipient was senior Riley Hirsch of Little Falls and the Class AA award was presented to senior Trent Johnson of Moorhead.

The 2009 State Boys' Hockey Tournament was held March 11-14. All championship-round and third-place games were played at the Xcel Energy Center in St. Paul, while all consolation games were played at Mariucci Arena on the University of Minnesota campus in Minneapolis. Paid attendance was 116,690.

GIRLS' HOCKEY

The Blake School, Stillwater Area claim top honors

By Ellen Giloy-Rajkowski & Jil Fiemeyer

Two new champions emerged at the 15th Annual State Girls' Hockey Tournament. The top-seeded Blake Bears took home Class A honors after defeating Warroad 4-3, and the top-seeded Stillwater Area Ponies won the Class AA crown after securing a 5-3 victory over Hopkins.

In the first game of the 2009 tournament, Warroad skated into the record book for most shots in a regulation game at 54. Overall, eight records were set or tied at this year's event.

Class A

In the first year of tournament seeding, No. 1-seeded The Blake School of Minneapolis defeated No. 2-seeded Warroad 4-3 to earn the title. It was the third title for the Bears in their fifth appearance. They won previously in 2003 and 2007. The Blake School finished with a season record of 29-2, and Warroad finished at 27-3.

The Bears built a 3-1 lead through two periods of the championship game, while holding Warroad to five shots. Sophomore Alyssa Veil opened the scoring for The Blake School less than two minutes into the first period. After Warroad sophomore Karley Sylvester tied the score 1-1, Blake sophomore Abbie Lund countered with another Bears' goal 10 seconds later. Late in the first period, ninth-grader Ali Austin scored to give The Blake School a two-goal advantage.

The score stayed the same through the second period, but things changed quickly in the opening minutes of the third. That was when Warroad sophomore Megan Brettingen and her eighth-grade teammate, Kayla Gardner, scored 28 seconds apart to tie the score at 3-3.

The tie didn't last for long, however. Three minutes later, Blake sophomore Hillary Crowe slipped the puck over the goal line and the Bears were up 4-3. The Warriors pulled their goalie with 20 seconds left, but a final push in the last 10 seconds ended with the Bears' goalie, sophomore Chloe Billadeau, smothering the puck as time expired.

Senior Margaret Chute finished the game with two assists for The Blake School, and junior Brook Story had two assists for Warroad. Billadeau finished the game with 13 saves for the Bears.

The Blake School started the tournament with a 9-0 victory over first-time qualifiers from New Ulm. Abbie Lund and Hillary Crowe each scored two goals apiece as the Bears outshot the Eagles 45-4. Chloe Billadeau also tied the state tournament record for fewest saves in a game with four.

In the semifinals, The Blake School defeated the newcomers from Mahtomedi

7-0. Senior Sally Komarek opened the scoring at 9:03 of the first period with the first of her four goals. Eighth-grader Dani Cameranesi added two more goals for the Bears and Chloe Billadeau finished the game with 14 saves.

Overall, Billadeau set or tied three records over the course of the tournament. In addition to fewest saves in a game, she also tied the record for fewest stops in one period. She didn't make any in the third period of the Bears' quarterfinal game, and she now shares that record with five other players. Billadeau also became the first goalie in tournament history to have two shutouts. Before this year, 25 players had shared the record with one tournament shutout apiece.

On the other side of the bracket, Warroad thrashed Hutchinson 12-0 in the quarterfinals. It was a record-setting game for the Warriors, who set a tournament record with their 54 shots. The previous record for most shots in regulation game was set by Roseville Area, which had 48 shots against Rochester Mayo in 2007. In the same game, Warroad also tied the record for most goals in one game. Breck School of Golden Valley set the original standard in 2008 when they scored 12 goals against Austin.

Brook Story had five goals in the victory and Karley Sylvester added two goals and an assist for Warroad. Megan Brettingen and eighth-grader Lisa Marvin also notched three points apiece. Brettingen scored one goal and added two assists and Marvin finished the game with three assists.

The Warriors advanced and defeated the first-time qualifiers from Red Wing 7-2 in the semifinals. Karley Sylvester had a hat trick for Warroad and sophomore Beth Olson added another three points on one goal and two assists.

In the third-place game, Red Wing defeated Mahtomedi 2-1. Red Wing ninth-grader Elle Anderson scored the game-winning goal with 1:19 left in regulation. The Wingers' goalie, ninth-grader Lisa Nibbe, had 26 saves in the game.

The Otters of Fergus Falls finished their season with a 7-2 consolation victory over the Eagles of New Ulm. Sophomore Lizzy Link led the Otters with a pair of goals, and sophomore goalie Karlee Werre earned the victory with 20 saves.

Class AA

The Stillwater Area Ponies (27-4) earned their second championship trophy after defeating Hopkins (24-4-2) 5-3 in the Class AA title game. The Ponies, who were making their tournament fifth appearance, won their one previous title in 2007.

The Hopkins Royals opened the scoring with a goal from junior Brianna Stephens at 11:11 of the first period. Three and a half minutes later, senior Callie Dahl of Stillwater Area countered with a goal for the Ponies and the two teams took the 1-1 tie into the first intermission.

Stillwater Area's Kaitlin Johnston (4) ties up a Hopkins player in front of the net, while goalie Marah Sobczak (35) keeps her eye on Hopkins' Ashley Deick (10). The Ponies of Stillwater Area claimed their second championship after defeating Hopkins 5-3 in the Class AA title game.

In the second period, it looked like Stillwater Area had the game in hand after goals from senior Lauren Charpentier and junior Cassandra Salmen. But the Royals weren't ready to be counted out and back-to-back goals from seniors Catherine Pollock and Becky Kortum tied the score at 3-3.

The momentum switched again in the third period when Stillwater Area outshot Hopkins 13-4. Junior Amanda Cartony netted the game-winner for the Ponies at 7:35 and Salmen added an insurance goal at 9:05 to put the game out of reach.

Salmen led all players with two goals and one assist. Dahl added two points for the Ponies and junior goalie Marah Sobczak made 17 saves in the victory. Junior Cara Johnson had two points for Hopkins on two assists.

Stillwater Area advanced to the championship with a 6-1 quarterfinal victory over Lakeville South and a 5-2 semifinal victory over the co-op of Elk River/Zimmerman. Six different players score goals in the quarterfinal game, but Callie Dahl paced the Ponies with her one goal and two assists. In the semifinals, Stillwater Area charged to a 3-0 lead in the first period and never looked back. Dahl again finished with three points on two goals and an assist, and junior Kristina King added two points on one goal and one assist.

Hopkins opened the tournament with a 6-0 victory over the newcomers from Irondale of New Brighton. Becky Kortum had a hat trick for the Royals and Brianna Stephens added a goal and two assists as Hopkins outshot Irondale 31-21.

In the semifinals, Hopkins defeated the first-time qualifiers from Edina 4-1. The Hornets outshot the Royals 28-14, but junior Kallie Billadeau (a cousin of The Blake School's Chloe Billadeau) was stellar in the net, making 27 saves. On the offensive side, Becky Kortum had one goal and three assists for Hopkins.

The Edina Hornets defeated the Elk River/Zimmerman Elks 8-1 to earn third-place honors. Edina sophomore Sami Reber had a hat trick and one assist in the game, and junior Corinne Buie added one goal and two assists.

Then junior Gina McDonald, on assists from seventh-grader Samantha Donovan and senior Sarah Dusold, fired the winning shot at 2:04 of the overtime stanza.

Minnetonka's first appearance a championship effort

By Howard W. Voigt

The Skippers of Minnetonka (18-0) made the best of their first state tournament appearance by winning the title with a 12-10 defeat of the Eastview Lightning. Although it was Eastview's third consecutive and overall appearance, it was their first berth in the title contest.

Eastview (13-5) kept chipping away at the Minnetonka lead which the Skippers established early in the first quarter. The game was tied at eight as late as 5:47 left in the third quarter, but then Minnetonka scored four straight to create the winning total.

Senior attackers Peter Carbonneau and Sean Folley each tallied hat tricks for the Skippers and senior midfielder Charles Earl-Hansen added three points on two goals and an assist. Senior goaltender Alex Nikas earned the win in the net, making nine saves.

Eastview senior attacker Andy Freeman had a game-high four goals and senior midfielder Blake Kleven added three goals and an assist.

The Cougars of Centennial rebounded from their semifinal loss to outdistance the Bears of The Blake School 9-7 for third place. Centennial (16-1) came into the tournament seeded No. 4 and allowed Blake (10-7) to go up 2-0 early before scoring four unanswered goals. Centennial led 7-4 at the half. Neither team scored in the fourth quarter.

Three Cougars finished with three points, two of whom, senior Joshua Osen and junior Thomas Thielman, each had hat tricks. Senior midfielder Paden Reed added two goals and an assist. Sophomore goalie Jacob Cruz had 13 saves in the game.

Blake, the No. 2 seed, had three players with a pair of goals and senior George Ordway had a game-high four assists.

The top-seeded Skippers of Minnetonka maintained their spotless record (17-0) by inflicting the first of the loss of the season, 20-13, upon the No. 4-seeded Cougars of Centennial (15-1) in the first semifinal game of the tournament. The game was close in most stats, with both teams demonstrating obvious offensive prowess. In the first half Minnetonka held a slight advantage in both total shots and shots on goal. That stat was reversed in the second half in favor of Centennial.

One player from each team scored a game-high five goals – senior Peter Carbonneau for the victorious Skippers and senior Joshua Osen for Centennial. Carbonneau also had a game-high eight points. Osen led the Cougars with seven points.

In the second semifinal game, three may have been the lucky number for the Lightning of Eastview, coming out of Section 3 and making their third tournament appearance and earning the No. 3 seed. Eastview, located in Apple Valley, hung on to defeat the defending champions from The Blake School 8-7 to advance to the championship tilt against top-seeded Minnetonka. To say the game was tight might be an understatement. The teams played to a 4-4 tie in the first quarter, but Eastview held a 6-4 lead at the intermission. Eastview was limited to one goal during each of the last two stanzas, but Blake could muster only three.

Eastview goalkeeper Ryan O'Shea had 15 saves, perhaps the most crucial game statistic. The Lightning also used balanced scoring among six players to earn the win, but were led by senior Blake Kleven (2 goals, 1 assist) and junior Justin Vossen (1 goal, 2 assists).

Blake sophomore attacker George Ordway had five points in the game on two goals and three assists, and senior midfielder Willie Steenland had four points on three goals and an assist.

Three team records and four individual records were established in the third year of state tournament sponsorship by the Minnesota State High School League.

Minnetonka now owns three of the four team records — Most Goals-One Game with 20; Most Goals-Tournament with 32; and Most Goals-Two Teams One Game at 33, shared with Centennial by virtue of their 20-13 semifinal contest.

Two Blake players now own two individual records each. George Ordway broke his own records for Most Assists-One Game with four and Most Assists-Tournament with seven. Junior goaltender Lowell Fluke established marks for Fewest Saves-One Game with eight and Fewest Saves-Tournament with 17.

Eastview junior goaltender Ryan O'Shea shares the Fewest Saves-One Game record with Fluke.

The tournament scheduled was altered to accommodate commencement ceremonies for some of the participants. Both the boys' and girls' third-place games were played on June 4 at Mounds View High School, and both championship games were played at the same venue the following day. Normally, the boys' third-place and championship games are played the same day, as are the girls' games. The boys' semifinal games were contested at Hopkins High School on June 3.

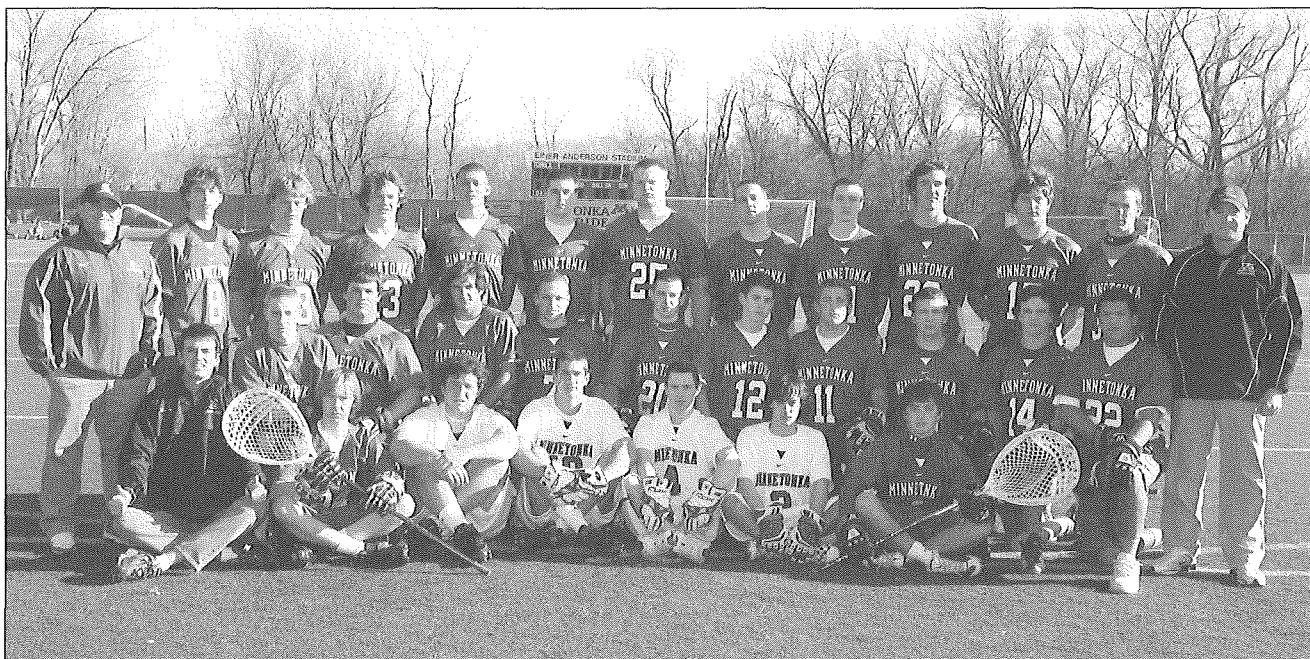

Paid attendance for the semifinals was 1,579. Due to the change in schedule, separate attendance totals for each gender are unavailable for the third-place and championship games. Paid attendance for the two third-place games was 317. Paid attendance for two championship games was 1,966.

GIRLS' LACROSSE

Eden Prairie earns second state title

By Howard W. Voigt

The Eagles of Eden Prairie (17-1) won their second girls' lacrosse title in the third year of state tournament sponsorship by the Minnesota State High School League. The Bears of The Blake School (16-2) finished as runners-up for the second time by a 10-7 final score.

The two schools have played for the title all three years, with the Eagles winning the inaugural event 13-5 in 2007 and losing 11-10 last year in overtime. Blake of Minneapolis entered intermission with a 5-4 lead after scoring the last four goals of the period. Eden Prairie turned the tables in the second half by scoring the final five goals and holding the Bears to only two scores.

Junior midfielder Blake Kist led the Eagles with six points on an even spread of goals and assists. Ninth-grade forward Christine Easton added a hat trick for Eden Prairie and eighth-grade goaltender McKenzie Johnson earned the win, making eight saves. Blake's leading scorer was sophomore Hillary Crowe who scored four times.

The Wolfpack of South Washington County (11-7-1) persevered and erased a four-point deficit to tie the Cougars of Centennial 9-9 for a share of third place.

The Cougars jumped out to a 3-0 lead and led 6-2 just before halftime. With just less than 12 minutes to play the Wolfpack tied the game at seven and pulled ahead by two with a little more than eight minutes to play. The Wolfpack scored the tying goal with 3:01 to play.

Centennial (13-3-1) was led by senior midfielder Cassandra Hoyez with five points on five goals. Senior forward Kayla Guanella led the Wolfpack with four points on four goals.

Minnesota State High School League policy provides for overtime play only when advancement in the tournament is required or to determine a champion.

In the first semifinal of the tournament, Eden Prairie, the No. 1 seed and the 2008 runner-up, introduced inaugural tournament qualifier South Washington County, the No. 4 seed, to its firepower and ambition to earn a second state title. The Eagles scored early and often in the first half, running the intermission score to 13-1.

The Wolfpack played a bit more aggressive defense in the second half, to the point of losing several players to three-minute penalties for checks to the head. Despite the attempt to throttle the Eagles' offense, South Washington County was held to just two goals in a 19-2 final.

Senior forward Caz Norwich established a new tournament record for Most Points One Game with her 12 points on seven goals and five assists. Her seven goals also tied the tournament record for Most Goals-One Game. Ninth-grade forward Christine Easton added four goals for Eden Prairie. Goaltender McKenzie Johnson allowed just one goal and had to make only three saves in just over 34 minutes of play.

South Washington County was held to just seven shots in the game, with goals scored by sophomore Sophia Bainbridge and junior Holly Frankenberg.

In the second semifinal, the defending champion Bears of The Blake School, but this year's No. 2 seed, earned a championship rematch against Eden Prairie by virtue of their 15-6 defeat of the Cougars of Centennial, Circle Pines. Centennial, the No. 3 seed, trailed by seven late in the first half, but scored three goals in less than two-and-a-half minutes to draw within 8-4 at the intermission. The Bears continued their scoring into the second half while senior goalkeeper Abby Fink superbly protected the net.

Ninth-grader Meghan Bauer had a game-high six points in the game on three goals and three assists for the Bears. Blake senior midfielder Michelle Tremblay had a game-high four goals. Fink recorded seven saves in the game.

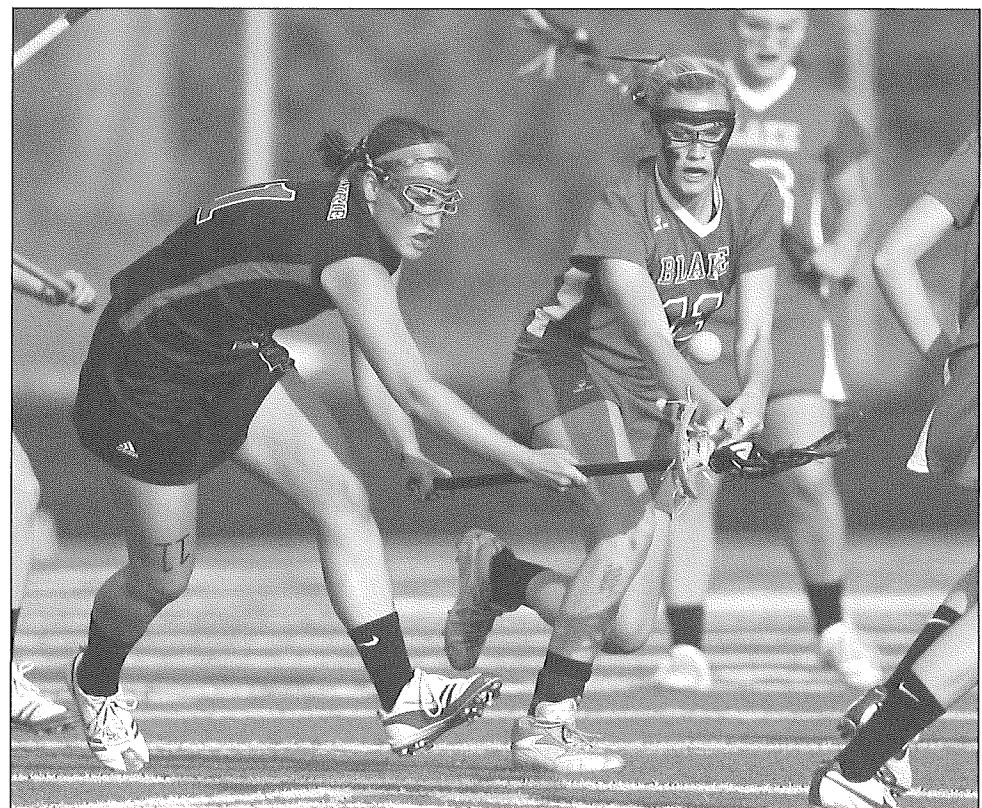

Senior midfielder Cassandra Hoyez led the Cougars with two goals.

By virtue of her performance in both contests, Eden Prairie's Norwich tied the tournament records for Most Goals-Tournament with nine and Most Points-Tournament with 14.

The Eagles as a team tied the tournament record for Fewest Goals Against-Tournament, allowing just nine.

The tournament scheduled was altered to accommodate commencement ceremonies for some of the participants. Both the girls' and boys' third-place games were played on June 4 at Mounds View High School, and both championship games were played at the same venue the following day. Normally, the girls' third-place and championship games are played the same day, as are the boys' games. The girls' semifinal games were contested at Hopkins High School on June 2.

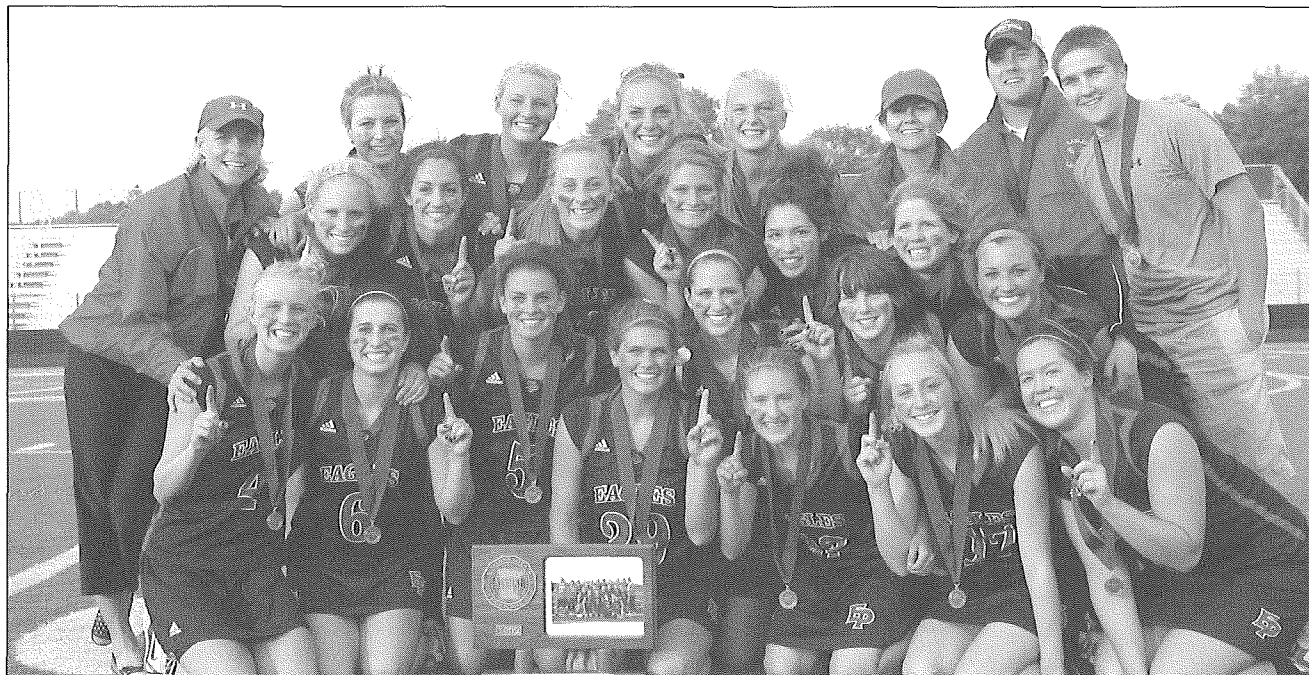

Paid attendance for the semifinals was 557. Due to the change in schedule, separate attendance totals for each gender are unavailable for the third-place and championship games. Paid attendance for the two third-place games was 317. Paid attendance for two championship games was 1,966.

MUSIC

The League sponsors section music contests for both Class A and Class AA schools. Participating schools have the opportunity to take part in both large group and solo/ensemble contests conducted by individual sections. There are 70 music events in which students may participate as a member of their high school choir and/or band and orchestra.

Approximately 80 percent of League member schools are represented by at least one entry at the section contests. Listed below are those large group performers who earned a Superior rating in 2009. They are grouped in three categories with the section of music determining the category in which the group performed. Category refers to difficulty and the lower the category number indicates more difficult music.

BOYS' ALPINE SKIING

St. Thomas Academy Cadets claim top team honors; Massie of The Blake School wins individual crown

After a change in the race format, which allowed the team and individual competitions to run as a single event, St. Thomas Academy of Mendota Heights won its fifth team title with 159 points. The Cadets, who placed seventh last year, won previous championships in 1993, 1997, 2001, and 2004.

Sophomore Dylan Thomas was the highest finisher for the Cadets. He placed second overall with a combined time of 1:10.33. Thomas was followed by senior Tom Knoedler (12th), sophomore Tom Grojean (17th) and ninth-grader Max Thorpe (31st). Senior John Anderson and junior Jack Regan rounded out the St. Thomas Academy squad. Anderson placed 45th while Regan was disqualified in his second run.

The Royals of Hopkins and the Stars of Academy of Holy Angels of Richfield placed second and third, respectively. The Royals finished with 155 points and the Stars came in with 148 points. Neither team competed at the 2008 state meet.

Senior Peter Rolfshus led Hopkins with a fourth-place showing, while junior Austin Guyette was the Stars' top finisher. He placed fifth overall.

The defending champions from Lakeville North did not qualify for this year's event.

In the individual competition, junior Marc Massie of The Blake School of Minneapolis improved one place to win his first individual title. He posted the fastest time on both runs – 33.55 on the first and 35.87 on the second – to win with a combined time of 1:09.42.

Dylan Thomas of St. Thomas Academy earned runner-up honors, and junior Andrew Bjorklund of Bloomington Jefferson placed third. Bjorklund's combined time was 1:12.28. Thomas did not qualify as an individual in 2008, and Bjorklund placed seventh.

The 2009 State Alpine Ski Meet was held February 12 at Giants Ridge Golf and Ski Resort near Biwabik.

GIRLS' ALPINE SKIING

Lakeville South, Edina tie for team championship honors; Lakeville South's Moltzan wins individual title

After a change in the race format, which allowed the team and individual competitions to run as a single event, Lakeville South and Edina tied for championship honors at the 2009 State Alpine Ski Meet. It was a step up for the Edina Hornets, who finished second to the Lakeville South Cougars by 20 points in 2008. This year, both teams finished with 146 points.

Ninth-grader Paula Moltzan of Lakeville South led her team with a championship time of 1:15.68. With the victory, she also upset junior teammate Niki Larson, who had won the individual title for the past two years. Larson was the next finisher for the Cougars (fourth), and she was followed by sophomore Hayleigh Adams (33rd), and junior Jessie Hornnes (36th). Sophomore Jessie Morris and senior Miranda Moltzan also competed for Lakeville South. Morris placed 41st while Moltzan did not finish her second run.

Sophomore Kiltie Finsand was the top finisher for the Edina Hornets; she placed fifth overall with a time of 1:19.28. Senior Meredith Finsand (ninth), ninth-grader Thea Zerbe (26th), and sophomore Taylor Johnson (30th) rounded out the scoring positions for the Hornets. Juniors Alexandra Sims and Mary Van Metre also competed for Edina. They placed 52nd and 61st, respectively.

Overall, this was the second team title for Lakeville South and the ninth for Edina. The Hornets won previously in 1991, 1997, 1998, 1999, 2001, 2002, 2004, and 2005.

Minnehaha Academy of Minneapolis, which placed seventh last year, took third-place honors with 139 points. Sophomore Kristen Halvorson was the top skier for the Redhawks, finishing 10th overall.

In the individual competition, sophomore Maisie Ide of The Blake School of Minneapolis posted the fastest time of 37.93 on the first run, and Paula Moltzan of Lakeville South was second at 38.08. However, on the second run, Moltzan placed at 37.60 while Ide slid to 37.96.

Moltzan, who placed 30th in the individual competition in 2008, finished with a combined time of 1:15.68. Stillwater Area junior Carly McDowell placed second with a total time of 1:15.79, and Ide finished in third place with a combined time of 1:15.89.

The 2009 State Alpine Ski Meet was held February 12 at Giants Ridge Golf and Ski Resort near Biwabik.

Forest Lake claims second consecutive team title; Fagerstrom of Eden Prairie wins individual crown

The Forest Lake boys claimed their fourth title in five years at the 2009 State Nordic Ski Meet. The Rangers finished with 380 points and defeated the runners-up from Hopkins by 18 points. In addition to the past two years, the Rangers also won championships in 2005 and 2006.

Senior Ryan Wright and junior Steve Coozenoy led Forest Lake with third- and sixth-place finishes, respectively. Junior Mike Howe and ninth-grader Joe Jackson rounded out the scoring positions for the Rangers. Howe placed 21st and Jackson was 32nd.

The Hopkins Royals, who did not compete at the 2008 state meet, finished with 362 points, and the Duluth East Greyhounds improved one place to finish third with 355 points. Senior Ian Wilson was the top skier for Hopkins and senior Gus Downs led Duluth East. They placed seventh and eighth, respectively.

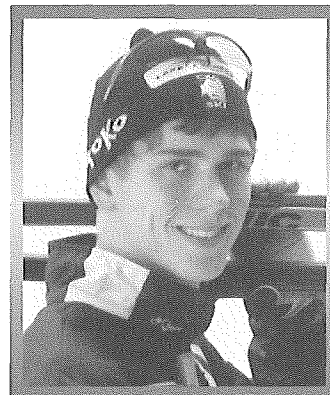

Erik Fagerstrom, a senior from Eden Prairie, improved on last year's sixth-place showing and

BOYS' SOCCER

The Blake School, Osseo capture first championships

By Howard W. Voigt
& Ellen Giloy-Rajkowski

Two teams claimed their first titles at the 2008 State Soccer Tournament. The Blake School of Minneapolis, which was making its third appearance, won the Class A title after defeating Totino-Grace of Fridley 1-0. The Bears entered the tournament as the No. 2 seed.

In Class AA, No. 4-seeded Osseo also captured its first championship. The Orioles, who were making their fourth appearance, defeated St. Louis Park 4-1 in the title game.

Class A

The Bears of The Blake School (18-2-2) kept everyone in the Metrodome in deep suspense before deciding the outcome of the championship game with just 75 seconds to play. The Bears won their first state title with a 1-0 victory over the Eagles of Totino-Grace (19-3-1).

The biggest shot of the game came at 78:45 when senior defender David Nash put his foot into a free kick at midfield that senior midfielder Austin Dressen was able to head into the goal. Senior goalkeeper Tips Jackley earned the win, making six saves.

The Blake School, making its second consecutive and third overall appearance, was seeded No. 2 and earned the No. 4 spot in the coaches poll. The Bears finished second in 2007. Totino-Grace of Fridley, making its sixth tournament appearance, was the No. 1 seed and was ranked No. 1 in the coaches association final poll. The Eagles won previous titles in 2002 and 2004.

The Bears started their championship run with a 2-0 quarterfinal victory over the Willmar Cardinals. Senior midfielder Joe Ali and senior forward Eric Barry both scored second-half goals for The Blake School. In the semifinals, the Bears defeated Duluth East 1-0 when junior forward Nick Warner one-timed a pass from senior midfielder David Brenton past the Greyhounds' senior keeper, Evan Odean.

In the upper bracket, Totino-Grace ousted Mounds Park Academy of St. Paul with a 2-0 quarterfinal victory. Senior midfielder Paul Yonga was credited with the winning goal at 49:40 when a clearing attempt bounced off his body and into the net. Senior forward John Ascher scored both of Totino-Grace's goals in the Eagles' 2-1 semifinal victory over Rochester Lourdes.

In their final poll, the coaches who rank the teams throughout the season ranked the Duluth East Greyhounds No. 3. That's exactly how they finished after defeating Rochester Lourdes 1-0 for third place. The Greyhounds, who were also seeded third by the tournament coaches, were making their second tournament appearance. The Eagles of Rochester Lourdes, who were making their eighth tournament appearance, were ranked No. 7 in the final coaches poll and were seeded No. 4.

Shots in the game were nearly equal, as were saves by the goalkeepers. The Hounds did have a 6-0 edge in corner kicks. The game's sole goal was scored by senior forward Sean Klun at 6:07 of the game on a nice cross from the left side by junior midfielder Tim Beddow. Keeper Evan Odean earned the win and made eight saves.

Breck School of Golden Valley and St. Cloud Cathedral rounded out the Class A field. The defending champions from Marshall School of Duluth failed to qualify for the 2008 tournament.

Class AA

The Osseo Orioles made the best of their first state appearance in 14 years by defeating the St. Louis Park Orioles 4-1 for their first state championship. The game moved back and forth quickly in the first half and the score was tied at a goal apiece at the half.

Senior defender John Nuefville scored the first Osseo goal after controlling a corner kick assist from senior midfielder Quinn Cardille. Osseo (19-2-2) opened the second half with a goal from senior defender Ahmad Bah, and all three second-half Osseo goals were unassisted. The other two were scored by Nuefville and senior attacker Albert Sims. Senior Patrick Amoako was in goal for Osseo and earned the win, making nine saves.

The No. 2-seeded Osseo Orioles earned the coaches association No. 3 ranking in their final season poll. It was their fourth tournament appearance; their last was in 1994. St. Louis Park (17-3-3) was unseeded, but did receive the No. 6 ranking in the coaches association final poll. It was the school's second appearance; their last was in 2005.

Osseo defeated the Panthers of Lakeville North 3-1 in the quarterfinals. The Orioles trailed 1-0 at halftime, but Ahmad Bah tied the score when he buried a penalty kick less than four minutes into the second half. Five minutes later, Albert Sims scored the winning goal off a touch pass from Bah.

In the semifinals, Osseo breezed past the Coon Rapids Cardinals 4-1. Bah led the team with hat trick, including two goals on penalty kicks. Senior midfielder Lucas Hoang scored the game-winner for the Orioles when he scored from 20 yards out at 35:55.

St. Louis Park started the tournament with a 1-0 victory over top-seeded Apple Valley. Senior midfielder Andrew Johnson scored the only goal of the game off a rebound from senior attacker Tony Lozancic in the 33rd minute.

The Orioles needed a 3-2 shootout to get past the Bloomington Jefferson Jaguars 2-1 in the semifinals. With St. Louis Park leading the shootout 3-2, Bloomington Jefferson junior midfielder Ryan Goddard shot wide on his final attempt and Osseo had its victory. Sophomore attacker Chukwuka Iwe scored the lone regulation goal for the Orioles.

The No. 4-seeded Jaguars of Bloomington Jefferson shut out the No. 3-seeded Cardinals of Coon Rapids 5-0 to claim third place. Jefferson scored twice in the first half within about seven minutes to lead 2-0 at the half. Senior midfielder Bjorn Knutson took a pass from senior midfielder Joshua Sweeney and scored. Shortly thereafter senior defender Chad Gilmer converted after a long run and defender deflection into the net.

The second half featured numerous Coon Rapids fouls. The further the Cardinals fell behind, the more players that were ejected (three) with red cards, including one player after time had expired. Gilmer scored a second assisted goal in the second half. Sweeney assisted on the two other second-half goals by junior midfielder Ryan Goddard and sophomore midfielder Paul Gaffaney.

Stillwater Area and St. Cloud Tech also competed in the Class AA tournament. Anoka, which claimed the Class AA crown in 2007, fell to Coon Rapids 5-1 in the Section 7 championship.

Quarterfinal games in Class A were played at Irondale High School in New Brighton and St. Cloud State University on October 22 and 23. The semifinal games were conducted at the Metrodome in Minneapolis on October 27. The

Mahtomedi earns sixth Class A title; Woodbury wins fifth in Class AA

By Howard W. Voigt
& Ellen Giloy-Rajkowski

Mahtomedi claimed its sixth Class A championship trophy in nine appearances at the 2008 State Soccer Tournament. The Zephyrs, who were the No. 1 seed this year, defeated Academy of Holy Angels of Richfield 1-0 for the title.

In Class AA, No. 1-seeded Woodbury captured its fifth crown. The Royals, who were making their 10th tournament appearance, defeated Eden Prairie 2-1 in the championship game.

Class A

The Zephyrs of Mahtomedi (21-2-1) won their sixth state title in their sixth consecutive and ninth overall appearance with a 1-0 victory over the Stars of Academy of Holy Angels (19-4-1). The game's only goal came on a corner kick from senior attacker Erica Hjelle that was headed into the goal by senior defender Cassie Stang at 46:54. The goal was Stang's first of the tournament and sixth of the season.

The Zephyrs, who won previous titles in 1997, 1999, and 2004 through 2006, earned the top seed in the tournament as well as the top ranking by the coaches association. Mahtomedi, which allowed only one goal in the three-game tournament, finished third in 2007. The Stars, making their fifth tournament appearance, were the No. 2 seed and were ranked No. 3 by the coaches.

Mahtomedi opened tournament play with a 2-1 victory over Hermantown. Senior Brittany Henry broke the 1-1 tie with little more than 10 minutes remaining in regulation.

The Zephyrs advanced and defeated Rochester Lourdes 5-0 in the semifinals. Henry put Mahtomedi on board in the 21st minute when she headed in a corner kick from Erica Hjelle. Thirteen seconds later, the Zephyrs scored again as Henry assisted on a goal by senior midfielder Allison Kuschel.

Academy of Holy Angels defeated the first-time qualifiers from St. Cloud Apollo 4-1 in the quarterfinals. Sophomore forward Olivia Schultz scored a pure hat trick in the second half to propel the Stars to victory.

In the semifinals, senior forward Morgan Rethlake scored the Stars' only goal as they defeated Benilde-St. Margaret's of St. Louis Park 1-0 in overtime. Rethlake watched as her teammate, senior midfielder Rachel Hoaglin, put a corner kick into play, and when the ball came her way she flicked it in with her head.

In a match that featured just two shots in the first half and 10 for the entire game, the most important one came from junior midfielder Maddie Bergh shortly after the start of the second half. Benilde-St. Margaret's Bergh lofted a high arcing shot from about 25 yards out on the right side that eluded the outstretched arms of Rochester Lourdes goalkeeper Eliza Larson. Goal and game. Good for third place with the 1-0 final.

The Red Knights of Benilde-St. Margaret's, making their fifth appearance, came into the tournament as the No. 3 seed and earned the coaches association No. 5 ranking in their final poll of the season. The Eagles of Rochester Lourdes, making their sixth tournament appearance, were seeded fourth and ranked 10th.

Albert Lea and St. Michael-Albertville completed the Class A field. Totino-Grace of Fridley, which claimed top honors in 2007, was eliminated by St. Michael-Albertville in the Section 5 semifinals.

Class AA

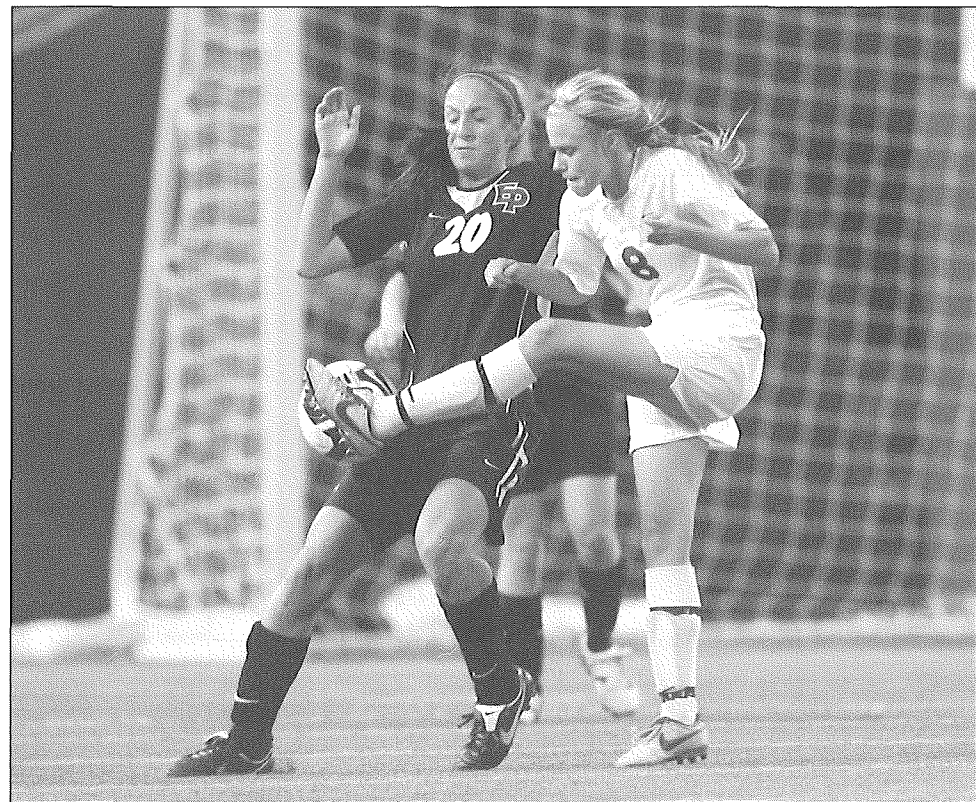

The Woodbury Royals discovered a novel procedure for winning games—and a state championship. Let their opponent score first.

Then strike—and in a hurry. In their 2-1 championship victory, Eden Prairie (17-2-2) scored first at 27:42. Woodbury (20-0-2) answered with a goal at 28:09, exactly 27 seconds later. The game-winner came early in the second half, scored by sophomore midfielder Emily Moris with an assist from junior forward Alyssa DuVal. The Royals' first goal was scored by DuVal, assisted by junior midfielder Caitlin Graboski. Junior goalkeeper Brittany Cygan earned the win with two saves.

Woodbury, the No. 1 seed and No. 1-ranked team in the final coaches association poll, won its fifth state title in its seventh consecutive and 10th overall tournament appearance. The Royals previously won in 1999, 2003, 2004, and 2006. Eden Prairie, the No. 3 seed and fourth-ranked team by the coaches, was making its fifth tournament appearance.

Woodbury, which placed third in 2007, started its championship run with a 2-0 quarter-final victory over Mounds View. The Royals didn't score until the 65th minute when Alyssa DuVal directed the ball into the goal with her stomach. Six minutes later, DuVal scored again after one-timing a pass from junior forward Catherine Sessions.

GIRLS' SOFTBALL

New Life Academy of Woodbury defends Class A crown; Hermantown wins third title; Elk River captures first championship in Class AAA

By Ellen Giloy-Rajkowski & Scott Nelsen

New Life Academy of Woodbury was the only team to successfully defend its 2008 title at the 2009 State Softball Tournament. The Eagles defeated Maple Lake for a second consecutive year to take top honors in Class A.

In Class AA, the Hermantown Hawks won their third title in their 16th appearance after defeating the first-time qualifiers from Minnehaha Academy of Minneapolis. Class AAA honors went to Elk River. It was the first title for the Elks, who defeated North of North St. Paul in the championship game.

Class A

For a second consecutive year, New Life Academy of Woodbury (22-6) defeated Maple Lake (23-4-1) in the Class A championship game. The Eagles won 3-0 in 2008, and 7-0 this year. New Life Academy was making its fourth consecutive and overall appearance this year, while Maple Lake was making its second consecutive and overall.

The Eagles scored three unearned runs in the first inning of the title game, with two of them coming on throwing errors. They added another unearned run in the third inning and then sophomore Jenny Simonson hit a three-run double in the bottom of the sixth for the final margin.

Simonson, who set a new state record with her 53 putouts over three games, hit two doubles in the game. Senior Jenny Ramey also had two doubles in the victory and senior pitcher Danielle Schmidt added two more hits. Schmidt went all seven innings for New Life Academy with nine strikeouts and no walks. She also set a new state tournament record by firing 55 strikeouts over three games.

Senior Ashley Kempenich and sophomore Ashley Gries accounted for Maple Lake's two hits. Kempenich also pitched a complete game for the Irish. She allowed seven hits while throwing six strikeouts and adding three walks.

New Life Academy of Woodbury started the tournament with a 3-2, 11-inning victory over the first-time qualifiers from Lake Crystal-Wellcome Memorial. The Eagles led 2-0 before senior Amber Hohenstein hit a two-run home run in the top of the sixth inning to tie the score. The tie stayed in place until the bottom of the 11th inning when Danielle Schmidt hit a single to right field that scored sophomore Katie Stodolka.

Schmidt also set a state tournament record with 32 strikeouts in the victory. In all, she allowed six hits and walked three. The previous record of 22 strikeouts for an extra-inning game was set last year by Chelsey Durland of Orono.

In the semifinals, New Life Academy scored three runs in the fifth inning to break open a 4-0 lead. Jenny Ramey scored three runs for the Eagles, and she and sophomore Rebekah Schmidt also had two hits apiece. Danielle Schmidt pitched a no-hitter for New Life Academy with 14 strikeouts and three walks.

Maple Lake started its tournament trek with a 4-3 quarterfinal victory over Wabasso. Irish sophomore Ashley Gries doubled in the bottom of the ninth and scored on a sacrifice bunt off the bat of senior Amanda Horst to secure the victory. Ashley Kempenich went the distance to earn the win, allowing three runs on eight hits while striking out eight.

The Irish advanced and beat Sacred Heart of East Grand Forks 4-2 in the semifinals.

Kempenich had two RBI on two hits and also pitched all seven innings for Maple Lake. She threw eight strikeouts and allowed one earned run.

Sacred Heart came back to claim third-place honors after defeating Silver Bay 1-0. Senior Sandy Novak drove in the Eagles' only run in the top of the seventh inning. Sophomore pitcher Darcy Roach had a one-hitter for Sacred Heart, striking out five batters for the win.

Wabasso went home with the consolation hardware. Eighth-grader Kimberly Frank had three hits and one RBI as the Rabbits defeated Lake Crystal-Wellcome Memorial 2-0. Senior pitcher Ashley Fennern went all seven innings for Wabasso, allowing five hits while striking out seven and walking two.

loss. The Redhawks scored both of their runs in the bottom of the fifth inning with the RBIs going to AnnaMarie Martino and Emily Engdahl. Engdahl also pitched the complete game with five hits and seven strikeouts.

In the semifinals, Minnehaha Academy scored all three of its runs in the first inning and went on to defeat Pipestone Area 3-1. AnnaMarie Martino paced the Redhawks with three hits and Emily Engdahl and senior Elizabeth Mrozek added one RBI apiece. Engdahl also pitched all seven innings with seven hits and five strikeouts.

Pipestone Area came back and defeated Ottertail Central 11-4 for third-place honors. Junior Jesse Gergen had three RBI for the Arrows on three hits, and junior pitcher Bailey Bouman allowed six hits in the victory while striking out nine.

The Becker Bulldogs defeated the Winona Cotter Ramblers 2-1 in eight innings to earn consolation honors. Junior Kristen Fah scored the tying run for the Bulldogs and drove in the game-winner. She also pitched all eight innings, striking out eight batters and allowing six hits.

Orono, which won the Class AA title in 2008, fell to Mound-Westonka in the Section 5 championship game.

Class AAA

In Class AAA, the Elk River Elks (23-6) claimed their first championship after defeating North of North St. Paul 1-0. This was the fourth tournament appearance for the Elks, but their first since 2003. North (21-5) returned to the tournament after a one-year absence and was making its ninth appearance overall.

Elk River seniors Kelsey Roche and Chelsi Winkowski proved to be the difference-makers in the championship game. Roche led off with a single in the top of the seventh inning and then advanced to second on an error. She went to third on a sacrifice bunt and scored on Winkowski's clutch two-out single. Then, as icing on the cake, Roche pitched a 1-2-3 bottom of the seventh, throwing an errant grounder to first for the final out of the game.

Roche struck out five batters and walked one while scattering five hits. She also led Elk River with two hits in three at-bats.

Ninth-grader Carley Pickett took the pitching loss. She went all seven innings for North, allowing six hits while striking out nine and walking one. Five players had one hit apiece for the Polars.

Elk River started its championship run with a 1-0 victory over Mankato West. Sophomore Moriah Bruns drove in sophomore Kayti Hanson for the game's only run in the bottom of the sixth inning. Kelsey Roche pitched the one-hitter with 11 strikeouts and no walks.

The Elks squeaked out another narrow victory in the semifinals. Hastings rallied to tie the score 1-1 with a run in the top of the seventh inning, but senior Alexius Schutt turned a lead-off walk into a run on a clutch hit from Moriah Bruns and Elk River had a 2-1 walk-off victory.

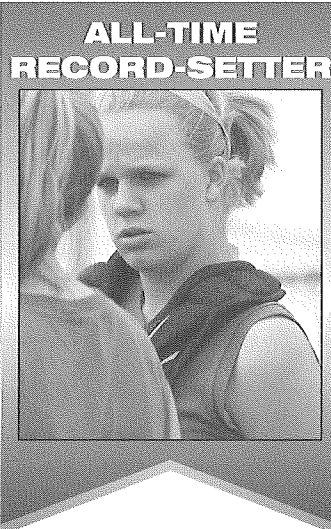

North scored four times in the seventh inning to break open a close quarterfinal game, and the Polars went on to defeat Hopkins 7-2. Carley Pickett allowed eight hits, no walks and fanned 10 Royals batters to earn the win. She also doubled and drove in a run in the seventh with a sacrifice fly.

In the semifinals, North defeated Forest Lake 2-0. The Polars scored runs in the third and the fifth innings, and ninth-grade pitcher Tabitha Bayers went the distance with a one-hitter. She struck out 12 batters and issued just one walk.

Hastings junior Jenelle Trautmann threw a complete game six-hitter as Hastings downed Forest Lake 5-0 in the third-place game. Trautmann struck out 12 batters in the victory. Sophomore Britt Robinson led the Raiders with a 2-for-4 performance at the plate, driving in two runs, and sophomore Treya Connell also collected two hits.

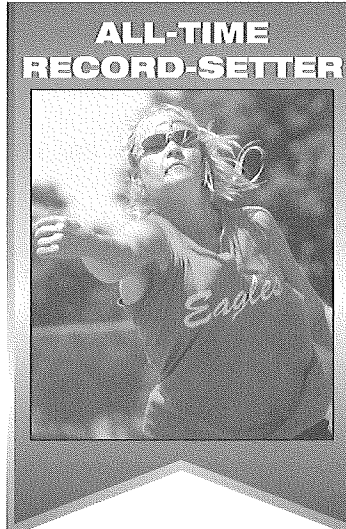

In a rematch of the 2008 championship game, Eagan again downed Mankato West for consolation honors. The Wildcats, who beat the Scarlets 14-1 in six innings last year, won 4-0 this year. Eagan strung together four runs in the top of the fifth inning, and four players had multiple hits for the Wildcats. Junior pitcher Sara Moulton earned the win, as she struck out 10 and allowed just one hit.

The 2009 State Softball Tournament was held at Caswell Park in North Mankato on June 4-5. Paid attendance for the tournament was 7,565.

in Storytelling, and Berkopec won top honors in Creative Expression. In 2008, Berkopec won Duo Interpretation with Kjellrun Owens. This was the second medal overall for all three defending champions.

The final defending champion—Greg Berman of Eastview of Apple Valley—was not as successful. Berman, who won in Humorous Interpretation last year, placed fifth in Creative Expression this year. This was also his second medal.

Apple Valley led the field with five gold medals, while Lakeville North picked up three. Besides Berkopec, Hofmeister, and Soderbeck, the other 2009 champions were: Kirstin Yanisch of Mounds View in Discussion; Ashley Mardell and David Finseth of Lakeville North in Duo Interpretation; Kate Brown of Apple Valley in Extemporaneous Reading; Karen Zhou of Lakeville North in Extemporaneous Speaking; Sarah Brickner of Apple Valley in Great Speeches; Lindsey White of Eastview in Humorous Interpretation; Courtney Koletar of Lakeville North in Informative Speaking; Lindsay Swiggum of Apple Valley in Original Oratory; Tatiana Burton of Apple Valley in Serious Interpretation of Poetry; and Corron Baskin of St. Cloud Tech in Serious Interpretation of Prose.

Three competitors claimed coveted fourth medals this year. They were Adam Bouchareb and Greta Besser of Lakeville North and Zach Leonard of Hermantown.

Three competitors also won their third medals at this year's tournament: Ashley Mardell of Lakeville North, James Blashko of Mankato East, and Szuyin Leow of Apple Valley.

Lakeville North led the list of medal-winners with 14, while Apple Valley earned 12. Eagan and Eastview each finished with 10 medals apiece. With medals awarded to as many as eight top finishers, 29 schools were represented by students awarded medals for their 2009 state tournament performances.

Apple Valley, with its five winners, now can claim 72 state champions between 1969 and 2009, which is first place on the list of Most State Champions-All Classes. Eagan now has 49 state champions, good for second place on that list. With its 12 medals this year, Apple Valley still tops the list of top medal-winning Class A schools with 311. Eagan, having won 10 medals this year, now ranks a distant second with 223. Forest Lake is still third with 176.

State Speech Tournament Medal Records — 1969-2009

Apple Valley in Class AA and Walker-Hackensack-Akeley in Class A lead their respective classes in number of medals earned at State Speech Tournaments from 1969 to 2009. The year 1969 marked the first year in which a preliminary round and final round resulted in awarding medals to the top three place winners in each division. The first two-class competition was held in 1976. In 1979 the number of medals awarded in each of the 11 categories of competition increased from three to six. In 1989 the number of categories increased to 12. In 1990 medals were awarded to each of the finalists through eighth place. In 1993, the Dramatic Duo category was added making the number of categories 13. In 2002 the format changed to qualify three entries from each section in each category, and having three preliminary rounds at the State Tournament before the finals. Since 1969 students from 388 member schools have won medals at the State Speech Tournament.

BOYS' SWIMMING & DIVING

Breck/Blake claims Class A title, Hurley sets new IM record; Edina repeats in Class AA, Kiel sets all-time backstroke mark

By Howard W. Voigt &
Ellen Giloy-Rajkowski

Edina won its second consecutive title and its third in six years at the Class AA meet. In Class A, the co-op of Breck/Blake claimed its first title and upset the four-time defending champions from St. Thomas Academy.

One new Class A record and three new Class AA records were set this year. Sophomore Mike Hurley of Fergus Falls broke his own Class A record in the 200 individual medley by almost six seconds. His new record time is 1:49.58.

In Class AA, junior Brian Kiel of Rochester Century set a new Class AA and all-time record in the 100 backstroke during the preliminaries. His time of 48.86 eclipsed the previous record of 49.21 set by Minnetonka's Jeff Dragsten in 1993.

The Rosemount team of senior David Stern and juniors Devon Meeks, Tony Spiel, and Max Hubbard, set a new Class AA mark in the 200 medley relay at 1:34.26, and senior Kendrick Bachman of Rochester John Marshall set a new record of 55.84 in the 100 breaststroke.

Class A

Breck/Blake unseated St. Thomas Academy's stranglehold on the Class A team title by winning all three relays and three individual events. The co-op of the two private schools, Breck School of Golden Valley and The Blake School of Minneapolis, finished with 296 points to St. Thomas Academy's 267. The Mendota Heights-based Academy had won the last four titles and all but one since 1999.

Breck/Blake, which placed fifth in team scoring in 2008, got off to fast start. The team of eighth-grader Mitchell Foster and juniors Thomas Winslow, Sam Pritzker, and Jack Markusen won the 200 medley relay with a time of 1:38.67.

But it was junior Nathan Yueh who truly paced Breck/Blake. He won both the 200 freestyle and the 500 freestyle with times of 1:41.86 and 4:49.26, respectively. He had finished second in the former event last year and also won the latter event in 2008. Yueh also anchored the 200 freestyle relay team and swam on the winning 400 freestyle relay team.

Jack Markusen, Thomas Winslow, and sophomore Austin Gromatzky rounded out the 200 freestyle team, and Gromatzky, Sam Pritzker and Mitchell Foster completed the 400 freestyle squad. Gromatzky also helped his squad when he placed second to Yueh in the 200 freestyle.

Eighth-grader Mitchell Foster won the final individual event for Breck/Blake. He completed the 100 backstroke with a time of 52.15.

The Wingers of Red Wing improved on last year's eighth-place showing to win third-place honors. They finished with 208 points overall.

In addition to Nathan Yueh, two other competitors also successfully defended their 2008 titles. Sophomore Mike Hurley of Fergus Falls repeated as champion in the 200 individual medley, while junior Turner Eckstrom of Red Wing claimed his second consecutive crown in one meter diving. The win for Hurley was especially significant as he set a new Class A record with his time of 1:49.58, shaving almost six seconds off the record he set last year.

Hurley and junior Tim Walker of Dassel-Cokato/Litchfield were also double-winners.

Hurley claimed the top spot in the 100 breaststroke with a time of 57.49 and Walker earned gold medals in both the 50-yard freestyle and 100-yard freestyle. His times were 21.39 and 47.42, respectively.

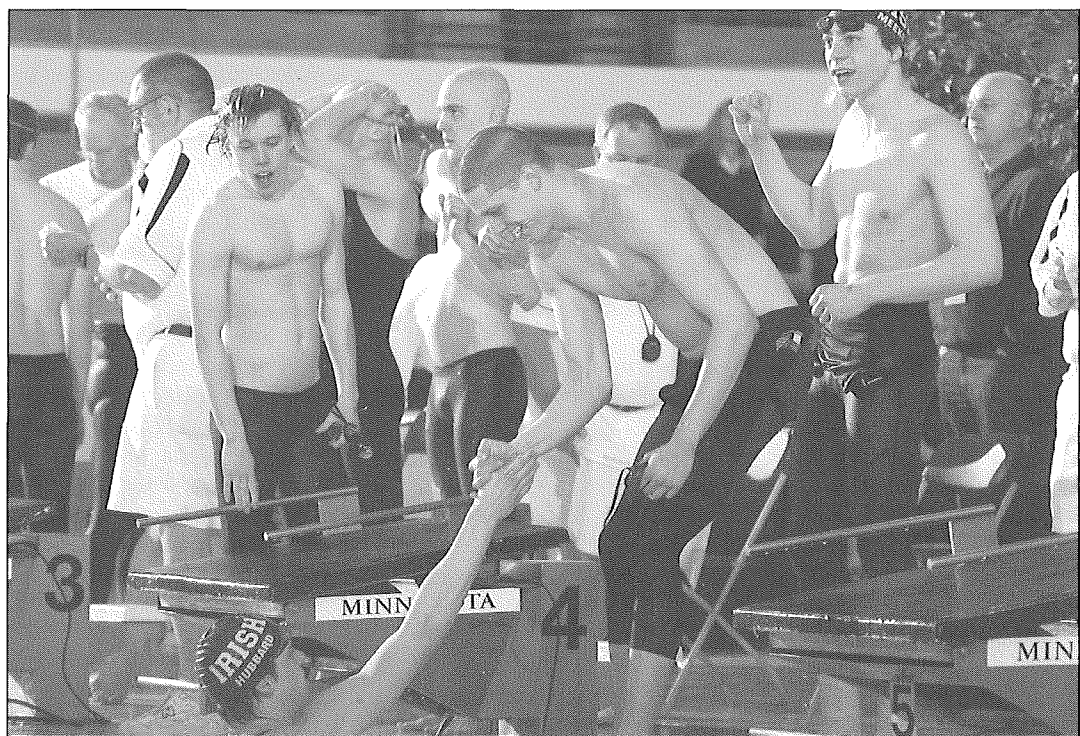

Class AA

Junior Drew Johnson of Edina led his team to its second consecutive title after winning two individual events and anchoring the 400 freestyle relay. The Hornets finished with 225 points, relegating Minnetonka to runner-up status for the second consecutive year. Overall, this was the ninth title for the Hornets and their third in six years.

Johnson earned his first points of the meet with a winning time of 1:38.95 in the 200 freestyle. He then won the 100 freestyle with a time of 45.15, before teaming up senior Michael Bergstrom, sophomore Mike Gratz, and junior Chris Satterthwaite to win the 400 freestyle relay. The Hornets' winning time was 3:06.13.

The Skippers of Minnetonka garnered second place with 225 points and the Panthers of Rochester Century placed third with 168 points. The third-place showing was an improvement for the Panthers, who placed sixth in 2008.

In addition to Drew Johnson, senior Kendrick Bachman of Rochester John Marshall also won two events: the 100 butterfly and the 100 breaststroke. His winning time of 55.84 in the breaststroke was just one-hundredth of a second from equaling the all-time record and will stand as the current Class AA record.

Rosemount was the only school to win two relay titles. The Irish team of senior David Stern and juniors Devon Meeks, Tony Spiel, and Max Hubbard set a new Class AA record with its time of 1:34.26 in the 200 medley relay. In the 200 freestyle relay, Stern, Hubbard, and Meeks teamed with senior Tristan Boyd and had the winning time of 1:25.39.

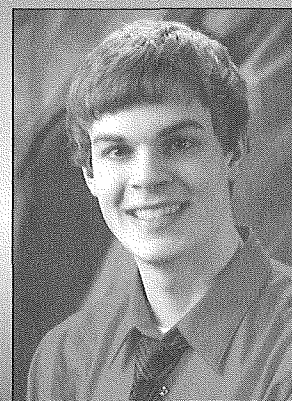

One new all-time record was set during the Class AA preliminaries. Brian Kiel, a junior at Rochester Century, swam the 100 backstroke in 48.86. Kiel advanced to the finals, but was upset by junior Brian Dailey-Arndt of Cretin-Derham Hall of St. Paul in the finals. Dailey-Arndt's time was 49.28 and Kiel trailed at 49.45. The previous backstroke record of 49.21 was set by Minnetonka's Jeff Dragsten in the preliminaries in 1993.

There were no repeat champions in the Class AA state meet.

The 2009 State Boys' Swimming and Diving Meet was held March 5-7 at the University of Minnesota Aquatic Center in Minneapolis. Paid attendance was 5,567.

GIRLS' SWIMMING & DIVING

Visitation wins fourth consecutive Class A crown; Stillwater Area earns Class AA team title; Nine Class A records broken; Nine all-time records set

By Howard W. Voigt & Ellen Giloy-Rajkowski

It was a record-setting year at the 2008 State Girls' Swimming and Diving Meet. The Class AA competitors set nine all-time records and the Class A competitors set nine of their own. Sophomore Hannah Bowen of Stillwater Area set two all-time individual records and was also part of two record-setting relay teams.

In the team competition, Visitation of Mendota Heights became only the third school to claim four team championships after winning the Class A meet with 268 points. The Ponies of Stillwater Area reclaimed the Class AA title with 290 after placing fourth in 2007. It was their third title overall.

Class A

The Blazers of Visitation became only the second team of the modern era to win four consecutive championships when they scored 268 points to claim the title at the 2008 State Class A Girls' Swimming and Diving Meet. Eden Prairie was the last dynasty to master the feat; the Eagles won three consecutive titles in 1996, 1997, and 1998, and in 1999 they tied with Edina.

The first team to win four titles in a row was Virginia, a team that dominated the early years of girls' swimming and diving. Virginia won 12 straight titles from 1930 to 1941.

Monticello finished second with 197 points and Sartell-St. Stephen was third with 162 points. The Hutchinson Tigers were fourth with 156, and Fergus Falls was fifth with 145.

Visitation won six events on the final day of the meet and set Class A records in four of them. Senior Meghan Weiss set the tone with her third consecutive victory in the 200 freestyle. Her time of 1:52.05 was slower than her record-setting time of 1:51.88 in the preliminaries, but it was still enough to win. Weiss added to her gold medal count when she won her third title in the 100 freestyle with a record time of 51.17.

In addition to her individual wins, Weiss also helped the Blazers win their second consecutive title in the 400 freestyle relay. Ninth-grader Meg Foster, sophomore Molly George, and senior Julie Steege rounded out that team and together they set a new Class A record with their time of 3:34.97.

Senior Sophie Pilhofer and ninth-grader Olivia McNeely claimed the other individual titles for Visitation. Pilhofer won the 50 freestyle with a time of 23.83 while McNeely won her third straight in the 100 breaststroke with a record-setting time of 1:04.31. Both Pilhofer and

McNeely also swam on the 200 medley team that set a new Class A record of 1:48.12. Julie Steege and junior Maddy DeMeules also competed on that team.

Overall, nine new Class A records were set over the course of the meet. In addition to Meghan Weiss, sophomore Audrey Kumm of Hutchinson also set two new records. Her time of 2:04.14 in the 200-yard individual medley was a full 2.04 second faster than the mark set in 2007. Kumm's second record came in the 100-yard butterfly with a time of 55.73, which was 37-hundredths of a second faster than the previous 2004 mark.

The other two records were set by eighth-grader Marisa Wood of Sartell-St. Stephen and junior Taylor Foster of Breck School, Golden Valley. Wood earned her second consecutive crown in the 500 freestyle with a time of 5:02.05 and Foster won her third straight title in the 100 backstroke with a time of 56.72. Wood shaved 2.41 seconds off the previous 500-yard freestyle record, and Foster cut 1.69 seconds off the previous 2003 mark.

Sophomore Tori Raihle of Spring Lake Park won the one-meter diving event and Sartell-St. Stephen upset Visitation by two-hundredths of a second in the 200 freestyle relay. The Sabres victory ended the streak of three straight by the Blazers.

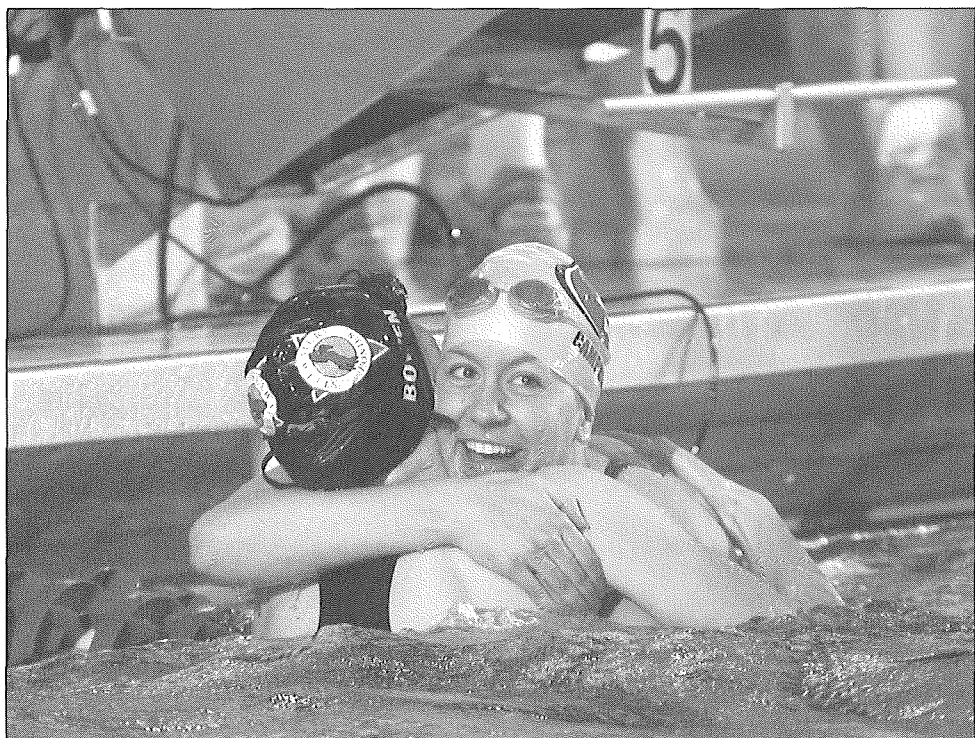

Class AA

The Stillwater Area Ponies, who finished fourth in 2007, reclaimed the Class AA championship with 290 points. It was the third overall championship for the Ponies, who also won back-to-back titles in 2005 and 2006.

Sophomore Hannah Bowen led the way for Stillwater Area. She set new all-time records with her wins in the 50 and 100 freestyle races, and she also anchored the winning 200 and 400 freestyle relay teams. Her time in the 50 was 22.73, and her time in the 100 was 49.78.

The Ponies trailed Edina early in the meet, but junior Maggie Keefer gave Stillwater Area the lead when she earned top honors in one meter diving with a score of 493.55. The Ponies extended their lead when Bowen won the 100 freestyle and senior Betsy Galenti, sophomore Torie Buberl, and junior Monica Radecke placed sixth, seventh, and eighth, respectively, in the same event.

Stillwater Area also set new all-time records in both the 200 and 400 freestyle relays. Hannah Bowen, Betsy Galenti, junior Kaela Anderson, and senior Jordan Bowen set the new standard at 3:26.09 in the 400 relay. In the 200, Hannah Bowen, Betsy Galenti, Torie Buberl, and Monica Radecke completed the race in 1:34.80.

The Ponies were not the only team to set the record in the 200 freestyle relay, however. The Lakeville South team of seniors Wendy Consoer and Natalie Herrild and juniors Melissa McMahon and Hailey Campbell also closed the race in 1:34.80.

Edina placed second in the team competition with 234.5 points and Eden Prairie was third at 198. The defending champions from Maple Grove were fourth with 146 points and Minnetonka followed at 143.5.

In addition to Stillwater Area's Hannah Bowen, sophomore Kiera Janzen of Cretin-Derham Hall of St. Paul also won two titles and set two new all-time records. She won the 200 freestyle with a record time of 1:47.86 and the 500 freestyle with a time of 4:51.22. Her finals time in the 500 was not the record, but in the preliminaries, Janzen completed the race with a record time of 4:50.55.

Sophomore Abby Duncan of Champlin Park and ninth-grader Rachel Bootsma of Eden Prairie were the final competitors to win two titles apiece. Duncan claimed her second consecutive crown in the 100 breaststroke with a new all-time record of 1:01.30, and she also won the 200 individual medley with a time of 2:03.59. Bootsma won her second consecutive championship in the 100 backstroke with a new all-time record of 54.07, and she also won the 100 butterfly with a time of 55.02.

Edina was the final team to defend a title. The Hornets opened the final day with an all-time record-setting performance of 1:45.49 in the 200 medley relay. That team was made up of eighth-graders Madeleine Eden and Heather Laedtke, senior Annalise Colton, and junior Mary Van Metre.

The 2008 State Girls' Swimming and Diving Meet was held November 20-22 at the University of Minnesota Aquatic Center. Paid attendance was 5,779.

Breck School, Edina win team titles; Rochester Lourdes' Kopecky repeats as Class A singles champ; The Blake School's Jackley wins third doubles crown

By Ellen Giloy-Rajkowski

The Hornets of Edina won their second consecutive Class AA team title this year, while the Mustangs of Breck School of Golden Valley won in Class A. It was the 18th title for Edina under this name and the fifth for Breck School.

Phillip "Tips" Jackley of The Blake School of Minneapolis became only the second competitor in tournament history to win his third consecutive doubles crown. Jackley won with his older brother, Merritt, in 2007, and with Jack Bryant in 2008. This year, he won with sophomore Ford Traff. Brandon Fenn of Breck School was the first competitor to win three back-to-back titles; he won with three different partners from 2001 to 2003.

Junior Ben Kopecky of Rochester Lourdes was also a repeat winner this year. He claimed his second consecutive Class A singles title.

Forest Lake ninth-grader Dusty Boyer won the Class AA singles championship, and the Edina team of senior Steven Pjevach and ninth-grader Erik Nordahl claimed the Class AA doubles title.

Class A

Breck School of Golden Valley improved on last year's third-place showing and claimed its fifth team title at the 2009 tournament. In addition to this year, the Mustangs also won in 1995, 1997, 1998, and 2001.

This year, Breck School defeated Rochester Lourdes 6-1 in the championship match-up. The Mustangs won three matches quickly and won the first set in the remaining four. Sophomores Trotter Oberrender and Max Berman secured the victory for Breck School after they defeated sophomore Luca Farrugia and eighth-grader Alan Schembri-Wismayer at No. 3 doubles.

The Eagles' only victory came at No. 1 singles where junior Ben Kopecky won a hard-fought first set and went on to defeat senior Will Oberrender 6-4, 6-1. The runner-up finish was also the second consecutive for Rochester Lourdes.

Breck School started the tournament with a slim 4-3 victory over The Blake School of Minneapolis. The Bears tied the score at 3-3 when junior Jack Bryant came from behind to defeat Will Oberrender 3-6, 7-6 (7-5), 6-1. Then, all eyes were on the Breck School duo of Trotter Oberrender and Max Berman and The Blake School tandem of sophomore Charlie Velie and seventh-grader Taylor Parr at No. 3 doubles. Oberrender and Berman won the first set 6-3, but stumbled with a 4-6 loss in the second. The third set went to a tie-breaker with Oberrender and Berman finally prevailing 7-6 (7-4).

In the semifinals, the Mustangs rolled over the co-op of Benson/Kerkhoven-Murdock-Sunburg 7-0. Will Oberrender and junior Eric Chien both won in straight sets, at No. 1 and No. 3 singles, respectively.

On the other side of the bracket, Rochester Lourdes defeated Thief River Falls 7-0 in the quarterfinals. The Eagles didn't lose a single set and Ben Kopecky defeated sophomore Connor Hutton 6-0, 6-0 at No. 1 singles.

Lourdes advanced and beat Holy Family Catholic of Victoria 6-1 in the semifinals. Ninth-grader Robert Turlington won in straight sets at No. 2 singles and junior Connor Rust followed suit at No. 3 singles. The Fire's only victory came at No. 2 doubles where junior Ryan Menden and ninth-grader Connor Oberle defeated sophomore Ross Haller and senior Gavin Clark 2-6, 6-2, 6-4.

Holy Family Catholic bounced back to claim third-place honors after defeating Benson/KMS 6-1. Four of the matches went to three sets with the Fire winning three of them. Their only loss came at No. 2 singles where the Braves' duo of senior Ahren Backman and junior Brandon Edlund defeated senior Remington Riehl and ninth-grader David Forbes 6-3, 1-6, 6-2.

The Blake School Bears earned consolation honors with a 7-0 victory over Thief River Falls. Sophomores George Humphrey and Ford Traff were the only Bears' players to win in straight sets; they beat seniors JD Robson and Parker Nessen at No. 1 doubles.

The two-time defending champions from St. Paul Academy & Summit School did not qualify for the 2009 tournament. The Spartans fell to The Blake School 4-3 in the Section 4 title match.

In the singles competition, junior Ben Kopecky of Rochester Lourdes and senior Will Oberrender of Breck School met for the title. And, as in the team competition, Kopecky emerged with the 6-2, 6-3 victory and his second consecutive singles crown.

Kopecky started his championship run by defeating ninth-grader Connor Oberle of Holy Family Catholic 6-0, 6-2. He beat junior Eric Chien of Breck School 6-0, 6-1 in the quarterfinals, and sophomore John Hill of St. Paul Academy & Summit School 6-0, 6-2 in the semifinals.

Junior Jack Bryant of The Blake School, who won the doubles title with Phillip "Tips" Jackley in 2008, defeated John Hill 6-3, 6-3 for third-place honors. Nelson Wolf, a junior at Shattuck-St. Mary's of Faribault, took consolation honors after scoring a 6-4, 6-0 victory over senior David Mihm of Eveleth-Gilbert.

Senior Phillip "Tips" Jackley of The Blake School claimed his third consecutive doubles crown this year. He won with his brother, Merritt, in 2007, and with Jack Bryant last year. He and his partner, sophomore Ford Traff, defeated junior Grant Bemis and ninth-grader Andrew Engel of Breck School 6-1, 7-5 in the 2009 title tilt. Jackley and Traff also competed together in 2006, placing third.

On their way to the finals, The Blake School tandem defeated senior Josh Connell and junior Dakota Frazier of Montevideo 6-0, 6-0 in the opening round. They went on to beat sophomore Daniel Carpenter and eighth-grader Myles Tang of Breck School 6-3, 6-4 in the quarterfinals, and junior Jordan Krebsbach and sophomore Cody Mauston of Virginia 6-1, 6-2 in the semifinals.

Krebsbach and Mauston came back to win third-place honors after defeating the St. Paul Academy & Summit School duo of senior Dillon Titcomb and junior Harry Whitaker. The consolation title went to junior Connor Rust and ninth-grader Brian Utz of Rochester Lourdes. They defeated their teammates, junior Javon Bea and ninth-grader Robert Turlington, 6-2, 6-1.

Class AA

In the Class AA team tournament, the Edina Hornets claimed their second consecutive title and their 18th overall under this name. Edina East also won five titles and Edina West won one.

This year's squad defeated Rochester Mayo 6-1 in the title match-up. Edina swept the singles while only dropping five games in four matches. Ninth-grader Erik Nordahl was the only Edina player to win in straight sets; he defeated seventh-grader T. Shives 6-0, 6-0 at No. 3 singles.

Rochester Lourdes pulled its only victory at No. 3 doubles where senior Peter Cerhan and sophomore Colin Rieke defeated senior Cole Jensen and Jeff Rosner 6-2, 7-5. The runner-up showing was an improvement for the Spartans, who placed sixth in 2008.

Edina started tournament play with an easy 7-0 victory over Eagan. Erik Nordahl and senior Austin Povilaitis both posted straight-set victories; Nordahl at No. 2 singles and Povilaitis at No. 3 singles.

In a rematch of last year's championship, the Hornets defeated Mounds View in the semifinals. This year, three Edina players won in straight sets en route to the 6-1 victory: senior Noah Swiler at No. 2 singles, Nordahl at No. 2 singles, and Povilaitis at No. 3 singles. The Mustangs tallied their one victory at No. 1 doubles where sophomore Max Schaper and senior Tucker Morris defeated seniors Steven Pjevach and Brent Radewald 6-4, 6-1.

Rochester Mayo defeated Elk River, which includes students from Zimmerman, 6-1 in the quarterfinals. The Elks took the Spartans to three sets at No. 2 singles and No. 1 doubles, but Mayo was able to post wins in both matches.

In the semifinals, Rochester Mayo cruised to a 6-1 victory over Wayzata. Ninth-grader Thomas Nath had the easiest victory for the Spartans; he defeated junior Gary Notkin 6-1, 6-0 at No. 1 singles.

Mounds View claimed third-place honors after defeating Wayzata 5-2. Senior John Thompson and junior Kevin Arthur had the toughest match for the Mustangs. They fought through a second-set loss and tie-breaker to finally defeat senior Deepak Janardan and sophomore Giuliano Kornberg 6-3, 4-6, 7-6 (7-1) at No. 2 doubles.

Eagan beat Elk River 6-1 for consolation honors. The team of seniors Keagan Blancke and Zac Carter notched the only victory for Elk River. They defeated junior Logan Peterson and ninth-grader Brady Radermacher 6-3, 6-3 at No. 1 doubles.

In the singles tournament, Forest Lake ninth-grader Dusty Boyer improved on last year's sixth-place finish to take top honors. Boyer defeated senior Justin Haag of Eden Prairie 6-0, 6-2 in the championship match-up.

Boyer started the individual tournament with a 6-3, 6-3 victory over Osseo junior David Erickson. In the quarterfinals, he defeated Rochester Century sophomore Eric Frueh 6-3, 6-3, and in the semifinals, he beat Edina senior Noah Swiler 6-2, 6-4.

The third-place final came down to two Edina players, with junior Hamish Weerasinghe defeating senior Noah Swiler 6-2, 6-3. Senior Brendan O'Connell of Elk River claimed consolation honors after sophomore Tyler Hjalmsquist of Moorhead retired in the third set. Up to that point, O'Connell led 6-7 (3-7), 6-1, 3-0.

In the doubles tournament, Edina senior Steven Pjevach and ninth-grader Erik Nordahl teamed up to defeat the Hopkins duo of junior Marcel Gyswyt and sophomore Ryan Erickson 6-4, 7-6 (7-3). This was Pjevach's fourth appearance in the doubles tournament, but his previous highest finish was as runner-up with Noah Swiler in 2007.

Pjevach and Nordahl defeated eighth-grader Adam Johnson and senior Brian Arola of Hibbing/Chisholm in straight sets in the first round. In the quarterfinals, they defeated Minnetonka seniors Luke Bastiansen and Thiago Morsch 6-2, 7-5, and in the semifinals, they beat the Eagan duo of senior Derek Taylor and junior Justin Abrams 6-4, 7-5.

Taylor and Abrams rebounded to take third-place honors after beating Duluth East seniors Jake Tideman and Jake Decatur 7-5, 5-7, 6-4. In the consolation final, senior Matt Lunka and ninth-grader Matt Schull of Henry Sibley of Mendota Heights notched a 6-2, 1-6, 6-3 victory over junior Pete Stadum and sophomore Quinn Foley of Mahtomedi.

The 2009 State Boys' Tennis Tournament was held June 2-5. The Class AA tournament was held at the Baseline Tennis Center on the University of Minnesota campus in Minneapolis, and the Class A tournament was held at the Reed-Sweatt Family Tennis Center in Minneapolis.

Edina claimed its 12th consecutive Class AA title at the 2008 State Girls' Tennis Tournament, while Rochester Lourdes returned to the Class A championship podium after a one-year absence. It was the 11th title overall for Lourdes and the 27th for Edina.

In the Class A singles tournament, Rochester Lourdes senior Alexa Palen won her second consecutive title. She also won a doubles championship with Rachel Tiegs in 2005. Aria Lambert, a sophomore at Minnetonka, improved one place to win her first Class AA singles crown.

Amber Washington, a ninth-grader at Mounds Park Academy, became only one of three competitors to win three consecutive doubles titles. She competed with Beth Larson in 2006 and 2007, before partnering with sophomore Kate Roach this year.

In the Class AA doubles tournament, junior Emilie Renault of Rochester Mayo won her second consecutive championship. She won with Erin Kappers last year and with senior Annemarie Ryu this year.

Class A

Rochester Lourdes ended Mounds Park Academy's one-year championship reign by defeating the Panthers 4-3 in the Class A title match. In 2007, Mounds Park Academy defeated Rochester Lourdes 4-3 in the quarterfinals after the Eagles had to forfeit two matches because an incorrect line-up was used. This year's victory gave the Eagles their 11th title in 12 years.

The No. 3 doubles team of senior Carrie Bauer and ninth-grader Kristen Brandhagen secured the championship for Rochester Lourdes with three matches still undecided. The tandem defeated ninth-graders Molly Brown and Mackenzie Melton 7-5, 6-0.

Senior Alexa Palen, who would later claim her second consecutive individual crown, started the Rochester Lourdes victory with a 6-1, 6-0 victory over Mounds Park Academy junior Taylor Washington at No. 1 singles. The Eagles also got wins from ninth-grader Margaret Pearson at No. 4 singles and sophomore Brittany Alexander and senior Cara McGrane at No. 1 doubles.

Rochester Lourdes started its championship run with a 7-0 quarterfinal romp over Virginia.

Palen was the only Eagles player to win 6-0, 6-0 as she defeated sophomore Amanda Arbogast.

In the semifinals, Rochester Lourdes made short work of St. James with a 7-0 victory. Juniors Abby Frederickson and Darci Johnson of St. James took the second set from ninth-graders Klara Lisy and Veronica Grande at No. 2 doubles, but Lisy and Grande came back to win 6-1, 2-6, 6-3. Palen also made short work of senior Mallory Shellum with a 6-1, 6-0 victory at No. 1 singles.

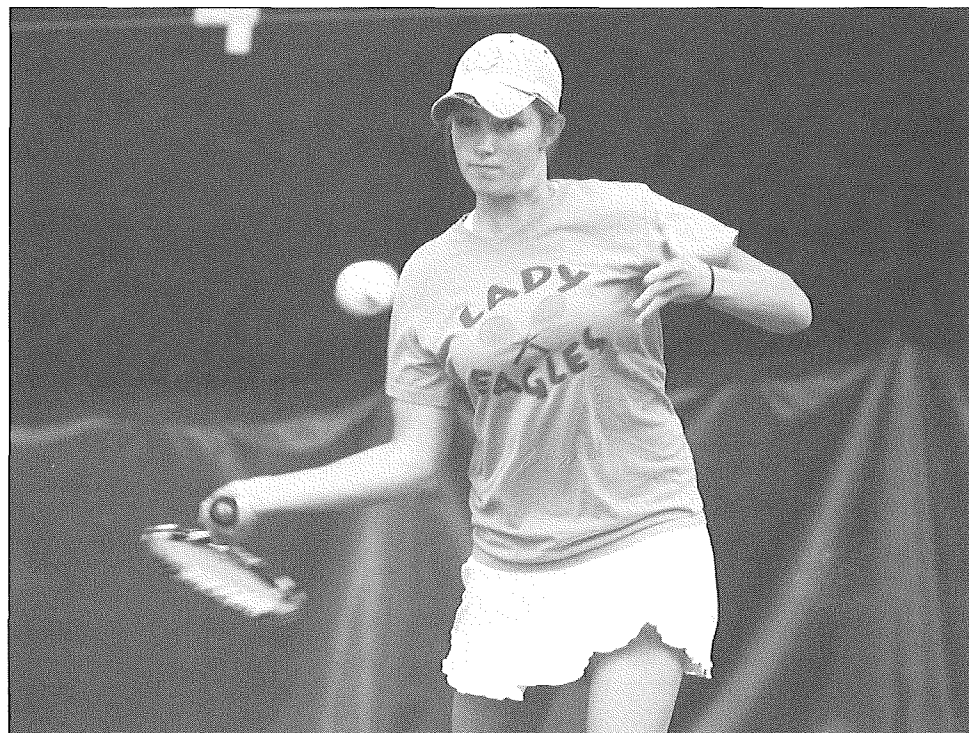

On the other side of the bracket, Mounds Park Academy defeated Maple River of Mapleton 7-0 in the quarterfinals. All of the matches went two sets with Taylor Washington leading the way with a 6-0, 6-0 win over senior Heather Annis at No. 1 singles.

The Panthers advanced and beat Staples-Motley 6-1 in the semifinals. Sophomore Andrea Koskiniemi was the only Cardinal player to steal a match from Mounds Park Academy. She defeated sophomore Lena Zagar 4-6, 7-6 (8-6), 6-4 at No. 4 singles. Junior Brenna Kelly was the only Mounds Park Academy player to win 6-0, 6-0, defeating junior Skye Coughlin at No. 2 singles.

St. James rebounded to take third-place honors after defeating Staples-Motley 4-3. The Saints had victories at No. 3 and No. 4 singles and No. 2 and No. 3 doubles. In the consolation championship, Maple River fell to Virginia 5-2. Two of the matches went to three sets, with the Bluejackets winning both of them.

In the individual competition, senior Alexa Palen of Rochester Lourdes won her second consecutive singles title, and her third overall. Palen won her first crown in 2005, when she teamed up with Rachel Tiegs in the doubles tournament.

This year, Palen left no doubt as she defeated junior Abby Edin of Staples-Motley 6-0, 6-0 in the championship. She dominated from the beginning and the match was over in 40 minutes.

Junior Brenna Kelly of Mounds Park Academy, who won individual honors in 2006, improved one place to earn third-place honors. She defeated junior Stephanie Biehn of Martin County West of Sherburn 7-6 (5), 6-1. Senior Heather Annis of Maple River earned consolation honors after beating eighth-grader Gina Nguyen of St. Paul Academy & Summit School 3-6, 6-3, 7-5.

Ninth-grader Amber Washington of Mounds Park Academy also earned a little piece of history during the tournament when she became only the third player to earn three consecutive doubles titles. She won with Beth Larson in 2006 and 2007 and with sophomore Kate Roach this year. Angie Fox of The Blake School of Minneapolis was the first player to win three straight titles (1990-1992) and Lindsey Palen of Rochester Lourdes was the second (1999-2001).

Washington and Roach defeated St. James seniors Mallory Shellum and Danielle Munsterman 6-1, 5-7, 6-4 in this year's championship. It was also the second consecutive runner-up showing for Munsterman, who competed with Nikki Stenzel last year.

Junior Courtney Rust of Rochester Mayo, who was the runner-up in last year's singles tournament, earned third-place honors with senior Mary Utz. The duo defeated juniors Carrie Wight and Sarah Whitaker of St. Paul Academy & Summit School 6-3, 6-4. The Maple River tandem of juniors Mandi Stencil and Sara Anderson defeated seniors Chelsie McGraw and Brenna Johnson of Litchfield for consolation honors. That score was 6-2, 6-3.

Class AA

The Hornets of Edina won their 12th consecutive and 27th overall Class AA title with a 5-2 win over Rochester Mayo. It was a sweet victory for the Hornets, since the Spartans ended Edina's 215-match winning streak in the season-opener for both teams.

Edina clinched the victory when its No. 1 and No. 2 doubles teams won within minutes of each other. Twin sisters, seniors Caitlin and Chloe Cunagin, defeated junior Sophie Charlton and sophomore Jessica Edwards 7-6

(2), 6-4 in the No. 1 match-up, and junior Sheri Hickey and ninth-grader Caroline Ward beat eighth-grader Paige Becher and ninth-grader Jacqueline Cliby 3-6, 6-2, 6-2 in the No. 2 spot.

Senior Erin Kappers and junior Emilie Renault, who won the doubles title together in 2007, earned the only two points for Rochester Mayo. They won at No. 1 and No. 2 singles, respectively.

Edina reached the championship match with a 7-0 win over Bemidji in the opening round and a 6-1 win over Minnetonka in the semifinals. Sophomore Mollie Meldahl was the only Edina player to win 6-0, 6-0 in the quarterfinal. She defeated eighth-grader Kenzie Kane at No. 4 singles.

In the semifinals, the Edina team of Sheri Hickey and Caroline Ward defeated sophomores Paige Baldwin and Emily Carver of Minnetonka 6-0, 6-0. That victory came at No. 2 doubles.

Rochester Mayo opened the tournament with a 6-1 victory over Elk River. The Elks' only victory came at No. 1 singles when Mayo senior Erin Kappers, who was playing with mononucleosis, retired after three games.

The Spartans met Mounds View in the semi-finals and won 6-1. Rochester Mayo junior Emily Lewis and seventh-grader Delany Edwards both won their matches by a 6-0, 6-0 score. Lewis defeated eighth-grader Paige Thayer at No. 3 singles, and Edwards beat sophomore Maggie Morris at No. 4 singles.

The Skippers of Minnetonka earned a 5-2 victory over Mounds View in the third-place match. Three of the matches went to three sets, with the Skippers rebounding to win all of them.

The Elk River Elks claimed consolation honors for a second consecutive year after defeating Cretin-Derham Hall of St. Paul 4-3. Junior Cassandra Brown had the easiest victory of Elk River. She defeated junior Moira Caulfield 6-2, 6-0 at No. 2 singles.

In the individual competition, sophomore Aria Lambert of Minnetonka claimed her first Class AA singles title with a dominating 6-0, 6-1 win over junior Makenna Borg of Eden Prairie.

The win was an improvement for Lambert, who lost the 2007 singles championship match in a three hour, three-set thriller to Burnsville's Nilttooli Wilkins. This year, she controlled the pace of the match and played nearly flawless tennis. Her only error came when she lost her serve on the next-to-last game of the match. But she rebounded and clinched the victory after breaking Borg on four consecutive points.

Kelsey Frechette, a ninth-grader at Rochester Century, claimed third-place honors with a 6-1, 6-0 victory over ninth-grader Melanie Yates of Mounds View. Edina junior Adele Henke defeated Hastings senior Taylor Reniers for consolation honors. The score of that match was 6-3, 6-3.

Junior Emilie Renault and senior Annemarie Ryu of Rochester Mayo downed Edina senior Maria Bryan and ninth-grader Caroline Ward in straight sets, 6-2, 6-4, to claim the doubles championship. It was the second consecutive crown for Renault, who teamed with Erin Kappers a year ago.

Senior Suzann Nordquist and junior Jamie Hoffman of Bemidji claimed third-place honors in the doubles tournament. They beat seniors Jamie Golden and Taylor Heltne of Simley of Inver Grove Heights 6-1, 4-6, 7-5. In the consolation championship, senior twin sisters Caitlin and Chloe Cunagin of Edina defeated juniors Jory Kircher and Mary Ellen Donovan of Rochester Century 7-5, 4-6, 7-5.

The 2008 State Girls' Tennis Tournament was played October 22-25. All rounds of the Class AA tournament were conducted at the Baseline Tennis Center on the University of Minnesota campus in Minneapolis. The Class A tournament was held at the Reed-Sweatt Family Tennis Center in Minneapolis.

BOYS' TRACK & FIELD

St. Croix Lutheran, Buffalo race to first team titles; Two Class A records set

By Ellen Giloy-Rajkowski

The St. Croix Lutheran Crusaders (Class A) and the Buffalo Bison (Class AA) both won their first titles at this year's State Track & Field Meet. The Crusaders finished 11 points ahead of the runners-up from Brooklyn Center, and the Bison placed eight points ahead of the second-place team from Wayzata.

Two new Class A records were set in the preliminaries. Frazee senior Skyler Jackson and Jordan senior Cameron Boy raced to a record time of 10.81 in the 100-meter dash, but Jackson won when the time was broken down to 10.803. Boy came back later in the day and set the new standard in the 200-meter dash at 21.62.

Class A

St. Croix Lutheran of West St. Paul improved on its 2008 third-place showing and won its first title at the 2009 meet. The Crusaders had 45 points and the runners-up from Brooklyn Center had 34. The co-op of Lac qui Parle Valley of Madison and Dawson-Boyd placed third with 31 points.

The 4x100 relay team consisting of junior Tyler Koester and seniors Ben Gavin, Michael Roeller, and Aaron Hulsebus, gave the Crusaders their only first-place finish. It was also the third consecutive year the Crusaders won this relay, with Hulsebus and Koester competing on all three teams.

St. Croix Lutheran also placed teams in two additional relays. The 4x200 team made up of Hulsebus, Roeller, Gavin, and junior James Walker earned runner-up honors, and the 4x400 team placed sixth. That team consisted of Walker, Gavin, and juniors Jeffrey Dubose and Chet Lander.

In the individual events, Walker placed third in the high jump and Dubose finished fourth in the pole vault. Aaron Hulsebus earned the final points for St. Croix Lutheran with a fifth-place showing in the 100-meter dash.

Two individuals and one additional relay team were successful in defending their 2008 titles. The Panthers of Glencoe-Silver Lake claimed their third consecutive crown in the 4x200 relay with a time of 1:30.87. Senior Kyle O'Donnell competed all three years, with eighth-grader Ryan Kuester, junior Luke Alsleben, and senior Cole Lightfoot, completing this year's team.

Seniors Skyler Jackson of Frazee and Cameron Boy of Jordan also won their second gold medals. Jackson repeated as champion in the 100-meter dash with a time of 11.16 and Boy won his second title in the 200-meter dash with a time of 22.25.

Jackson and Boy also staged an epic battle in the preliminaries of the 100-meter dash. They both set a new Class A record of 10.81, but after going to thousandths of a second, Jackson edged Boy with his time of 10.803. Boy finished at 10.806. Jackson and Isaac Anderson of The Blake School of Minneapolis had shared the previous record of 10.94.

Boy bounced back, however, and set his own Class A record in the 200-meter dash with a time of 21.62. Adam Freed of Marshall School of Duluth set the previous record of 21.85 in 1996.

Two competitors won two titles apiece at the 2009 meet: senior Moses Hoepfner of Warroad won the 800- and 1600-meter runs, and senior Laquone Robinson of Brooklyn Center won the 110- and 300-meter hurdles.

Class AA

In Class AA, the Buffalo Bison won their first team title with 60 points. The Bison, who tied for sixth place last year, finished eight points ahead of the runners-up from Wayzata. The defending champions from Rosemount slipped to third place with 49 points.

Senior Zachary Mellon paced Buffalo in three events. He anchored the 4x400 relay team that took top honors and the 4x800 team that placed second. Sophomore Timothy Ernster and seniors Kaleb Stevens and Taylor Vick rounded out the 4x400 team, and senior Kevin Hayes, junior Nick Teetzel, and sophomore Joshua Wedemeier completed the 4x800 team.

The Bison also placed fourth in the 4x200 relay. That team was made up of Taylor Vick, Timothy Ernster, Kaleb Stevens, and sophomore Jerome Begin.

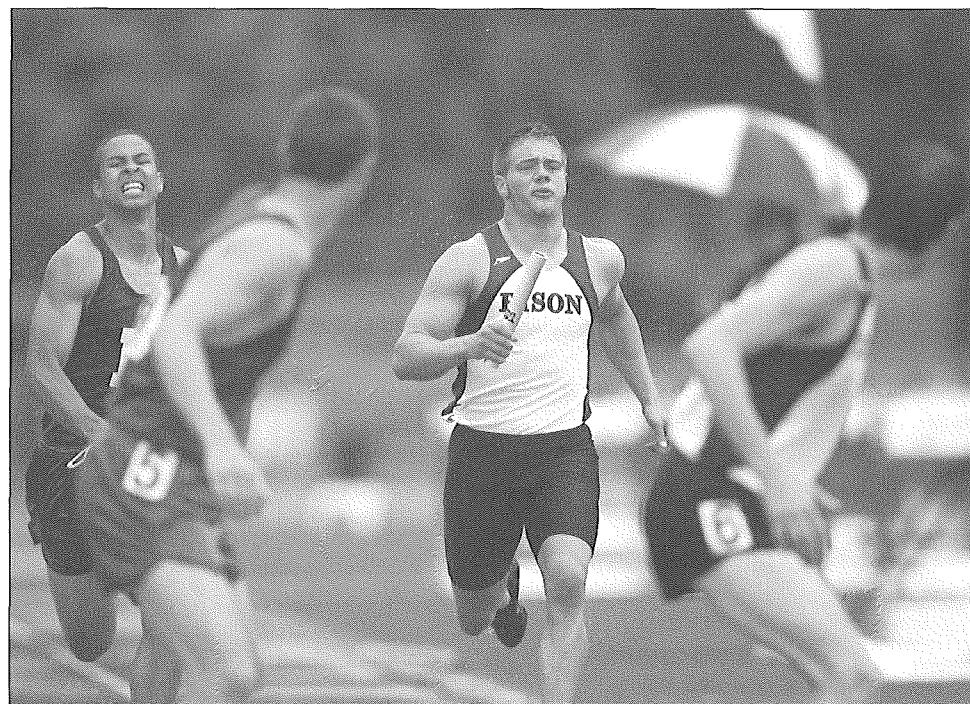

Mellon, who set a new Class AA and all-time record in the 800-meter run last year (1:49.69), placed second in that event this year. Fridley senior Harun Abda took top honors with a time of 1:52.23 to Mellon's 1:52.63.

Senior Keenen Stangl and Jerome Begin earned the remainder of Buffalo's points. Stangl won the 110-meter hurdles with a time of 14.73 and Begin placed second in the 300-meter hurdles.

Chaska senior Derek Jerde and Owatonna senior Casey Dehn were the only competitors to successfully defend their 2008 titles. Jerde won his second consecutive crown the high jump and Dehn repeated in both the shot put and the discus. Dehn was also the only competitor to win multiple titles this year.

No new records were set in Class AA this year.

The 2009 State Track and Field Meet was conducted on June 5-6 at Hamline University in St. Paul. Total paid attendance for the combined girls' and boys' event was 11,583.

Buffalo's Taylor Vick (center) prepares to hand the baton to Zachary Mellon during the Class AA 4x400 finals. The Bison won the race with a time of 3:21.76. They also won their first team title with 60 points.

GIRLS' TRACK & FIELD

Bagley/Fosston earns first Class A team title; Mounds View wins second in Class AA; Bagley/Fosston's Huschle sets all-time long jump record

By Ellen Giloy-Rajkowski

The co-op of Bagley/Fosston walked away with its first team crown in Class A, while Mounds View returned to the championship podium in Class AA. It was the second team title for the Mustangs, who won their first in 2006.

Analisa Huschle, a sophomore who competed for Bagley/Fosston, set the only all-time record at this year's meet. Her long jump distance of 19 feet and two and one-quarter inches bettered the previous record of 19 feet set by Charlene Butler of Bertha-Hewitt/Verndale in 1997. Huschle also set a new Class A record in the triple jump with a final distance of 38 feet and one inch.

Class A

Sophomore Analisa Huschle won three events and anchored a second-place relay team as the co-op of Bagley/Fosston won its first team title with 47 points. The victory was an improvement on last year's fourth-place showing.

Huschle won the 200-meter dash with a time of 26.19 and went on to set records in both the triple jump and the long jump. Her triple jump distance of 38 feet and one inch was good enough for a new Class A record, and her long jump distance of 19 feet and two and one-quarter inches set a new Class A and all-time record. Her triple jump title was also her second consecutive.

Charlene Butler of Bertha-Hewitt/Verndale set the previous long jump record of 19 feet in 1997, and Sarah Brockberg of Pipestone-Jasper set the previous record of 37 feet and nine and three-quarter inches in the same year.

Senior Mariah Berg, ninth-grader Kyli Day, and sophomore Lynsey Bardwell competed with Huschle on the 4x200 relay team that placed second to Providence Academy. Berg earned the final points for Bagley/Fosston with a ninth-place finish in the long jump.

The defending champions from Providence Academy claimed runner-up honors in the team scoring with 40 points. East Grand Forks placed third with 37 points.

In addition to Huschle, two other individuals and one relay team successfully defended their 2008 titles. Senior Ashley Tingelstad of East Grand Forks, who competed for Lake Park-Audubon last year, won her second consecutive title in both the 100-meter dash and the 400-meter dash. Her respective times were 12.88 and 57.48. Senior Melissa Varpness of Montevideo won her second crown in the 800-meter run with a time of 2:18.33.

Providence Academy, which is a co-op between Providence Academy of Plymouth and Heritage Christian Academy of Maple Grove, won its second consecutive championship in the 4x200 relay. Seniors Rebekah Dyrud, Sam Zopfi, and Leighton Lerum competed both years, with seventh-grader Carolina Bowe rounding out this year's squad.

Analisa Huschle and Ashley Tingelstad were the only competitors to win multiple titles at this year's meet, and Huschle was the only one to set new records.

Class AA

The Mounds View Mustangs won two relays and placed competitors or teams in five other events as they won their second Class AA crown with 48 points. They won their first title in 2006.

The Mustangs won their second consecutive title in the 4x200 relay and they also upset the defending champions from Hopkins to win the 4x400 relay. Senior Leah Hanson and sophomores Kelsey Bethke and Emily Toninato competed on both teams. Senior Anna Blaske rounded out the 4x200 team and senior Missy Shelendich completed the 4x400 team.

The Mounds View team of Shelendich, ninth-grader Beth Knopf, and seniors Taylor Warnes and Lindsey Hjelm earned runner-up honors in the 4x800 relay, and Leah Hanson, Emily Toninato, junior Kayla Sawtell, and ninth-grader Jenny Mullin, placed ninth in the 4x100 relay.

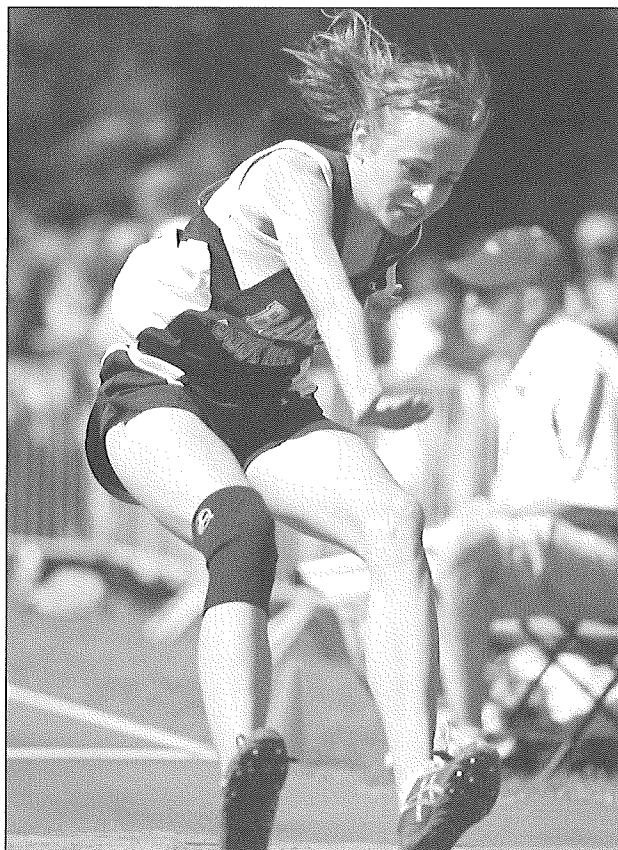

Sawtell also earned points for the Mustangs with her third-place showing in the 100-meter hurdles and her ninth-place showing in the 300-meter hurdles. Alex Stych, a sophomore, put the finishing touches on the Mounds View victory with her sixth-place finish in the pole vault.

The Hopkins Royals placed second in the team competition with 44 points and Robbinsdale Armstrong followed with 41 points. The defending champions from Eastview of Apple Valley finished in seventh place with 33 points.

Fergus Falls ninth-grader Haylie Zenner and Grand Rapids senior Jessica Cagle were both successful in defending their 2008 titles. Zenner claimed her second consecutive crown in the 800-meter run with a time of 2:15.33, and Cagle won her second consecutive gold medal in the discus with a distance of 157 feet and six inches. Last year, Cagle set a new all-time record in the discus with her throw of 162 feet and four inches.

Outside of the Mounds View relay teams, there were no more multiple winners at the 2009 meet and no new records were set.

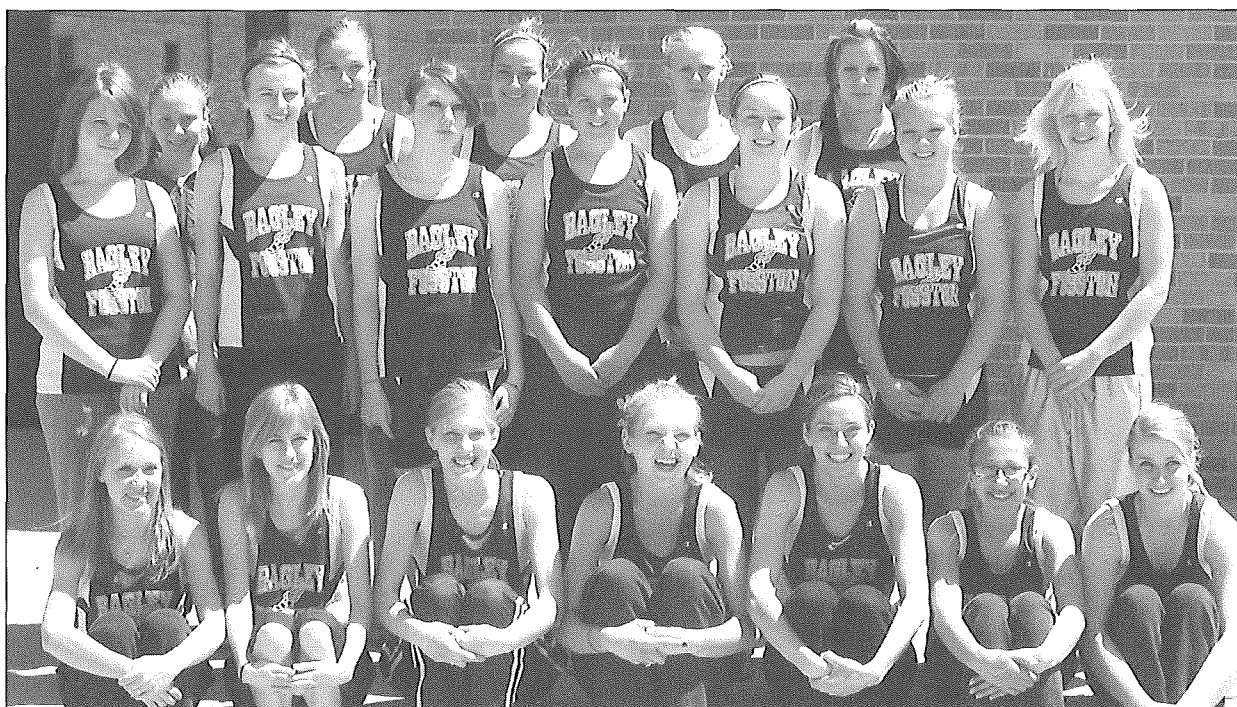

The 2009 State Track and Field Meet was conducted on June 5-6 at Hamline University in St. Paul. Total paid attendance for the combined girls' and boys' event was 11,583.

Analisa Huschle of Bagley/Fosston comes in for a landing during the Class A long jump competition. Huschle set a new Class A and all-time state meet record with her jump of 19 feet and two and one-quarter inches. Bagley/Fosston also claimed the team championship with 47 points.

VISUAL ARTS

Section festivals for Class A and Class AA schools are sponsored by the MSHSL. Each participating school may enter up to 18 total artworks in a combination of the six categories: Drawing, Painting, Mixed Media, Crafts, and Print Making. 2008-2009 was the eighth year of this program. Over 150 schools participated, with close to 1,000 artworks entered at the festivals.

Student's artwork is judged, based on established criteria, and the piece may earn either an Excellent or a Superior rating. Listed below are the students who earned a Superior rating. Also listed are those who received the Best at Site Award. Each judge was able to select one artwork to receive this award, which is part of the Spotlight on the Arts program sponsored by Wells Fargo.

"Fluid Freedom," a sculpture by Erika Schneider of Belle Plaine, received a "Best at Site" rating at the 2A Visual Arts Festival.

Windom Area claims first Class A championship; Jordan wins second Class AA crown; Shakopee makes it two titles in a row in Class AAA

By Ellen Giloy-Rajkowski

The Windom Area Eagles were the only team to claim their first title at 2008 State Volleyball Tournament. In a reversal of the 2007 championship match, the Eagles won the Class A crown after defeating Bethlehem Academy 3-1.

In Class AA, the Jordan Jaguars won their second title in three years after defeating the defending champions from Marshall 3-1. Shakopee took home its second consecutive Class AAA title after defeating the first-time qualifiers from Eastview of Apple Valley 3-1.

Class A

In a reversal of last year's championship match, the Eagles of Windom Area (34-3) defeated the Cardinals of Bethlehem Academy 3-1 (25-22, 25-20, 14-25, 25-23). Last year, Bethlehem Academy won 3-1 (25-17, 22-25, 25-19, 25-19). This was the first championship for Windom Area in its eighth appearance.

Bethlehem Academy (24-10), which includes students from Discovery Public School of Faribault, was making its seventh consecutive and overall appearance. In addition to last year, the Cardinals also won titles in 2003 and 2005.

Windom Area used its powerful serve to keep Bethlehem Academy off balance in the championship tilt. Sophomore Courtney Ysker opened the first game with two aces in a 5-0 Eagles run and she added four more in the second game. Ysker finished the game with eight aces and 14 kills.

Senior Megan Ysker, Courtney's older sister, added two aces and led Windom Area with 19 kills. She also led the Eagles with 29 digs, while senior Allison Nau added another 24.

Junior KariAnne Nass of Bethlehem Academy led her squad with 18 kills, two aces, and 33 digs. Junior Holly Hafemeyer tallied another 17 digs for the Cardinals.

On its way to the title match, Windom Area defeated Lake of the Woods of Baudette 3-0 (25-21, 25-17, 25-12) in the quarterfinals, and Belgrade-Brooklyn-Elrosa 3-2 (25-20, 23-25, 25-14, 16-25, 15-7) in the semifinals. Megan and Courtney Ysker made the difference in the Lake of the Woods match. Megan had 17 kills and 15 assists, and Courtney added eight kills and seven digs.

In the semifinals, it was Courtney's turn to shine. With the fifth game tied 1-1, she reeled off four consecutive service aces and gave Windom Area a lead it wouldn't relinquish. She also had a team-high 19 kills and a robust .432 kill percentage.

Bethlehem Academy started tournament play with a 3-0 (25-23, 25-19, 25-20) quarterfinal victory over the first-time qualifiers from Deer River. Holly Hafemeyer paced the Cardinals with 10 kills, and sophomore Jena Budde added 23 assists.

In the semifinals, Bethlehem Academy employed Hafemeyer's height as the Cardinals defeated Ada-Borup 3-2 (20-25, 25-21, 25-15, 20-25, 15-10). She had seven kills in the deciding game and compiled a .409 attack percentage. Hafemeyer finished the match with a team-high 34 kills and Budde added 62 assists.

The Ada-Borup Cougars claimed third-place honors after defeating Belgrade-Brooklyn-Elrosa 3-0 (25-20, 25-16, 25-19). Seniors Katy Ness and Corin Gunderson had 16 and 10 kills, respectively, for Ada-Borup. Ness also had a team-high 15 digs.

In their debut appearance, the Stars of Southwest Christian School of Chaska took consolation honors. They defeated Martin County West of Sherburn 3-2 (25-20, 25-12, 20-25, 20-25, 15-10). Senior Cassie Haag led the Stars with 31 kills and 28 digs.

Class AA

The Jordan Jaguars (28-2) returned to the championship podium after a one-year absence to claim their second Class AA crown. The Jaguars defeated the defending champions from Marshall 3-1 (26-24, 22-25, 25-17, 25-14).

Jordan was making its third tournament appearance and Marshall (27-7) was making its 20th. In addition to last year, the Tigers also won a championship in 2004.

The first game was a good indicator of how close the match would be: tied six times and featuring three lead changes, it finally went to

Jordan. Ninth-grade setter Emilee Gutzmer assisted on kills by seniors Michelle O'Malley and Leah Dietel to seal the outcome.

Gutzmer finished the match with 50 assists and senior Brittany Chambers finished with 33 kills and 20 digs. Dietel added 24 kills and 18 digs for the Jaguars, and O'Malley also had 20 digs.

Junior Rachel Westby and senior Hope Weilage each had 10 kills for Marshall. Senior Shay Birath had a team-high 19 digs for the Tigers.

Jordan made short work of Delano in the quarterfinals, winning 3-0 (25-14, 25-17, 25-21). Chambers, who made key plays on three consecutive points in the second game, led the Jaguars with 25 kills and 14 digs. Dietel added another 20 kills.

In the semifinals, Jordan defeated Hibbing 3-2 (25-21, 23-25, 25-18, 23-25, 15-12). The Jaguars looked poised to win after a convincing third game, but the Bluejackets took advantage of some miscues and won the fourth. The Jaguars rallied in the deciding game, taking a 12-6 lead and holding off a late Hibbing charge.

On the other side of the bracket, Marshall beat Concordia Academy of Roseville 3-0 (25-15, 25-11, 25-13) in the quarterfinals. The Tigers forced the Beacons into numerous errors and never allowed them to win more than two consecutive points. Junior Kayla Wallerich had 19 assists and 17 digs for Marshall and Rachel Westby tallied 13 kills.

Marshall moved on to the semifinals and met St. Cloud Cathedral in a rematch of the 2007 championship. The Tigers made it look easy this year and sent the Crusaders packing with a 3-0 (25-21, 25-21, 25-11) victory. Hope Weilage led Marshall with 10 kills and Rachel Westby added 21 digs.

The Hibbing Bluejackets improved on last year's sixth-place showing to claim third place this year. They defeated St. Cloud Cathedral 3-1 (19-25, 25-15, 25-20, 25-13). Junior Kate Lange had a team-high 17 kills for the Bluejackets, and senior Kelsey Wirtanen had 34 assists. Wirtanen also led Hibbing with 20 digs.

The Stewartville Tigers claimed consolation honors after defeating Delano 3-1 (25-23, 25-17, 23-25, 25-23). Junior Julie Rainey had a team-high 26 kills and 21 digs for the Tigers, and senior Emily Rainey added 37 assists.

Class AAA

In their second consecutive and overall appearance, the Shakopee Sabers (31-2) earned their second title after defeating Eastview of Apple Valley 3-1 (26-24, 19-25, 25-22, 25-22). The Lightning, who were making their debut tournament appearance, finished with a season record of 28-5.

The score was tied seven times early in the first game before Eastview rallied from a six-point deficit to tie the score at 22. Junior Ashley Wittman, who had 11 kills in the first game, helped seal the win for Shakopee. The Lightning controlled the second game and they wrapped up the six-point victory when a kill attempt by Wittman sailed wide.

Shakopee took an early lead in Game 3, but Eastview forced ties at 14, 15, 16, and 17, before the Sabers used a 4-0 run to secure the victory. In the final game, the score was tied at 22 before Shakopee pushed it to 24-22 after attack errors by senior Anna Olson and sophomore Ashley Murtha. The game-winning point came on a kill by junior Jean Theis.

Ashley Wittman had 32 kills for Shakopee, and junior Elizabeth Benusa added 11 more. Wittman also had a team-high 28 digs, while junior Mollie Geske added 20 digs.

Junior Lauren Grant and Ashley Murtha had 18 and 14 kills, respectively, for Eastview. Senior Stacy Kuhlmann led the Lightning with 18 digs.

Shakopee won both of its matches leading to the championship 3-0. In the quarterfinals, they beat Rochester Mayo 25-16, 25-5, 25-17, and in the semifinals, they defeated Andover 27-25, 25-22, 25-13. Ashley Wittman was explosive in the first game against Mayo, notching five kills as the Sabers finished with a 9-3 run. She had 20 kills in the game and also added a team-high 18 digs.

In the semifinals, Shakopee and Andover met in rematch of the 2007 championship. The Huskies had the Sabers on the run late in the first game, but a kill by Elizabeth Benusa made it

WRESTLING

Apple Valley, Simley earn additional hardware; Kerkhoven-Murdock-Sunburg wins first team title; St. Michael-Albertville's Thorn claims fourth title

By Ellen Giloy-Rajkowski

Simley of Inver Grove Heights and Apple Valley both successfully defended their 2008 titles at the 2009 State Wrestling Tournament. The Simley Spartans defeated Foley 34-21 to win their second consecutive Class AA title and their sixth overall. In Class AAA, the Apple Valley Eagles claimed their fourth consecutive championship and their 17th overall when they defeated Albert Lea Area for the second year in a row. The score of that match was 62-6.

Kerkhoven-Murdock-Sunburg emerged as the Class A champion. The Fighting Saints were making their first appearance at the tournament and won the title after defeating Kenyon-Wanamingo 32-25.

Two competitors joined the list of elite wrestlers in winning their third and fourth individual championships. David Thorn, a senior at St. Michael-Albertville became only the 11th wrestler in tournament history to claim a coveted fourth crown, and senior Kevin Steinhaus of Kerkhoven-Murdock-Sunburg earned a third individual title.

Elissa Reinsma, a sophomore who wrestled for the co-op of Fulda/Murray County Central, also made history when she became the first girl to qualify for the state tournament. She lost in the first round of the 103-pound division of the Class AA tournament to the eventual champion, sophomore Jacoby Bergeron of Thief River Falls/Goodridge. Reinsma then fell to junior Jordan Land of Cloquet/Esko in the consolation bracket.

Class A

In its first state tournament appearance, top-seeded Kerkhoven-Murdock-Sunburg (17-1) claimed the Class A title with a 32-25 win over Kenyon-Wanamingo (24-7). The runner-up showing was an improvement for the Knights of Kenyon-Wanamingo, who earned consolation honors in 2008. This year marked their second consecutive and overall appearance.

Kerkhoven-Murdock-Sunburg was down 19-0 in the championship tilt before winning eight consecutive matches to go ahead 32-19. The Fighting Saints had pulled within 19-14 when their "big three" came to the mats. Senior Kevin Steinhaus, who will wrestle for the University of Minnesota next year, put K-M-S ahead 20-19 when he recorded a fall at 160 pounds. Senior Mitchell Hagen followed with an overtime victory at 171 pounds, and junior Joel Bauman extended the lead to 29-19 with a pin at 189 pounds.

Junior Drew Lexvold and sophomore Luke Hainka recorded the only pins for Kenyon-Wanamingo. They wrestled at 125 and 285 pounds, respectively.

The Fighting Saints started their championship run with a 40-21 quarterfinal victory over Lake Crystal-Wellcome Memorial. The score went back and forth with the Knights up 21-15 after nine weight classes, but K-M-S reeled off wins in the final five weight classes to secure the win. Sophomore Klinton Van Heuveln (130 pounds), Kevin Steinhaus (160), senior Brad Kneisl (215), and senior Adam Wentzel (heavyweight), all forced falls for the Fighting Saints.

In the semifinals, Kerkhoven-Murdock-Sunburg defeated Medford 33-26. In a replay of the quarterfinals, the Tigers led 23-15 with five weight classes to go. And, then, Steinhaus (160), Mitchell Hagen (171), Joel Bauman (189), and Brad Kneisl (215) all came through with big victories for the Fighting Saints.

On the other side of the bracket, No. 2-seeded Kenyon-Wanamingo defeated Frazee 35-22 in the quarterfinals. The Knights jumped to a 25-0 lead over the first six classes and never looked back. Ninth-grader Mitchel Lexvold (103), Drew Lexvold (125), and Luke Hainka (heavyweight) all recorded pins for the Knights.

Kenyon-Wanamingo then defeated Atwater-Cosmos-Grove City 42-17 in the semifinals. The Knights opened their lead early and had pins from Drew Lexvold (130), senior Josh Jacobson (189), and Hainka (heavyweight).

Third-place honors went to the Medford Tigers after they defeated Atwater-Cosmos-Grove City 29-24. The Falcons led 24-23 after senior Deron Buboltz pinned Alex Schaeur at 189 pounds, but the Tigers countered with wins in the final two weight classes.

Frazee, which placed third in 2008, took consolation honors after defeating Lake Crystal-Wellcome Memorial 42-25. Four of Frazee's wrestlers had pins in the victory: ninth-grader Rij Koenen (130), sophomore Casey Nunn

David Thorn of St. Michael-Albertville (left) defeated Garret Garness of Kasson-Mantorville 11-3 at 125 pounds in Class AA. With the victory, Thorn became only the 11th wrestler in tournament history to win four individual titles.

(145), senior Cody Nunn (171), and sophomore Kody Laffreniere-Sorenson (189).

Kerkhoven-Murdock-Sunburg also proved to be a big winner in the individual tournament. The Fighting Saints had three winners in three consecutive weight classes: senior Kevin Steinhaus (47-0) at 160 pounds; senior Mitch Hagen (46-0) at 171 pounds; and junior Joel Bauman (42-2) at 189 pounds. With his victory, Steinhaus also because one a relatively small number of competitors to win three titles. He won at 145 pounds in 2007 and at 152 pounds in 2008.

Christian Skillings (42-1), a sophomore at Minneota, was the only other wrestler to successfully defend his 2008 title. He won at 112 pounds this year after taking top honors at 103 pounds last year.

In addition to Kerkhoven-Murdock-Sunburg's Steinhaus and Hagen, two other Class A wrestlers also won titles with perfect records. They were sophomore Hayden Zillmer (43-0) of Crosby-Ironton at 103 pounds and senior Jon Farnell (42-0) of Chatfield in the heavyweight class.

Class AA

The Spartans of Simley (33-3), who entered the tournament as the top-seeded team, claimed their second consecutive crown after defeating unseeded Foley 34-21. The win also gave the Spartans their sixth title in their 15th tournament appearance. In addition to the past two years, they also won championships in 1987, 1988, 1989, and 1992.

The Foley Falcons (31-3) were making their second consecutive appearance and their 16th overall. In 2008, they claimed consolation honors.

Simley won the first four weight classes in the championship match-up. Foley got on the board when senior Cory Foss defeated junior Tommy Glenn at 130 pounds, but the Spartans countered with consecutive wins at 135 and 140 pounds, respectively. From there, Simley ran the score to 34-9 before Foley got pins from senior Kris Olson at 215 pounds and senior Michael Siegler at heavyweight.

Eighth-grader Jake Short and junior Kurt Julson had the only two pins for Simley. They wrestled at 119 and 152 pounds, respectively.

In the quarterfinals, Simley defeated the Scott West Panthers 31-25. The Spartans led 28-25 heading into the heavyweight match and senior Charlie Gelhaye did not disappoint his Simley teammates. Gelhaye, who secured the 2008 team championship with his last-minute heroics, stepped on the mat and defeated Panther junior Travis Hentges 6-3 to secure the victory.

Simley advanced and defeated St. Michael-Albertville 31-15 in the semifinals. The Spartans won seven of the first nine weight classes and cruised to the easy victory. Eighth-grader Nick Wanzek had the only pin for Simley; he defeated sophomore Jake Lillie at 135 pounds.

Foley started its tournament trek with a 39-18 win over No. 2-seeded Perham. The Falcons won the first three weight classes and had pins from senior Dustin Gilyard (145 pounds) and junior Jordan Linn (189).

In the semifinals, Foley upset No. 3-seeded Plainview-Elgin-Millville 45-15. The Falcons tied the score at 9-9 when junior Mark Gehling pinned sophomore Dillan Schumacher at 130 pounds. From there, Foley won the next three matches and pushed its lead to 21-9. In addition to Gehling, junior Brandon Seppelt (140), senior Chris Olson (215), and senior Michael Siegler (heavyweight) also notched pins for the Foley.

The Bulldogs of Plainview-Elgin-Millville rebounded and claimed third-place honors after defeating St. Michael-Albertville 28-25. The teams were tied at 25 points apiece heading into the heavyweight match, but then Plainview-Elgin-Millville senior Cameron Miller won a 5-4 four-overtime decision over St. Michael-Albertville sophomore Parker Betts.

In the consolation bracket, Scott West made short work of Mora, winning 53-8. Scott West, which is a co-op between Belle Plaine, Jordan, and Holy Family Academy of Belle Plaine, led 19-8 after six matches and had pins from sophomore Jake Siegle (130), senior Tyler Kivel (152), senior Connor Fogarty (171), and senior Bruce Koepp (heavyweight).

David Thorn (44-2), a senior at St. Michael-Albertville, was the talk of the individual tournament. He became only the 11th wrestler in tournament history to win four titles after he defeated sophomore Garret Garness of Kasson-Mantorville at 125 pounds. Thorn began his record-setting ways in 2006; he won at 103 pounds that year and followed it with titles at 112 and 125 pounds in 2007 and 2008, respectively.

Junior Drew Fleming (40-3) of Watertown-Mayer/Mayer Lutheran was also successful in defending a 2008 title. He won at 112 pounds this year after claiming the crown at 103 pounds in 2008.

Two schools had multiple individual winners: the co-op of Thief River Falls/Goodridge and St.

Michael-Albertville. Junior Jordan Campa (38-7) claimed the second title for St. Michael-Albertville with his victory at 160 pounds, and the Prowler winners were sophomore Jacoby Bergeron (43-2) at 103 pounds, senior Kevin Fynboh (43-4) at 145 pounds, and senior Travis Peralta (43-4) at 171 pounds.

Senior Brady Schrupp (41-0) of Becker was the only Class AA individual to secure a title with an unblemished record. He defeated sophomore Steve Keogh of Thief River Falls/Goodridge at 140 pounds.

Class AAA

Apple Valley made its consistent and visible presence known once again at this year's tournament. The Eagles won their fourth consecutive and 17th team title and also had five individual champions. Apple Valley, which finished the season with a perfect record of 45-0, was making its 27th consecutive tournament appearance and its 28th overall. In addition to the past three years, the Eagles also won titles in 1983, 1985, 1986, 1991, 1994, 1995, 1997, 1999, 2000, 2001, 2002, 2003, and 2004.

The No. 2-seeded Tigers of Albert Lea Area (30-8) met top-seeded Apple Valley for a second consecutive year in the championship match-up. Last year, the Eagles won 57-6; this year, the final score was 62-6. Albert Lea Area, which includes students from Alden-Conger and Glenville-Emmons, was making its fourth consecutive appearance and its 10th overall.

In a championship match that took less than 80 minutes, Apple Valley won 13 out of 14 weight classes. The Eagles swept the first nine weight classes and had pins from sophomore Jordan Kingsley (103 pounds), senior Justin LaValle (130), sophomore Destin McCauley (135), senior Jarret Hoepfner (152), senior Tyler Lehmann (171), and sophomore Harold Delancy (heavyweight).

Senior Logan Kortan scored the only points for Albert Lea Area when he pinned sophomore Matthew Hechsel at 160 pounds.

Apple Valley started its title run by racing past Stillwater Area 62-18 in the quarterfinals. Twelve of the 14 matches were won by pins. The Eagles had nine and the Ponies had three.

In the semifinals, Apple Valley defeated the co-op of Bloomington Jefferson/Bloomington Kennedy 44-27. In a preview of one of the biggest draws of the individual tournament, Jefferson/Kennedy senior Robby Fisher defeated sophomore Destin McCauley 4-2 at 135 pounds.

Unfortunately, Fisher's points were the first for Bloomington Jefferson/Bloomington Kennedy and Apple Valley cruised to the victory on the strength of six pins.

Albert Lea Area defeated Centennial of Circle Pines 36-20 in the quarterfinals. Ninth-grader Trey Hable and sophomore Cory Hansen got the Tigers off to a 12-0 start with pins at 103 and 112 pounds, respectively.

The Tigers advanced and beat Cambridge-Isanti 30-21 in the semifinals behind nine consecutive victories between 112 and 160 pounds. Senior Cody Hansen had the only pin for the Tigers when he defeated sophomore Nate Schleif at 130 pounds.

The Eagles of Bloomington Jefferson/Bloomington Kennedy earned the third-place trophy with a 37-30 victory over Cambridge-Isanti. The score was 33-30 in favor of the Eagles heading into the final match, and junior Andrew Hermann clinched the victory with his heavyweight win over senior Jared Vincent.

Wayzata won the consolation title as it edged the first-time qualifiers from St. Cloud

Apollo 36-31. The Trojans had three pins in the victory as they zipped to a 33-15 lead after 10 weight classes. They came from eighth-grader Weston Droegemueller (119), junior Ben Dunlay (135), and senior Danny Zilverberg (152).

Apple Valley also dominated the individual tournament. The Eagles qualified nine wrestlers and five became champions. Perhaps the most watched wrestler for the Eagles was sophomore Destin McCauley (44-2). He was in pursuit of his fourth individual title, with a shot at becoming the first wrestler in tournament history to win six consecutive titles, before his quest was cut short by senior Robby Fisher (40-1) of Bloomington Jefferson/Bloomington Kennedy. Fisher, who had already beat McCauley once during the regular season and once during the team semifinals, continued the trend with a 10-5 decision in the 135-pound championship. The title was also the second consecutive for Fisher, who won at 125 pounds in 2008.

Apple Valley also had two repeat champions: senior Justin LaValle (46-0) at 130 pounds and junior Tyler Lehmann (46-0) at 171 pounds. Both won in the same weight classes in 2008.

The remaining champions for Apple Valley were: ninth-grader Dakota Trom (42-4) at 112 pounds, sophomore Matt Kelliher (44-2) at 119 pounds, and ninth-grader Brandon Kingsley (46-0) at 125 pounds.

Anoka was the only other school with multiple winners in the Class AAA individual tournament. Seniors Jake Begin (38-4) and Jake Kettler (28-1) won at 152 pounds and heavyweight, respectively.

In addition to Apple Valley's LaValle, Lehmann, and Kingsley, two other competitors also won titles with perfect records. Senior Danny Zilverberg (23-0) of Wayzata took top honors at 145 pounds and senior Tony Nelson (44-0) of Cambridge-Isanti won at 215 pounds.

The 2009 State Wrestling Tournament was conducted March 4-7 at the Xcel Energy Center in St. Paul. Paid attendance for the tournament was 54,215.

Robby Fisher of Bloomington Jefferson/Bloomington Kennedy (left) and Destin McCauley of Apple Valley (right) face off in the Class AAA 135-pound bout. Fisher spoiled McCauley's plans for a fourth straight title after defeating him 10-5. It was also the second consecutive crown for Fisher, who won at 125 pounds in 2008.
