Scope and Methodology

This report shows the expenditures by local governments and their associations for lobbyists and lobbying. The report is prepared in accordance with Minn. Stat. § 6.76 (2009), which states:

(a) On or before January 31 of each year, all political subdivisions shall report to the state auditor, on forms prescribed by the auditor, their estimated expenditures paid for the previous calendar year to a lobbyist as defined in section 10A.01, subdivision 21, except payments to associations of political subdivisions that are reported under paragraph (b), and to any staff person not registered as a lobbyist, over 25 percent of whose time is spent during the legislative session on legislative matters.

(b) Associations of political subdivisions subject to this section shall report annually, on or before January 31, to the state auditor and the association's members the proportionate amount of each member's dues spent for lobbying purposes.

(c) For purposes of this section, "political subdivision" has the meaning given in section 6.465, but also includes a metropolitan or regional agency or a public corporation audited by the legislative auditor.

The Office of the State Auditor has collected and published data on the lobbying services costs of local governments since 1989. This report summarizes expenditures on local government lobbying services during the calendar year 2009¹ and is intended to inform the public and policymakers of the amount spent by their local government on lobbying services.

The reporting forms used to collect information on the expenditures by local governments and their associations for lobbyists and lobbying are presented as appendices in this report starting on page 201. The list of local government associations was developed by reviewing a list of all associations that were registered with the Campaign Finance and Public Disclosure Board. While the Office of the State Auditor attempted to identify all associations of local governments and provide them forms to fulfill their reporting requirement, it is the responsibility of the associations to comply with the reporting requirement. The expenditures on lobbying services are the amounts self-reported by local governments and local government associations.

¹While the law requires associations to report on a calendar year, certain associations continue to report on their own fiscal years.

Executive Summary

- Local governments spent a total of $8,879,610 on lobbying activities in 2009. This represents an increase of $329,592, or 3.9 percent, over the amount spent on lobbying services in 2008 (pg. 5).
- Seventy-eight local governments (14 more than in 2008) reported that they directly employed staff or hired contract lobbyists in 2009. These local governments spent a total of $4,429,214 on staff and contract lobbyists.² This was $519,113, or 13.3 percent, more than in 2008 (pg. 5).
- In addition to the $4.4 million paid directly to staff and contract lobbyists, local governments paid dues of $10,205,657 in 2009 to local government associations that also represented their interests before the legislature.³ These associations spent $4,450,396 on lobbyists and lobbying in 2009. This represents a decrease of 4.1 percent from 2008. Of the $4.5 million spent on lobbyists and lobbying by these associations, $4,376,419 was funded exclusively through dues. This represents an increase of 2.1 percent over the $4,287,411 in association dues that were spent on lobbying activities in 2008 (pgs. 5 and 9).

²These expenditures do not include dues and membership fees paid to local government associations.

³The local government associations identified in this report do not include various professional associations that lobby on behalf of specific professional occupations within local governments. For example, Education Minnesota is registered with the Campaign Finance and Public Disclosure Board. However, because the association does not directly represent school districts or school district management personnel, its lobbying expenditures are not included in this report.

Overview

The operation and funding of local governments can be greatly affected by decisions made by the state legislature. Therefore, it is understandable that those affected by these decisions would want to have representation during the legislative process. This report documents the level of expenditures made by local governments and their associations to perform this function.

According to reports filed with the Office of the State Auditor, local governments spent a total of $8,879,610 on lobbying activities in 2009. This represents an increase of $329,592, or 3.9 percent, over the amount spent on lobbying services in 2008.

Expenditures on local government lobbying increased 3.9 percent between 2008 and 2009.

Seventy-eight local governments (14 more than in 2008) reported that they directly employed staff or hired contract lobbyists in 2009. These local governments spent a total of $4,429,214 on staff and contract lobbyists.⁴ This was $519,113, or 13.3 percent, more than in 2008. Staff and contract lobbyists are paid to provide information to policymakers to influence legislative, administrative, or official actions regarding units of local government in Minnesota.

In addition to the $4.4 million paid directly to staff and contract lobbyists, local governments paid dues of $10,205,657 in 2009 to local government associations that also represented their interests before the legislature.⁵ These associations spent $4,450,396 on lobbyists and lobbying in 2009. This represents a decrease of 4.1 percent from 2008. Of the $4.5 million spent on lobbyists and lobbying by these associations, $4,376,419 was funded exclusively through dues. This represents an increase of 2.1 percent over the $4,287,411 in association dues that were spent on lobbying activities in 2008.

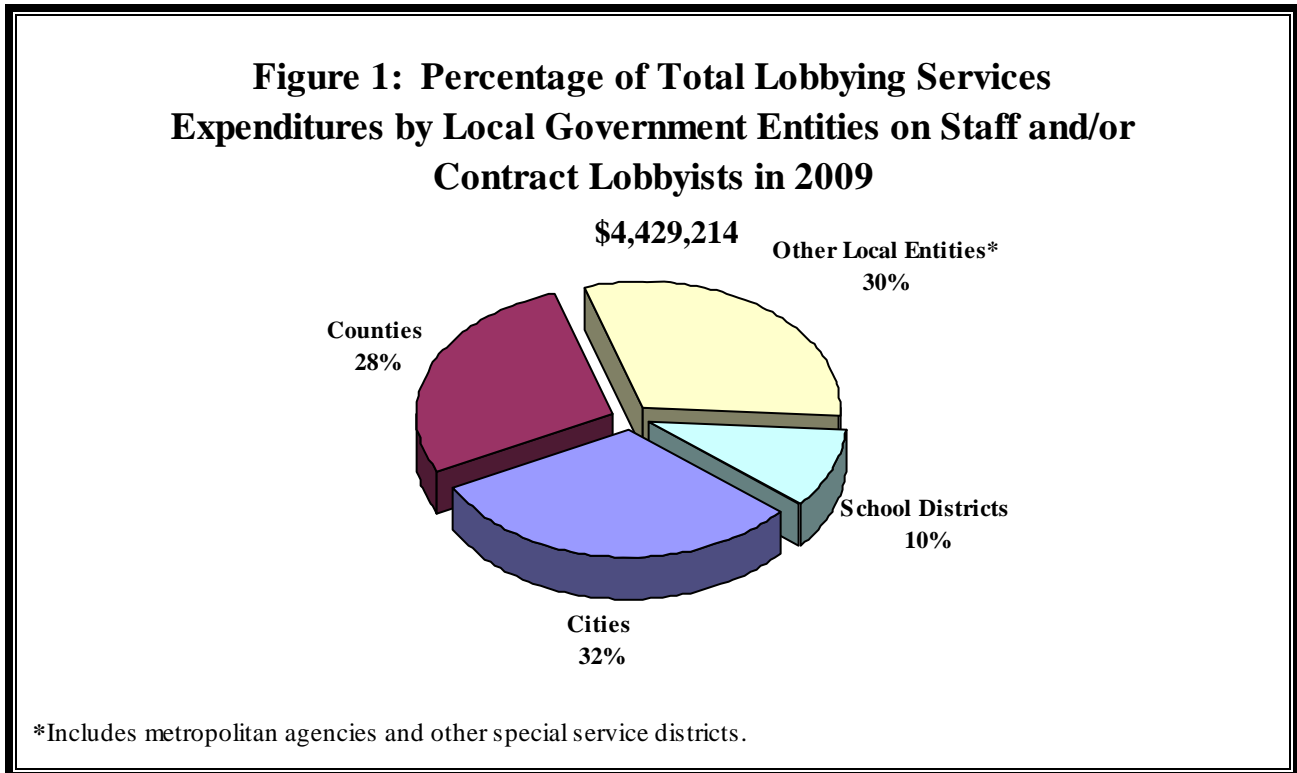

⁴These expenditures do not include dues and membership fees paid to local government associations.

⁵The local government associations identified in this report do not include various professional associations that lobby on behalf of specific professional occupations within local governments. For example, Education Minnesota is registered with the Campaign Finance and Public Disclosure Board. However, because the association does not directly represent school districts or school district management personnel, its lobbying expenditures are not included in this report.

Lobbying Services Expenditures by Local Governments

Staff and Contract Lobbyists

Seventy-eight local governments including, cities, counties, school districts, and special districts directly employed staff and/or contracted with professional lobbyists to represent their interests before the legislature. Table 4 on pages 15 - 22 shows the payments made to these employees and hired professional staff as well as other costs attributable to lobbying efforts. Figure 1 below shows 2009 total expenditures on staff and contract lobbyists by type of entity.

Of the 78 reporting entities that employed lobbying staff or hired contract lobbyists in 2009:

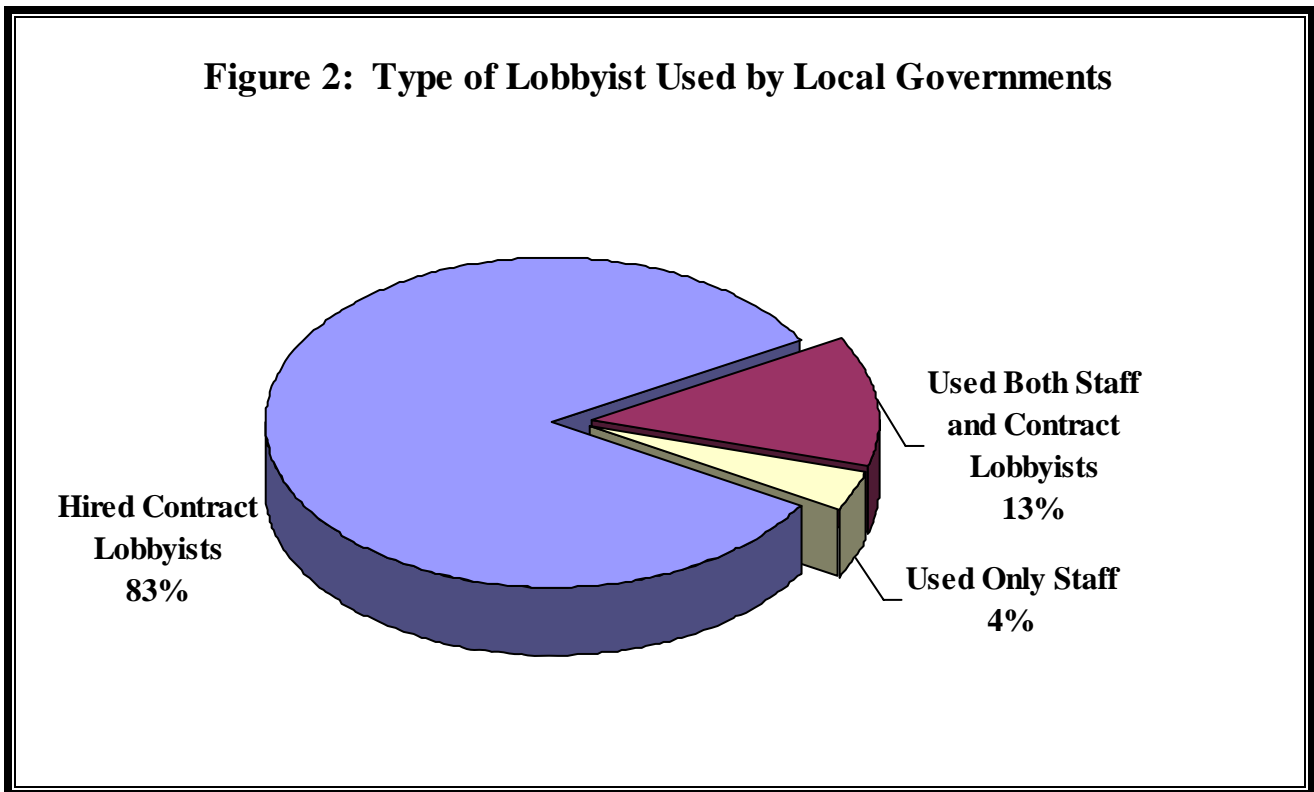

- Twenty-three cities and city component units reported a combined total of $1,393,536 in lobbying services expenditures. This compares to 24 cities and $1,444,693 in 2008.
- Sixteen counties and county component units reported a combined total of $1,223,789 in lobbying services expenditures. This compares to 17 counties and $1,327,394 in 2008.
- Twelve education entities reported a combined total of $461,297 in lobbying services expenditures. This compares to eight entities and $402,153 in 2008.
- Twenty-seven metropolitan agencies and other special districts reported a combined total of $1,350,592 in lobbying services expenditures. This compares to 15 agencies/special districts and $735,861 in 2008.

Reliance on Contract Lobbyists

Local governments more frequently use contract lobbyists than utilize their own staff to provide lobbying services. Contract lobbyists accounted for $2,995,911, or 67.6 percent, of the total amount spent by those governments using contract or staff lobbyists. Local governments spent $1,333,495 on staff lobbyists to represent their interests before the legislature and other governmental bodies. In addition, local governments reported an additional $99,808 in overhead costs related to lobbying services in 2009.

During 2009:

- 3 local governments relied entirely on their staff to represent them at the legislature, which is the same as 2008;
- 65 local governments relied entirely on contract lobbyists to represent their interests, which is up from 52 in 2008; and
- 10 local governments hired contract lobbyists and used their own staff for lobbying, which is up from 9 in 2008.

Highest Expenditures on Staff and Contract Lobbyists

Thirteen of the 78 local governments that directly employed lobbying staff or hired contract lobbyists reported over $100,000 in lobbying services expenditures for a total of $2,592,197. These 13 local governments accounted for 59 percent of the total amount paid to contract and staff lobbyists in 2009 (see Table 1 on the following page).

Trends in Expenditures for Staff and Contract Lobbyists

The number of entities that reported expenditures on contract and staff lobbyists increased from 64 in 2008 to 78 in 2009. There were 13 entities that reported lobbying expenditures in 2008 that reported no lobbying expenditures in the 2009 reporting period. There were 27 entities that reported lobbying expenditures in 2009 that reported no lobbying expenditures in the 2008 reporting period. The change in the composition of the local governments reporting lobbying expenditures in 2009, and higher lobbying expenditures by those that previously reported, accounts for the overall increase in lobbying expenditures between 2008 and 2009. Figure 3 below shows the long-term trend of expenditures on staff and contract lobbyists for the years 2005 to 2009.

Lobbying Services Expenditures by Associations

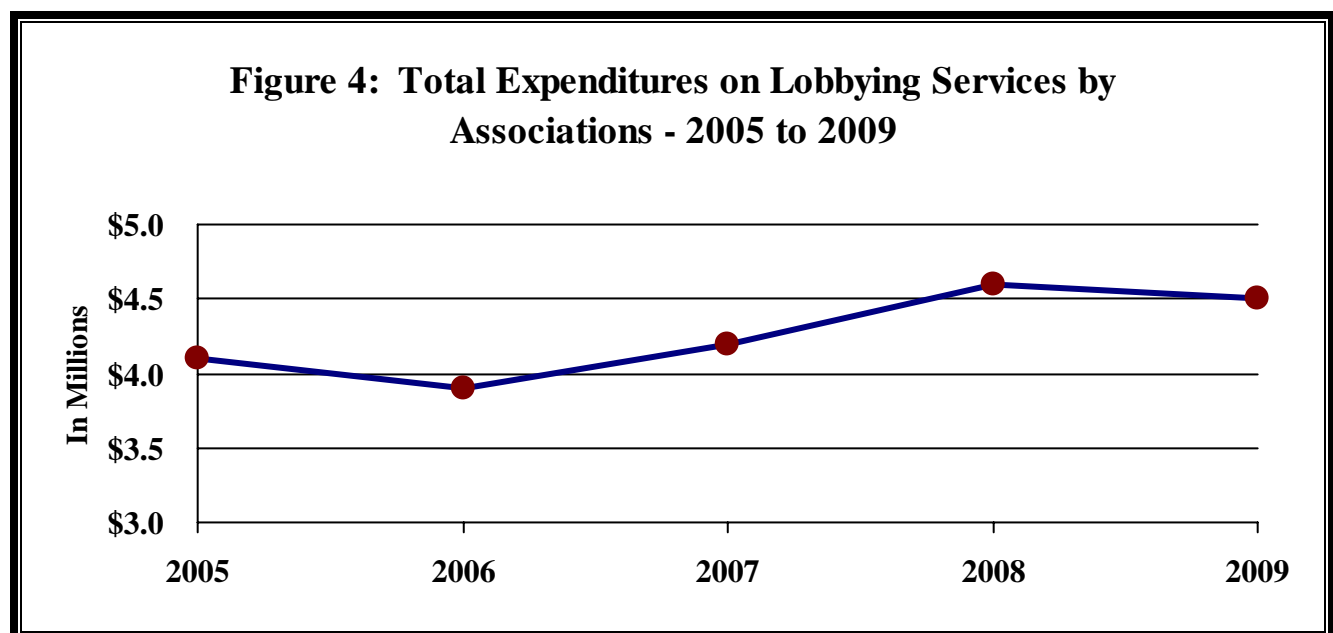

While 78 local governments opted to hire lobbyists or use staff to lobby on their behalf, it is much more common for them to rely on various local government associations to represent their interests at the legislature. These local government associations receive the majority of their funding from membership dues and other public funds. Some associations representing local governments not only lobby on behalf of their members, but also act as service associations. Groups such as the League of Minnesota Cities and the Association of Minnesota Counties provide a wide range of services to their members. For these associations, lobbying services account for a smaller share of their overall expenditures as compared to associations whose primary purpose is lobbying.

Other associations are formed for the explicit purpose of lobbying the legislature on a specific issue or range of issues for which the members share a common interest. Most of these associations hire a lobbyist or a lobbying firm to influence legislative, administrative, or other official actions at the state, regional, or metropolitan level of government. The dues paid by members of these associations generally represent a percentage of the total amount paid to a contract lobbyist.

Trends in Lobbying Services Expenditures Made by Associations

Twenty-six associations representing local governments reported expenditures on lobbying services totaling $4,450,396 for 2009. Of the $4.5 million spent on lobbyists and lobbying, $4,376,419, or 98.3 percent, was funded through the dues of the association members. Total expenditures for lobbying/lobbyists by associations decreased $189,521, or 4.1 percent, from the level expended in 2008.

Figure 4 shows total expenditures on lobbying services by associations from 2005 to 2009. There has been a general upward trend in lobbying expenditures during this period. Some of this increase can be attributable to efforts by the Office of the State Auditor, local governments, and associations to better define what constitutes lobbying services and the amount spent on these services.

Association Lobbying by Type of Entity

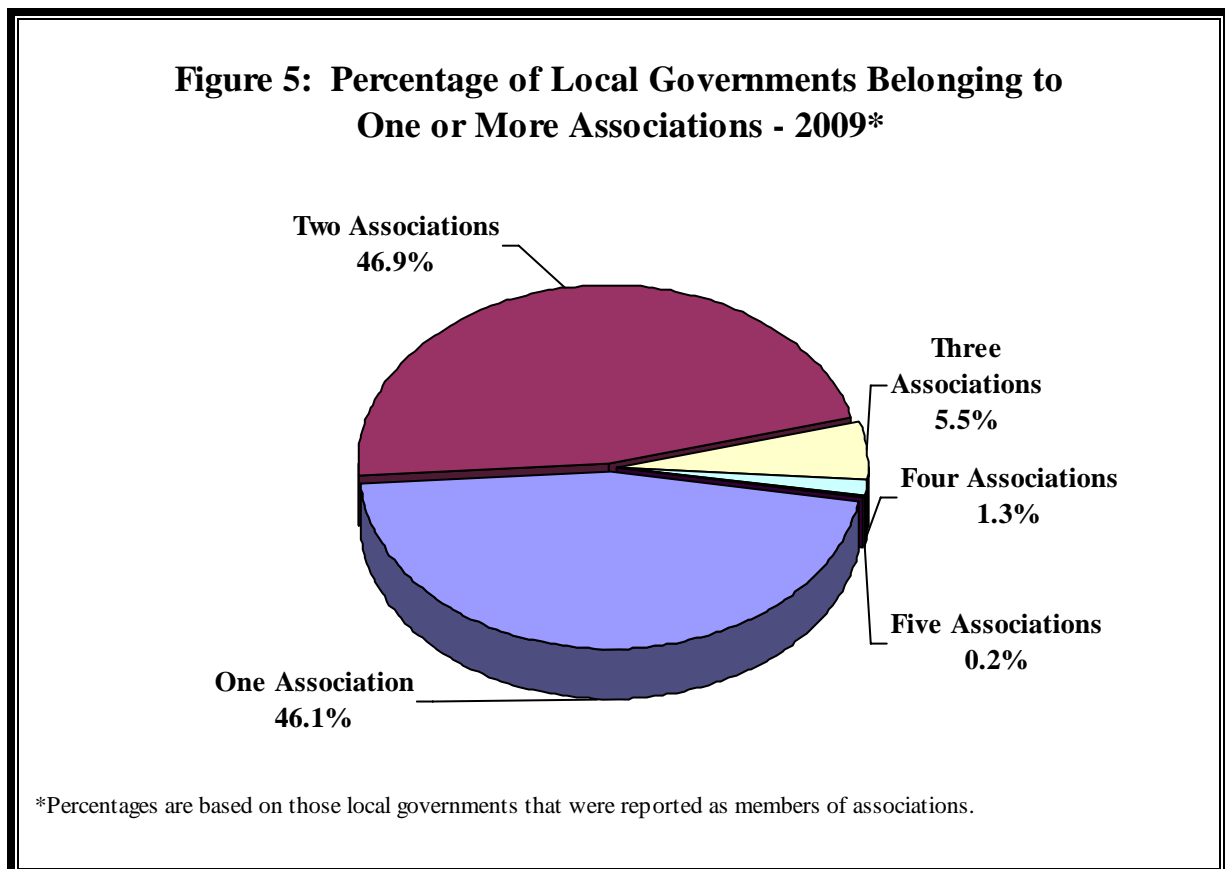

The associations reporting lobbying expenditures included:

- seven associations that represented the interests of cities;
- three associations that represented the interests of counties;
- five associations that represented the interests of school districts;
- one association that represented the interests of townships;
- four associations that represented special district interests; and
- six associations that represented more than one type of local government.

Multiple Association Memberships

While it is common for local governments to belong to at least one association, some local units belong to several. Of the 1,483 local units of government that belonged to at least one association, there were 104 local units of government that paid dues to three or more associations.

Associations With the Highest Expenditures on Lobbying Services

Among the 26 local government associations that lobbied the legislature on behalf of their local government members, 12 associations reported expenditures on lobbying/lobbyists in excess of $100,000 in 2009 (see Table 2 below).

Coalition of Greater Minnesota Cities	$752,853	Schools for Equity in Education	$208,365
League of Minnesota Cities	$624,452	North Metro Mayors Association	$204,519

Figure 6 shows the five-year trend in lobbying expenditures by the five associations with the highest lobbying expenditures in 2009.

Compensation Paid to Firms or Staff for Lobbying Services

In 2009, Minnesota local governments or associations of local governments paid 12 firms $100,000 or more to provide lobbying services.⁶ The 12 firms receiving $100,000 or more in payments from local governments or associations of local governments are listed below in Table 3.

Contract Lobbyists

A contract lobbyist is any individual or firm, excluding employees of the local government, that meets the definition of a lobbyist as defined in Minnesota Statutes § 10A.01, subdivision 11. (Please refer to the reporting requirement document for the full definition).

Identify all contract lobbyists retained by your local government, and indicate the total amount paid to that individual or firm for lobbying the legislature and/or state administrative agencies, including the amount paid for expenses of that individual or firm.

Expenditures for contract lobbyists do NOT include dues paid to local government associations. These associations report membership and lobbying expenditures directly to the Office of the State Auditor. Examples of these associations include the League of Minnesota Cities and the Minnesota School Boards Association.

Employees of the Local Government

Identify all employees of the local government who spend at least 25 percent of their time during the legislative session on legislative matters. For each employee listed, provide the annual salary, cost of benefits (health, dental, employer-paid life insurance and retirement benefits - including employer-paid FICA) and expense reimbursements. In addition, estimate the percent of the employee's annual time that is spent lobbying the state legislature and/or state administrative agencies.

When estimating the percent of time spent on lobbying, include time spent preparing for the legislative session, addressing legislative-related issues with local officials, legislators, state agency staff, other local government representatives, local citizens, and other interested organizations. Include time spent monitoring legislative hearings. Be sure to include in the estimate, the time spent working with state administrative agencies on the development and implementation of administrative rules for programs and policies that affect local governments. Also, estimate the amount of employee expense reimbursements that are related to lobbying the legislature and/or state agencies.

Example for calculating the percentage of employee time spent on lobbying efforts

The 2008 legislative session ran from February 12 through May 18, 2008. An employee may have spent 100 percent of his or her time on legislative matters from February through May. This accounts for 33.3% of their time during the year (100% of 4/12 months). Fifty percent of their time may have been spent on legislative matters for the other eight months. This accounts for 33.3% of their time (50% of 8/12 months). The annual percentage of this employee's time is 66.6% (.333+.333) and is reported in column C of the reporting form.

Expenses related to lobbying

Expenses related to lobbying include reimbursements to the employee for items such as travel, food, and the cost of materials.
