ABUSED CHILDREN ADVISORY COUNCIL - LAW OF 1994, CHAPTER 552. MN DEPT. OF CHILDREN, FAMILIES & LEARNING, 1500 W. HWY. 36, ROSEVILLE, MN 55113-4266. (651) 582-8508.

Appointing Authority: Commissioner of Children, Families & Learning. Compensation: Reimbursement of expenses. The council advises the Commissioner of Children, Families and Learning on all matters related to the department's funding of abused children programs in Minnesota, other than purely administrative matters. The council advises on grant-related planning, development, data collection, rule making, funding and evaluation of programs. The council shall serve as a liaison between the Commissioner of Children, Families and Learning and organizations that provide services to abused children, and serves as an advocate within the Department of Children, Families and Learning for the rights of abused children. The twelve members of this council need to be knowledgeable about or have interest in issues concerning abused children and the programs that serve them, including the need for effective advocacy services. Six positions will be reserved for persons who are not service providers in community or governmental organizations (persons not affiliated with grantee programs) that provide services to abused children. Six members of the council shall be residents of the seven county metro area and six members shall be residents of greater Minnesota. Membership must include one member from the Department of Human Services Child Protection Unit. The Department of Children, Families, and Learning seeks to ensure that the advisory council membership reflects diversity with respect to race, age, sexual orientation and disability. The terms of members shall be for two years. No member may serve on the advisory council for more than two consecutive terms. Meetings are held monthly for three hours at the Department of Children, Families and Learning. The council expires June 30, 2001.

BATTERED WOMEN'S ADVISORY COUNCIL - MINNESOTA STATUTES 611A.34. MN CENTER FOR CRIME VICTIM SERVICES, 245 E. 6TH ST., #705, ST. PAUL, MN 55108-5219. (651) 642-0200.

Appointing Authority: Executive Director of the MN Center for Crime Victim Services. Compensation: Reimbursed for expenses only. In FY 99, the battered women's advisory council advised the executive director of the MN Center for Crime Victim Services (February-June) on all matters relating to the funding of battered women's programs in Minnesota, other than purely administrative matters. The council advises on planning, development, data collection, rulemaking, funding and evaluation of programs. The council conducts business at monthly meetings and by sub-committee processes, with staff support provided by the department, and works closely with the Battered Women's Program Director. The council consists of twelve members who should be knowledgeable about and have experience or interest in issues concerning battered women and their children, including the need for effective advocacy services. Six positions are reserved for persons who are not service providers in community or governmental organizations (persons not affiliated with grantee programs). Six positions are to be filled by residents of the seven county metro area and six positions by residents of greater Minnesota. The department seeks to ensure that the council includes battered women, that at least six members are from communities of color in Minnesota, and that council membership reflects diversity with respect to age, disability, and sexual orientation. The council has monthly meetings for four hours at the MN Center for Crime Victim Services. No expiration date.

GENERAL CRIME VICTIMS ADVISORY COUNCIL - MINNESOTA STATUTE 611A.361. MN CTR. FOR CRIME VICTIM SERV., LOWERTOWN BUS. CTR., 245 EAST 6TH. ST. #705, ST. PAUL, MN 55101. (651) 282-6256.

Appointing Authority: Executive Director. Compensation: Reimbursed for expenses only. The advisory council advises the Executive Director on all matters related to the agency's funding and policy development of general crime victim programs in Minnesota, other than purely administrative matters. The council advises on planning, development, data collection, rule-making, funding and evaluation of programs. The council conducts business at monthly meetings and by sub-committee processes, with staff support provided by the agency, and works closely with the General Crime Program Director. The council consists of twelve members. Members should be knowledgeable about and with experience or interest in issues concerning general crime victims, including the need for effective advocacy services. Six positions are to be filled by residents of the seven county metro area, and six positions by residents of greater Minnesota. The agency seeks to insure that the council includes victims of crime, representation from communities of color and that council membership reflects diversity with respect to age, disability, and sexual orientation. Meetings are scheduled monthly for five hours at the Department of Corrections Central Office. The council does not expire.

Appointing Authority: Governor. Compensation: $55 per diem, plus expenses. The council replaces the Governor's Job Training Council and assumes all of its requirements, duties and responsibilities. Additionally, the council shall coordinate the development, implementation, and evaluation of the statewide education and employment transitions system and Minnesota youth services programs; review the provision of services and the use of funds and resources under applicable federal human resource programs and advise the governor on methods of coordinating the provision of services and the use of funds resources consistent with the laws and regulations governing the programs; review federal, state, and local education, post-secondary, job skills training, and youth employment programs and make recommendations to the governor and the legislature for establishing an integrated seamless system for providing education, service-learning, and work skills development services to learners and workers of all ages; advise the governor on the development service to learners and workers of all ages; advise the governor on the development and implementation of statewide and local performance standards and measures relating to federal human resource programs; and administer grants. The council consists of 32 members including the commissioners of Economic Security; Children, Families and Learning; Human Services; Trade and Economic Development; six members representing business and industry; six members representing labor organizations; four members representing community-based organizations; five members representing education as follows: one representing local public secondary education, one having expertise in design and implementation of school-based service-learning, one representing post-secondary, one representing post-secondary vocational institutions and the chancellor of the MNSCU; and two members representing other constituencies including units of local government and applicable state or local programs. The other four members will be appointed by the House of Representatives and the Senate. During FY '99 the council met on a bi-monthly basis (fourth Friday of the month). For the early part of FY '99 the council held meetings on the fourth Friday of the "odd-numbered" months, but due to a "special" Council meeting held in February 1999 the meeting schedule was revised somewhat and meetings were held on the fourth Friday of the "even-numbered" months during the latter part of FY '99. The council's three committees held meetings during the months that the Council did not hold meetings.. Council meetings are held at various hotels in metropolitan area. The council has no expiration date.

METROPOLITAN COUNCIL - LAWS OF 1994, CHAPTER 648. MEARS PARK CENTRE, 230 E. 5TH. ST., ST. PAUL, MN 55101. (651) 602-1000.

Appointing Authority: Governor. Compensation: $20,000 Annual Salary. The Metropolitan Council coordinates planning and development in the seven county metropolitan area and directly operates several regional services. The council's work includes long-range planning for airports, highways, parks, sewers, housing, economic development and land use policy development. Passage of the 1994 Metropolitan Reorganization Act merged the Metropolitan Waste Control Commission, the Metropolitan Transit Commission, and the Regional Transit Board into the Metropolitan Council. This has resulted in the addition of responsibilities for operating transit and wastewater treatment services, as well as providing affordable technical assistance to local governments. The seventeen members include a chair who serves at-large and sixteen members who each represent a geographically defined council district. All members serve at the pleasure of the Governor. Members cannot hold elected public office and must reside within the council district they represent. The council is organized by committees, which make recommendations to the full board. The five standing committees are Regional Growth Policy, Environment, Transportation, Livable Communities, and Management. Council members each serve on at least two committees, attend semi-monthly council meetings and meet regularly with local government officials and members of the Minnesota Legislature.

Beginning January 1, 1995, compensation for the council chair will be $52,500. Council members will be paid a fixed salary of $20,000 as opposed to the previous per-diem payment schedule. Council meetings are held the 2nd and 4th Wednesdays except in December (1st and 3rd Wednesdays) and on holidays at Mears Park Centre unless otherwise notified. The council does not expire.

MN SENTENCING GUIDELINES COMMISSION - MINNESOTA STATUTES 244.09. UNIVERSITY NATIONAL BK. BLDG., 200 UNIVERSITY AVE. W., #205, ST. PAUL, MN 55103. (651) 296-0144.

Appointing Authority: Governor and Chief Justice of the Supreme Court. Compensation: $50 per diem (for citizen members) plus expenses. The legislature established the Sentencing Guidelines Commission for the purpose of developing and maintaining rational and consistent sentencing standards which reduce sentencing disparity, increase proportionality in sanctions, and ensure more equitable and uniform sentencing for convicted felons. The following are the specifically stated goals of the sentencing guidelines system. 1) To promote public safety by recommending the harshest sanctions for violent offenders who pose the greatest danger to public safety and coordinating sentencing practices with correctional resources to assure that prison resources are available for these violent offenders. 2) To promote uniformity in sentencing so that offenders who are convicted of similar types of crimes and have similar types of criminal records are similarly sentenced. 3) To establish proportionality in sentencing by recommending the most severe sanctions for those offenders who are convicted of serious violent offenses even with no criminal record, those who have repeat violent criminal records, and those who have more extensive nonviolent criminal records. 4) To provide truth and certainty in sentencing by having the judge pronounce a fixed sentence that requires the offender to serve at least two thirds of the pronounced time as opposed to an indeterminate and symbolic sentence of zero to the statutory maximum sentence and a parole board that ultimately decides when to release an offender. 5) To coordinate sentencing practices with correctional resources by informing the legislature of the impact of the existing sentencing policy on correctional resources and the impact of any proposed changes to the sentencing system. To achieve the mission and goals stated above, the agency and commission evaluate sentencing policy and practices, modifies sentencing policy; determines the impact of policy on correctional resources; and provides training, implementation, and information services to the criminal justice community and the public. The criminal justice system is extremely dynamic and the commission must consider whether to make changes to the sentencing guidelines in order to continue to fulfill its mission. The commission presents recommendations to the legislature each year for changes to the sentencing guidelines. The eleven members include one judge of the Court of Appeals and one district court judge to be appointed by the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court; one public defender; one county attorney; one peace officer; one probation officer; three public members, one of whom must be a victim of a crime defined as a felony; and the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court and the Commissioner of Corrections or their designees. The term of any member appointed or reappointed by the Governor after the first Monday in January 1991 is coterminous with the Governor. No set meeting schedule, but the meetings are usually the third Thursday of each month for three hours. No set meeting location, however, the meetings have been routinely held at the Dept. of Corrections, central office. The commission does not expire.

The report contains information about vacancies and appointments by county, congressional district, legislative district, gender, political party, and race/national origin. Information about current membership is provided by congressional district, gender, political party, and race/national origin. Statistical information is also included about appointments and current membership appointed by the governor's office and members appointed by all other appointing authorities as a whole.

A total of 206 state agencies (including state boards, commissions, councils, committees and task forces) were administered under Open Appointments, with a total of 1979 members as of June 30, 1999. This total includes only those members appointed through the Open Appointments process.

In all, 1630 applications for service on state agencies were submitted and 380 individuals were appointed to fill vacancies or newly created positions during this period. Included in these totals are appointments that occurred in agencies under the Open Appointments Act, as well as some agencies who voluntarily participated in the Open Appointments process.
