ABOUT THE WMB

The 1980 Minnesota Legislature created the Waste Management Board (WMB) to encourage waste reduction, recycling and treatment as alternatives to the land disposal of solid, hazardous and industrial waste. Through technical assistance and grants, the WMB works in cooperation with local government, industry and citizens to develop landfill abatement programs and facilities that are environmentally sound and economically viable.

Other specific WMB goals include:

- Developing waste management policy consistent with the interest of its constituency and represent their interests at the state and national levels;
- Collecting, evaluating and disseminating information obtained from researching waste management topics; and
- Promoting ethical environmental behavior by informing and educating Minnesotans about waste management issues.

ABOUT THIS DIRECTORY

This directory is printed on recycled paper. The tabbed pages are French Paper Company's Speckletone. The body is Miami Paper Company's Halopaque. For more information on where to purchase recycled paper, contact the WMB.

INTRODUCTION

The Minnesota Markets for Recyclable Materials Directory is designed to establish a link between collection programs and markets around Minnesota. The WMB defines a market as any intermediate user (a broker or processor) or end-user (manufacturer) who purchases or accepts recyclable materials recovered by private or public recycling programs.

ORGANIZATION

This directory is divided into two parts. The first part lists markets for the specific recyclable materials. They are: batteries, construction, glass, hardware, household, metal, oil, paper, plastic, rendering, rubber, textiles, wood, and yard waste.

The second part lists Minnesota's 87 counties and the material markets located in each.

USE

Each listing provides the following information:

1. Market name, business address, phone number and contact person.
2. Recyclable materials purchased or accepted.

The companies listed have expressed interest in serving as a market. It's important to contact them before delivering recyclables to verify the following:

1. The type of material accepted.
2. The current market price.
3. Delivery specifications.
4. Transportation options.

UPDATES

This directory is an ongoing project and will continually be updated. The information was gathered from government agencies, markets and directory users.

If you have changes or additions please complete the update form on the next page.

BATTERY TRANSPORTER LIST

April 1988

The Minnesota Pollution Control Agency (MPCA) provides the following list of battery transporters. The information was voluntarily supplied by the companies and is not necessarily a complete list of available services.

The MPCA, by providing this list, does not represent that the companies are or are not in compliance with applicable laws, nor endorses specific recycling services. The MPCA cautions all generators that they are responsible for insuring that the battery recycling services they use, as well as all other hazardous waste management companies they use, comply with the requirements of state and federal law. Generators should personally evaluate the services and compliance status of all companies they use to manage hazardous waste.

TIRE TRANSPORTER LIST

June 1988

The Minnesota Waste Management Board (WMB) maintains this list of persons interested in waste tire transportation. At time of printing, no rules regulating waste tire transportation were effective. By August 21, 1988, all disposers using transporters must verify that the transporter has a transporter identification number which is currently being developed by and will be issued by the WMB.

The WMB does not endorse the listed transporters, nor is this necessarily a complete listing of available services.
